

16- 127
8

The Alumni News Letter

February, 1930

The Morningside Club Number

THE Alumni News Letter

Morningside College Bulletin

New Series No. 154

February 1, 1930

Published semimonthly from January to June inclusive, and monthly from July to December inclusive, by Morningside College. Entered February 13, 1911, at Sioux City, Iowa, as second-class matter, under the act of congress, August 24, 1912.

Editor _____ Lee R. Strain
Sioux City, Iowa

OFFICERS OF ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

President

Dr. R. H. McBride

Vice President

Mrs. Florence Phelps

Treasurer

Ira Gwinn

Secretary

W. C. Wolle

Executive Committee

Miss Mirah Mills, '08

Leslie Kingsbury, '13

Ben Riner, '16

Clifford A. Harper, '12

Miss Flora Quirin, '28

Mrs. Harry Chandler, '12

Remember

Your Dues

—o—

Name _____

Address _____

Occupation _____

—o—

Remember

Your Dues

SEND YOUR ADDRESS FOR THE 1930 ALUMNI DIRECTORY

Fill Out the Blank Below

Alumnus ()

Ex-Student () Name _____

Street _____

City and State _____

Occupation _____

To what class do you belong _____

Married? _____ To Whom? _____

Maiden name, if a woman _____

Children _____

Graduate work and degrees _____

Remarks _____

(Please do not forget to send the one dollar).

Morningside Alumni Clubs

Six New Clubs Organized In Iowa

Algona Club

A meeting of Morningside Alumni and ex-students of Algona, Iowa, and its surrounding territory was held in the M. E. Church at Algona on Monday evening, February third. A very fine two-course dinner was served by the Women's Foreign Missionary Society.

Following a brief social hour a business meeting was held with the Reverend W. H. Lease as chairman. Several talks were given by members of the company with the result that a proposed organization of Algona alumni and ex-students was perfected, Mrs. W. H. Lease being elected president of the group and Bertha Godfrey secretary. An executive committee was chosen which includes: Edith Budlong, Titonka; Mrs. Elmer Rankin, Crystal Lake; Harry White, Klemme; Lulu Hawcote, Burt; Margaret MacIntosh, Livermore; Mrs. Sunderland, Emmetsburg; Earl Josten, Estherville; Iris Anderson, Clear Lake; Ione Lease, Algona; Ruth Kent, Rowen; Ora Hymer, Ruthven; Mary Kees, Laurens; and C. J. Mekkelson, Plover.

Out of town attendants at this meeting were Dr. Frank E. Mossman, Dean Lillian E. Dimmitt, Dean Myron E. Graber, A. B. Gehring, Dr. J. J. Bushnell, and Lee R. Stram from Sioux City, Iowa; the Reverend Mr. Clifton of Burt, Iowa; and Mr. and Mrs. Harry White of Klemme, Iowa.

Another meeting is planned for sometime early in the spring, when an effort will be made to bring in all of the former students and alumni of Morningside College for a dinner.

The Des Moines Club

A meeting of the Des Moines Morningside Club was held on January 30, when President Mossman and Dr. J. J. Bushnell were visitors in Des Moines. This club has an annual meeting and usually a picnic during the summer which is attended by a large group.

Bertha Lamereaux, '25, is president of the Morningside Club in Des Moines and has been instrumental in working up a fine group there.

Members of the Des Moines Morningside Club and their addresses are as follows:

Mrs. Byron Boyd, 3007 Grand Avenue; Margaret Ferguson, 4015 University Avenue; Paul Freeburn, 2832 Battleboro; Mrs. C. C. Jones, 916 California Avenue; Orlie Pritchard, East High School; G. A. Tumbleson, 1516 West Tenth Street; Letta Tumbleson, 1516 West Tenth Street; William Sanders, 613 Bankers Trust Company; Judge Henry Sawyer, 1962 Twenty-first Street; Dr. Herbert Saylor, 208 Flynn Building; Mrs. Edward Childs, 5136 Ingersoll Avenue; Mrs. Melvin Hass, 3500 East Seventh Street; Judge Ladd, in care of John Valerius, Urbandale; William Waymack, 511 Fifty-first Street; W. L. Harding, 738 East Washington Street; Florence Barr, 3819 University Avenue; and E. E. Stacy, 501 Arlington Avenue.

Washington Club

The Morningside Alumni Club of Washington, D. C., had a pleasant reunion dinner upon the occasion of President Mossman's visit to the capital city. This was only the second meeting of the Washington group, but the members have found the event an occasion for wholesome exchange of past and present experience for Morningside students and faculty members of three decades.

Those present at the dinner on January 16 were: Ralph Root, '01, Head of the Department of Mathematics, United States Naval Academy, and Mrs. Root; Dr. John R. Green, Professor of Physics at Morningside 1901-03, and Mrs. Green (Anna Hollingsworth), '05; Mrs. S. H. McCrory (Blanche Severe) ex '01 and Dr. McCrory, Chief of the Division of Agricultural Engineering, U. S. Department of Agriculture; Roscoe W. Carter '12, Chemist, U. S. Department of Agriculture; David L. Wickens, '13, Agriculture; Guy D. McKinney, '15, Washington reporter Chicago Tribune; Cyril B. Upham, '15, Chief of the Banking Division, the United States Daily; Mr. Wesley Jones, ex '28, student at George Washington University.

Storm Lake Club

The following account of the organization of the Storm Lake Morningside Club on February 6 was sent in by Jennie Skewis, secretary of the club.

The dinner at the Hotel Bradford was followed by speeches reminiscent of college days. The Reverend W. L. Breaw of Sioux Rapids was capable master of ceremonies and introduced Dr. M. E. Graber, Miss Lillian Dimmitt, Dr. Bushnell, and President Mossman. Several others addressed the group. Dr. Mossman, as the last speaker, suggested that a permanent club be organized, and outlined the purpose and benefits of such an organization. The result was that an organization was effected with the Reverend W. L. Breaw, Sioux Rapids, president; Jennie Skewis, secretary; and a representative in each town. These representatives are as follows: Minnie Anderson, Alta; Edith Held, Marathon; W. L. Breaw, Sioux Rapids; Dorothy Mueller, Newell; Mrs. Frank Hinde, Early; the Reverend Mr. Rasmussen, Nemaha; Mrs. Douglas Woodruff, Storm Lake; Imogene Gilbert, Cherokee; Joe Lockin, Aurelia; Mrs. Harry Covey, Rembrandt; Emil Witter, Varina; and Bert Scharr, Truesdale.

Owing to the fact that the date chosen for the meeting was somewhat unfortunate, there were only seventeen present. Those attending from Morningside College were President Frank E. Mossman, Dean Lillian Dimmitt, Dean Myron E. Graber, and Dr. J. J. Bushnell; from Storm Lake, Dr. and Mrs. O. M. Bond, Dr. and Mrs. J. H. O'Donoghue, Mr. and Mrs. Pitstick, Mrs. Douglas Woodruff, Charles Skewis, and the Misses Jennie Skewis, Opal Gaffey, and Ruth Zinn; and from Sioux Rapids the Reverend Mr. Breaw and Mrs. Breaw.

This Storm Lake group looks forward with the hope that every Morningside College graduate and ex-student in its territory will become interested and help to make the meetings of the club occasions of great pleasure and benefit.

Sheldon Club

The Sheldon group of Morningsiders met in the home of Ben Riner and his wife on Tuesday evening, February 4, for a social time with Miss Lillian Dimmitt and A. B. Gehring as guests. A Sheldon Club was organized with F. H. Chandler as president and Dr. G. I. Noe as secretary.

Dr. Noe says in his report, "A part of the evening was spent in telling about old times, and Miss Dimmitt could remember us and a good many facts about us—some rather embarrassing to us, but fun for the rest of the company. After an enjoyable evening refreshments were served by the Riners, and we all departed for our respective homes, hoping that we should have other such meetings and feeling ourselves in a closer contact with dear old Morningside College."

The Morningside College life has been brought closer to the graduates and ex-students through this medium of Morningside Clubs, and we hope that more of them may be organized in other parts of the state.

Fort Dodge Club

The Fort Dodge Morningside Club organization followed an interesting meeting and discussion in the Riverside Church basement in Fort Dodge on January 10. A Maroon and White color scheme made a beautiful setting for the Morningside dinner, which was held for alumni and ex-students of the Fort Dodge territory.

Following the dinner informal talks were given by various members of the group followed by a "Question Box" regarding the College and its activities. Following this a motion was made to organize a Morningside Club in Fort Dodge with the result that such a club was formed with John V. Madison as president, and Marguerite Held Benz as secretary. An executive committee was named by the group, which includes: John Kolp, Manson; Mrs. Earl Hicks, Rockwell City; Lloyd Scheerer, Gowrie; Elizabeth Oggel, Webster City; Winifred Share, Humboldt; Mrs. Wentz, Eagle Grove; Abe De Vaul, Rolfe; and Margaret MacIntosh of Livermore.

The Club spirit is noted in this little greeting: "This newly organized club sends greetings to all other Morningside Clubs. We are all working for a Greater Morningside College."

Those present at the organization of the Fort Dodge group were: Mrs. H. D. Africa, Marguerite Held Benz, John V. Madison, Mrs. John V. Madison, Mrs. Clair Sherwood, James I. Dolliver, Mrs. E. C. McDade, Margaret G. Dolliver, Bob Maher, Mrs. Bob Maher, Elizabeth Turner, Mrs. R. E. Heal, Mrs. Gertrude Martin, and Margaret Jordan, all of Fort Dodge; Earl Hicks, Mrs. Earl Hicks, D. C. McKinney, and Ruth McKinney, of Rockwell City; Ada Barkley, C. R. Reynolds, and Mrs. C. R. Reynolds of Farnhamville; and Elbert Sebern, Mrs. Elbert Sebern, John D. Kolp, Mrs. John D. Kolp, Roy Cox, and Mrs. Roy Cox of Manson.

Representatives of the College who attended the Fort Dodge meeting were President Frank E. Mossman, Dean Lillian Dimmitt, Dr. J. J. Bushnell, and Lee R. Strain.

Pictures of Okoboji Institute Prepared

The following is of interest to the pastors of Epworth Leagues that have had delegations at the Epworth League Institute at the Methodist Camp in Spirit Lake: A group of sixty colored lantern slides has been prepared for the use of Epworth Leagues to help stimulate interest for attendance at the Institute this year. Most of the slides are either views of the Methodist Camp or of West Okoboji. There are included also several group pictures from the different years of the Institute. A part of the slides were sent out to the various leagues two years ago, but this set has been revised and several new scenes added so that the present collection of slides is not only larger but better than the former one. A lecture accompanies the set of slides and may be used or not as the pastor desires.

The rental fee for the slides is $2.50 plus the postage to the next place of showing. This amount is easily raised by a collection at the time of showing.

Pastors will find that showing the slides is a delightful way of presenting the Institute to their young people. Those interested should take the matter up with their leagues at once and reserve a date for showing the slides. Letters will be answered promptly and dates reserved in the order received. A second choice for a date should always be made in case the first date has been taken. Remember—first come, first served.

Address W. W. Witt, 1710 Morningside Avenue, Sioux City, Iowa.

Spencer Club

A large group of Morningside College alumni and ex-students met in the Tangney Hotel in Spencer on February 4 for a reunion and spent an enjoyable two hours together talking over times when one or another of them had placed a "bean shower" in the fourth floor and engaged in various other interesting affairs. Each member was called on by the chairman to tell his name, class, and occupation. This roll-call proved quite interesting to the group.

Following several informal talks the group decided to organize a permanent club, which is called the Spencer Morningside Club. Archie Freeman was elected president and Nelle Cullen secretary. Representatives for each town were chosen as an executive committee.

Those present at the dinner included: Edna Sheneberger, Henrietta Squaires, Nelle Cullen, Zella Baldwin, Mrs. Torbert, Lila Stone, Lula Stone, Ruth Stone, Dale Norton, Harold Raun, Mrs. Harold Raun, Archie Freeman, Mrs. Archie Freeman, Claude Baldwin, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Tompkins, Dr. Clegg, Mrs. Fulton, President Frank E. Mossman, Dr. J. J. Bushnell, Dean M. E. Graber, and Lee R. Strain.

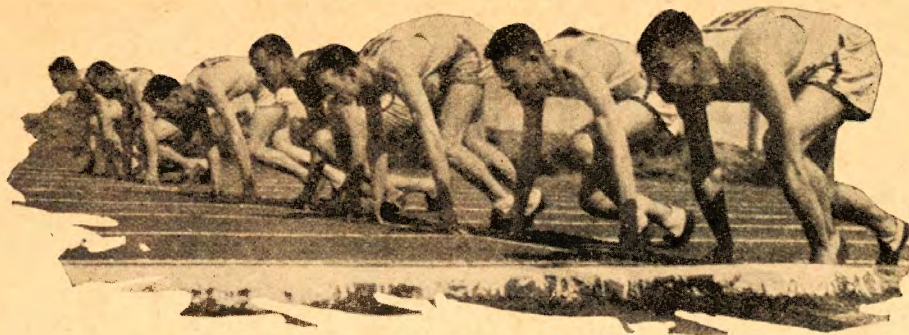

The group plans to have an annual dinner together and a picnic during the summer.

Minnesota U Club

Professor J. W. Hoffmann, head of the Department of History, and Professor H. G. Campbell, head of the Department of Psychology, were guests at a luncheon given by a group of former Morningside College students at the University of Minnesota, on January 31. The professors were attending the International Congress at the University.

The former Morningside College students who attended the luncheon were Edgar A. Schuler, an instructor in the University of Minnesota, Ruth V. Schuler, Burnell Koolish, Gus Vizas, Egerton Ballachey, Pablo V. Cabotaje, Godfredo Cabotaje, and Mr. and Mrs. Bert L. Tollard.

The University of Minnesota maintains a central post-office for its students, according to Professor Campbell, where all communications will reach these students. We are glad that Morningsiders attending the University of Minnesota still retain their love for Morningside College and hope that they will remain in constant touch with the College.

With the passing of the basketball season, which ended with the game in Sioux City between South Dakota State College and Morningside College, the Sioux athletics have taken to the track and field for their sports diversion. The schedule for the season includes interesting track events, such as the annual Iowa Conference Indoor Meet, the Drake Relays, and the North Central Conference Track and Field event. A home meet is being planned by the coaches but just the method of running off the events is undecided.

Several lettermen are returning for the track campaign, including members of the powerful relay team of last season, which last year gained several new records. Included in the lettermen are such runners as Captain Wayne Menter, ex-captain Elmer Hansen, Fletcher Kettle, and Clarence Bale. These four men compose the relay team which won first honors in the half-mile and mile relay events at Drake University and in the North Central Conference meet. Ted Johnson is a miler who will return for his last year in competition and should be a point-winner in several of this year's events.

Menter is the North Central 440-yard champion as well as holder of the Iowa Conference Indoor record in the same event. Elmer Hansen holds the championship of the North Central in the half-mile event. Bale runs a fast quarter and should place, as he did last year, in several meets as an individual point-getter. Kettle specializes in the short dashes. Kingsbury hurls the javelin nearly as well as anyone in the conference, with the result that he places in practically every meet during the year.

Several non-letter men are bidding for places on the varsity, including Jerry Gehrt, weight man; Herb Gotlob, weight man; Johnson, pole-vaulter and broad-jumper; Strong, dash man; Van Wyngarden, hurdler; and Mossman, dash man.

Several outstanding men were lost by graduation, including Brinkman, pole-vaulter; Neir, high-jumper; Bartholomew, weight-man; and Williams, two-miler.

The schedule issued by the Athletic Department of Morningside College for the 1930 season is as follows:

March 29—Iowa Conference Meet
Drake Fieldhouse.

April 25-26—Drake Relays
Des Moines, Iowa.

May 3—Dakota Relays
Sioux Falls, S. D.

May 10—Annual Home Meet
Sioux City, Iowa.

May 17—South Dakota Dual Meet
Sioux City, Iowa.

May 24—Iowa Conference Meet
Cedar Falls, Iowa.

May 30-31—North Central Conference Meet
Sioux City, Iowa.

Morningside Relay Team

Captain-elect Wayne Menter, Kansas City sprinter de luxe, received the honor of being captain of the 1930 edition of Sioux track men. Menter entered Morningside College in the fall of 1926 and won the 440-yard dash in his freshman year. During that time he has been a member of the four horsemen, the relay team that has never been equalled in Sioux history. Menter is record holder of the 440-yard dash in both the North Central Conference and the Iowa Conference, besides holding the all-time record of 440-yard runners in Morningside College. Menter will be running his third year in the Maroon uniform. New records are in danger with all four members of the relay team back and two new men ready to take their part without damaging the time record.

Menter

Hansen

Ex-captain Elmer Hansen has established himself as one of the best track men ever to race across the Morningside College cinder path. During his four years in Morningside College, Hansen has established a new record for the half-mile. He has been a member first of the freshman relay team that won the North Central freshman mile relay; and then, as a member of the varsity relay teams, he aided in setting a new record at the Drake Relays in the half-mile relay in 1928. In 1929 the quartet of which he is a member won both the mile and the half-mile relay races. A new record was set in both events, this team being the only one to set two new records in one day at the relays. Hansen runs the half-mile as an individual race and runs on the two relay teams.

Bale

The Budget That Did Not Balance

Estimated receipts for 1930-31 ----- $185,800
 Estimated disbursements ----- 198,821

Deficit ----- $ 13,021

Let's Balance This Budget

Balancing the Budget

The Scylla and Charybdis of College Financing

While Ulysses and his mariners watched the rock Charybdis at the famous whirlpool on the Sicilian coast, the monster Scylla darted out her wicked head and seized six of the unfortunate sailors. Homer says that Ulysses was impotent to give them aid. The ancient world knew well the dilemma of Scylla and Charybdis. If you avoid the rock on the left side of the whirlpool of life, you are in imminent danger of being wrecked on the rock on the right side; an if you avoid the rock on the right you are wrecked on the rock on the left.

An old-time lesson in college financing was experienced last week by the College Board of Trustees. It was again the dilemma of rocks Scylla and Charybdis. They faced the old dilemma that if you lower the expenses of operation of the College to meet the income, you are apt to wreck the institution on the rock of inefficiency. At the present time the income is too small. If you maintain the high level of efficiency with the present operating expense, you incur indebtedness that you ought not, and must not, incur. In financing the College, this is the dilemma Scylla and Charybdis.

The Board of Trustees found that when every corner had been cut, every budget pared to the limit, and every possible excess item eliminated, still the proposed budget for 1930-31 was $13,000 short of balancing. They naturally refused to vote a budget that carried with it a 13,000 deficit. In fact, the Board steadfastly refused to vote a budget that carried with it any deficit at all.

To those inexperienced in the building of college budgets it would seem a simple matter to make ends meet. The naive method of the inexperienced always is: "You simply cut down expenses to meet the income," and "presto! change!" your budget is balanced. Unfortunately the balance is not struck so easily.

There are two attacks to be made in trimming a college budget. You may begin at the property end, or you may begin at the personnel end of the budget. Below a certain point you cannot go with the property end trimming. You must have coal for instance, and the price of coal is a fixed matter. If you have coal, its price is about so much. Repairs for the heating plant are fairly uniform. When you have pared property expenditures to a certain point the only place left to cut down is the salaries of your faculty. This is the human end of the budget. Here at the human end of the budget you must remember that if you cut too deeply you impair the efficiency of your teaching staff. Your most desirable members are lured away. You can not build a first-class college out of a second-rate faculty. There are limits past which you trim the human element at the peril of efficiency. Balancing the budget at the expense of the personnel of the faculty is often of doubtful wisdom.

The College Trustees toiled two days in committees and Board Session. The difference between the irreducible minimum of expenditure and the income that could be estimated as safe and probable was $13,000.

The proposed budget for 1930-31 was as follows: Estimated receipts including tuition and endowment income $185,800. Estimated disbursements including salaries, operation and maintenance of the physical plant $198,821. The deficit in such a budget would be $13,021.

Late in the day President Mossman suggested that we adjourn to meet in 30 days and that in the meantime he be given the task of raising a Sustentation Fund of $13,000 per year for a period of three years. This would provide for the budget on the present high level of efficiency and still balance the income over against the expense of operating, and give the Trustees a chance to make other adjustments. He proposed five possible sources of income for a General Sustentation Fund; viz,

Trustees -----	$2,500
Faculty -----	$1,000
Alumni and former students -----	$2,500
Patrons -----	$2,000
Sioux City -----	$10,000

After deducting the overlapping in these several groups there will be $13,000 left. The Board accepted the President's suggestion and adjourned to meet March 26. Does anyone doubt that the President has a task on hand during these 30 days? Every friend of the College will want to come to his help.

Instantly certain members of the Board said, "We will help." Some put down $100 per year, others smaller sums. Faculty members responded by pledging $1,000. They have already written up a considerable block of it. A number of patrons will give $100 per year for a three-year period. Some will suggest lesser amounts.

The alumni and former student groups will not lag. They will pledge from their benevolence budget some $100 per year, some $50 per year, $25, $10, or $5. Everyone will do something.

The Board adjourned "to meet in 30 days." The time is short. President Mossman has a big order given him by his Board. The writer of these lines has already signed a pledge like the one opposite. Come on in! Trim out this form. Fill it in and mail it now.

Make your pledge payable some time between September 1, and December 31, of each year.

DO IT NOW!

Yours for a balanced budget and a bigger and better Morningside

J. J. Bushnell

Dean of Extension

LET'S BALANCE THE BUDGET!

Feb. 26, 1930.

To the Alumni and Former Students
of Morningside College:

My dear Friends:

Your institution and mine is meeting a crisis in her history. The question is one of efficiency. Shall we continue as a first-class college? The many hundreds of alumni and former students located in many different sections of our own country and countries of the world, under many different conditions, will read this common appeal. If immediate and concerted action, in whatever amount we feel ourselves able to give, is taken by each individual, it will help to meet this crisis. Each of the groups indicated is responding before the appeal has been made public. Many pledges have already come in. Let every Morningsider stand and be counted. Send, and send at once.

Your friend and co-worker,

Frank E. Mossman

FEM:MN.

SUSTENTATION FUND FOR MORNINGSIDE COLLEGE

In consideration of my interest in Christian Education, in recognition of the needs of MORNINGSIDE COLLEGE for the meeting of its annual budget, and in consideration of the gifts of others, I hereby cheerfully contribute to Morningside College, Sioux City, Iowa, the sum of _____ Dollars ($ _____) per year for the fiscal years ending May 31, 1931, May 31, 1932, and May 31, 1933.

Payments to be made as follows:

_____ 1931	Name _____
_____ 1932	Street _____
_____ 1933	City _____ State _____

"A College In a Cornfield"

Bertha C. Price

"A college in a cornfield!"

"The situation was clear enough, and his soul revolted from the irony of it all. Then the thought came, What if God should call you to this college? Would you be willing to come and build a college here?" He knelt down there in the cornfield and asked to be forgiven for his false pride. He promised the Lord that he would respond to the call of building a college even here, should that call come."

So runs the incident in the life story of Bishop Wilson Seeley Lewis, a book recently issued from the Verstegen Press, Sioux City, Iowa, published by Morningside College, and written by Dr. Ida Belle Lewis of Hwa Nan College, Foochow, China. This biography has a fascinating subject, and it is peculiarly fortunate that the author is one who bears the intimate and sympathetic relationship of daughter to this teacher, organizer, college president, bishop of the Methodist Episcopal Church, missionary, and leader and lover of men.

The account follows him through all the different avenues of a diversified career; abounds in outstanding facts, apt illustrations, personal incident, and interesting episode; and presents in a complete and attractive form the entire life of this great and good man.

The chapter "The Heart of a Father," with its vivid and touching home scenes, will reach the heart of every parent. The chapters revealing the early struggles, growth, and victories of Morningside College will strengthen and inspire all who continue in his labors for this institution of learning. The "Journeys in China" and "The Task" will throw light on the toils and burdens of missionaries the world over, and imbue all the missionary-minded with renewed purpose and zeal. "The Great Colleague" reveals the mighty copartnership of two souls in empire building for the Kingdom—Bishop Bashford and Bishop Lewis. "The New Morning" depicts the closing scenes of this great life. Chapter XI records the "Tribute of the Conference" to which he belonged, the Northwest Iowa Conference.

Bishop Lewis was a man of prayer. From the time when as a child he lispingly repeated the words of his father, "O Lawd, pashy" [com passion], until the end of life, he prayed. Some of these prayers have been included at the close of the biography and form indeed a fitting and beautiful ending to the book, revealing as they do the Source of energy and strength of his radiant and powerful life.

Educators, missionaries, ministers, neighbors, and friends will all wish to own a personal copy of the biography Bishop Wilson Seeley Lewis.

This book is for sale by Morningside College Bookstore, Sioux City, Iowa. Price, $2.00.

Items from Our Alumni

—EX-STUDENTS—

Mrs. C. R. Griffin, 4058 Adams Street, Sioux City, Iowa, attended Morningside College during 1923 and 1924. Mrs. Griffin was formerly Rosanna Chesterman. She received her degree from the University of Iowa in 1926. Dr. and Mrs. Griffin have one son, Clyde Chesterman Griffin, aged six months.

Mrs. Arthur Schuldt was a student in the Public School Music Department of the Morningside College Conservatory of Music during the year 1917 but entered the Kansas City National Training School, where she received her degree. Mrs. Schuldt has been an instructor in the Okoboji Epworth League Institute for several years.

Milo Bergeson is a salesman for the "Commission Merchant" at the Sioux City Stockyards.

Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Riner, Sheldon, Iowa, entertained the Morningside Club that was organized in Sheldon on February sixth. Mr. and Mrs. Riner are loyal Morningsiders.

1910

J. H. Bridenbaugh sends his address as 1109 North Thirty-second Street, Billings, Montana, where he is serving the community as a physician. Dr. Bridenbaugh did his advanced work in medicine in the Rush Medical College in 1914. Dr. and Mrs. Bridenbaugh have three children, two boys and one girl.

G. W. Eggleston and his wife, May Elbert Eggleston, are our Morningside College boosters in Britt, Iowa, where Mr. Eggleston is pastor of the Methodist church. They are members of the Algona Morningside Club.

Dr. Charles E. Magoun, 1616 Pearl Street, Sioux City, Iowa, is a practicing physician and surgeon and is well-known in the medical field of Sioux City.

Lawrence J. Belt, president of the class in 1910, is District Superintendent of Schools in Wheatland, Wyoming, where he is enjoying success in his chosen field. Kathryn Newland Belt was a member of the class of 1915. Mr. and Mrs. Belt have two children, James L. and Janet Kay. Mr. Belt has studied at the University of Wisconsin and the University of Iowa, and received the degree of Master of Arts from Columbia University in 1924.

TUNE IN
W O W--Omaha
Morningside College
Chapel Choir
Sunday Afternoon
April 13
About 7:00 O'clock

Friends of Maude Rodine Hawbaker, Stratford, Iowa, will be sorry to learn of her recent death at her home following a very short illness. Her death came very quickly and unexpectedly on December 22, 1929. The Alumni News Letter takes this opportunity of expressing its sincere sympathy to the grieved friends and relatives of Mrs. Hawbaker.

O. G. Pritchard, is vice-principal of the East High School in Des Moines. He has received the degree of Master of Arts from the University of Iowa. Mr. Pritchard is a member of the Morningside Club of Des Moines.

1911

Mrs. Reece J. McGee, 1650 Dayton Avenue, St. Paul, Minnesota, writes from her home there asking whether there are enough Morningsiders in the Twin Cities to make an organization. R. J. McGee is a lawyer in St. Paul. The McGees have two children, Jane Ann, seven years, and Reece Jerome, four months of age.

Robert A. Lavender, of the class of 1911, is in the Naval Department in Washington, D. C. Mr. Lavender has received degrees from Harvard University and George Washington University. He has just returned from a cruise in Chinese, Japanese, and Philippine waters and is in command of the U. S. S. Lamson, a destroyer in the Scouting Fleet. Mr. and Mrs. Lavender have one child, Margaret Lavender.

1912

Mrs. Florence Anthony Griffin, 117 Clinton Place, Utica, New York, sends her address for the Bulletin. Cornelia Marie is the name of Mr. and Mrs. Griffin's daughter.

Paul R. Corner, 712 South Grange Avenue, Sioux Falls, South Dakota, is a salesman for the Vacuum Oil Company. Mr. Corner spent some time in graduate work in Stout Institute, Menomonie, Wisconsin. Marion Lamson Corner is his wife.

Ethel Shannon, 214 North Sixteenth Street, Fort Dodge, Iowa, is a member of the newly organized Fort Dodge Morningside Club. She is a member of the faculty of the Fort Dodge High School. Miss Shannon has the degree of Master of Arts from the University of Iowa.

1913

Sam G. Pickus, attorney at law in Sioux City, is still a loyal booster for his alma mater. Mr. Pickus since leaving Morningside College has obtained degrees from the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor.

Sarah A. Bleakly gives her occupation as homemaker. She is at home in Schaller, Iowa.

1915

William H. Payne is finishing his second year as principal of the Bismark High School in Bismarck, North Dakota.

Mrs. Ethel Collier Hawley writes from Coldwater, Michigan. She says that she and Mr. Hawley enjoy the Alumni News Letter very much.

1918

Goldie Jackson is connected with the Mary Elizabeth Day Nursery in Sioux City. She gives her address as 814 Court Street, Sioux City, Iowa.

Orin W. Bell, Charles City, Iowa, is secretary of the Y. M. C. A. at Charles City. Frances Weir Bell, was formerly a student of Morningside College. The Bells have two girls, Buena Jean and Marian Lorraine.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl E. Gingles are located in Omaha, Nebraska, where Mr. Gingles is studying medicine at the University of Nebraska. Mr. and Mrs. Gingles have two children, Sarah Louise and William Wilson. Mrs. Gingles was formerly Frances Kolp.

G. Earl Barks is one of the cashiers of the First National Bank of Belden, Nebraska. Mr. Barks is married and has a daughter, Beverly Jean.

1920

Hugh B. Fouke, Jr., is in the ministry in Portland, Oregon, after spending some time in graduate work in Boston University and at Harvard University. Mr. Fouke says that he is mighty glad to keep in touch with Morningside College and to hear of its success and growth. A Morningside Club (in embryo) will get under way this year in the Pacific Northwest.

Mrs. G. V. Babcock, Galva, Iowa, sends in her address to the new Alumni Directory. Mr. and Mrs. Babcock are the parents of six children, one boy and five girls.

Grace Wishard Stonebrook, 755 Cajon Drive, Redlands, California, informs us of the death of her husband, Earl G. Stonebrook of the class of 1918, who died on January 24, 1930. The Alumni News Letter takes this opportunity of sending the sympathy of the Morningside College Alumni Association.

Veta Clark Hollingsworth, 4514 Utah Street, San Diego, California, sends us the address of Gladys Clark Miller, 4560 Utah Street, San Diego, California. Mrs. Miller is teaching in the schools of San Diego. She graduated with the class of 1919.

C. D. Klatt is practicing law in Peoria, Illinois, and has his offices at 832-34 Peoria Life Building. Mr. Klatt received his advanced training in the University of Chicago Law School.

Axel J. Beck, attorney at law, makes his headquarters in Alcester, South Dakota. Mr. Beck was a member of the Maroon football team during his college days. He received his law training at the University of Chicago.

Ada Genette Carter received the degree of Master of Arts from the University of Nebraska in 1927 and has been teaching in the Whiting High School since then. "Conditions in the Men's Reformatory" was the subject of her thesis.

George Ernest Wickens is president of the Chicago Morningside Club, which holds its annual dinner in the Auditorium Hotel in Chicago on Saturday, February 22. Mr. Wickens says, "I'm for the Directory. I regard the ex-student part as highly as that devoted to the grads." Mrs. Wickens was Alice Robbins, '25.

1921

Mrs. Pauline Barrett Malone sends her address for the Directory as Lock Box 156, McIntire, Iowa. Her husband, C. O. Malone, is a former student at Cornell College in Mount Vernon.

Mrs. Paul D. Shaw, 810 Fourteenth Street, St. Petersburg, Florida, informs us that there is another Morningsider in St. Petersburg, Mrs. C. C. Rousseau, formerly Helen Pynchon, who lives at 1042 Fifteenth Street. She is an ex-student of 1921 and received her degree from the University of Minnesota.

Mrs. Donald J. Walton, 280 Rivington Street, New York City, and her husband, Donald J. Walton, 1917, are members of the New York City Morningside Club, which meets several times each year.

Gladys L. Armbricht, 300 West Palmer Street, South Sioux City, Nebraska, is residing at her home.

A. Holmes Johnson, 1125 Wistaria Avenue, Portland, Oregon, is a practicing surgeon. Dr. Johnson has studied in the University of Oregon, Northwestern University, and in the Methodist Hospital in New York City. He is a member of the faculty in the University of Oregon, being Clinical Instructor in Surgery.

1922

Arthur Scheldt has begun his second year as pastor in the Merrill Methodist Church. The Reverend Mr. Scheldt was a Sioux City visitor during February and visited the familiar scenes of old Main Hall. He has received advanced degrees from the Garrett Biblical Institute.

E. F. Rankin is superintendent of schools at Crystal Lake, Iowa. Mrs. Rankin, of the class of 1923, was Marian Arnold. Mr. and Mrs. Rankin have one child, a daughter.

Nona Moss is teaching in Blair, Nebraska, and gives her address as 105 East Grant Street. Miss Moss studied at the University of Colorado in 1927.

1923

William E. Drury, 140 New Montgomery Street, San Francisco, California, is an accountant with the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company.

Cornelia Brunelle Penn is teaching in the English Department of the Prairie City, Iowa, High School.

1924

Mr. and Mrs. George T. Colvig (Maude Wagner) live at Lake City, Iowa.

Donald S. Peters, 2511 Jennings Street, Sioux City, is a lawyer with a large practice.

Leslie H. Davis and Mrs. Leota Bergeson Davis are living at 1325 South Glass Street in Sioux City, where Mr. Davis is head of the Athletic Department of East High School. Mr. Davis has a fine record here since taking over the athletics, having won the basketball championship of the city twice in succession. He was formerly coach in the Webster City High School, where his athletes ranked with the best in the state. Mr. and Mrs. Davis have one child, a boy.

Ruth L. Packard gives her address as Y. W. C. A. in Elkhart, Indiana. She gives as her occupation that of a Business and Industrial Secretary. While in school Ruth was prominent in student affairs, especially in the Young Women's Christian Association.

Paul A. Moody, 133 King Street, Burlington, Vermont, is assistant Professor of Zoology in the University of Vermont. He studied at the University of Michigan in 1921, where he received the degree of Doctor of Philosophy. Judith Inlay Moody is an ex-student of 1928. They say, "We always look forward to receiving the Alumni News Letter."

Edith McCabe Ackerson lives in Granada, Minnesota. Elizabeth May Ackerson was born to Mr. and Mrs. Ackerson on November 23, 1929.

Myrtle B. Hawley is an instructor in the Holly, Colorado, school system. Miss Hawley has spent some time in the Iowa State College at Ames. Her brother, Ray C. Hawley, is principal of the High School in Marseilles, Illinois, and has taken graduate work at the University of Illinois. Miss Hawley informs us.

George Stevens has charge of the Public School Music in the Danbury High School this year. George was prominently connected with the musical affairs of the College during his course, having been in the band, glee club, and choir.

Cyrus Poppen, attorney at Law in Muskegon, Michigan, is a member of the law firm, Geoghan and Poppen. Leila Fowlie Poppen was a graduate with the class of 1924. Mr. Poppen subscribed for the Alumni News Letter for this year, a fact which shows that he has enjoyed it.

Arthur W. Henke, Washington, Iowa, class of 1904 of Charles City College, is the Methodist minister at Washington. Mr. Henke has advanced degrees from Garrett Biblical Institute and from Northwestern University. Mr. and Mrs. Henke have two children, Arthur Gale, and Margaret Gale. Mr. Henke has been a member of the Upper Iowa Conference until this fall, when he was transferred to the Washington Church.

1925

Charles Willard Hamand is superintendent of schools in Ledyard, where he has been teaching for two years. Mr. Hamand has spent some time on advanced work at Iowa State College and the University of Iowa.

Elizabeth Oggel, 920 Bank Street, Webster City, Iowa, is an instructor in the Webster City Junior College. Miss Oggel received the degree of Master of Arts from the University of Iowa.

Maurine McClure, 701 Park Street, Medford, Oregon, has a position as instructor of Public School Music in the Junior High School. Maurine was prominently connected with musical organizations of Morningside College during her study here, being a member of the Madrigal Club and the Morningside College Chapel Choir. Miss McClure says that she appreciates the Alumni News Letter and looks forward to the future numbers of it.

Elva Garretson Kegley says that she always quits everything when the News Letter comes to read the news of former associates in Morningside College. Mrs. Kegley sends her address as 5708 Fair Avenue, North Hollywood, California. There are four children in the Kegley home, Elizabeth, Eleanor, John G., and Julia Belle.

Edgar J. Huston, pastor of the Methodist Church in Puyallup, Washington, is a loyal Morningsider in the Washington territory.

Mrs. A. F. Bresee, graduate of the Morningside College Conservatory of Music in 1909, has a large class of piano students in La Jara, Colorado. She has had advanced work in the University Extension Conservatory of Chicago. She informs us that her brother, H. A. Gorder, 1914, was graduated from the Dental College of Denver University in 1924 and is practicing with another brother, Dr. R. M. Gorder, who was a student in Morningside College in 1907 and 1908. Mrs. Bresee says that she enjoys the Alumni News Letter very much.

1926

Milton Schaper, formerly manager of the Morningside College Men's Glee Club, will entertain the men at his church in Westfield, Iowa, on Sunday, February 23. Schaper is a frequent visitor at the college and a firm believer in its ideals.

Marie E. Plummer is principal of the high school in Atalissa, Iowa. She has taken extension work from the University of Chicago besides studying at the University of Iowa.

Margaret Tiedeman is teaching in the Kingsley High School.

Donald C. MacIntosh, formerly coach at Avon, South Dakota, has been promoted to the office of superintendent of schools, where he is having a high degree of success. He spends the summers in advance work, having studied in the University of Iowa and the University of Colorado.

1927

Roxanna Schaper is principal of the high school at Allen, Nebraska, where she has taught for two years. Miss Schaper is working for the degree of Master of Arts at Northwestern University during her summer vacations.

Mabel Wetzler has charge of the Latin classes in the Dixon, Nebraska, High School.

Margaret MacIntosh is at home in Livermore. She informs us that Henry MacIntosh of the class of 1929 finished his work at the University of Iowa last June and is employed in the main office of the Standard Oil Company in Chicago, Illinois.

Mrs. Joseph Deegan, 630 Third Avenue, LeMars, Iowa, writes that she enjoys the Alumni News Letter and hopes to receive a copy of the new Alumni Directory.

Lois Sturtevant is a stenographer and laboratory assistant in the W. D. Hayes Laboratories in Sioux City. Her address is 420 Isabella Street. Lois was an MC sweater winner while in school, being a prominent member of the Women's Athletic Association.

Dale E. Akers has moved from Sioux City to Sioux Falls, South Dakota, continuing his work with the Kresge Company. Akers began his work with this company following graduation and has continually advanced in its service.

Robert G. Snyder received the degree of Master of Science at the University of Iowa last June and has continued in the service of the University as an assistant in the Chemistry Department. Snyder was editor of the Collegian Reporter for two years while in school.

Henry Wright was a Sioux City visitor February 16. Henry was business manager of the Collegian Reporter in his junior and senior years in Morningside. Lonelle Bushnell Wright was a member of the class of 1927. A son was born to them early in February.

1928

Gretchen A. Ames, 3801 Deodar Street, East Chicago, Indiana, has a position with the Christian Social Center Work, having charge of the children's work of this community. Miss Ames is studying under the direction of professors of the University of Chicago. She has a class in night school which is composed of European men. Her duties include the opportunity of working with twenty-five nationalities.

Elizabeth Mead Hatter, 3826 Louisiana Street, San Diego, California, is a primary teacher in the San Diego School System. She studied in San Diego State College during a part of 1929.

Walter Upton, winner of the national honors in oratory at the national Pi Kappa Delta meet at Tiffin, Ohio, in 1928, is pastor of the First Congregational Church in Genoa City, Wisconsin. He is in his second year at the Chicago Theological Seminary, which is affiliated with the University of Chicago. He has been invited to debate before the combined Epworth Leagues of ten Chicago churches on the subject "World Peace to be obtained by Preparedness or Disarmament," material for which is taken from his oration, "The Cost of War." He is to be opposed by Professor Fred E. Bennett, President of the American Science dation in Chicago. The debate will take place on February 20.

1929

Elva Reimers is spending her first year of teaching in the Radcliffe High School, where she is in charge of the musical work of the school. Miss Reimers says that she enjoys the Alumni News Letter a great deal. She says that it is a fine substitute for school contact when one is unable to visit the alma mater.

Verdette Walters is assistant pastor of the First Congregational Church in Sioux City. Mr. Walters will leave in the fall to take his seminary training, but as yet is not sure what school he will attend. He has a fine boys' program worked up in his church.

Lisle Berkshire, president of the class of 1929, visits the school quite often. He is boys' secretary of the Sioux Falls, South Dakota, Y. M. C. A. Berkshire has worked up a very pretentious schedule and is meeting with very unusual success.

Annette Greene is unfolding the secrets of Julius Caesar to her high school students in Pierson, Iowa. She also has several classes in English.

Miss Lois Hickman, head of the Department of Public Speaking in Baylor University at Belton, Texas, visited her family in Sioux City during Christmas vacation. Miss Hickman took opportunity for an air trip to Belton, which was made in several hours less than by rail.

Anne Aalfs has several classes in English, Latin, and Public Speaking in the Wakonda High School in Wakonda, South Dakota. Miss Aalfs plans to attend Columbia University next year to work on the degree of Master of Arts.

Paul Brinkman, instructor and coach in the Avon, South Dakota, High School visits his alma mater several times during the year and reports very successful work in athletics during the fall and winter.

