Greeks Continue to Grow

The 1986-87 School year found Morningside's Greek system in a growing and rebuilding frenzy. Delta Sigma Phi, Alpha Delta Pi, and Alpha Omicron Pi were busy recruiting new members and growing scholastically. Alpha Tau Delta was rebuilding from the Sigma Phi Epsilon Chapter to the local Alpha Tau Delta Chapter. Tau Kappa Epsilon was also in a reorganizing and rebuilding year. In an article published in the Collegian Reporter, the Delta Sigma Phi fraternity submitted and article to help spark more interest in the Greek system at Morningside. Although it is given from the viewpoint of the Delta Sigs, the entire Greek system can benefit from its implications. That article is reprinted here in hopes that even more interest in the five fraternities and sororities on Morningside campus will continue to grow and build in the years to come.

During the Greek Week Banquet Greek Man (Doug Beauchene — Delta Sigma Phi) and Greek Woman (Sheila Kennerly — Alpha Delta Pi) of the Year were recognized. Each fraternity and sorority nominates their prospective candidates and then the entire Greek system elects the new recipients. Other nominees this year were Rob Hannusch (Alpha Tau Delta) and Kim Stahl (Alpha Omicron Pi).

Scholastically everyone won. The ATD's and AOPi's were recognized as the top chapters for the fall semester and the spring semester recognized the ADPi's and Negus, Sheila Kennerly, and Tonja LaFrenz, ATD: Eric Boe, Rob Hannusch, and E. J. Stanek, AOP: Beth Quade, Sharon Schuth and Barb Jensen, Delta Sigma Phi: Terry Bohlke, Dan Kruger, and Troy Jasman.

Greek Week '87 included a fundraiser to fight hunger in Sioux City, an All-Greek social, leadership workshop, and volleyball. Greek Week is sponsored by the Greeks to promote unity among the chapters, offer recognition for the past year's achievements and celebrate the history of the Greeks on Morningside's Campus.

A few weeks ago when the Delta Sigs commenced with the second rush season of 1987 many of us were asked why anyone should think of committing to Delta Sigma Phi. To quote one of our senior members I asked "who could afford not to?". The world is often an unfriendly environment filled with faceless people who could care less about others. The way to cope with this indifference is simple friendship. The close circle of men who call each other "brother" is the heart and soul of fraternity life. Our friendship is pledged eternal and can not be broken by time or circumstance. This is the solemn oath we vow to each member of our brotherhood and it is this vow that sets us apart in unity from all other men.

When you decide to join our circle you must first pass the test of pledgship. This is not a period of hazing, either physical or mental harassment, but a trial encounter to see if Delta Sigma Phi is for you and if you are for fraternity life. It is a period for us to get to know you better as you learn more about us. We stress that the hazing rituals glorified in "Animal House" and other horror stories are not a part of Delta Sigma Phi as we see this as having no practical benefit for building the bond that encompasses us all.

Initiation, following your passing of the test of pledgship, is the gate through which you pass to join our brotherhood. Once passed you are a full fledged member of the Delta Sigma Phi fraternity. Only then can you be allowed to wear the gold pin that signifies membership. You are not only a part of the hundreds of Morningside men known as Delta Sigs but a part of the thousands of men all over a hundred campuses across the country who share your experience. You have earned the respect needed to be called "brother."

Then what? You are then appointed to a position within the local chapter. You may be in charge of organizing a social event, keeping track of the scholastic progress of your brothers, or any of the dozens of positions that keep the fraternity running smoothly. There is also an individual purpose for your work; to build the responsibility and integrity that enables you to assume the commitment of leadership, a goal we all push each other to achieve now and in the future.

If this article has sparked your interest in Delta Sigma Phi, the bond we share, and the goals we pursue, feel free to contact any of the men wearing green and white. Go Greek, think big, think Delta Sig.

Rebuilding

TKE's: Tau Kappa Epsilon was established on Morningside's campus in 1955. Since its founding in 1899, Tau Kappa Epsilon has had as its goal high standards of scholarship and community service. Delta Sigma Chapter of the T.K.E. is in the midst of reorganizing at Morningside and is looking for men who want a chance to experience leadership and cooperation.

A.D.Pi's Celebrate 30th Anniversary

Alpha Delta Pi had a busy year in 1986-87. The biggest event this year was to plan the 30th anniversary week in April. Some events of the week included: A picnic, a golf tournament, sheet painting, sheet cakes and much more. The ADPi's participated in the campus "Greek Week," they had a tailgate party for Homecoming, and met with the entire Greek system for a Christmas Party for underprivileged children in the Sioux City area. They also organized a can drive for another fundraiser, Summer Retreat was planned for Okaboji with the ADPi alumni, Special awards went to Alicia Wessendorf when she was chosen as ADPi pianist for the ADPi convention in Scottsdale, Arizona held in June.

Alpha Omicron Pi — “Love and Roses”

Alpha Omicron Pi is a social sorority with chapters all across the United States and Canada. We are a non-profit organization and we do various activities throughout the year. Our members are in other organizations on campus as well. Some have participated in the Theater productions, U.P.A., Honor Societies, and homecoming functions.

The Theta Chi Chapter of Alpha Omicron Pi had an eventful school year. We held our annual functions and also participated in a few new and old, with the Greeks on campus.

In the fall we built a float with the women of Alpha Delta Pi for the Corn Bowl. Although we did not receive a prize, we all had a good time.

We also held our annual Barn Ball on Halloween. We turned our dance into a costume party and everyone came dressed to fit their moods.

The next event was our Christmas cozy. We had a pre-Christmas party before our dance with all of our sisters and dates. We kept the Christmas spirit alive!

In February we had February Follies. It was just a nice get-together for all the AOTT's and their dates.

Last but not least we had our Rose Formal. This was a very special evening for all of us. The seniors did their annual prophecies and wills and tried to embarrass their younger sisters. A few of the other members made a slide show to get back at the seniors and to bring out memorable moments at the AOTT House! Memories were brought back quickly!

We also had two major fund raisers this year. The first one we had was Trick or Treating for Unicef. We also held a Turkey Dinner Raffle in which we donated to Unicef.

The next fund raiser was for AOTT's philanthropy which is Arthritis Research. We held our annual SHEAF Week and did various things throughout the week. We started off by having a ice-skate-athon, then we had a spaghetti Dinner Raffle, and ended it all by having a cookie bake sale. We raised over $150 for our Philanthropy; Share, Help, Educate, for the Arthritis Foundation.

Think Delta Sig!!

The Delta Sigma Phi fraternity has completed another year filled with activities beginning with the Lewis Park party and ending with the graduation of three of our brothers: Terry Bohlke, Troy Jasman, and Paul "Grizz" Neibuhr. In the meantime, the year was filled with two rush seasons that ended with the activation of six new brothers: Pat Byrnes, Albert Soatikee — Fall Semester, Scott Marr, Joel Van Gundy, Russ Brownlee, and Robert "Bobo" Valente — Spring Semester. Several all-campus get togethers were thrown by the Delta Sig's at local Sioux City businesses. The fraternity also celebrated its fall and spring formals; the Sphinx Ball held at Howard Johnsons and the White Carnation Ball held at the Oasis. The chapter says farewell to our 'Man of the Year' Tim Ellison who will be transferring to Iowa State. The Delta Sig's say "Thank you Morningside for a great year!" Remember:

Go Greek, Think Big, Think Delta Sig!
(After all — We are the Champions . . .)

From Orientation to Halloween . . .

Freshmen Orientation set attendance records this year. Even though Orientation was held over the Labor Day weekend, new students, still came out in droves to enjoy the activities, and the marvelous weather.

Alicia Wessendorf was the Orientation Director this year and she chose "BUILD YOUR OWN CHARACTER AT MORNINGSIDE" as the theme. The weekend ran from August 31 through September 2, with many fun-filled activities to attend. Fifty-three student orientation leaders gave their help, support, and time to orientate the new students and help Alicia.

There were the usual advisor/student meetings and the usual orientation group meetings, but on Sunday night the fun began. They showed the movie "Cocoon" and that was followed by the Greek Street Dance.

Monday was a very busy day and it all started with the annual Anything-Goes-Olympics. This turned out to be a wet event with water fights and an egg toss not to mention all the other games that were played. New attendance records were made at this event and it even made the front page of the Sioux City Journal.

Next was the pizza feed donated from Pizza Patrol and a Find and Seek Campus Characters scavenger hunt to get the freshmen more familiar with the campus.

Another annual event that took place was the All Morningside Picnic. The usual picnic food was served and Dave Wopat entertained everyone while they ate. ZigZag topped off the night with a dance in the Commons. New attendance records were set at both these events, and even the upper classmen made their presence known at these events.

Tuesday was the dreaded Validation Day. No more fun, now they were in for some serious business. Not so fast, there was still one more festivity. The President's Bash. They put a new twist into the usual banana split party and served ice cream sundaes while Electric Zoot Suit, a comedy duo embarrassed the President and entertained everyone.

Well, Morningside College life had officially begun for those new students. Life long friendships were made that week and that's really what orientation weekend is all about.

Parent's Weekend Brings Home to School

Parent's Weekend '86, A Family Affair, was held Oct. 18-19. The festivities began with coffee and registration hour in the Randolph Room, followed by the Annual Chili Feed and football game against North Dakota State. Punch was served at 5:30 p.m. followed by the Candlelight Banquet. The master and mistress of ceremonies were Deanna Fredinburg and Joel Higgins, both juniors. After the dinner, Dr. Sharon Ocker presented a slide show of many of Morningstar's students involved in various activities. This year, the Parents of the Year award went to Beth Quade's mother and late father. Sunday morning, a worship service was held, and donuts and coffee were served in the newly redecorated Dimmitt Formal Lounge. Story by Lisa Grubb.

Maroon Madness Hits the Chiefs

Preparations for the 1986 Homecoming festivities began early with a week of "Celebrating Maroon Madness." Monday was the kickoff as Chief supporters wore maroon and white. Most everyone got involved either as participants or audience on Tuesday, when hypnotist, Jim Wand, visited our campus. Wednesday, the student body was entertained by the Royalty skits over lunch, and "The Wizard of Oz" was shown in the Wig-Wam that evening.

Painted sheets, which decorated the Commons dining room windows, were judged on Thursday with the winners being: The Child Care Center, The Indian Alliance Club, and Student Services. That evening was a special treat as students enjoyed the Homecoming Banquet, which was served by faculty members.

Friday morning, a Pep rally in the Commons drew a crowd and started the weekend off right. That night at Ep-pley was a magical evening as students attended the talent show and coronation of Morningsides Royalty.

Homecoming King and Queen: Terry Bohlke and Suzanne Poppen. Junior representatives: Todd Koos and Cheryl Dahl. Sophomore representatives: Chad Hoffman and Tracie Mohr. Freshmen representatives: Joel VanGundy and Amy Dimig.

Pouring rain may have dampened the Homecoming day activities that had been planned, but not the spirits of the morningside students. The parade was cancelled and floats were judged later. The game was moved to the Dakota Dome in Vermillion, South Dakota, where the Chiefs were defeated, however attitudes were sunny and bright at the dance held that evening at the Oasis. Story by Mary Viz.

Junior Representatives, Todd Koos and Cheryl Dahl are happy to be part of Homecoming '86 Royalty.

Chad Hoffman and Tracie Mohr are Morningsides Sophomore representatives at this history making moment.

Phone-A-Rama . . .

Phone-A-Rama is the largest of three scheduled fund drives put on by Morningside. The money received through Phone-A-Rama is unrestricted. In many cases, it is used for scholarships, talent grants and the college's portion of work-study.

This year's goal was to raise $150,000. Fred Erbes, Director of Alumni Development, was happy to report this goal was met and surpassed. In his first year as head of Phone-A-Rama, Erbes saw 32 percent of Morningside Alumni give to their alma mater, when the national average of giving is 20.4 percent.

Early figures show this year's Phone-A-Rama to have raised $172,000. This figure was made possible in large part to a matching grant set up by a few generous alumni. Any new or increased gift to Morningside is matched by this grant. Alumnus who have graduated within the last five years and gives to Morningside, sees their gift matched two to one through this grant. Erbes encourages recent graduates to give back to Morningside a little of what they received while they were attending Morningside. (Continued on next page.)

Surpasses Goal

For three weeks in late October and early November, Conference Rooms A and B in the Commons were transformed into a carnival-like atmosphere. It is here where students, faculty, alumni, and friends call alumni and friends to seek gifts. The callers can win prizes, snack on sundaes and phone Morningsiders throughout the United States. Story by Ann Trimble.

Convocations

Convocation this year included many interesting and enlightening speakers both semesters. The Jazz Festival, Dean's Convo, Goldstein and Palmer Lectures, Easter Convo and Honor's Convo were just some of the highlights of second semester.

First semester, one of the convo's people really enjoyed was the worship service with Jim Newton. A songweaver, combining humor/folk music with a Christian message.

Second semester, Paul Schurke came and spoke about his expedition to the North Pole. Everyone thought it was very interesting and especially like his dog, Zap! (Schurke is pictured at right . . .) Article by Pam Frey.

CBC Events

Dave Brown — Feb. 24

Dave Brown, a South Dakota resident, entertained at the February 24 CBC sponsored coffeehouse. Brown plays the guitar, sings, and jokes around a bit. The audience was a small gathering which lent well to the informal atmosphere. Before the night was over, just about everybody had a joke directed at them. Also, they learned about Coty, Brown's one year old son. Dad was obviously very proud as he passed around a few pictures of the toddler so that everyone could see him.

Besides his own songs, a couple of audience requests were played along with some light, silly songs. One that went over especially well was about a girl. He claims, "I lobster and never flounder." Brown performed for about two hours. Afterwards he talked with students. In response to one girl's question, yes, it was Jovan Musk aftershave he was wearing. Brown is not pictured in this section) Feature by Mary Viz.

Films Committee, chaired by Lorraine Watts, featured hits like: Top Gun, Back to School, Witness, Rambo, Prizzi's Honor, and Romancing the Stone.

Ideas and Issues Committee, chaired by Joanne Beraldi, in addition to the Famous Last Words Series, other Topics for Forums and Discussions were: Pornography and Violence, peace, academic policies, and homosexual love.

Live Music, chaired by Andy Sudman, sponsored eight dances ranging from Webb Wilder to the Reggae beat of the Crazy 8's. This committee also helped select the band for Spring Formal and Co-Sponsored Jazz Fest with the Music Department.

Outing Committee, led by Stacy Childs, arranged events such as: 3 for free, and Spring Break in Daytona.

Rec Center, chaired by Karen Weber, provided several tournaments for the campus, and helped with a fund raiser for the Sioux City Foodshelf.

Political Candidates Seek

On February 8th, 1988, the eyes on the nation will fall upon Iowa. The first stop on the road to the White House in Washington D.C. is through Iowa. The Iowa political caucus is the first test of strength for the presidential candidates.

Since Ronald Reagan will not be running for re-election, the road to the White House will be busy with more than 15 announced candidates seeking votes. Several of those candidates stopped by Morningside College during the 86-87 school year.

On a Friday morning in May, a packed Epply Auditorium listened to Vice-President George Bush conduct a town meeting. In the following days, several candidates came to visit Morningside. Jack Kemp, Pete DuPont, Bruce Babbitt, Bob Dole all visited Morningside. The wife of Gary Hart came to campus before her husband dropped out of the race.

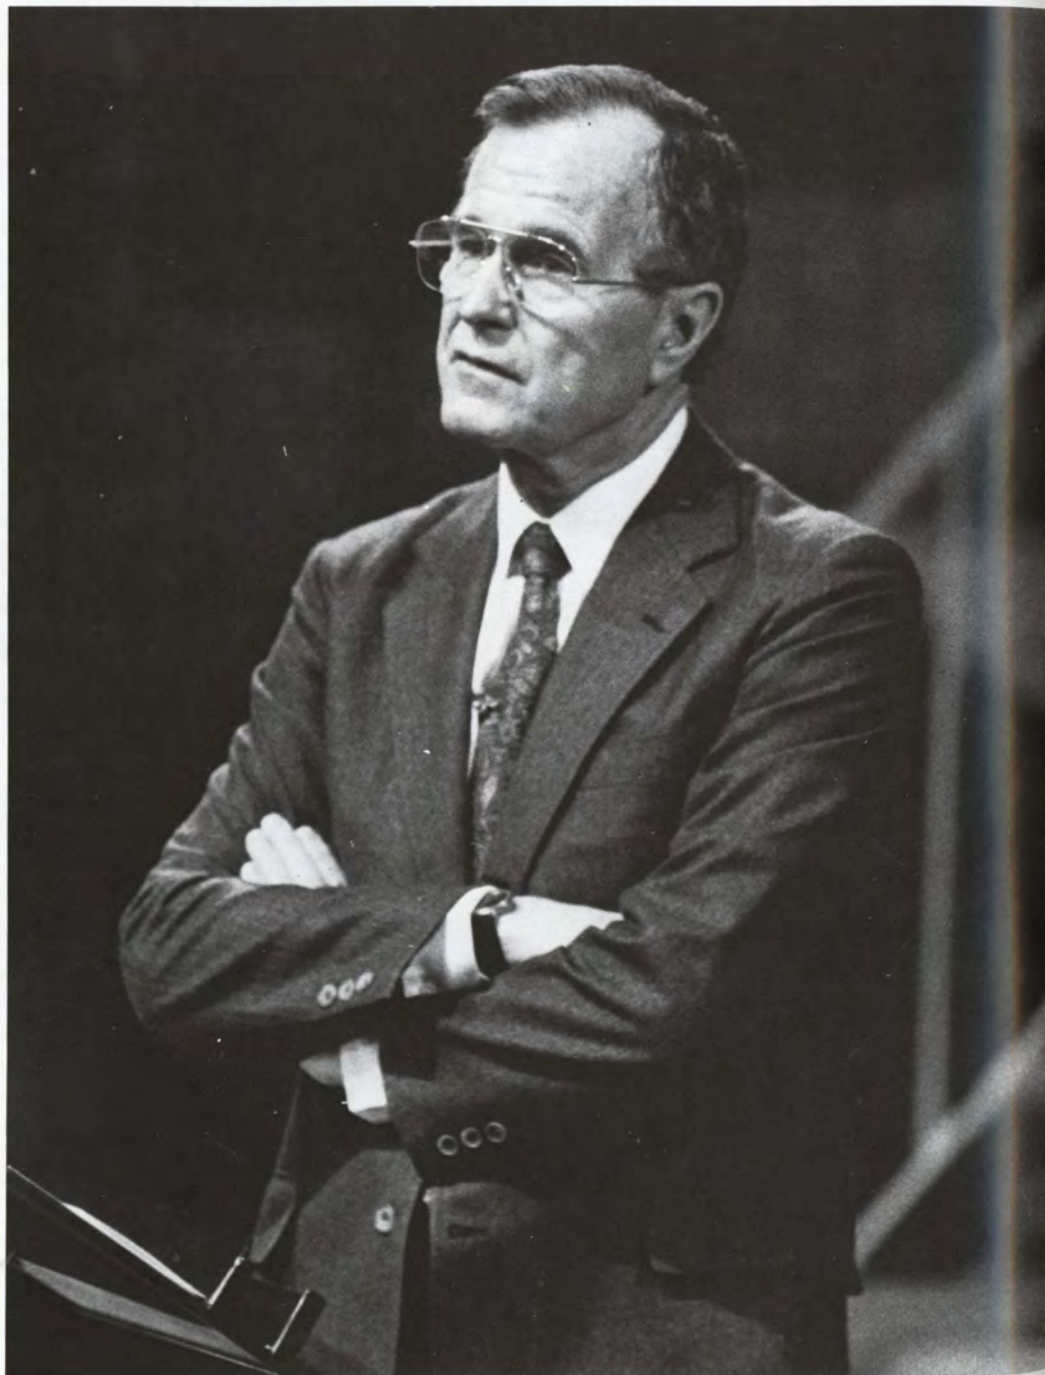

As the path toward February 8th, 1988 narrows, Morningside will be visited by more candidates and more elected officials.

After the visit on March 6th, The White House deemed the Morningside College stop as "clearly the best" of the stops the Vice-President made in seven stops across Iowa.

The opportunity to meet tomorrow's leader's is a chance that most Americans do not get, because of it's location in Sioux City and in Iowa, Morningsiders have the chance to meet tomorrow's leader's today.

April in Paris

The 1987 Spring Formal, "April in Paris," was presented by the Dimmitt, Residence Complex and Roadman Hall Council, and was held at the Marina Inn on April 4th. The atmosphere was brought to life by a wall replica of the Eiffel Tower and street posts, which surrounded the dance floor.

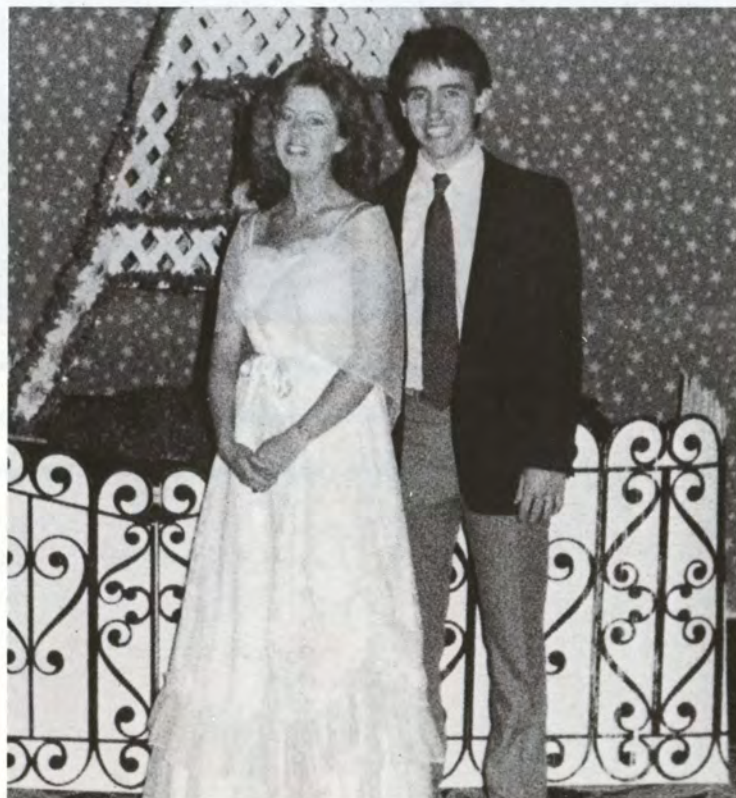

Couples, making use of the Social Hour, met other couples, took pictures, and/or gazed out over the Missouri River. After Joel Higgins special invocation, everyone gathered at the buffet, provided by the Marina. A slide show was presented by Chad Hoffman, after the Hall President's speeches depicting a comic version of campus life. Topping off the evening, the band "Airkraft." made the dance memorable as everyone enjoyed their music. The dance floor was always packed.

Sioux Staff Grows

The Sioux Yearbook had a good year, raising book sales 25% from the previous year. We also welcomed new members to our staff. Laurie Harpenau was our Business Manager, Valerie Johnson became one of the co-editors, and several other new additions made working on the Sioux exciting and fun. Our staff included: Co-Editors Stacy DeLong and Valerie Johnson, Business Manager Laurie Harpenau, Chief Photographer Jill Hanson, Gary Baker, Pam Frey, Marla Geary, Keri Jo Grasma, Mike Jones, Kendall Millard, Lucinda Neville, Todd Peterson, Ann Trimble, Mary Viz, and Alicia Wessendorf.

Thanks for your help guys! Editors.

Collegian Reporter Celebrates 90th Year

In its 90th year of publication, the Collegian Reporter offers a variety of extra-curricular activities. Published twice a month, the paper gives students the opportunity to report on events, write columns, and photograph and develop pictures of campus events. The editors are responsible for choosing the articles and preparing the paper for print.

The paper functions to keep the student body and faculty up-to-date on campus and local news, pass along sports scores, express opinions, and even spread gossip (in the personals). The paper is a unifying agent for the college.

During the 1986-87 term, the paper came out 15 times, and highlighted topics such as Homecoming '86 and George Bush's visit. Garfield was introduced as a new feature and the number of personals increased. The year was a great success.

KMSC Radio FM 88.3

KMSC is Morningside's own FM radio station. This Federal Communications Commission class D licensed radio station has ten watts of effective radiated power, broadcasting approximately ten miles around its Lewis Hall location.

Each week there are disc jockeys who play a wide spectrum of music. The variety ranges from heavy metal to classical, punk to bluegrass, top 40 to contemporary Christian. There is something to meet everyone's tastes. There are also public affairs programs, news, sports and entertainment.

KMSC strives to keep up with the latest advances in programming and technology. This year KMSC purchased a compact disc player. Digital sound has hit Morningside due in part to a grant from Uncle John's Records, Tapes and Compact Discs. This grant enables KMSC to use discs provided by Uncle John's.

KMSC's executive staff consists of: Ann Trimble, station manager; Lisa Grubb, operations manager; Sheila Peterson, news director; Robin Korthals, sports director; Keri Jo Grasma, public affairs director; Bryan Davis, production supervisor; and Chris Mansfield, production manager; and Donald F. Keeler, General manager. Article by Ann Trimble.

Student Government

What a Crew

I believe Student Government has had a great year. From orientation to our spring executive council elections, things have gone well.

The senate elections in the fall filled every seat in the senate. Many candidates ran, and it was good to see the large turnout for each seat. The senate worked hard, keeping on top of academics, finance, financial aid, and the running of the senate itself. The senators brought up many good points during these meetings, which caused lively debate and discussion.

The biggest issue student senate faced this year was that of disinvestment in South Africa. The senate passed a resolution to do just that and it was well received by the Board of Directors. Student Government helped get the Distinguished Scholar award changed to a full tuition award for four years, thus causing the recipient to pay the difference if there happened to be a tuition increase.

Also, incounter this year was the request from the senate to raise the salaries of the Vice President and Treasurer from $600 to $800. The motion was passed and will be part of next year's budget.

Homecoming and Orientation were two events that also went well. Both directors did an excellent job and we thank Alicia and Lisa for doing a great job.

We have benefited from a yearbook staff that has raised sales, and advertising so that the yearbook will remain part of the college experience. Thank you Val and Stacy and your fine crew.

The Collegian Reporter did a fine job of covering the events and happenings of our campus. The paper remained in excellent form. Thank you Shelly and Lynette and staff for another year of journalism, C.R. style.

Members of this year's vocal students are: Todd Schnider, Paula Puckett, Dan Kruger, Nyaradzai Kadenge, Chris Rants, Mark Timmerman, Chris Steinbach, Rick Amos, Michelle Bluford, Bob Boldus, Bill Brown, Jodi Dorn, Erica Gunderson, April Hlad, Chad Hoffman, Shad Kroeger, Kendall Millard, Neil Morenz, Albert Soatikee, Bob Craig, and Derek Richardson.

Besides this the Executive Council featuring V.P. Janna Mausolf, Secretary Sherri McGinnis, Treasurer Laura Scammacca, and Student Advocate Nick Votek did a superb job.

Joel Higgins — President of Student Government.

C.B.C.

CBC Programs and Activities Council is responsible for providing the campus with well-rounded cultural, social, educational, and recreational activities. The council is comprised entirely of student volunteers. Four executive members, and six committee chairpeople (with their committees) organize and promote anything from a film series to forums and discussions; spring break trips to rec center tournaments; and comedians to singers to bands and dances.

CBC sponsored Winterfest Week in January and Spring Fling in late March. Some other highlights of the year included a non-alcoholic bar in the Wigwam; an Apartheid forum; films like "Top Gun" and "Back To School"; turning the rec center into a jail for a fund-raiser; performances by singer Dave Wopat, comedian Bud Andersen, and hypnotist Jim Wand; and a spring break trip to Daytona Beach.

I.V.C.F.

The purpose of Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship is to establish and assist students in the Christian faith. Our major objectives are to encourage students in evangelism, discipleship, and mission. We meet weekly for large group meetings which offer a time of fellowship for students. They consist of singing, prayer, and speakers or other activities, which promote Christian growth. There are also small groups on campus which meet regularly for Bible study, worship and outreach.

one world, one human family

"We desire but the good of the world and the happiness of the nations . . . that all nations should become one in faith and all men as brothers; that the bonds of affection and unity between the sons of men should be strengthened; that diversity of religion should cease, and differences of race be annulled . . . and all men be as one kindred and one family. . ."

Nurse's Club

The Morningside Student Nurse's Club, the campus organization for nursing students, holds meetings the third Wednesday of every month at 4 p.m. in Lewis Hall Room 5. A speaker from the college or community offers information on health care concerns to interested students. The Club also sponsors the Sioulund Bloodbank twice a year, in October and April. Over 100 pints of blood were donated by Morningside Students and faculty this year. The MSNC also sponsors a bakesale in March to raise much needed funds and obtained approx. $75 this year.

The gala event every year for the Nurse's Club is the Maud Adams Research Day, sponsored annually by the Club. Held this year on April 23, the program allows nursing students the opportunity to present their seminars, teaching projects, and research studies. This year's speaker for the luncheon was Winifred J. Pinch, RN, EdD, of the Creighton University School of Nursing. Nursing Faculty and Student of the Year were also presented.

U.P.A.

Undergraduate Psychological Association (U.P.A.) had a very busy year with fund raisers and activities. Among the activities were: Candy bar sales, sale of roses for Valentine's Day, Nobel Conference, Psychology Convocation, End-of-the-year Psychology trip, Picnics, and Socials.

U.P.A. is a group of Psychology majors and minors or any one basically interested in Psychology. It's a chance to learn, get involved, promote, and basically have fun as a group. It's a lot of fun! Anyone is welcome.

Phi Beta Lambda

Omicron Alpha Epsilon chapter is Morningside College's link to Phi Beta Lambda, a national, collegiate business administration, economics, or accounting. Many benefits are available for chapter members, including: Leadership and communication skills development, decision making skill development, personal growth, and career preparation.

The Chapter is always very active with projects, fundraising or otherwise. Care packages are prepared and sold before finals week. Several bake sales are scheduled throughout the year. A trip to a major metropolis to visit businesses is organized each year. State and national leadership conferences are also available. — Dave Reed, Chapter President.

Injuries Plague Football Season

The preseason report said that the Chiefs would have an inexperienced offense, but a strong veteran defense. By seasons end however, the Chiefs had lost five starters including three linebackers. Mark Cooper, a lineman from Carlisle, Iowa, started the season as an offensive tackler, but after injuries depleted the defense, Cooper moved to defense. Classmate, Chad Benson, a linebacker from Aurelia, moved in when Ed Gochenour was injured. Bob Grantham, a sophomore punter from Sioux City East, led the North Central Conference in punting. Grantham, who transferred from Drake, kicked the ball for an average of 40 yards a kick. Another sophomore, Todd Smith, made a switch from defense back to flanker to add speed and quickness. Smith ended the season with 40 pass reception for 539 yards and two touchdowns. Darrin Belk led the rushers with 437 yards and two scores. Quarterback Monte Riebhoff and E. J. Stanek completed 133-283 passes for 1461 yards and seven touchdowns. Tim Christensen kicked nine extra points and four field goals to lead the Chief scorers. On defense, Brice Farmer led the Chiefs with 105 tackles. The Chiefs finished the year with a 1-10 record including 1-8 in the Conference.

Finished 1st in lo-Kota Conference

The Lady Chiefs finished 1st place in the lo-Kota Conference with nine wins and one loss. Their overall season record was 34-9.

Comments by Coach Sandy Winter (right) showed how impressed she was with the team. Winter said, "We accomplished our goals for the season by beating Dordt and Briar Cliff in the conference. Wins against Briar Cliff in three games shows the caliber of our team in going against such a tough team." The Chiefs were winners of three tournaments this year, at Baker University, Nebraska Wesleyan, and Midland. They placed 3rd at Gustavus Adolphus.

Along with the team accomplishments, senior Amy Wilhelm was named to 1st Team All-lo-Kota Conference Volleyball Squad and also to first team in NAIA District 15. Becky Maahs earned recognition by being named to the 1st Team Conference Squad and received an honorable mention on the NAIA District 15 squad and made All-Tournament Team in three of the four tournaments Morningside participated in. A second team conference nomination was awarded to senior Val Uken (shown below). Others recognized with outstanding help to the team were Paula Hunter, Kim Ashby and Carolyn LaMaak. But as a team sport it took the entire squad to work together in achieving this number one ranking. Information by Julie Lien — CR Sports Writer.

Chiefs Face Rebuilding Year

The Chiefs opened the season with a new head coach. Tom McCracken filled Dan Callahan's shoes upon his resignation and end of a 13 year career at Morningside. McCracken brought with him a more up-tempo style of basketball which meant a lot of physical and mental conditioning to the 11-man team.

Junior Mark Mohl and senior Dave Grice had exceptional seasons. Grice was named to the All-North Central Conference Team. The season record ended 6-12 in the league and 11-17 overall.

6th Consecutive Title

The Women's Basketball Team took its 6th consecutive Ia-Kota Conference Title this year. Even though practice was hard and every game had its own merit, the season outcome was expected. Speculation at the beginning of the season was high because there were five senior starters returning. Three seniors that had a rewarding statistical season included Janice Schmitz, Val Uken, and Amy Wilhelm. The Lady Chiefs 9-1 conference tally was very impressive, while their overall record of 20-10 was the best in Women's Basketball history at Morningside.

Illness and injury plagued the season but this helped to give a lot of experience to all the team members.

Coaching Staff

Head Coach Jim Scholten (right) finished his fourth year at Morningside where he also serves as Assistant Basketball Coach and a writing specialist and counselor in the student service department. Scholten has compiled a 20-21 record in competing in the North Central Conference's Southern Division.

Fred Stolen completed his ninth season as an Assistant Coach with the Chiefs. He is well-known on Morningside's campus as well as in the Sioux City area. Fred is pictured at far right.

The 1987 Baseball Team included: Coaches; Jim Scholten and Fred Stolen, Student Assistant; Dar Bales, Players: Todd Armstrong, Kirt Bennett, Jon Christenson, Curt Denker, Kirby Ed-die, Dave Franko, Jim Henrich, Tim Jackson, Gregg Johnson, Todd Koos, Scott Larson, Scott Marr, D. J. McDonald, Steve Rowe, Rick Rembe, Dale Roemen, E. J. Stanek, Joel VanGundy, Kevin Wauhob, Steve Widerhold, Jeff Wilkerson, Frank Yanni.

Juniors Dave Franko and Scott Larson were named to the All-North Conference baseball team. Morningsiders receiving honorable mention included: junior Todd Koos, senior Todd Armstrong, and sophomore Tim Jackson. The Chiefs ended the season with a 21-21 record.

TaeKwando Club Alive and Well on Campus

On September 20th, the Morningside College TaeKwando Club entered competition against students from the University of Iowa, U.S.D., Wayne State, etc. in both sparring and form. The tournament was located at In Shik Kim's Academy. The participants results are as follows in the sparring division:

Bryan Davis, 1st in heavy-weight intermediate.

Todd Peterson, 2nd in Light-weight intermediate.

Kevin Bembry, 3rd in light-weight beginning.

Derek Peterson, 2nd in heavy-weight beginning.

In the form competition, Bryan Davis received a second place in his division.

Also, on October 18th, The TaeKwando Club participated in the testing for advancement at In Shik Kim's Academy in Sioux City. These advancing to new belts include:

Todd Kelson, orange decided.

Stacy Sturdevant, yellow.

Joe Bendix, yellow.

Soccer Team Defeats USD

The Morningside club soccer team defeated USD for the 1st time to place third at the Wayne State Invitational on April 25th. After losing to Dordt College by 8-0 Morningside defeated Wayne State 4-2 and USD 5-2. The soccer team is growing at Morningside with a membership of thirteen this year. Some key players that helped the season along were: Russ Lockwood, R. J. Cardin, and Joe Bendix. We were unable to get a complete list of team members, but others included Joel Higgins, Nya Kaderge, and Todd Peterson. On these pages are candid of Morningsiders in action. We hope more interest in the soccer team will evolve in the years to come.

Morningside College to Build

A $5.1 million health, physical education and recreation complex will be built at Morningside College starting this fall, college officials announced in the spring of 1987.

James Yanney, chairman of the board of directors, and Dr. Miles Tommeraasen, president of the college, quickly said the funds would be raised outside the college, and not by any increases in tuition or cuts in faculty.

The new facility is not intended for intercollegiate competition.

It will contain a six-lane, 25-meter swimming pool with separate diving well, room for three basketball courts easily convertible to volleyball and tennis courts and other physical education activities; four racquetball courts with observation deck, weight training and body conditioning room, multi-purpose lab for golf, dance, martial arts, archery, aerobics and other class activities.

There also will be an area which can be connected in the future by a walkway or skyway across S. Glass Street to Allee Gymnasium.

$5.1 Million Phys. Ed. Complex

It also will contain a jogging track, eight feet wide and elevated above the gym and lobby area, which will measure out at nine laps to the mile; two non-active labs to support physical education classes such as first aid, kinesiology and exercise physiology; two additional classrooms, deck above the pool and a combined entry and student lounge.

The main portion of the building will project east and west, from S. Glass and behind the Faculty House to a point behind the present Commons.

Preliminary work on the 73,000-plus square foot complex will begin almost immediately, officials said.

"I am most pleased to share with you some . . . exciting news . . . that is going to mean more jobs for Siouxland, expanded services and programs for Morningside College students, both full and part-time expanded benefits to our faculty and staff, and a continued commitment to excellence and quality by the college to the Siouxland and community," said Yanney, making the announcement.

The board gave unanimous approval to the plan Tuesday, Yanney said, capping discussions which had been under way for years.

"Final financing plans are now being put in place. As soon as these arrangements have been completed, pre-construction work will begin. Ground breaking is expected by the end of the summer," Yanney said.

Tommerraasen said the finance plan is complex, but it will not be part of the operation budget. Initially it will involve a loan from the Iowa Higher Education Loan Authority, which will be repaid by a group of donors who prefer to remain anonymous, Tommerraasen said.

The proposal also calls for creation of an endowment for continued operation of the facility.

Both Yanney and Tommerraasen said they are excited and proud about the proposed new building. Both noted they are counting on its potential for recruiting and keeping students, and for helping keep student and faculty morale at a high level.

Joel Higgins, president of the student body, said he is excited about it too, but "only one thing threw me back: I will graduate before it is built."

In a reference to present competition for facilities in Allee Gymnasium by all campus elements, Higgins said, "When I'm lifting weights along with those big football players . . . my ego gets hurt," but there will be no need for that in the new facility.

"I hope there won't be that big of a user's fee," so alumni will be attracted back to the campus, Higgins said. Drawing laughter by the audience of students, faculty and staff.

The name used for the building during the announcement was the "HPER" (Pronounced HIGH-per) building, but that acronym for health, physical education and recreation is not necessarily the final name.

It is expected the building will take two years to complete. At some time in the future, Allee gym facilities will be upgraded, officials said.

Probably the most loyal fans of the Chiefs football team were the Cheerleaders. Through rain and snow, winning season or not, they supported their team.

Even though fans did not see the Basketball Cheerleaders until late November, preparations started months before. During the summer of 1986, they (in conjunction with the football squad) held a camp to raise money for new sweats. Many in the squad had previous cheerleading experience, but still put in long hours trying to create new cheers, routines, and mounts. "We had a great season!" claimed one of the experienced. "We really enjoyed cheering on the Chiefs." Story by Jill Noordhoek and Kendall Millard.

Editor's Flashback

The 1986-87 school year was successful for the Sioux. Not only did we raise book sales 30%, but I believe we also helped more students become aware of their yearbook. The staff may have been small, but I've learned that it's quality, not quantity that makes it work.

I want to thank everyone who helped make this book possible. Stacy DeLong — my co-advisor. I really learned a lot from you. Laurie Harpenau — Business Manager. The endless paper work couldn't keep away the fun, I could always count on you. Jill Hanson — Chief Photographer. For last year and this year, thanks for capturing Morningsides life into photos. Joyce Dawson and Mark Gambiana, for all your help with last minute pictures and details. You guys are great! Kent Kennedy and Max Sharp — faculty advisors, for your patience with us and help with financial and staff decisions. Teresa Ronfeldt — Taylor Publishing Representative for all your good advise and support. We needed that. To Morningsides faculty, Administration and staff for your cooperation and help. But most of all to my fellow students, whose memories have been captured on these pages. This book could not have been possible without you. Remember . . . Someday, Yesterday does Return.

Sincerely
Valerie Johnson

Colophone

The 1986-87 Sioux Yearbook was planned, designed, and prepared by the Yearbook staff of Morningside College.

We used 36 point Techno Medium Condensed for our head lines and 24 point for our subheads. All of our copy is 10 point Techno Medium with captions set in 8 point. All halftones used a 150 point line screen printed on 80 pound enamel paper. Our cover was designed by our staff and was applied through a laser printing technique. Our endsheets were a shade of pink and contained the Table of Contents. Bindings were Smyth sewn, rounded and backed. The size was a new 9 by 9 square book.

We sold 400 copies of 160 page Sioux, which was printed by Taylor Publishing Company, 1550 West Mockingbird Lane, Dallas, Texas. We sold each copy of the Sioux for $10.00. The remaining balance came from our advertising revenue and Student Government. These funds were used to cover printing and photography expenses.
