New equipment — smiling faces

Everyone that works in the library had smiles on their faces this year when the new addition to the library was finished. It made a nice touch to the Morningside Campus.

Students' president speaks

"Joy, nervous anticipation and a sense of awe rushed through me when I found out that I had been elected student president during March of 1984.

After being in this office for a year I can pause now to review the year. One could easily say that being student president is nothing more than shaking a lot of hands, and frequently giving speeches in front of crowds. However, as the preamble to the student government president oath of office talks about, my public actions and words no longer represent me, they represent you. Because of this, for some people, their impressions of the Morningside Student body is a result of their impressions of me. This is a weighty responsibility, for I am no longer Dennis Lauver, student, I am Dennis Lauver, Morningside student. That's why a sense of awe comes over me when I consider the position that you have placed me in.

By far, my most lasting impression of this year took place during July of 1984 when the Hickman, Johnson, Furrow Library Center was dedicated. As the families gathered that day, as I listened and watched, I was struck by the sincere love and caring of these people for Morningside College. As I sat and watched the voices crack with emotion and the tears seep out of the corners of eyes, I was at a sudden loss of words. When someone asked me to express what students thought, the words "Thank You" seemed so inadequate.

As I look at where Morningside is and I see where the school is headed, I sense a good future for Morningside. With athletic teams that are improving and exciting to watch, with money opening for improving the dorms and commons, and with a fantastic new library, it is hard for me not to be positive and excited about the future of Morningside College."

Hair of red, eyes of blue

Deb Berens had always been teased about her red hair, but little did she know that someday she would win a contest because of her red hair. The contest that Deb won was the Sioux City Sue contest held July 1, 1984, which over 5,000 people attended. Bing Crosby made "Sioux City Sue" a hit song along with putting Sioux City on the map. In 1946 and 1950 there had been Sioux City Sue contests and it was not until 1984 that the Sioux City Chamber of Commerce decided to revive the contest. For many Siouxland residents the contest holds sentimental value and it is a celebration of the whole Siouxland area.

Deb Berens is a senior business marketing major from Bossier City, Louisiana. She is a Morningside Chief's softball player, earning an athletic scholarship for her efforts. Deb heard of the contest from a softball umpire who asked her if she had blue eyes. The major stipulation of the contest is that you must have red hair and blue eyes. Deb does have both attributes so many friends and teammates encouraged her to enter the contest.

At the contest five cosmetologists examined each contestants to make sure that they had not dyed their hair and also that they were not wearing blue-tinted contact lenses. The Sioux City Sue contest though is not strictly a beauty contest. Initial interviews were held June 16, 1984 and from there the judges, who all were blue-eyed red heads, narrowed the contestants to twenty finalists. Morningside College sponsored Deb at the contest. At president Tommeraasen's request Deb wore a Morningside softball uniform for the leisure wear portion of the contest. After another round of interviews three finalist were chosen, with Sara Anderson, a Morningside sophomore earning second runner-up.

Deb won over $2,300 in prizes along with a car and a trip to Colorado. She serves as an ambassador of Sioux City, greeting people such as B. J. Thomas when they visit Sioux City. Deb also attends other functions as giving talks to high schools and participating in style shows around the area. The fact that Deb won the contest has proven to be great public relations for Morningside. Virtually every article about the contest mentions that Deb is a student at Morningside. Deb feels that she has gained much confidence since winning the title. It has kept her busy, yet she now knows more about what she wants and how to achieve these goals.

The future of the contest is sketchy. The Chamber of Commerce is not running the contest every year. The 1984 contest may be the last contest for many years. As one contest official remarked, "There's not many red-heads around!"

Don't stop 'til the top

Casino Night, Anything-Goes Olympics, Banana Split Party, Dance, Picnic, and Church Service headed off this year's Orientation activities. The Orient Express, which is the Orientation newsletter, came out in July, containing information for new students.

Shannon Robinson was the Orientation Director. Committee Chairpersons were: Casino Night, Richard Cleaves; Church Service, Gayle Kruger; Anything-Goes Olympics, Brad Dyslin and Ron Shortenhaus; Picnic, Amy LeMasters; Dance, Carol Crouch; Banana Split Party, Mick Lovell and Brenda Youngdahl; Trouble-Shooters, Sara Ulven.

Homecoming 1984: "Breakin' '84"

Morningside's 1984 Homecoming theme was "Breakin' '84." The spirit of homecoming was evident in many places: the football field where Morningside played St. Cloud State, at the talent show and coronation, and at the dance held at the Holiday Inn where "Men Rockin' " provided the music. Eric Dormoi and Susan Erwin reigned over the homecoming festivities as King and Queen.

Phoning rings success

Volunteers from the faculty, staff, alumni, and the student body of Morningside College began their annual Phone-a-Rama fund raising campaign Sunday, October 28. Just 15 nights later the over two hundred callers had raised $115,500. The callers began pursuing this year's goal of $100,000 in pledges by phoning nearly 11,000 alumni from around the country. Three teams of six volunteers each made the calls on each evening. This year's theme "Opportunity — Pass it on" emphasized the fact that all donations go toward assisting students financially with scholarships, work study jobs for students, and in other ways. The Class of 1934 offered an additional incentive to the callers by offering a matching challenge gift to the school in which they match any new or increased pledges dollar-for-dollar up to the total they gave $30,000. The Class of 1934 matched all gifts from 1981-1984 graduates 2 to 1. Top winners for this year's Phone-a-Rama were: 1st place Ginger Rose, 2nd place Ted Wesselman, 3rd place Brad Dyslin, and 4th place Gary Harris. Ginger, the grand prize winner, won a trip to the Crestwood in Aspen, Colorado via Aspen Airways; Ted, a senior, received a trip for two to the Tamarron in Durango, Colorado also via Aspen Airways. Sophomore Brad Dyslin won a "Wine and Roses" weekend for two at the Northstar Inn in Minneapolis, while Gary received a weekend at the Lodge of Okobeji.

College enjoys parents' visit

From November 9-11 Morningside welcomed students' parents for the annual Parents' Weekend '84. The weekend was filled with various activities for parents, students, and faculty to take in. Friday evening parents could either go to the fall play "The Robber Bridegroom" at the Klinger-Neal Theatre or they could have attended the CBC movie "Educating Rita." Saturday began with registration, lunch, then the Morningside vs. University of North Dakota football game, and the Candlelight Banquet wrapped up the weekend. At the Candlelight Banquet the Parents' of the Year were announced. This year's recipients are Irene and Ray Clause, parents of senior Karen Clause.

Morningside Pursuit

Pioux Edition

Morningside's Student Government is comprised of the Executive Council, the Senate and the Student Court. These bodies are directly responsible for regulations, supervision and coordination of all student government functions and campus involvements.

The 1984-85 Executive Council were as follows: President, Dennis Lauver; Vice-President, Mike Mulvihill; Secretary, Janna Mausolf; Treasurer, Kris Lorenzen; and Student Advocate, Steve McMullen. The Advisors were Dr. Carolyn Rants, Dr. Rudy Daniels and Mr. Kent Kennedy.

CBC? Who are they?

Commons Board of Control (CBC) is a branch of Student Government that works with the Director of Programs and Activities. This student board is directly responsible for governing the student-owned Commons building and serves as the major programming organization on campus. Financed by the student activity fee, its aim is to provide Morningside students with a wide variety of recreational educational and cultural entertainment. The Board is divided into eight sub-committees. Fine Arts Committee: Chairperson — Katie Gaither; Concerts Committee: Chairperson — Matt Ulven; Recreation Committee: Chairperson — Brad Dyslin; Forums & Discussions Committee: Chairperson — Shannon Robinson; Films Committee: Chairperson — Jeff Satterfield; Dance Committee: Chairperson — Kevin Scholten; Outings Committee: Chairperson — Sara Ulven; Coffeehouse Committee: Chairperson — Karilyn Sealock; CBC Chairperson was Mike Mulvihill.

Several debates were also held on campus this year, with the Presidential Elections a highlight to the Political School year.

Politics on campus

How active are we?

Although small groups on campus, the Organization of Democratic Youth and the College Republicans play an important role in the political system, locally and nationwide. Both organizations are affiliated with other chapters throughout the nation's college campuses. The members of these groups take their views very seriously, indeed, whether they are stuffing envelopes or actively recruiting. Kay Hansen, a history and political science major from Atlantic, Iowa is President of the Organization for Democratic Youth. John James, a biology and chemistry major in secondary education, is President of College Republicans. They both work very hard with their respective organizations and really enjoy it all. "We do wish that our organizations could have been with us for this picture, but time was a bad factor." This last year has been fun, exciting, and rewarding for us with elections and other activities. We believe that we have made our input into the system and that our views will always be heard and understood by someone.

Sometimes you have to go to great heights to get a good news story. As many KMSC students will tell you, it's not all sitting at the studio talking over the air. There is a lot of reporting to do. Pictured above: Dave Eveleth, Jim Schommer and Tim Gardner.

"Dignitary Day" is sponsored by KMSC during its regular broadcasting hours. On this day local broadcasters come to the school and talk. Some of this year's speakers are posted on the sign hanging in front of Rick Hoaglund.

KMSC provides a variety of entertainment and information for the listening audience within a ten mile radius. The station also serves as a training lab for Mass Communication Students. The Manager is Jim Diavestes.

Sioux Staff

A yearbook staff is very important. What is more important is people. If you don't have the cooperation from everyone on campus, a yearbook is very difficult to complete. A yearbook is a major publication. It is a hard-bound book. The Sioux is a record of the people, places and events that were a part of Morningside throughout the school year 1984-85. For years new editors have come to challenge the making of the Sioux and have had much difficulty. I myself have had a lot of trouble putting this book together. I feel the biggest problem is a lack of cooperation from those who wish to be portrayed in the book. I hope this tradition of difficulty will end this year.

The Collegian Reporter

In spite of a 30 percent budget cut which reduced the number of issues from 20 to 16, the Collegian Reporter managed to keep students, faculty and administration informed on many campus events and attitudes this year and to increase circulation by 200 papers over last year.

Serving as editor was Rhonda Baker with Diane Griswold and Bill Zahren as assistant editors. Joe Treloar acted as business manager during the first semester and Michele Davis took over the position second semester.

Zeta Sigma

Zeta Sigma is a local honor society which gives due recognition to Liberal Arts students whose scholarship merits praise. Students who have earned honor point averages of 3.7 upon completion of their college work are eligible for membership. Advisor: Dr. Green.

Sigma Tau Delta and Alpha Kappa Delta

Alpha Kappa Delta (AKD) is the National Sociological Honor Society. The Morningside chapter of AKD was established to promote interest in sociology and to examine social problems of the day. The national organization of AKD sponsors programs for students to present ideas of sociological concern. Some students are able to publish their ideas in AKD's student journal.

Members who have interviewed for jobs report that prospective employers regard their membership in AKD as a "big plus." Another practical benefit of membership in AKD is eligibility for the Federal Civil Service Commission's GS-7 rank rather than the GS-5 rank normally assigned for those with a bachelor's degree. Membership also qualifies the student better for financial benefits in the form of fellowships. Those admitted to ADK receive a handsome certificate acknowledging their membership and a one-year subscription to the excellent sociological journal, SOCIOLOGICAL INQUIRY.

To join AKD, you must have taken at least 10 hours of sociology courses with a minimum 3.00 overall grade point average.

This year's members of AKD were: Patrick Brummond, Esther Cole, Kelly Cole, Larry DeMers, Debra Freese, Dawn Hunter, Carol Jensen, Marla Kerr, and Sheila Warnock. Officers are not elected. Richard S. Bobys was the faculty advisor.

Sigma Tau Delta: This organization is a national English fraternity interested in promoting activities concerned with literature, writing and creative thinking. Membership requirements include three courses in English beyond Composition and general GPA of 3.00 or more. The Faculty Advisor was Jan Hodge. A list of officers was not available.

Psi Chi consists of Psychology majors. It is a national honor society and members must have a minimum grade point average of 3.0. The purpose is to foster both social and academic exchanges between individuals whose major field of study is Psychology. An initial lifetime membership fee of $30.00 is required with a smaller fee requested each additional year to support the local chapter. Students qualifying for membership will be notified and an initiation ceremony will be held early in the fall semester.

Psi Chi sponsors many fund raising activities including raffles and bake sales. Psi Chi often works in conjunction with the Psych Club on these fund raising events and will participate in many activities with the Psych Club. The annual Fun Run at Morningside in October, a trip to the Nobel Conference concerning artificial intelligence, and possibly trips to area mental health facilities are some of the activities planned for the fall semester. Psi Chi is an affiliate of the American Psychological Association and the Association of College Honor Societies.

Officers: President, Denise Acker Marandola; Vice-President, Mark O'Connell, Secretaries, Daneen Olsen and Deb Plueger.

Undergraduate Psychological Association: UPA; is an academic and social organization designed to increase interaction, foster professional standards, and develop interest in the many areas of psychology for students who are either majors or minors. Theta Chi is a small chapter, but we strive for excellence and are very proud to be members of Alpha Omicron Pi! We were very successful with our philanthropic fund raisers during the year. In October, we went trick-or-treating for UNICEF and in November we raised over $60 for our philanthropy, Arthritis Research, with our annual Turkey Raffle Dinner. Over $350 was raised in February during SHEAF week for our philanthropy.

First semester found us very busy with such things as Formal Rush, a tea for our hosue mom, a "Nerd party" exchange with the Delta Sigma Phi fraternity, an Alumnae Brunch, a "Barn Ball" party, Parent's Week, and Christmas Cozy with Santa at Bill's Ball Room.

Second semester was just as busy with Informal Rush, February Follies at Arthur's, a "Beach Party" exchange with the Delta Sigma Phi fraternity, and a "Pajama Party" exchange with the Tau Kappa Epsilon fraternity, the 19th Birthday Celebration of our chapter, Greek Week, Inspiration Week, and Rose Formal at Howard Johnson's.

The Greeks are here!!

Panhellenic

The Panhellenic Council and the Interfraternity Council are the representatives of the Greeks on campus. The Panhellenic Council is for the sororities and the Interfraternity Council is for the fraternities. Both groups are responsible for seeing that the rules are upheld in their respective houses. If any amendments are to be made, to any of their constitutions it is through these councils that it is done. The two Councils are also in charge of Greek Week at the beginning of the year, and Rush Week at the beginning of the year.

Members were unable to get a picture of the Interfraternity Council.

LEGS? This was a contest sponsored by the AOPi's. To find the winner, go to the Alpha Omicron's Page!

Greek Week not a big success this year

GREEK WEEK: Greek Week was held in the fall but because of the bad weather, it didn't have much success. Attempts were made to have another Greek Week in the Spring. This time was better, but the weather played another major role in the unsuccessfulness of the event. It mostly turned out to be a few get-togethers by most of the Greeks on campus. There were very few pictures taken of the events that did take place. We were able to get a few shots of the "Painting the Bench" Party.

Alpha Delta Pi

Alpha Delta Pi members were very active on campus this year. Greek and Chapter activities included: Painting the Bench, Fall and Spring Friendship Days, Rush Week, Met with province President and TCS, Several Rush Events, Several Exchanges with other Greek Houses on campus, Fall and Spring Cozies, "Mom-Daughter" Ceremony and Banquet, Fall and Spring Greek Week, Serenading of the fraternities, Candle Passings, Intramural Volleyball, "Pledges Retreats," Formal Pledgings, Scholarship/Career Tea, "Pledge Kidnap Breakfast & Pledge Revenge on the Actives Breakfast," Pledge Skip, Active Skip, Parents Brunch, Pledge Backrubs, DIAMOND BALL, Christmas Gift Exchange, Officer Workshops, Valentine's Bash, and many other activities.

For moneymakers the sorority had a raffle for $50.00 credited to two winners' account. The pledges also gave backrubs. Service projects included: a team for phone-arama and collecting $2,350.00 in pledges for the college, went caroling to a nursing home, and helped in the all Greed fund raiser to buy educational aides for Willy Kitto, a blind student on campus.

Awards that the Chapter has won from Conference: "Pride of the Lion Award" for improved finances and completed Chapter Histories, Chapter Finance Award, A-1 Treasurer Award, Communications Award, and the Legacy Award.

The Delta Sigs had a very productive year in 1984-85. Members participated in student government, Concert Choral, Basketball, Cheerleading, Football and raised money for March of Dimes with our basketball dribble. The dribble went from Sioux Falls to Sioux City and raised over $400.

Social events included a number of rush activities, highlighted by the activation of eight new members. The Little Sis Christmas party and Sphinx highlighted the year. The spring ended with Spring Formal and Carnation Ball.

Tau Kappa Epsilon

In 1892, Tau Kappa Epsilon — Delta Sigma Chapter was founded as the Philomatheon Literary Society. The Society originally included women, but in 1893 became all male. In 1901, the Philomatheons became a local fraternity, and in 1925 adopted the Greek letters Phi Sigma. On March 27, 1955, Phi Sigma became Delta Sigma Chapter of Tau Kappa Epsilon International Fraternity, for which, this year, we celebrate our thirtieth anniversary.

Some of the events of our thirtieth year were the Pearl Ball; the Red Carnation Ball; and Anniversary Open House celebrated with faculty, administration, and several distinguished alumni of the chapter. Our most prided event was the TKE Public Service Week, which had community service projects, as well as campus events, and culminated in a Tri-State Keg Roll for Saint Judes Research Hospital with Wayne State College, USD-Vermillion, and Morningside Chapters of Tau Kappa Epsilon.

New members of the fraternity were Mike Aguirre, Dan Kim, Bill McGill, David Mohan, Barry Spencer, and Rick Zibers.

I think the Faculty, Administration and students at Morningside are some of the most kind and sincere people I've ever met. All of you made me feel so welcome here.
Valerie J. Janson

I did a lot of things this year I normally wouldn't do. These people are to thank: Laura, Mary, Dan, Tom, and Cindi. Is that good?

I, Karl Wolle, Being of sound mind and body, am too young to be writing a will. Therefore, I would like to use this space to thank all of my professors at Morningside for their time, effort, and knowledge, which helped shape my education — the most valuable thing I have.
Karl Wolle

Thanks a lot to the Faculty for the last year. They don't get enough credit for what they do for the students!!
Sara Ulven

Oh my! What a way to start my college career! You boys have been so good to me! Long live the BROTHERHOOD! Especially D.J. You're all fantastic!
"Mona"

Dear Joel,
Thanks for the special year. Remember the lock-in vacations, the walks, the long talks, the studying, playing basketball or softball, the fun times, and us.
Love,
Julie

If you know well in advance of papers due before the end of the semester please do them as soon as possible, because procrastination catches up with you in the end!
Nancy Albright

Congratulations to the 1984-85 Senior Class!

I would like to wish the friends I leave behind, all my love and good wishes for their futures.
I will to Ron Boren my luck and ability to survive his last year with sanity in tact.
I would also like to amuse my friends this parody of the opening lines for Star Trek:
College — The final frontier. These are the exploits of Morningside College, her four-year mission — to educate incoming freshmen, to make intelligent beings of graduating seniors and prepare them for life, to boldly go where no student has gone before.

Be Successful! Set your goals high and then go out and obtain them.
Be Aggressive! It will pay out in the long run.
Steve McMullen

Dear T.
Thanks a million for being there when needed, and for making this year such a great one. But most of all, thanks for just being you!
Love ya!

Morningside Pursuit

Sioux Edition

Sioux staff gets faculty viewpoint

No comment

This year's Sioux Staff decided to interview the Morningside College Faculty, and print their responses in hopes of learning more about them. We would like to thank those who cooperated with us in fulfilling this task. We regret that we were unable to receive any comment from the faculty members on this page. We were also unable to get pictures of a couple of faculty members. On the next few pages are the questions we asked the faculty members and we divided them up as to their responses. They are in no specific order except as to how they answered the questions. Enjoy!

Now that we are at the close of our Advertising section, the Sioux staff would like to thank all of the businesses that purchased an ad in the 1985 Sioux. We hope this will help in bringing more students to your establishments.

Below: (Shirley) Shiow-Ying Chow, an international student from Tainan, is the center of the circle of children.

Below: Bring the baby to Saga! They're always good company.

1985 A year to remember

Right: Heather Dietz, Connie Root, and Gretchen Chamberlain. Sitting on the steps of the Commons building. All three are freshmen.

Below: Kyle Ellerbeck, freshman, donates blood to the Blood Bank.

The 1984-85 school year went so fast. It feels as if we had just really gotten started and we were taking finals. Many new friendships were made this year. Some of us will be back next year and some of us will be out in the "real" world, trying to use the knowledge we acquired over the last four years.

The year started out with many debates on campus and the Presidential Election was in November. President Ronald Reagan was re-elected. Just as Dennis Lauver our own Student Government President was re-elected to the 1985-86 position. There were fund raisers held for the Statue of Liberty. She was receiving a face lift this year.

World Hunger was a major issue this year. Several music artists formed groups and donated their time to raise money for the children in Ethiopia. The We Are the World album soared to the top in all the pop charts as soon as it came out. There were 40 artists that donated their time and efforts to the cause. The profits from this album are to go to the people in Ethiopia for food and clothing and to those in the United States that are suffering from malnutrition. A group of English artists did a song also, around Christmas time. And a Canadian group also got in the scene.

Other music stars that made it big this year were Madonna, Prince, Michael Jackson, and Bruce Springsteen. Bruce was married this year to a model he had met back stage after one of his concerts last year.

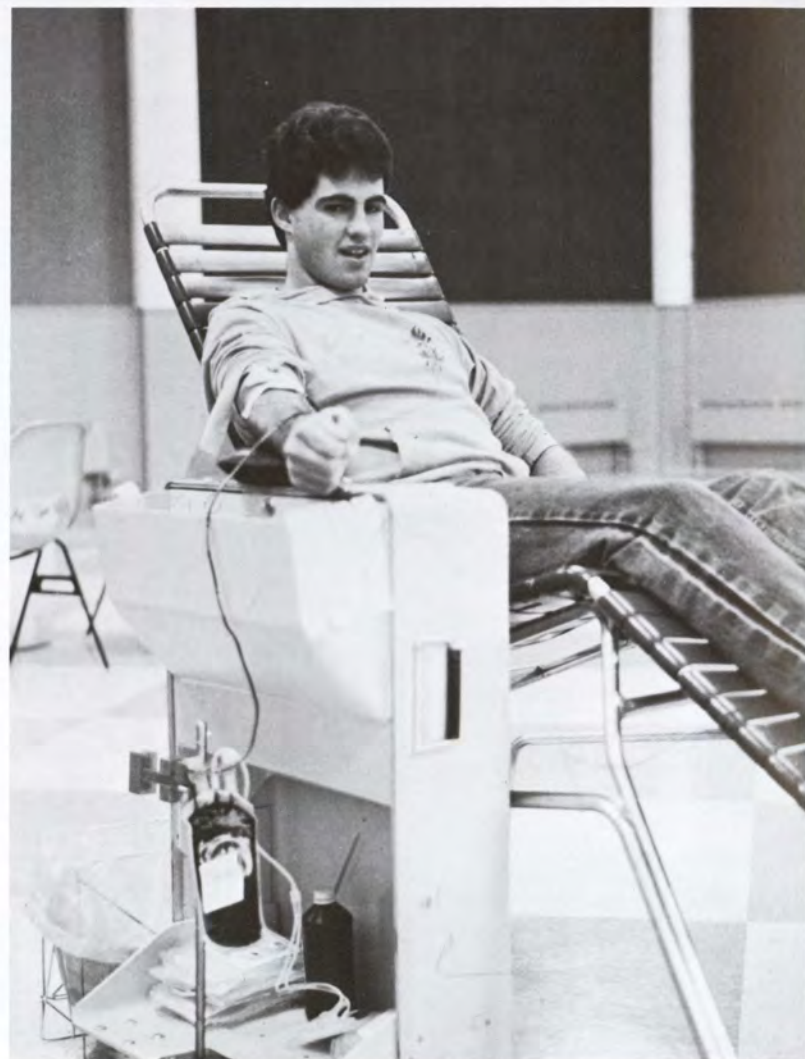

Clothes styles went with the over-sized look. And diets seemed to remain the national craze of the year.

Trivia Pursuit was a tremendous success. Which is the major reason we decided to take a run-off from their idea as our theme this year. Television shows and game boards sprung out of nowhere.

Coke made a change in its secret formula that it has had for 99 years. This sparked numerous commercials from their rival Pepsi.

President Reagan stirred up some hidden feelings this year when he toured East Germany in hopes of peaceful relations between that country and ours. Protests were made when everyone found out that he was scheduled to visit a German cemetery that had Nazi SS members buried in it. President Reagan did not mean to do any harm or stir up any bad feelings from the war. But, as Time magazine stated: The people in East Germany have to suffer with the remains of Hitler's rule every day, it isn't easy for either side. Everyone was a victim of that war.

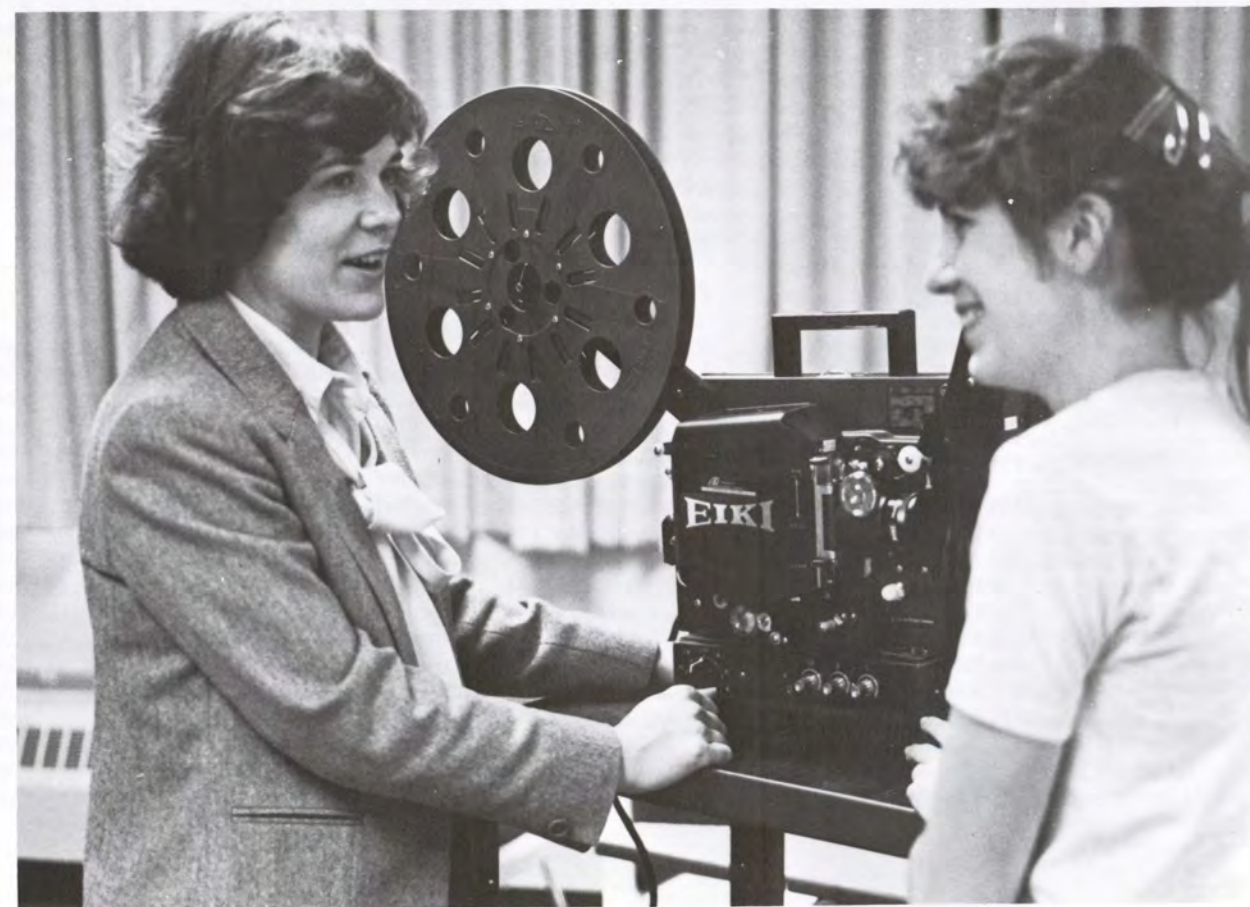

The major issues of the year were abortion, homosexuality, world peace, and world hunger.

It's a bird
it's a plane
no
it's Lois Lane

Far Left: Margot Kidder, who portrayed Lois Lane in the classic movie Superman, was on campus for a Harkin fund raiser at the beginning of the year.

Left: Margot signs an autograph for a devoted young fan.

Procrastination: a harmful disease

The Sioux staff has a very high responsibility to everyone on campus. They are expected to capture all events, all faculty, administration, staff, students, organizations, Greeks, and display as many pictures as possible.

As I, and I am sure every other Editor, have found this is no easy task. You are to have photographers at a certain place at a certain time, either given a day's notice or no notice at all.

When you contact them ahead of time you get very little response. So, you contact them again and again and when you are fed up with trying and you've finished the pages (without putting them in) then they contact you and ask if they can still get in the book!!

Procrastination is an epidemic that seems to be spreading very rapidly at Morningside College. All I have to say is that the longer you wait to contact the Sioux, the better your chances get for not being put into the book.

A yearbook is a document of the year. It is a collection of the history that has been made in that year. It is of greatest value several years after it is published, to refer back to. It is not very expensive, considering that you will be able to keep the book with you, it is a hard-bound book that will keep it safe from destruction as most paperback books will do. I can not stress enough the importance of a yearbook. Everyone wants to see his/her picture in the book when it comes out, but very few people are willing to give some time to the producing of the book. Everyone can play a part in making a book. I hope that some people will read this article and make it easier on me next year and those who resume the position after I am gone.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank all those people who gave me an extra effort in completing this book:

Kris Lorenzen for working with me on the budget, Bill Zahren for always being there when I needed you, and for the many hours you spent in the dark room for me, Michele Davis for managing all the business affairs that it took to pay for the book, Tim Davis for all your hours of going to businesses and getting ads, Randee Ball and Mike Aguirre for working with me in getting all the artwork designs finished in time, Doug Smith for listening to my complaints and helping me work everything out, All the staff members who helped at all — you were a big help — I couldn't have done it without you, Dennis Lauver for your helpful hints, and everyone I came in contact with over the course of the year, in order to complete this project.

I also want to thank my family for putting up with me all year with this new experience, and for all the help they gave me.

Thank you all!!

Sincerely,

Stacy DeLong

Colophone

The Sioux yearbook staff at Morningside planned, designed, and prepared all material for the 1985 Sioux yearbook.

The Sioux was printed by Taylor Publishing Company, Dallas, Texas, using a 150 pt. line screen for half-tone. Comprised of 184 pages, the Sioux was printed on 80 pound Matte paper. The cover consists of 120 pt. Binders Board, with a silver fabrikoid material onto which an original design was applied through the silk-screen process. Applied color used was Maroon.

Original artwork is used on the division pages. All other pages used Palatino 36 pt. type for headlines, 24 pt. type for sub-headlines, 10 pt. type for copy, and 8 pt. type for captions.

We sold 415 copies at $7.00 each. Additional funding came from Advertising revenue and Student Government. The funding was used to cover printing and photography expenses.
