OUR COLLEGE

CAMPVS

"Tho, the way may be overshadowed,
The goal far hidden from view,
In the sweet, sunny path of fellowship,
The soul alone can be true."

"Her office there to rear, to teach
Becoming as is meet and fit,
A link among the days, to knit
The generations each with each."

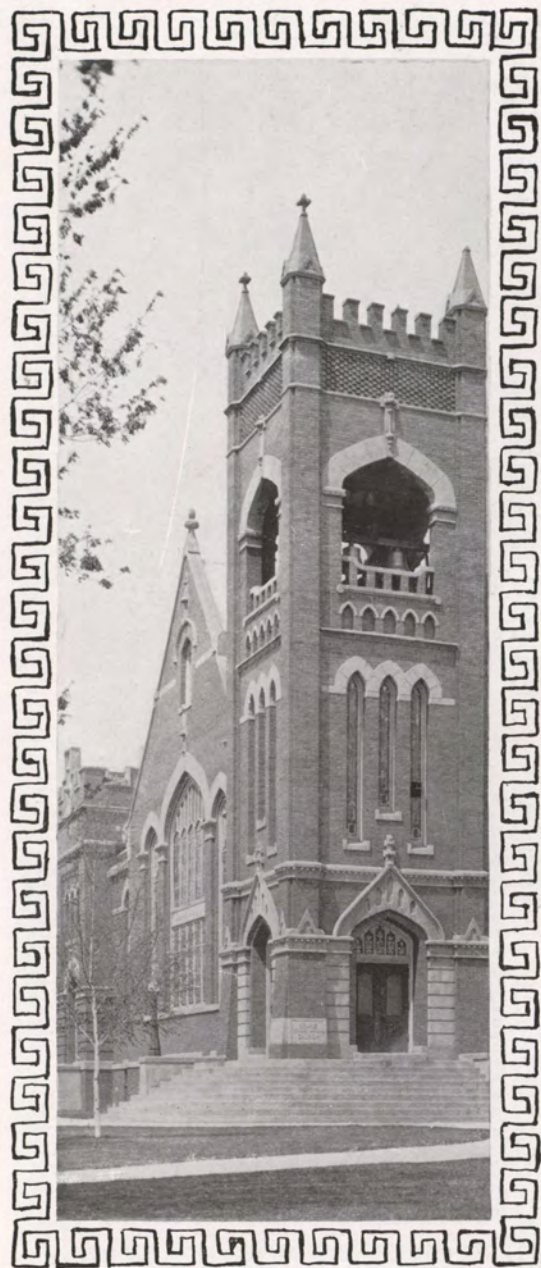

"An ideal of physical perfection
May be incarnated within thy halls."

"In thy halls doth the soul find expression
To the innermost thoughts of the heart;
And what God cannot whisper thru
utterance,
Tender music alone can impart."

"'Tis oft in thy quiet recesses,
When weary and worn from the day,
Communes the tired soul with its Maker
Who banishes all care away."

CECIL MAHOOD	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	-	Student Council Representative

JUNIORS

ZAZEL KANE - - - Sioux City, Iowa

Zazel is characterized by her tawny hair, abundant good nature, and boundless energy. She is a "shark" in the classroom, and ever ready for a lark. Besides being an honorary member of the Pre-engineers, she exercises a weighty influence in the registrar's office, where she hands out our A's and B's.

ROBERT BROWN - - - Sioux City, Iowa

Bob is the Business Manager of our Annual, and is a man of true qualities. He is a great man for lab courses, in Biology, Chemistry, and Astronomy. Bob is also a baseball man of ability. One of those men who arrange to have one girl in the city all the time.

BLANCHE SMITH - - - Hornick, Iowa

Blanche is rather quiet until you know her, and then she's lots of fun. She has a pleasing personality and a cheery smile which makes her one of the best-liked of Juniors.

LLOYD SCHEERER - Fort Dodge, Iowa

A central figure in Y. M. C. A. work, a driving spirit in his class, on the Annual Board, in Glee Club, in debate, and every other college activity. A member of the noted "Brower Gang," otherwise known as "The Vine Street Ruffians."

JUNIORS

RUTH BUSHNELL - - Algona, Iowa

Ruth is another one of those people who wander in other pastures for a time, and then come to the conclusion that Morningside is a better place. Of course, when she came she joined the class of 1922. Ruth is a good worker in her society and in the other activities of the school. Her major outside activity does not attend school.

GLADYS BRADLEY - - Schaller, Iowa

Small in size, but large in capabilities. Gladys is an A student, but no one ever caught her with a book. We wonder how she gets the grades. She is taking two courses this year, one in residence, in Morningside, and the other by correspondence from the high school at Orange City. Recitations are held daily in both institutions.

CARL KLAUS - - Charles City, Iowa

Carl is one of those quiet, unobtrusive fellows, but he is, nevertheless, always there. He combines classroom excellency with other activities. As a banker he is a sure shot. What we wonder is how he manages to show such fine contempt for some of the rules of the Blue Book.

GOLDA KANE - - - Sioux City, Iowa

Golda is modest, sincere, dependable, and indispensable to our class and our college. She is a loyal booster for Morningside, and is always ready to do her part in whatever way she can. Like her sister, she maintains membership by proxy in the Pre-engineers' Club.

JUNIORS

HILLIS LORY - - - Sioux City, Iowa

"Sam" is a mighty good fellow—always willing to help where help is needed. He is one of these genial, easy-going boys who never study any more than necessary. He would rather have a practical education. Sam made his "M" in track his first year in school.

NORMA KENT - - - Sioux City, Iowa

Norma is one of our best and most capable students. She is quiet and unassuming, but has a fund of cleverness and originality which is invaluable. Norma is dependable and obliging to the last degree.

ROLAND R. BEDELL - - LeMars, Iowa

Roland survived the nerve-racking experience of being reared in LeMars, and came to Morningside to recuperate. He is an all-around good fellow, good natured, and pleasant. He may be seen by streaks riding in a Hudson "speedster."

ESTHER WALTERS - - - Galva, Iowa

We are mighty glad Esther is one of our Junior Class. She has lots of ability and if you wish a thing well done leave it to Esther. A good student and friend, always ready for some fun. Of course, when "Bush" wanted a girl, he looked to the Junior Class.

JUNIORS

DONALD NISSEN - - - Klemme, Iowa

"Shorty" is the would-be banker of the class. A very good student and a conscientious worker. After classes he may be seen sprinting across the campus toward the bank. He never idles away a minute and a successful career for him is assured. "Shorty" has made his mark in school by his work on the Y. M. C. A. Cabinet.

NORA ROHWER - - - Paullina, Iowa

Nora came from Buena Vista to join our class. She is quiet and unassuming, but very likable. An excellent student and a true friend to all who know her.

HARRY BENZ - - - Sioux City, Iowa

Lofty both in height and intellect. He has proven his excellence in the classroom and on the debating platform. Besides this he is endowed with no small amount of musical ability, in fact, he is one of our four "Immortals."

MARJORIE FOWLER - Sioux City, Iowa

Marjorie could have graduated this year, but she decided to wait and join a good class and graduate with them. She has a smile that fairly radiates joy and gay spirit. She always has a good time and makes life merrier for those around her. She even seems to enjoy her classes.

JUNIORS

MARIAN PENN - - Barron, Wisconsin

Marian has a charming personality, and no one can help but like her. Her time is divided between her work, friends, and fun. She is a lover of literature and is majoring in English. Marian doesn't seem satisfied with her Pen(n) name and may change for a less common one.

MARK McDONALD - - Miami, Florida

When they come that far to join the Junior Class of Morningside College, there must be something to the class and the college. When you want something done and done well, Mark is the man to do it. He is a great worker with the Boy Scouts. Unassuming, yet determined and forceful in character.

QUINTON A. JOHNSON Sioux City, Iowa

Quinton aspires to be a "medic." He assumes even today the ear marks of a successful M. D. He "Dodges" to his classes, where he is a star pupil. This year, in spite of the fact that she has left, "Quint" has not been lonesome.

RUTH HIRLEMAN- - - Spencer, Iowa

Who doesn't like Ruth? We're sure you'd have to look outside of Morningside for such a person. Ruth's always cheerful and happy, doesn't let her studies worry her, is always on hand for a good time, and never shirks her share of the work. We wish there were more like her. An enthusiastic worker in society and on the Annual Board.

JUNIORS

MARY CONRY - - - Kingsley, Iowa

Mary is the kind of a girl we all like to know, a good friend to all. She goes to college for the purpose of development and is as earnest and sincere a worker as we have. She is obliging and straightforward.

YU KUEN LIU - - - Hinghwa, China

Kuen followed his brother's example and came to a good school and to a good class. He has lots of ambition. Liu is a true Chinese gentleman.

LILLIAN LOVSHULT - - - Sloan, Iowa

Lillian is a conscientious worker and devotes her spare time to Mathematics and Physics. In athletics Lillian stars—a good basket-ball player and a good scout. She is always ready and willing to do any task set before her.

YU LING LIU - - - Hinghwa, China

We cannot but admire him for his perseverance and the success he has attained in his studies. He has a mighty cheery smile for everyone whom he meets. When not in the laboratory, he may be found at home, digging out his Physics lesson. We hope to hear from him as one of China's leading engineers.

JUNIORS

ARTHUR G. CARROLL Sioux City, Iowa

Carroll is a man of mature judgment and of proven worth. As your friend he is true, and as your opponent he is generous. A debater of ability, a future D. D., and a man in the truest sense of the word.

OELBERTINE LE BRIS, Sioux City, Iowa

Mlle. came to us from her home in France just last fall. She soon saw that there was only one class in Morningside that amounted to much, so she joined it. Already she has made her place among us and we hope she will have as much respect and admiration for her American friends as they have for her.

DOROTHY SKEWIS - Storm Lake, Iowa

Dorothy is our artist. She hails from Storm Lake, which is famous because it is the home of other members of our class. She is very capable in many lines but she is particularly gifted with artistic talent. Her posters have adorned our halls many times. She is a basket-ball star, also.

GLENN GLAZIER - - - Sioux City, Iowa

This is the genial Cerebus who guarded the sacred portals of the library. Glenn is one of our embryo ministers and bends all his studies toward the end of his chosen profession. His cheerful smile and circumspect behavior this past year may be laid to the fact that he has taken unto himself a wife.

JUNIORS

IRA GWINN - - - Sioux City, Iowa

Ira hails from that metropolis directly north of us, known as Leeds. Every morning he comes out to Morningside to add to his education. Usually he gets here for a 7:30 class. Ira is a hard worker, and will see a thing to the finish, once he has been given something to do.

AGNETTE FLOM - - - Wesley, Iowa

Agnette goes about her work quietly, but she does it well. We wonder why she always goes home through Ruthven. But we don't blame her one bit, at that. Agnette is well liked by all her friends because of her sweet personality.

EWART WINKELMAN - Lohrville, Iowa

It is very fitting that "Bill" should belong to our splendid class. He is our "Jeff," but has the old stuff in him, in spite of his diminutive size. "Bill" never was known to worry about work, but usually lets the work worry about him.

CLARENCE TOMPKINS - Spencer, Iowa

This is the parson of the class. Clarence is our spiritual adviser, leading our benighted minds into the paths of righteousness when they go astray. But despite his pulpit mannerisms, we all are proud to own him as a member of our class and predict for him success in his calling.

JUNIORS

JOYCE INGVLSTAD Sioux City, Iowa

Joyce is one of these refreshing care-free people, who never seem to have a worry in the world, and she is always ready for a good time. Besides this she is a good pianist, a willing worker, and a loyal friend.

DOUGLAS WOODRUFF, Storm Lake, Iowa

Another one of the famous Storm Lake gang. Divides his time equally between studying French and debating, with Somerset and trap-drumming as side lines. A mixture of dignity, fun and good looks. Ask him what kind of hair tonic he uses. Nevertheless, a Junior of merit.

NONA MOSS - - - - - Anthon, Iowa

Nona is the far-famed basket-ball star. She has made her class teams for several years, besides several Yale-Harvard teams. But even her athletics do not hinder her from being a fine student and a true Morningsider.

PAUL ZIEKE - - - Storm Lake, Iowa

"Zeke" is a would-be Caruso. He is a good student and always doing something. His specialty is working with small boys at the Y. M. C. A. He was also a member of the famous Imperial Quartet.

JUNIORS

VIOLA LICHTENBERG - Whiting, Iowa

Viola is very quiet—but this does not hinder her from enjoying college life in her own way. She is good natured and has a pleasant smile. A loyal friend, a loyal Junior, and a loyal Morning-sider.

J. RAY WONDER - - Preston, Kansas

Long live Kansas. Ray is the man who tries his best to live up to his name. He didn't like his school in Kansas, so he came to the best school in the middle west and joined the best class in that school, and we welcome him.

EDNA BEKINS - - - Sioux City, Iowa

"Ed" is an ideal college girl. She is always on hand and makes a fine executive. The proof for this is that she is our class president. She is full of pep and the old M. C. spirit. Her opinion on a subject is worth while, and we all think lots of her.

J. PAUL JONES - - Sioux City, Iowa

Some day Paul will be known as Dr. J. P. Jones, Specialist, and then we will be proud of him. In fact, we are proud of him now. Not only is he a splendid student, but he has made his letter in track and fussology. What more could you expect of any man?

JUNIORS

HENRY L. MARSH - Sioux City, Iowa

And don't forget the "L." That is a necessary part of Hank's name. A man of few words, but great on functioning. He knows what he wants and goes after it, even to making $1.10 on the dollar. Spends most of his time working on the Tribune staff. Also one of our star debaters.

RUTH ACKLIN - Rockwell City, Iowa

Everyone loves Ruth. She can truly be called one of the most conscientious and capable girls in our school. By her earnest loyalty and her sweet disposition she has become a favorite among the students. Ruth is our Y. W. C. A. president, and what could more show our faith in her?

SHERMAN MCKINLEY, S. Sioux City, Neb.

"Mac" is a scholar who will some day adorn the judge's bench. He is quiet, but persevering, and a worthy addition to our class. It is not his fault that he lives in "South Soo."

BORGHILD HAUKLAND, Ida Grove, Iowa

Although Borghild has been in America for only a few years, she has made a great success of her school work. She is a very conscientious worker. But along with her school work she has had time for other things and she has made many friends.

JUNIORS

MARLOWE EVANS - - Akron, Iowa

"Evie" is one of our athletes. He is a basket-ball and football artist of good caliber. He does everything and is particularly fond of Biology—ask Miss Aiken. He likes the girls, but is "kinda 'fraid of 'em." Evans has lots of "pep" and his aggressive spirit will ever win him success.

JUNE PIPPETT - - - Sioux City, Iowa

June is deeply bound up in her studies. She is here to get the most out of her work and she seems to be doing it. In spite of a heavy course, June is always found to be good-natured and optimistic.

ELMER RANKIN - - - Manson, Iowa

Everything he does is marked by a whole heartedness and sincerity characteristic of the Manson representatives. He insists he is not a Swede, but we are inclined to think his hair marks him as such. He's a past-master in the art of work and we Juniors are proud of him.

MARGARET KIDDER - Sioux City, Iowa

Margaret is one of the most popular girls in Morningside. Her pep and cheery smile are always present wherever "Marg" is found. A good worker in all school activities and a booster for her school, she is a true representative of her class. We all respect and admire her.

JUNIORS

PEARL SWANSON - - Sioux City, Iowa

Pearl is one of those girls who should be given great credit for taking that long trip out from town every day. She does this for the sole purpose of belonging to that great class of people who comprise the Class of 1922 of Morningside College. She is accomplished and dependable, and popular among those who know her. Her heart is in another college, but she is loyal to Morningside.

LEON HICKMAN - - Sioux City, Iowa

Of course the college yell-leader is a member of our class. That may be why the Juniors always out-yell the rest of the school. Leon is an enthusiastic worker in college affairs. But it is as a debater that Leon stars. We have yet to see the man who can surpass him in this. We predict for him a wonderful future as the "Senator from California."

EVA SHELTON - - - Fostoria, Iowa

Eva is a quiet, industrious worker. She is a member of that notorious outfit known as the "Fulbrook Gang," which fact indicates that she has a good time, even though she seems so quiet. Eva has qualities which do not all show on the surface.

LAWRENCE STEELE - Sioux City, Iowa

Our football captain-elect is a shining light on the gridiron. He is a man with a wealth of common sense and a wide range of experience with life in all its forms. "Larry" studies on rare occasions but never enough to over-exercise his brain. An incurable optimist.

JUNIORS

PAUL RYERSON - - - - Burt, Iowa

Serious this gentleman is, and in the same way he takes all his work and duties to heart. But he has a right to be serious, for he has weighty things to think about. Nevertheless, he takes time to get a lot of fun and enjoyment out of life. Jennie seems to keep him pretty busy.

MARY DECKER - Rockwell City, Iowa

Mary really comes from Rinard, but she has the Rockwell City habit. She is a never-failing fountain of originality and cleverness. Her irrepressible good nature and her willingness to aid wherever and whenever she can, have won her an abiding place in the affections of all who know her.

ARTHUR SCHULDT, Loranger, Louisiana

Another one of those fellows who came a long way to attend Morningside. Arthur really belongs to Sioux City, for he spends most of his vacations here. Another one of our embryo preachers and a philosopher who philosophizes on anything and everything, and regards the feminine sex with a somewhat judicial eye. A good student and a true friend.

MARY JOHNSON - - Elk Point, S. D.

Mary has that enviable quality of unswerving perseverance toward a chosen goal. This she has shown by her work at college. But she is not too busy to be friendly. One of her hobbies is athletics and her companionship is as agreeable and invigorating as a breeze from a pine forest.

JUNIORS

JAMES VAN PUERSUM - Maurice, Iowa

"Jim" is a fine fellow. Rather quiet, but plays the piano wonderfully. "Jimmie's" disposition and reliability make him a friend to all.

LULU M. GUINEY - Sioux City, Iowa

We would like to know Lulu better but she came to us only last year and then spent over half her time at the Conservatory. But everybody knows of her, for she is a soprano of marked ability and a fine pianist. Although a member of the Conservatory faculty, you would never guess it, for she is truly a member of the student body.

RUTH WEDGEWOOD - Sioux City, Iowa

Ruth's specialty seems to be A grades, although she doesn't let her studying interfere with her good times. She's right there when it comes to fudge parties and "spreads." Ruth is capable, original, and energetic. She is a valuable member of the Madrigal Club.

WESLEY F. GEHRING - Howard, S. D.

Gehring comes to Morningside from the native haunts of the coyotes. Although he does claim South Dakota as his home, nobody wants to "beat South Dakota" worse than "Wes." He is a good student and one who lets nothing interfere with his books. He does have one hobby in which he is becoming quite proficient, and that is taking pictures.

JUNIORS

GORDON OLIVER - - - Onawa, Iowa

Gordon is one of the type of students necessary to the life of an institution. He is a smiling, big-hearted college man. Has the misfortune to be rooming with a Senior, but he is surviving the ordeal. He does not step much here, but, watch him when he goes home over the week-end.

ZELDA BOND - - - Fort Dodge, Iowa

Zelda's loving disposition has made her very popular in Morningside. She is interested in all phases of school life, always doing her part. A true disciple of those who preach the doctrine that a smile is worth an hour's study.

CECIL MAHOOD - - - Sioux City, Iowa

He can do anything; ability is his middle name. In track, on Annual Board, in the classroom, he shows that he has the world on the run. "Cec" aspires to be an M. D. with the shingle, pill-box, "Van Dyke," and all the rest of the "fixin's."

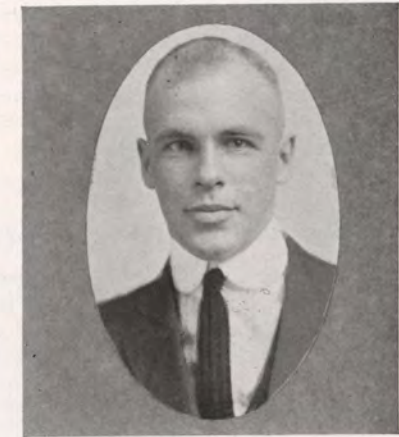

LYDIA BIXBY - Tyndall, South Dakota

Another one of that Trenary outfit. We sometimes wonder how the Oelfke gang can study at all. Lydia is as pleasant as she looks. She is so full of generosity and never-failing kindness that everyone likes her. She goes her own way and goes quietly but happily, and always with a cheerful smile.

HERMAN BRUSWITZ - Eagle Grove, Ia.

"Herm" came to us from West Point. He is an athlete of no mean ability, a good student, and a true friend. Although slightly lacking in head covering, he is young and popular. He represents to us the true Morningsider.

THE JUNIOR CLASS

FOR the reader's information we are inserting here a few facts about the class of 1922. We are the class that subdued the present Senior bunch in every conceivable clash. It gives us considerable pleasure to recall our Freshman days when, under the leadership of President Harold Winters, the Sophomore men were tied in a barn for several hours while the girls waited for the party. It has been several years since a Freshman Class had given their immediate superiors such a drubbing. It was the Class of '22 that originated the tug-of-war across the Floyd river. For the first time in many years the Freshmen went through the year without losing as much as a single sandwich from any of our numerous parties.

As Sophomores, under the leadership of Leon Hickman, we vanquished the Class of '23. We relieved them of their ice cream and sandwiches at their first party, and ate it ourselves the next night. They then conceived the idea of playing basket-ball, but we annexed the long end of the score. In the spring we brought out the old rope and soon ten Freshmen were swimming in the Floyd.

We are the class from whose ranks the school has chosen its yell-leader for all of our three years in Morningside. We go out for athletics. We furnished 11 out of 15 varsity football men in our Freshman year, and have averaged six letter men a year in football since. Seven basket-ball men in the last three years have owed allegiance to the Class of '22. During our first two years at Morningside six places on the baseball team were the property of our class. We have women athletes as well. The basket-ball tournament of last year was decided in favor of our sextette. The winner of the girls' track meet was one of our class members. We claim two girls as champion tennis players for the first two years of our college competition. Three '22 co-eds played on the Yale-Harvard teams our first year, and five the second year.

We furnish the forensic leaders of the school. Three of our number made inter-collegiate debate as Freshmen. In our three years of forensics we have seen 10 members out of 22 chosen from the ranks of our classmen for inter-collegiate debate. The team that debated Redlands last year was composed exclusively of men who claimed '22 as their class. This year's Pacific Coast team includes one Junior and two other men who have been members of our class in days gone by. This year's representative to the Men's State Oratorical Contest is one of our number. We were represented in the women's debates of last year.

For the first time in the history of the school a Junior has been chosen to lead the Y. W. C. A. Every Y. W. cabinet has included girls from our class. In three years 11 out of 24 members of the Y. M. C. A. cabinet have claimed membership in our organization.

As Freshmen, one of our number was elected Business Manager of the Collegian Reporter, for the first time in the school's history. Several Freshmen won letters in track in our initial year at Morningside. Two of our members have obtained memberships in Delta Sigma Rho. The President of the Men's Glee Club, and most of the really remarkable singers of both Clubs, are members of '22. The assistant leader of our band is a Junior. Our class president this year, Miss Edna Bekins, is a convert from the Senior Class. We congratulate her upon her good judgment.

We are the class that has kept a very becoming modesty in the face of unprecedented ability. As we think it over we almost come to the point where we're willing to admit that we are good. We never would have claimed it for ourselves, but so many Sophomores and Seniors have told us that we are the dream of creation that we are ready to believe that for once they are telling the truth. We really are very brilliant. We admit it. We are glad that the world admits it. We are indeed proud of being known as the Class of 1922.

PAUL MacCOLLIN, A. B.
Director of the Conservatory of Music.
Instructor in Voice.

Professor MacCollin came to Morningside Conservatory in 1913, as an instructor in the Public School Music Department. In 1915 he became Director of the Conservatory, and under his able guidance the Conservatory has made gratifying progress. The enrollment shows an increase this year of about one hundred and fifty students. He organized the Grace Church Choir, the Men's Glee Club, the Madrigal Club, and the Choral Society. Each of these organizations has a great place in the musical life of Morningside. Professor MacCollin has done great things for Morningside Conservatory in the past and is planning many more for the future.

FAITH FOSTER WOODFORD
Instructor in Organ, Pianoforte and History of Music.

JAMES REISTRUP

Ishkoodah, that beautiful Indian word for comet, is the name given the good fellowship circle for the Freshman girls. In this club the girls get together, get acquainted and show their ability along literary lines.

As an experiment for this year the activities of the club have been divided into four departments, Dramatics, Forensics, Music, and Miscellaneous. In this way each girl may ally herself with the department in which she prefers to work.

If you want to know more about Ishkoodah, ask any girl who has ever been a member. They are all enthusiastic in their praise of the organization.

The Swastika Literary Society is a new organization made up of the Freshman men of the school. This society was organized by the men of the Freshman class of 1920-21, with the aid of the faculty and the men's inter-society committee.

The society has for its two-fold purpose the developing of the men along literary lines and the promotion of good fellowship among its members. Incidentally it raises the standard of the upper class societies inasmuch as no man may become a member of an upper class society without having been a member of Swastika as a Freshman.

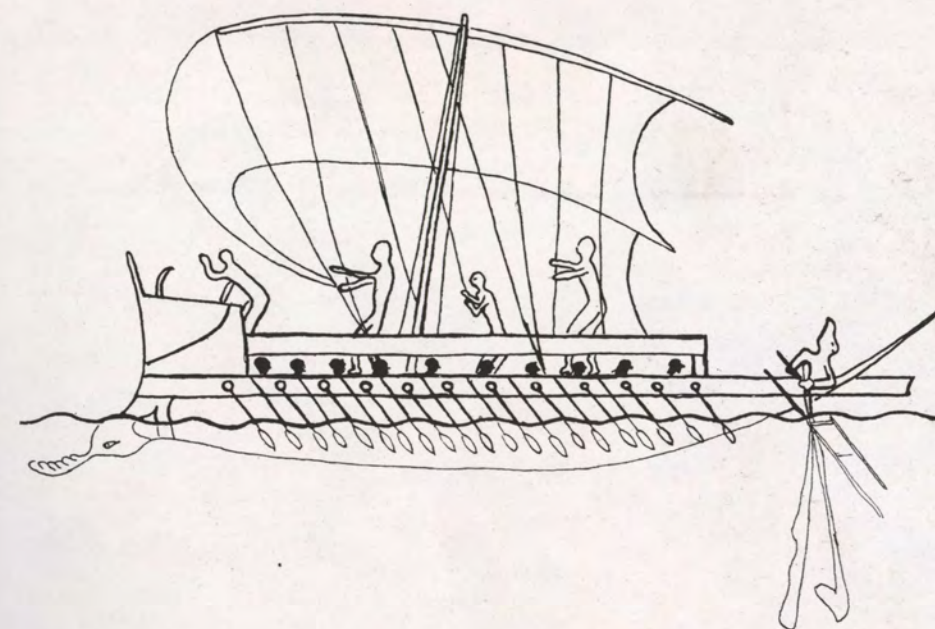

The aim of the society is to give to every man in school a chance to show his worth along the line of literary work and to develop within him that Morningside spirit prized by every loyal Morningsider.

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

ROBERT N. VAN HORNE, President

WILLIAM C. WOLLE, Secretary

To strengthen and carry on the mission of the College by their unity of effort is the primary purpose of the Alumni Association. As the College stands for its ideals in its work for humanity, so the Alumni, by sacrifice and service, will be a light to the world. Buildings decay and others are built, so the ranks of the Alumni change, but the purpose for the betterment of man does not change.

It is with the intention of more fully realizing this ideal that the Alumni Association, last June, hired Mr. William Wolle, of the class of 1920, to act as Alumni Secretary for the College. Mr. Wolle has charge of all the Alumni work of the school. It includes organizing local chapters of the Association, representing the College at meetings of these associations, collecting data regarding alumni and ex-students of the school, running the various reunions and home-comings of the Association; in short, doing the administrative work connected with the activities of the association.

THE CHINESE CLUB

The Chinese Club of Morningside College was founded September, 1920. Any foreigner attending school, anyone intending to become a missionary to the east, or anyone who is interested in the club is eligible for membership.

The aims of the club are as follows: (1) To improve the Christian individual; (2) to stimulate study; and (3) to destroy homesickness.

More than fifty dollars have been raised for the Chinese Prohibition League, and more than eight hundred dollars for the Chinese Relief Campaign.

POLITICAL CLUBS

Carroll

Stouffer

The college year of 1920-21 opened just as the Harding-Cox presidential campaign was entering the final round. Never in years has pre-election excitement been at a higher pitch. Morningsiders promptly decided to enter the fray. Rival political clubs sprang up—the Republican Club and the Cox-Roosevelt Club. Officers were elected as follows:

Republican Club—President, Andrew Stouffer; vice president, Miss Lillian E. Dimmitt; secretary, Leon Hickman.

Cox-Roosevelt Club—President, Arthur Carroll; vice president, Henry Marsh; secretary, Joyce Ingvolstadt.

The devotees of the G. O. P. enlisted over 300 members in the student body, while the Demos brought some hundred or more into their ranks. Partisans proudly displayed celluloid buttons.

Each organization conducted a column in the Collegian Reporter, in which some "hot stuff" was passed back and forth. The college bulletin boards were plastered with propaganda. Mass meetings of the student body and faculty were held, many of the leading spellbinders of Morningside and elsewhere participating.

Among the more distinguished speakers who appeared on the Morningside platform under the auspices of the political clubs were N. E. Kendall, Republican candidate for governor, and Claude R. Porter, Democratic candidate for United States senator.

CHORAL CLUB

The Morningside Choral Club is an organization composed of such residents of Morningside, and members of the student body, who are interested in chorus singing. Rehearsals are held weekly. Each year at Christmas time Handel's "Messiah" is rendered by the club, and it is planned to give a spring musical festival each year, the first one to be given this year. The officers of the club are as follows:

President, F. W. Schneider.
Vice President, W. C. Hilmer.
Secretary-Treasurer, W. M. Gewehr.
Manager, J. J. Hayes.
Director, Paul MacCollin.

This year the presentation of the "Messiah" eclipsed any former efforts. A chorus of 200 voices rendered the choruses. The following assisted in the rendition:

Soprano, Mrs. Paul MacCollin.
Alto, Mrs. James A. Coss.
Tenor, Mr. Luverne Sigmond.
Bass, Mr. Carl Norrbom.

The accompaniment was rendered by Miss Faith Woodford, at the organ; Miss Erna Ziehlsdorff, at the piano, and by a string orchestra which had been trained by Mr. Harold Buck.

The "M" Club is an organization composed of the athletes of the school who have won their letter in either football, basketball, baseball or track. The club is a democratic organization and elects its officers from its own membership. In co-operation with the faculty they determine the rules governing the winning of the college "M." Membership in this club is one of the goals every red-blooded man sets out to attain during his college course.

THE COACH

Coach Saunderson, athlete, trainer and man, is respected and admired by all who know him, and is worshiped by the men with whom he works. For nine years "Saundy" has been with us and during that time has built up football teams that have won recognition throughout the middle west. Turning down many offers to go to other schools, he remains with us as a personification of true Morningside spirit. His two-mile relay team that he has annually sent to the Drake relays won for six consecutive years, until the event became known as the "Morningside Special."

In baseball he has sent out some of the best teams in the state. He has not only been a great athlete himself, but knows how to develop others.

As a man he has won a place in the heart of every true Morningsider that has ever known him. To him Morningside owes no small part of her present place in the middle west.

FOOTBALL

Faye Rorapaugh, Captain

RORAPAUGH, Captain

"Ror" was a mighty power on the line and was a heady and efficient captain. His name was enough to make his opponent shrink, and "Ror" lived up to his name. He was always through the line and after his man. When he went down he always took at least two men with him. He handled his 220 pounds in a way that made ordinary men seem insignificant. "Ror" is one of our best all-around athletes.

DAVIS

"Les" has just completed his second year with so much credit to our team that he was a strong contender for state honors. His playing on defense and in hitting the line always showed him a never-ending source of energy.

DAY

The snappy, red-headed end again demonstrated his ability to "be there" when he was needed in a play. "Red" could cover a punt with lightning-like speed and was a bear for breaking up the enemy's passes.

STEELE, Captain-elect

"Bull" Steele is a man who knows how to play his position during every minute of a game. A quick, low charger on offense; on defense, a good fighter and a hard tackler. A player fully qualified to lead.

QUINN

"Bob" was our fighting quarter-back that sized up the opponent's weak spots and sent the back-field men through. "Bob" was good on forward passes and made many gains on end runs. He was a good general and never lost his head in a game. His best generalship was shown in the Drake game where he held the "Bull-dogs" until they had worn themselves out and then opened up on an offensive that our plunging backs carried to victory.

THOMPSON

Thompson was another man, developed under "Saundy's" coaching, who starred this year. Last year he was one of the hard-hitting scrubs, and this year his change to the Varsity did not lessen his zeal. His strong points were knocking interference and hard tackling. Louis played defensive full-back and backed up the line in fine style.

DOWN

Lawrence developed into the best passer we had. Many a time his thirty-five yard pass, thrown with cool and unerring judgment, was instrumental in making touchdowns. We can't forget that throw in the Vermillion game.

BRUSWITZ

"Herm" lost out last year because of a broken wrist received in the South Dakota game. This year he came back determined to make the team, and in doing this he so ably demonstrated his ability that he was placed on one of "Sec" Taylor's all state teams. A sure tackler and an adept at receiving forward passes, "Herm" was more than deserving of the honor accorded him.

KITCHEN

Kitchen, though light, was some scrapper and filled one of the guard berths without difficulty. He was a member of the 1918 squad. "Kitch" played a steady game throughout the season. His favorite pastime seemed to be to get down under kick-offs and nail the runner before he more than started.

EVANS

"Evie" made his letter at the half-back position. We are expecting him to come back next fall with that old "fight" of his that will do credit to the school and to him.

WEGNER

"Carl" played a good game at guard. Although hindered by his size he had a way of getting through the line that was all his own. On defense he was sure to spill his man and muss things in good shape. Carl still has years ahead of him and will be a man Morningside will be proud of before he is through.

BASHAW

"Bush" suffered a broken rib early in the season which kept him from winning his letter this year. Three years ago he won his "M" on the end position. He showed good form at the beginning of the season but was unable to finish.

MUNSON

This young giant from Estherville early found himself a place on the Varsity. He played guard and center and always gave a good account of himself. He developed a good spiral pass. His size made him very difficult for an opponent to handle. Next year Munson should be one of the mainstays in the line.

NISSEN

"Shorty" is one of those men who know how to side-step their opponent and make yardage by doing it. By substituting him at critical points in a game our opponents were given something else to worry about.

MICKELSON

"Mike" is a consistent fighter. His size was against him but he showed real "punch" at half and quarter. "Mike" got his training in high school and on the "scrubs." Men of his own size fall easy but the "mighty Mickelson" feared no one.

PRICHARD

Leslie Prichard won his letter this year in competition with men who were much superior in size. "Prit" played center and developed a spiral pass which should, in the course of a year or two, be the best in the state. He weighs only 155 pounds, but is 155 pounds of fighting determination and grit. His spirit is invincible and he blocked the best of plunging back-fields at center.

PARSONS

"Chub" hailed from Carroll, Iowa, and was one high school star that lived up to his reputation when he got to college. His two hundred and ten pounds enabled him to hold his own with any opponent. "Chub" never lacked the punch, amply demonstrating this in the South Dakota game. He proved himself a worthy mate of Captain Rorapugh.

THE TEAM

Nissen, Bashaw, Prichard, Quinn, Day, Davis.
Thompson, Steele, Rorapaugh, Munson, Kitchen.
Bruswitz, Mickelson, Evans, Down.

THE 1920 FOOTBALL SEASON

The season was a big one, and a successful one for Morningside. With only four of last year's veterans back, the players developed a remarkable brand of team work before the end of the season. The new men quickly adapted themselves to Saundy's methods and showed what could be done with one season of good coaching. Drake and South Dakota both went down to defeat before the onslaughts of Saundy's smooth-working, hard-hitting football machine backed by the bleachers full of real Morningside "pep" and co-operation.

Going through one of the stiffest schedules ever attempted, we came out with six victories. With most of the men of the team back in school next year we have every reason to anticipate even greater things in football next year.

MORNINGSIDE VS. SOUTH DAKOTA

Once more the Morningside warriors forced their ancient rivals from Vermillion to take the bitter pill of defeat. Crowded bleachers of enthusiastic rooters cheered themselves hoarse while the team played one of the best games ever seen on Bass Field. The game was clean and consistent, and the score, 6-3, was a fair estimate of each team's ability. This game is, and for over twenty years has been, one of the most bitterly contested games of the season. Time was, when we were forced to take the short end of the score, but never has Morningside spirit acknowledged defeat. That indomitable, unconquerable, never-say-die spirit that Professor Van Horne has told us so much about finally brought us to a place where we could hand them the short end of the score in three of the last four years.

We have "put South Dakota in the hole."

DRAKE VS. MORNINGSIDE

November 20, 1920, will long be remembered by all loyal Morningsiders. The Drake Bulldogs had come up from Des Moines to show us how to play football. It was up to us to defeat them and show the down state teams we were their equal. And we did.

During the first quarter Drake seemed to be playing the winning game, carrying the ball to within ten yards of Morningside's goal on three different occasions. On every occasion our men rallied, put up a stone wall and held the Bulldogs for downs.

In the second quarter Morningside came back with that unconquerable spirit to do or die. The visitors were unable to check the onslaught. By steady plunges through the line and around the end the ball was soon carried across the line. "Ror," true to form made a goal. Score 7-0.

Drake, rallying again for the last time, marched down the field, and recovering an intercepted forward pass before it touched the ground made their only touchdown. They missed the goal, making the score 7-6.

During the last quarter we again crossed the visitors' goal, making the final score, Morningside 14, Drake 6.

BASKETBALL

Meryle Shafenberg, Captain

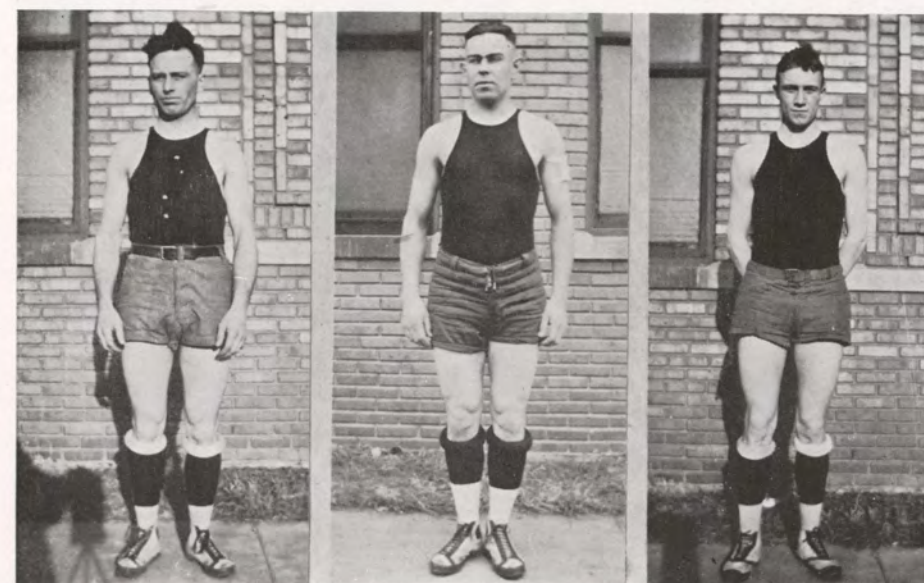

Captain Merle Shafenberg was one of the mainstays of the team. He held down the position of forward in a creditable way. He is fast, good on offense and defense, and a good basket shooter. He graduates this year and Saundy will miss him next winter.

Rorapaugh, the towering guard, always had all his opponents scared, as well as the referee. He was able (with the opposing team hanging somewhere on his massive frame) to dribble the entire length of the floor and shoot a basket from any angle.

Marlowe Evans, or better still, "Evie," has played every game this year. During this time he played guard, and many a time he has broken up some fast plays. "Evie" played a steady, consistent game and was noted for his quickness when handling the ball.

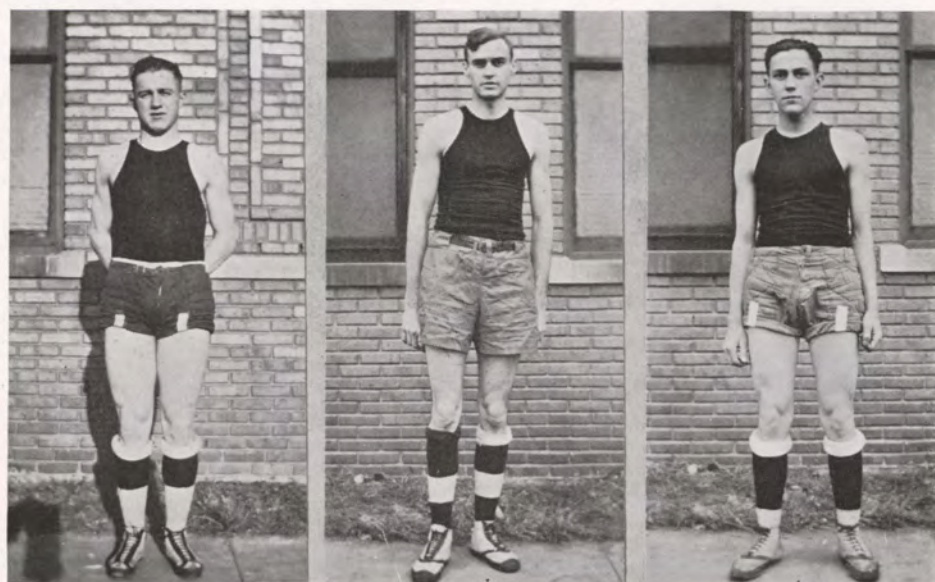

Percy Mickelson was a good all 'round man. He played best, however, at a forward position. He is small, but he made up in speed and nerve for what he lacked in stature. In shooting baskets, and breaking up defense, he was a good running mate for "Shaf." He graduates this year.

Harry Billiard started the season as sub, but his ability to shoot baskets soon won him a place on the team as forward. He is fast, a good basket shooter, and a whirlwind at defense. He has two more years, and should do wonders before leaving here.

Ed Williams filled the center position the first three games of the season, but was forced out of the game because of an injury to his ankle. Ed is an all around man. He could play center, guard, and shoot baskets at will. He has three more years ahead of him and should prove a valuable man on the squad.

Clifford Metcalf was a dependable man on the squad. He is short, but his speed and pep stood him in good stead when called upon to fill the job as center. He is a Freshman and three more years under Saundy will work wonders with him.

Floyd Conner, really a utility man, showed up well this year. His eye for the basket was commendable, but more so was his work at guarding his man. A valuable man in a pinch. He graduates this year and Morningside will lose a good man.

Gail Stucker shoots a basket with a steady eye. "Stuck" was always very cool headed, and used good judgement when shooting baskets. Although he did not play in every game, he was of great assistance to the Maroon team in the last two games. With training, next year he will develop into one of Morningside's "dependables."

Top Row—Stucker, Rorapaugh, Conner, Williams, Jones.
Bottom Row—Evans, Shafenberg, Mickelson, Metcalf.

THE TEAM

THE SEASON

When the season is reviewed, the conclusion is inevitable that it has been a successful one. Although we were defeated time and again by teams which we feel ought to have been beaten, every student will agree that the season was a success because the games were played fair and square. The coach, the team, each individual member of the team, and the student body can say with a clear conscience that they were "good sports."

Immediately after the close of the football season last fall, Saundy put in a call for basketball material, whereupon forty men put in their appearance. Among these forty were three letter men, Shafenberg, Rorapaugh, and Mickelson, and two men who substituted last year, Evans and Davis.

Coach Saunderson will have several of his squad back next year, and he will, in all probability, develop a team fully as good or better than the one he had this year.

1920 BASEBALL SEASON

Last year's baseball season was one which we have just reason to be proud of. Starting the season by cleaning up on Armour's, 11 to 3, just for practice the team went out and won six out of the next seven games. Ames was the only team that made our boys take the short end of the score. Drake lost both games to us here and our old rival, South Dakota, lost two games here and one on their home field later in the season. Simpson was another school to go down to defeat.

"Obe" and Friest handled the pitcher's job efficiently and Davis and "Ror" functioned behind the bat. This combination could not help but win.

TENNIS

Fouke

Stouffer

The tennis courts at Morningside are popular in spring and fall from the time the birdies awake in the morning until evening darkness puts an end to the day's pastime. Many are the happy hours that Morningside's lads and lassies have spent batting the elusive white ball back and forth across the net.

Since last year's "Sioux" was published two home tournaments and one inter-collegiate tournament have taken place on the Morningside courts. In the inter-collegiate battle, Morningside decisively whipped Western Union College in both doubles and singles.

The spring tournament for the college championship in men's singles was won by Hugh Fouke, '20, with Oliver Mieras runner-up. The fall tournament was won by Andrew Stouffer. Goodwin was the runner-up.

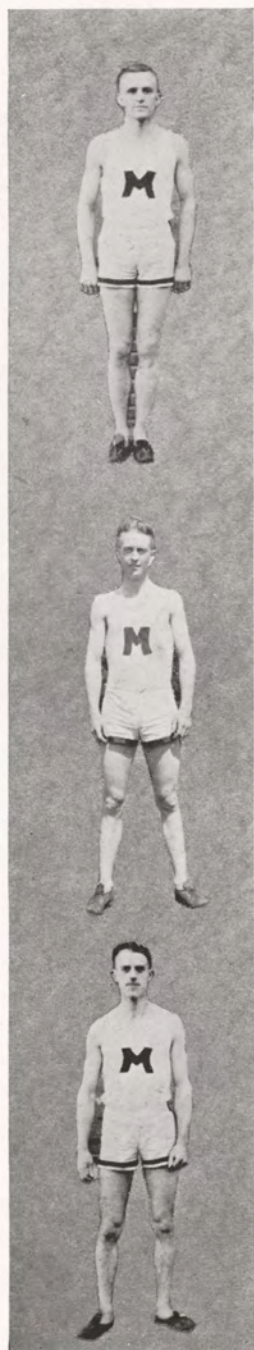

The Morningside College Tennis Association was in charge of all the tournament matches.

TRACK

Meryle Shafenberg, Captain

SHAFENBERG

Our track team will have something missing when Shafenberg graduates. He has made the track squad every year that he has been in school, and last year was captain. The half-mile is his specialty, but he also performs in the quarter and is a member of the relay team. "Shaf" twice helped the relay team bring home the bacon from Drake.

JONES

The captain-elect is our pole-vaulting phenomenon. He never fails to win his event. "J. P." is another man who has succeeded in making the track squad for several years.

SEEMAN

"Al" found his place in the hundred yard dash. He is a hard worker and makes anyone that passes him know he is moving. He also runs in the 220, placing second in this event.

EVANS

Mac was our lanky miler and he could cover the distance in good form. He ran an even race and could not be induced to change his long, steady stride. Mac won his letter in this event three years ago. After a year in the army he came back and showed that he was still up to form by winning the event again this year.

LORY

"Shag" has a friend in the broad jump. He says he is not built for speed but he does like to "jump around a little."

FOUKE

Hugh was our utility track man. He was an adept in several events, including the discus, javelin, shot put, high jump, and hurdles.

WENIG

"Obe" was one of Morningside's greatest all-round athletes. In track he performed on the the weights and the jumps. In the high jump he literally floated over the bar. He won "individual honors" in the triangular meet and gained  $10\frac{3}{4}$  of our  $12\frac{3}{4}$  points in the state meet.

CECIL MAHOOD

Cecil Mahood is a man who is rapidly developing into an excellent cinder path artist. "Cec" participated last year for the first time in inter-collegiate athletics. He first won a place on the Drake relay team, where he ran as third man, negotiating his half in 2:05 minutes. He then won a berth on the regular team. In the Drake dual meet he won his letter by running his half-mile in 2:03 1-5.

MEYER

Herb, the midget track phenomenon of recent years. He ran the prettiest race seen on Bass Field for many a day. His size had nothing to do with his ability as a runner. He gloried in passing the big fellows on the curves. The quarter and half-mile were his favorite races.

HERBERT MAHOOD

Herbert Mahood also traveled to Drake and ran his lap in the relay in 2:08. He then went to the triangular and captured a second in each of the short dashes. At the Drake dual he won the 440 yard dash and placed second in the 100 yard dash.

TREFZ

"Jake" is an example of what consistent hard work can do. The Monument Run and the two-mile were his past-times. When "Jake" started running nothing but the tape could stop him. He was a conscientious trainer and won his letter in the two-mile.

THE SEASON

The track season was not a very successful one from the standpoint of victories won. South Dakota nosed out a victory by the narrowest margin, in the triangular meet between Morningside, Yankton, and South Dakota. Our old rivals collected  $59\frac{1}{2}$  points while the Maroons were but five points behind. "Obe" Wenig was the individual star of the meet, winning 15 points, and was five points ahead of his nearest competitor.

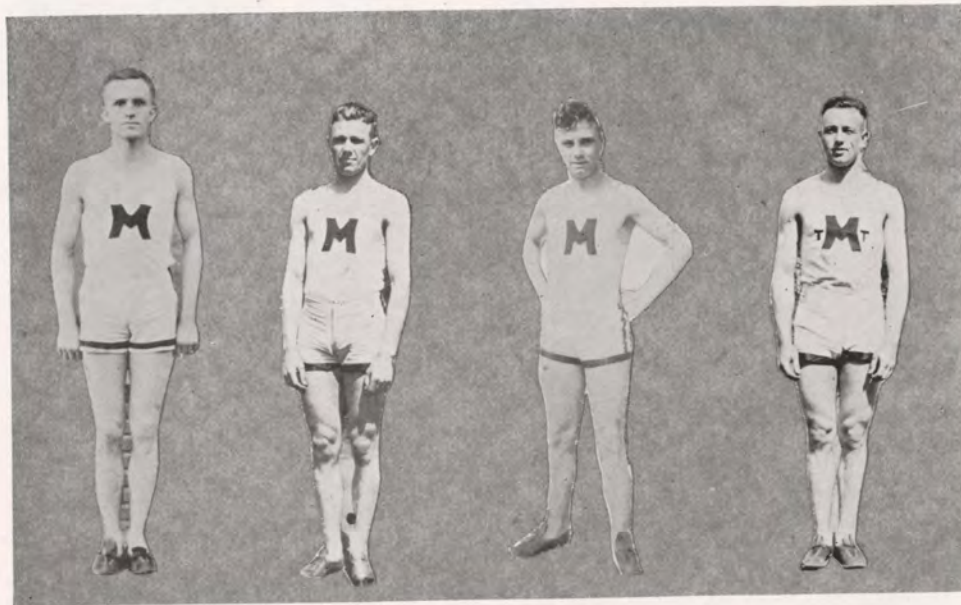

Drake won the dual meet by a two-point margin. It was the most fiercely fought track contest the Maroons have entered in years. The two teams were very evenly matched. However, Drake amassed more seconds and thirds, overbalancing Morningside's eight firsts. Fouke was the high point winner of the Maroon team, having ten counters to his credit.

Although Morningside was unsuccessful in winning meets, its representatives defeated Drake, Coe, Cornell, and other aspirants for honors at the state meet. Morningside placed fourth in the meet. Wenig won individual honors. He was responsible for  $10\frac{3}{4}$  points. Jones, winning second in the pole vault, added two more to the Morningside score.

DRAKE RELAYS

Shafenberg

H. Mahood

Meyer

C. Mahood

For many years Morningside has specialized on the two-mile relay with the result that for six consecutive years we carried off first honors. Last year the fates were against us and we failed to extend the enviable record. The event went to Wabash College, who ran the race in but one second less than the record established by our team in 1915, when the race was won in 8:15. On account of the condition of our track at that early date, most of the training had to be done indoors which was a serious handicap to our men. However, our men ran a good race and are determined to go back next year to win.

THE MONUMENT RUN

Harold Nissen

The Annual Monument Run was won this year by Harold Nissen. He finished the course in 20 minutes and 31 seconds. There was no snow on the ground but a cold north-west wind made running difficult. The race is held every year on February 22, regardless of the weather. The course is from the gymnasium to Floyd Monument and back. It covers nearly three miles and goes up hill and down hill in true cross-country style.

This is the second year that the M. C. Club has been organized. Any girl earning 55 points is eligible for membership. The regular meetings are held on the second and fourth Tuesdays of each month. Business and a social time are the order of the evening.

SWEATER WINNERS

B. Radley    I. Stevens    Z. Baldwin
L. Williams    B. Scoville

A white sweater, with an M. C. monogram in maroon, is presented to any senior girl earning seventy points during her four years in school. Not more than twenty points a year may count toward a sweater.

The following girls have won sweaters in other years:

1919—Aurelia Sturdevant, Ruth Mahood.

1920—Hazel Bergeson, Flossie Day, Gladys Knapp.

VOLLEY BALL

SOPHOMORES

The volley ball tournament is held in the fall. Any girl in school is eligible to play on her class team. The tournament is played between classes. This year the Sophomores won the tournament, winning from the Juniors by a score of 30 to 28. The five best players on each team receive 10 points, and all others 5 points.

The Tennis Tournament was held last spring, but on account of the weather conditions, it was impossible for Miss Williams and Miss Stevens to play the final games. Class champion receives 10 points, and College champion 5 points.

TRACK

Iris Knight

Alice Foulkes

Gladys Brown

The track meet, which takes place in the latter part of May, closes the athletics for girls. The hundred yard dash, ball throwing, relays, high and broad jump are the activities in which the contestants participate. Three girls tied for first place last year, each having 4 1/4 points.

BASEBALL

E. Meyers, C. Andrews (capt.), R. Montgomery

M. Johnson, I. Knight, L. Lovsholdt (capt.), R. Bair
D. Skewis, G. Kane, Z. Kane

Indoor baseball is played in the spring. The class tournament last year was won by the Academy, with the Sophomores as runner up. The five best players on each team receive 10 points, and all others 5 points.

HOCKEY

Hockey is an outdoor sport which is enjoyed by players and spectators alike. It is played in the fall, and Morningside has a fine equipment, so every girl may enjoy this form of athletics. The points are the same as for baseball.

HIKES

Three five-mile hikes a semester count as five points on an M. C. sweater. When the weather is good one is quite apt to see girls walking toward the city or the Monument. It is difficult to find a better all 'round exercise than hiking.

FOR FORENSIC

THE DEBATE COACH

PROF. C. A. MARSH

MORNINGSIDE FORENSICS

Morningside can boast of no prouder attainments than are written in her forensic records. No other department provides greater possibilities and attractions for self expression. Debate and oratory train men and women to think with discrimination, and to express with force and accuracy the conclusions reached. Forensics serve other purposes which are perhaps as worthy as that of developing forensic skill. They raise the scholastic standards of the college and inspire the strongest efforts. They advertise the school in the best light. Men and women of lofty ideals are attracted to our college by her splendid record in forensics. There is no greater unifying force in the student body of Morningside College than debate and oratory. As long as Morningside maintains her present interest in forensics, there is no need to fear a decline of school spirit.

FORENSIC LEAGUE

First Row—Long, Meyer, Stouffer, Trindle, Marsh, Bekins, Coombs. Second Row—Packard, Bond, Back, Paradisanos, Miller, Reed. Third Row—Fowler, Hickman, Smith, Freeburn, Johnston, Bruce, Decker. Fourth Row—Kniffen, Benz, Reed, Arnold, Baldwin, Alt.

The Forensic League has for its immediate purpose the boosting of Morningside forensic activities, both intra-mural and inter-collegiate. It selects questions for inter-society debates, conducts all home debates and oratorical contests within the institution as a whole, assists in determining our inter-collegiate forensic policies, and encourages the development of the art of the forum. It is composed of representatives of the various literary societies of the school.

MORNINGSIDE'S ORATORICAL RECORD, 1901-1920

Morningside has been successful to a high degree in her oratory. She has to her credit no better inter-collegiate record than in this type of forensics. Including State, Prohibition, and Peace contests, some of them national in scope, her students have represented their Alma Mater forty-three times, winning nine firsts, thirteen seconds, and nine thirds.

DEBATE THIS YEAR

Morningside selects her inter-collegiate men debaters from those who make the best showing in inter-society debate, and from contestants in a general try-out. This year ten men were chosen.

Six women debaters were picked from nine candidates in a public try-out, each woman speaking individually on either side of the League of Nations question. We believe Morningside has a bright future in women's debate, for there is plenty of close competition in the try-outs.

This year, in the main, we have continued the single expert judge system. But in our dual with South Dakota University we tried another innovation—that of the open forum. The open forum in debate is based on the contention that training, and not the decision, is the chief end sought. No decision is given. After the formal debate the public was permitted to ask questions, a limited amount of time given for reply. But some criticize this method, alleging that it provides no stimulus for strong competition.

THE WESTERN TRIP

Through the efforts of Professor Chas. A. Marsh, of the Department of Public Speaking, Morningside was able, this spring, to secure a debate schedule with five of the leading colleges and universities of the west. We take great pride in the recognition this gives our forensic prowess. Such a trip is an innovation in the curriculum of the school and deserves the heartiest commendation of all interested in the future of our institution.

The men selected for the western trip were Ralph Long, Leon Hickman, Andrew Stouffer, and Henry Marsh but Henry Marsh was compelled, by circumstances, to forego the trip. Morningside upheld the affirmative in each debate on the question, "Resolved, That the illiteracy test restricting immigration should be materially strengthened.

MONUMENT DAY

Repeating a long established tradition, one bright May morning last spring, co-eds and fellows made a hasty exit from the college chapel after the close of the service and, led by the college band, marched to the Floyd Monument on the banks of "Old Muddy," in celebration of the annual Monument Day. It was by all means a gala event.

Filled with the care-free spirit which is all invading in warm May weather, all worries were flung to the breeze, and with joyous shouts the students frolicked over the hills and through the valleys to the steps of the monument to listen to a snappy program of speeches.

Carroll Northup, 1919-20 student body president, was master of the ceremonies, and with a lusty voice called upon Morningside's famous sons and daughters for inspirational talks. Then, following a series of college yells and songs the students dispersed, mostly by couples, some returning directly to the world of duties while others spent the remainder of the day in wandering the bluffs of the Missouri.

MAY FETE

May Day in old England, with its dancing and festivities, was most pleasantly presented at the annual college May Fete, held on Bass Field, the evening of May 25, 1920. The fete was a representation of the festivities common to every English village during the reign of Queen Elizabeth.

The affair, which was attended by a splendid crowd, was opened with an old English dance by co-eds gowned in the costumes of the period. As the dancers left the green, the Jester appeared announcing the arrival of the Queen. Accompanied by a long train of Daisy girls, who scattered daisies at the foot of the throne, the Queen entered and was seated upon the throne under a canopy of flowers. The crown was presented her by the retiring Queen.

Immediately following there was the winding of the May Pole, it preceding a solo dance, "The Lass With a Delicate Air," by Miss Marie Broughton. Miss Lulu Guiney sang the accompaniment to the dance.

Then came the "Dance of the Druids," the dancers in green and yellow costumes, followed by the "Dance of the Trolls." The "Coming of Spring" was announced by Miss Hazel Berg in a dainty solo dance. The "Dance of the Flowers" and "Spring Breezes" completed the program.

Miss Laura Engberg was the Queen of the May, and Miss Gladys Knapp, the retiring Queen. Miss Naomi Good directed the fete.

GRAND PUBLIC

Every third year, each literary society of the school is privileged to give a public entertainment, usually in the form of dramatic work, in the college chapel. Last year the Grand Public was presented by the Othonian and Zetaethean literary societies.

Three one-act Irish plays were cleverly presented before an audience which completely filled the college chapel, on the evening of April 24, 1920. The plays, two of which were comedies and one a tragedy, were characterized by clever acting by everyone who took part and showed weeks of faithful preparation.

PI KAPPA DELTA CONVENTION

Morningside College is among the educational institutions of the country which boast a chapter of the Pi Kappa Delta national honor forensic fraternity which maintains fifty chapters in twenty different states. To become a member of the order a student must have participated in at least one recognized inter-collegiate debate or oratorical contest.

In March, 1920, it was the privilege of Morningside to entertain the national convention of the order. Representatives of the various chapters were entertained by the local chapter for two days. The convention was featured by an oratorical contest in which representatives of nine schools participated, and two debates, one between Redlands University and Morningside College, and one between Kalamazoo College and Oklahoma Agricultural College.

Professor Charles A. Marsh, head of the department of Public Speaking, is the national secretary of Pi Kappa Delta, having held that position since 1917.

CLASS PLAY

AGORA BANQUET

Amid beautiful decorations of colored streamers and flowers, which formed a canopy covering the entire gymnasium floor, college co-eds, mothers, women of the faculty, and high school girls, assembled on the evening of February 19, 1921, for the Eleventh Annual Women's Banquet.

The toast program was the finest and most inspirational ever presented. Mrs. Graber ably presided as toastmistress, calling upon Edna Van Sickle, Charity Bekins, Mabel Back, Mary Decker, and Helen Albro for the toasts from the classes. Miss Frances Kolp toasted for the alumnae and Miss Faith Woodford for the faculty. There was also a vocal solo by Miss Ruth Rasey and several selections by the Madrigal Club.

It was the largest Agora banquet ever held, more than four hundred being in attendance. The tables were most artistically decorated by the classes, which contended strongly for the silver loving cup given for the best decorated table and the best percentage of attendance. It was won by the Juniors.

The banquet was efficiently served by the men of the upper classes of the college, and while not as much emphasis was placed upon the menu by the co-eds as at the Men's Banquet, it was, nevertheless, as fine and as well enjoyed.

MEN'S BANQUET

Students, faculty, alumni, patrons and guests from the high schools of the territory, gathered en masse at the Annual Men's Banquet, held February 18, 1921, in the college gymnasium. The banquet proved a decided success, and there was an air of college spirit in the activities of the evening which has been absent on previous occasions.

The banquet was by far the largest ever held in the history of the college. Needless to say, the men of the student body and faculty registered a one-hundred per cent attendance, while the turn-out of the alumni and high school students exceeded all past records.

The spirit of good fellowship abounded. The toasts, given by a member of each class, the alumni, and one by President Mossman, were inspirational. The banter of jokes from one banquet to another, as the classes vied with each other for premier honors as joke-dispensers, lent a delightful feeling of mirth to the affair.

And last, but not least—the "eats"—sublimely served by Senior misses with a strong desire to make a most matronly impression, completed a well spent evening filled with good things.

SECOND HOUR CLASS

This class has been struggling for existence ever since the founding of the school, but it is only during the last year that, under competent instructors, it has come into prominence. The principal requirement for admission consists of proficiency in the art of rolling the bones. Cigaret smoking is not required, but a member is conditioned without it. A complete course in western literature was also required this year, special emphasis being placed on Alger, the dime series and Snappy Stories. Nick Carter's works were read in full. Those contemplating taking religious education must be familiar with the authors No Name, Frank Reade, Jr., Broadway Billy, and any two of the authors discussed in Hayes's English IV. course. Students who have been expelled from other schools or colleges will be admitted without taking the entrance examinations.

The curriculum is pre-eminently adapted to the development of complete ignorance. Students can rest assured that on leaving this class they will know absolutely nothing. If you don't believe it, we refer you to our alumni, the present Senior and Sophomore classes, both of whom graduated with honors. It is perhaps unnecessary to add that the less a student knows, the higher his standing in the class.

Book racks have been installed at the College Inn and the Triangle so members may leave their books here from week to week and not be annoyed by the sight of them. The names of the present students will be found below, in the order of their ability, as shown by the last semester's grades.

CLUBS

BACHELOR'S CLUB

Founded—Some years ago by C. Oelfke, Esq.
 Present State of Organization—Mighty weak.
 Motto—"Watch Your Step."
 Song—"Rock of Ages."

This organization was founded four years ago by the Senior class over Miss Dimmitt's protest. There are two chapters, i. e., chapter by necessity, and chapter by choice. Anyone who wishes to join, send their application to Clarence Oelfke, the greatest living survivor of this celebrated company. Present members are:

CHAPTER BY NECESSITY

Paul Zicke	Arthur Abel
Robert Johnston	Virgil DeWitt
Elmer Rankin	Swede Smith
¶Fay Rorapaugh	§Ronald Wilson
Arthur Schuldt	Howard Down

CHAPTER BY CHOICE

¶Expelled for breach of rules.

§Holds a life membership.

‡On probation. Seems to have lost much of original enthusiasm.

NOTICE—Mr. Royal Jurgeson has resigned from the organization, as its policy was not to his liking.

LADIES AID CLUB

This organization is a new one this year and derives its virile membership largely from the Freshman class. It was organized to counteract the Bachelor's Club and, to say the least, it has been remarkably successful. In fact, it claims some four or five ex-bachelors among its membership.

Society Motto—"Chase Me Girls—I'm a Rainbow."
 Society Song—"Beautiful K-Katy."

Founded—January, 1921, by Johnny Faust.

Time of Meeting—8 to 12 p. m. daily, and 2 to 6 p. m. Sunday.

ATHLETICS

Speaking confidentially instead of athletically, Morningside has turned out some great athletic teams this year. The Morningside "Miruns" have won two state championships, have come out ahead in several duals, have finished an inglorious last in six events, and have won a national contest in lying, hands down. Some of our teams were never heard of. Nevertheless, our policy of space filling requires that these minor sports be mentioned.

Dual Track Meet—Morningside Vs. Correspondence School

100 Yard Shot Put—Faust (Morningside), first; Jones (Correspondence School), second. Time, 5 feet, 3 inches.

One Mile High Jump—Winkleman, either one (Morningside), first; Gillette (Correspondence School), second. Weight, 10 pounds, 16 ounces.

440 Yard Pole Vault—Red Day (Independent), first; Cannon (Morningside), second. Time, 10 flat. (The former, on his back), Half Mile Broad Jump—Reed (Correspondence School), first; Woodruff (Buena Vista), second. Height, 126 feet, 3 seconds.

High Hurdling Discus—Munson (Morningside), first; Munson (Morningside), second. Curvature, 26 degrees, 14 minutes.

Marathon Race—(Vine to St. Aubin and return)—Engberg (Morningside) and Stouffer (Morningside), tied for first. Time, .32-4. (Return time much slower).

220 Yard Standing Low Hurdles—Raun (Freshman), first; Marsh (Morningside) also ran. Time, 9:15 o'clock. East Junior High.

24 Hour a Day Hot air Drive—Zieke (Storm Lake), first; Zieke (Morningside), second. Zieke (Sunshine Inn) puts up a good race. Zieke (Psychology Class) disqualifies on thought.

Chapel Attendance—Faculty (Morningside), first; students (Morningside), second.

TIDDLEWINKS MEET—HOME CONTEST

This meet aroused probably the greatest amount of enthusiasm of any athletic contest of the season. Due to the brutal nature of the game, children in their parent's arms were not admitted. The meet was held in the stand at Peters Park, before a vast throng of yelling and excited enthusiasts, on the evening of May 8, immediately following breakfast.

The gladiators who were to wield the tiddlewinks were appropriately bedecked. Leslie Davis wore a red necktie and Stanley Pearson had on a pair of shoes. As Ralph Long strode to the side of his two coajutors, clad in a pair of boxing gloves, the crowd evinced great excitement.

The opposing team was late in arriving due to the fact that they could not find Peters Park. Soon dashing Captain Metcalf, of the lost trio, recovered his few brains and led his warriors into the fray. Both Perwitz and Oelfke were heavily armed and on the lookout for trouble.

At this stage of the game, Bishop Glazier offered the invocation and Ed Williams took up a collection for the starving students at Dawes' Boarding House. Following this the six participants sang a duet on the subject. "Resolver That Hot Air Is More Nourishing Than the Smell of an Onion."

The great battle now began. Metcalf shook a mean wrist and his team took the lead. At this stage Ralph Long got pretty mad and by a masterly exhibition of tiddlewinks, put his team back in the running. Davis and Pearson both played splendid games, showing the advantage of their years of playing, despite the fact that both looked healthy and Davis had eaten a hearty breakfast.

But Perwitz, Metcalf and Oelfke had been playing as a team so much of the year in Mrs. Jackson's shrine that they gradually took the lead and were never headed after the first quarter. Metcalf played a wonderful game at standing guard, and Pearson's work at shortstop drew much favorable comment. Davis' lobbing, together with his sharp serve and net work got away good. The other players not mentioned were still better.

For the benefit of those reading this account, the game played was Tiddlewinks.

Where All the Northwest Shops

Davidson's is your logical shopping center.

Founded 36 years ago, and builded ever since upon the right ideals of fairness, honesty, full value for your money and consistently good service to all, this store has grown and grown in the estimation of this community, until today it is the Northwest's Great Department Store.

Today the merchandise values we can offer you, the service we proffer, are unequalled in this territory. Under this roof are to be found almost all the commodities which enter into the wardrobes of people, or the furnishing of homes.

We wish to urge you, when you are in Sioux City, or when you wish to shop by mail, to give due consideration to the service we are able to render you, and the values we give. When you buy here, you lengthen the usefulness of your family budget, and lend an added note of economy to your buying.

Do you know your college, its history, traditions and customs? In order to encourage you to find out some of these things we have consented to answer some of the many questions that have been fired at us:

Questions

1. Why doesn't the Reporter suspend publication? H. C.
2. Did Morningside win a basketball game last year? E. F.
3. Has anyone ever studied in the library? A. F. McM.
4. Why is more face powder spilled just this side of Devitt's than any other corner of the campus? E. B.
5. Did George Leazer ever win a monument run? R. B.
6. Why do Morningside co-eds keep a fellow waiting half an hour every time you have a date? Is it a tradition? H. L. F.

Answers

1. Violet; nobody knows.
2. No. Prunella, the Shifters are not an honor scholarship society.
3. R. F. D. Yes, the honor system is successful. Four lumps of chewing gum remained untouched yesterday beneath a chapel seat.
4. Near Sighted: Unfortunately men are not allowed to attend the Yale-Harvard games.
5. S. O. S.: Our new policy of purity prohibits the answering of your query. If you will send us a stamped and self addressed envelope (together with $5.00 to cover cost of wrapping and registration) we will gladly oblige you with no expense on your part.
6. Anxious Voter: Amendment 22 prohibits the riding of elephants in aeroplanes.

TO THE COLLEGE STUDENT!

Dear Student:

If you were able to write shorthand and operate a typewriter, do you realize what it would mean to you?

It would enable you to get in all of the lectures and get them easier and you would save a number of hours every week by using the typewriter in copying your notes.

The ability to do stenographic work would also bring you into closer touch with the FACULTY and you know that this would mean greater opportunity for you now, also at the time of examination.

If you were able to do stenographic work, you could if you desired, turn this ability into money right now, and when you were once through with your course, you would find that this accomplishment would be valuable to you no matter what calling you might follow.

Our summer course will begin the first week in June. If you could devote about three months to shorthand and typewriting under our Individual Plan of Instruction, you should be able to qualify.

We will take but a limited number for this course and we trust that you may be one of the number.

May we hear from you?

Fashion Park Clothes are Stage-approved clothes

Due to the clever style treatments and the expert tailoring of Fashion Park Clothes, actors of some of America's most famous theatrical productions have their stage clothes "tailored at Fashion Park."

If, perchance, you should see any of the following 1921 stage successes---

"Oh! Boy"	"What's in a Name"
"Very Good Eddie"	"Little Miss Charity"
"Mary"	"Take It From Me"
"Irene"	"Leave It to Jane"
"Three Showers"	"Ziegfield Follies"

Note well the smartness of line,
the individuality of style in the clothes the actors will wear—

They'll be Fashion Park Clothes

They hold the center of the stage for the young high school or college man. The clever developments of Fashion Park Clothes appeal best to the young man because of their snap and pep.

"Kay-Bac"—"Bi-Swing"—"Stanerek"—"Turole"—are all exclusive Fashion Park features. See them at Pelletier's—in Sioux City—the only representative of Fashion Park.

splendid co-operation.

Other members of the Junior Class, who gave of their time and effort in helping make the book a success.

Mr. Roy Justus, for his work in the Art Department.

Mr. James J. Hayes, for his assistance in the Art Department and kindly advice at critical points.

The Genelli Studio, for their efforts to make the photographic section of the book a success.

The Bureau of Engraving, for their valued suggestions and prompt service.

The Verstegen Printing Company, for their work in producing a good book.

Our advertisers, for making the publication of this book possible.

The student body, for their part in making the 1922 "Sioux" a success.
