ON THE COVER

It was the privilege of the editor and his wife, on the recent alumni visitation trip, to meet the FIRST GIRL GRADUATE of Morningside. She is DORA EISENTROUT BYRKIT of Los Angeles, a member of the class of 1896. Perhaps another distinction this lady has is that she was at Morningside when Miss Dimmitt came to the college. She is a devoted friend of Miss Dimmitt's. When we called on her, Mrs. Byrkit was working in her garden. She told us, "The rains have made it almost impossible to keep up with the weeds". She is a very busy lady, not having all the time she would like to have for all her activities. Mrs. Byrkit participates in a quilting club at her church where she is also active in other affairs. She is a stamp collector (we saw many stamps awaiting her perusal). When we were there she had just returned from a few days helping care for an older sister who had been ill. It is a pleasure to have Mrs. Byrkit for our cover subject.

Miss Dimmitt Celebrates Her 95th Birthday

Miss Lillian E. Dimmitt dean of women emeritus at Morningside college celebrated her 95th birthday Saturday, Feb. 10. In honor of the occasion a tea was held in her home.

Miss Dimmitt came to Morningside as an instructor of Latin and Greek in 1893. She served as dean of women from 1915 to 1941 when she "retired". However, she continued to teach Latin and Greek until 1960.

She is still keenly interested in the present students at Morningside and their activities as well as those in the past, about whom she can remember things, they have long since forgotten.

Prof. Kanthlener Suffers Fall

Henry F. Kanthlener, Professor of Romance Languages, Emeritus, fell on the ice this winter and broke his wrist. He spent some time in the hospital, but is now home again, and going about the business of his touring agency (The Morningside Tours) at Peters Park in Morningside. Professor Kanthlener's address is 3906 3rd Ave. It is reported that this was his first trip to the hospital. He is 89.

EVENING CLASSES

William Spornitz, director of the evening division announced that thirty-one courses are offered in the second semester this year. The courses are in the fields of history, English, sociology, business administration, physical education, psychology, Russian, speech, education, physics, art, religion, library science, chemistry, music, geology, and philosophy.

Also included in the second semester evening division is a television course in Juvenile Delinquency, held Mondays and Wednesdays on KTIV, channel 4. This class is taught by Prof. Wayne Johnson, '53 of the Sociology Department.

MID YEAR COMMENCEMENT

Thirty-nine seniors received degrees from Dr. J. Richard Palmer, president of Morningside college, at midyear commencement exercises Monday, February 5 at George M. Allee gymnasium at the college.

The class was presented to the president by Dr. J. Clifford Holmes, dean of the college.

Dr. William H. Jones, a well known research chemist and atomic scientist, delivered the commencement address. He has been active in atomic research and was for a time laboratory director in one of the uranium processing plants in Oak Ridge, Tennessee. Dr. Jones is currently teaching and continuing his research at Emory University in Georgia.

An alumni dinner, in honor of the graduates, was served Thursday evening February 1, at the Biltmore restaurant. President Dean Harrington of the Alumni Association Executive Committee, presided over the dinner, and the initiation of the seniors into the Tribe of the Sioux was held.

DRAMA DEPARTMENT PRODUCES "MEDEA"

The Drama Department under the direction of Professor Robert Quinn presented the 5th century Greek play by Euripides "Medea" in March.

It was an extremely ambitious undertaking and the authenticity has seldom been duplicated. The ancient tradition of using masks was used, the masks of the lead characters were designed by Norman Bausch of the Sioux City Art Center. In order for the cast to move stylistically and rigidly, high soled shoes called buskins were made. Also consistent with the traditional approach to the play, Professor John Watt of the language department, researched for proper pronunciation of Greek titles and names.

In the cast were Diane Huntsinger as Medea, Professor John Watt, Rachel Lindhart, John Brahaney, Jim Van Abbema, Donna Pettitt and Iris Walter. Tom Edlund wrote the background music and Mrs. Morrison was choreographer.

Grant to College

Dr. J. Richard Palmer, president of Morningside college, has announced the receipt of a $2,000 grant from the Esso Education Foundation to the college.

For several years, this foundation has granted financial aid to over 400 private and church-related institutions of higher education. Like the foundation's other grants, the recent grant to Morningside College was made without restriction.

President Palmer reported that the donation would help Morningside strengthen its faculty salary scale. "Although the college has nearly doubled the item in its budget for faculty salaries in the last five years, this must continue to move up if we are to keep our top men and encourage other people with good qualifications to join us as the need arises," said Dr. Palmer.

DR. HOLMES ACCEPTS DEANSHIP IN CHICAGO

President J. Richard Palmer has announced the resignation of Dean J. Clifford Holmes, who has been at Morningside for four years. Dr. Holmes has accepted the position as Dean of George Williams college in Chicago, Illinois effective August 1, 1962. George Williams college is affiliated with the Y. M. C. A. and is one of the major sources of leadership for not only the Y. M. C. A. but also for many other youth serving agencies. The college is entering into a new phase of development with an enriched academic program with more international and cultural emphasis and will be building an entirely new campus in the Chicago area. Dean Holmes has been selected to provide the academic leadership in this new development. He will also have responsibility for the academic program at the George Williams college camp at Lake Geneva, Wisconsin.

Morningside college and Sioux City will be losing a very fine administrator and educator. While at Morningside Dean Holmes has been instrumental in bringing to the college a faculty of very high quality and has given leadership and direction to the formation of a program which has given more meaningful services to students.

Dr. Holmes received his bachelors degree from the University of Redlands, California, his masters degree from the University of Denver, and his doctor of philosophy from the University of Denver.

Prior to his term as dean of Morningside college, Dr. Holmes held similar positions at the University of Redlands, the University of Nebraska, and the University of Denver.

He has been an active Sioux Cityan, participating in Grace Methodist Church, Rotary, and other community activities.

While at Morningside, Dean Holmes participated in many national professional programs such as the Harvard Graduate School Institute, Institute for Academic Deans and the Danforth Counseling Seminar. He is listed in the Who's Who in the Midwest and the Who's Who in America.

Dr. Holmes is married and the father of three children.

ADVANCED DEGREE TO ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR

Robert O'Reilly, associate professor of elementary education at Morningside College, was recently awarded a doctor of education degree from the University of Kansas at Lawrence, in the field of educational administration and supervision.

Dr. O'Reilly has also attended Kansas State College and received his master of arts degree at the University of Wyoming.

MERCHANDISING COUNCIL HELPS AFRICAN STUDENTS

A $1,045 check for a clothing fund for the African students enrolled at Morningside college and their families was turned over to the college by the Greater Siouxland Merchandising council of the Sioux City Chamber of Commerce.

Thirty-three business firms, all members of the council, donated to the project, in response to a request by Dr. J. Richard Palmer, college president, and Professor Raymond Nelson, who is in charge of the African students. They told a special council committee three weeks ago the students had received some used clothing, but that there was a need for new clothing as well.

Dr. Benjamin Receives Honor

Dr. Walter W. Benjamin, head of the department of religion at Morningside College, has been selected as a member of the Second Oxford Institute on Methodist Theological Studies sponsored by the World Methodist Council.

The Institute will meet at Lincoln College, Oxford University, England, July 17-27, 1962. It will be a group of approximately one hundred theologically competent Methodists from all over the world.

The general theme of the Institute is "The Doctrine of the Church." The members of the Institute are drawn from theological faculties, college faculties, graduate students, and pastors. Dr. Harold Roberts, past president of the World Methodist Council and from the faculty of Richmond College and the University of London, will be Warden. Institute members will live in Lincoln College, significant to Methodists because of the connection with John Wesley, the Holy Club, and other early Methodists with Lincoln. Following the reading of each major paper there will be many hours of discussion.

The 35 member American delegation will sail from New York July 6, and five papers will be read en route by members of the delegation. After arrival at Southampton, the group will visit Methodist shrines and institutions in middle England before arriving at Oxford for the conference.

FOREIGN STUDENTS ATTEND CONFERENCE

Thirty-three students from Morningside and Briar Cliff colleges attended the ninth annual foreign students weekend in Des Moines, Saturday, February 3 and Sunday.

The group was accompanied by Professor Raymond S. Nelson, advisor to foreign students at Morningside, and Dr. Albert Sellen, associate professor of history at Morningside.

Sioux City organizations underwriting the cost of the trip are the Knights of Columbus, Quota, Kiwanis, Sertoma, and Lions clubs.

The purpose of the foreign students weekend is to provide free exchange of ideas between foreign students and American representatives of International relations clubs in United States colleges and universities.

The Morningside College ADMISSIONS STORY

by Robert B. Miller

Mr. Miller is a member of the class of 1955 and is Director of Admissions at Morningside. Mrs. Miller is the former Darlene Froelich '58. They have two daughters, Pamela and Susan.

In this day, when college doors are closing, we hope to show that standards are being maintained which uphold past traditions of excellence while opportunity is also present for a "late bloomer" to prove his academic ability at the college level.

Many persons are troubled when they hear of increased standards, higher academic demands, and other forms of "pressure" being exerted by colleges on students and parents. I believe this attitude on the part of colleges nationally is very much the same attitude most high schools have had since Sputnik. Perhaps it can be called a re-evaluation of purpose. Is it a college's function to take any and all applicants? Experience has proven that a certain type of academic background in high school can be fatal in college, unless other factors come into play which were not present in the establishment of the high school record. Such factors as better use of ability and time, more sincere interest in school work, and proper relationship between curricular and extra-curricular activities are important in this area. Granted, there are exceptions to this, but only when these factors suddenly emerge to the foreground. One of the toughest problems faced by Admissions Officers today is determining whether or not this is going to happen in each individual case.

Following is some statistical information on the student body at Morningside College this past fall. Most of these items were excerpted from the Registrar's report, 1961. (See page 8)

Th job of the admissions man is one which is a homogeneous blending of a number of basic functions. Primary among these is that of counseling. Other functions which are also predominate are public relations and alumni involvements as well as personnel and sales work. Such a variety makes for an extremely interesting job, but creates some frustrations in knowing which are to be emphasized in various given situations.

The contacts with prospective students are usually made in one or more of the following ways:

1. Through referrals by a friend, relative, or interested party such as an alumnus.
2. High school visits on a regular schedule, which numbered 1006 in 1960-61.

3. College day programs set up by the high schools through co-operation with their state Association of College Admissions Counselors.
4. Campus visits by interested students, which totaled 470 last year, not counting groups.
5. Working closely with the churches and local ministers in Methodist Youth Fellowship programs and the like.

These contacts are then cultivated by one or more visits to the student's high school, home, church, or a combination of of these three. Home visits have proved to be of the most value to families and students, as the privacy of the home allows for questions regarding finances and things of a personal nature, which the family will not usually discuss in a group situation. Our staff is available for home visits at any time convenient to the family, and we welcome inquiry in this regard. Morningside Admissions Counselors made 298 home visits last year (1960-61).

Other follow-up methods are necessary in cases where a great distance would be involved. In these instances, mailings are utilized as effectively as possible, and many students enrolled from these areas often ask if we can furnish them with names of prospects on which they can call while they are home on vacations. The support given our program by the schools, the churches, the alumni and friends is genuinely appreciated and I am certain we would not be nearly as effective without it.

Students are selected for admission to Morningside College with one basic idea in mind; that they have the potential for graduation. All decisions are rendered with this consideration as the primary one, since the student is, in essence, the institution. Without the students, we would naturally be out of business. Therefore, the better the retention, or the number of students who remain at Morningside each year, the better the financial situation and all other factors connected with the continued operation of the college.

We use three tangible factors in arriving at the admissions decision. These are, in order of importance, the high school record, national test scores, (either the Scholastic Aptitude Test of the College Entrance Examination Board, or the American College Test) and the recommendations and character references of the principal or counselor, the minister, and two others acquainted with the student's character. If it seems reasonable that a student can do the academic work required at Morningside, based on these facts, full acceptance is granted. If there is reason to expect some academic difficulty, but the final goal of graduation seems realistic nevertheless, a conditional or probationary acceptance is granted. This restricts the number of academic hours the student carries at the outset so he will be able to concentrate all efforts on these subjects and on developing sound study habits. We feel that this has proved to be quite satisfactory over the past few years, and a definite asset to the students involved. If the high school record (the academic background) is weak, the test scores are low, and the school officials' recommendations seem to question college success, acceptance is questionable. This is the point at which many parents often fail to realize the importance of their attitude towards the situation with which their youngster is faced. The instances where a youngster with this type of background has succeeded in college are very few. To push toward this goal is dangerous, since it will probably result in more frustration, more disappointment, and the final realization that there will have to be a different avenue pursued for this person in the end. Much of this frustration, disappointment and lost time could be avoided if the parents would accept the fact that there could be a different career for their youngster than one which requires a college education. Consult with your high school guidance personnel in situations of this type. These persons are trained to be of the best possible assistance, and have no reason to inadvertently discourage someone from going to college.

Application Procedure

If a student wishes to make application to Morningside College, the procedure to be followed is rather simple. First of all, she should get the application for admission form, and the accompanying reference forms from either a visiting representative, or by writing directly to the Office of Admissions, Morningside College, Sioux City 6, Iowa. These forms are available free of charge, and detailed instructions are included to avoid any procedural error. The complete procedure involves returning the completed application form with the $10 application fee; giving the character reference forms to four persons to complete and return to us; having either the S.A.T. or A.C.T. results sent to Morningside; and having a transcript of credits sent from the high school (and previous college in the case of a transfer student).

As soon as these credentials have been received, notification of the admissions decision will be immediately forthcoming. If there is any question as to admissibility, we strongly suggest making application to the college. Too often individuals are inclined to feel there is little or no chance for admissibility, usually based on hearsay or because they underrate their own abilities, when in fact, there would be a good chance for some type of admission to the college.

Summer School Program

Two years ago this summer we inaugurated what we call our Special Summer School Program. This is advised in cases where youngsters have just started to achieve at the level necessary for college consideration; but because of the late start, their academic record during their first years of high school leaves much to be desired and usually means they are lacking in some of the background considered necessary for a good start in college. The program requires a student to take the first five week session of summer school prior to the fall term he would normally enter as a freshman, and to register for freshmen English, history of civilization, and effective learning (how to study). If his grades at the end of this session are satisfactory he is then admitted to the regular freshmen class for that fall with seven hours of credit on his record. If he falls short of satisfactory achievement, it usually indicates to him that college may not be realistic for him, and probably will give him a chance to get a good start in some other direction. This program has also been extremely successful and many students who have entered Morningside originally under this program are still here and growing stronger each semester. We view this in much the same way as the contractor building a house. The foundation must be strong to insure a sound building. If a strong academic foundation is laid, the future of the individual is potentially that much better.

ATHLETICS

WRESTLING AND BOWLING ADDED TO PROGRAM

Two new sports have been added to Morningside's intramural program; they are wrestling and bowling. The bowling program hopes to be under the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics next year. Wrestling will be continued as an intramural sport until the North Central Conference adopts wrestling as an intercollegiate sport. Dr. Allen K. Jackson, a previous N.A.I.A. wrestling champ, is coaching the team.

FOOTBALL SEASON WRAP-UP

Head football coach "Dewey" Halford has many injury problems on his '61 football squad. The Morningside gridgers' big victory was a 27-12 trouncing of S.D.U. on South Dakota's "Dakota Day" homecoming. Although plagued by many injuries to key personnel, Coach Halford fielded a team that gained much respect from conference opponents.

The highlight of the Chiefs' football season was the selection of Morningside's Roger Hansen as an all N.C.C. team end. Roger also received Little-All American honorable mention.

Basketball Notes

The Morningside Maroon Chiefs had their ups and downs in the 1961-62 campaign. Head basketball coach Chuck Obye, in his fifth year at Morningside relied very heavily on sophomores this year, with five out of the nine man team being sophomores.

The Chiefs highlights this year have been big home court wins over State College of Iowa and South Dakota State, both vying for the lead in the North Central Conference.

With many fine freshmen players and sophomores who will return after a year's varsity experience, Coach Obye expects a successful season next year.

"Bud" Brockman, in his first year at Morningside as a freshman basketball coach, enjoyed a very successful season. Bud saw his team win 9 and lost only 2.

The Morningside women's basketball team (affectionately dubbed the "Morning Glories"), also enjoyed a successful season, losing only one game during the season—and that by a single point.

Baseball Begins

Baseball coach Don Protexter, in his seventh year as head baseball coach at Morningside is optimistic about the 1962 campaign. The pitching staff looks especially strong personnel wise. The Chiefs have upped their schedule to 27 games for the '62 schedule, a far cry from the 7 or 8 game schedule Morningside participated in 7 years ago. Protexter has done much to bring baseball enthusiasm and interest to Morningside College.

MORNINGSIDERS IN THE NEWS

Charles Cushman 1911 Honored

The Miami Herald of Sunday, January 7th, honored Charles Cushman '12 with an article entitled "The Full Life of Mr. Cushman", written by Grace Wing Bohne.

The following excerpts are from the article.

"Perhaps the solid stuff of which Charles F. Cushman is made consists partly of glue or cement. At any rate, things he handles just naturally hold together."

Mr. Cushman is a charter member of the Miami Kiwanis Club. He has served as executive secretary of this club since 1928. The Miami Club is the largest in Kiwanis International.

He has been treasurer of the Civic Music Association for almost 25 years. This group numbers 2600.

Mr. Cushman is in his 50th year as choir director in White Temple Methodist Church, the church he joined upon his arrival in Miami in 1911.

Grace Wing Bohne states in her article that "a staunch member of the soprano section is Mable Cushman, the Morningside College (Iowa) campus sweetheart Charlie married 48 years ago."

Mrs. Cushman is the former Mable Rorem ('13).

"Kiwanis is Charlie's top job but music is his love. Still he keeps it in proportion.

"To Charlie Cushman's practiced taste, a full orchestra is the greatest treat in the world, with choral groups his next choice. (He conducted his college band for a year — "we weren't very good but we put out some music for the football games.")

"Such a universally good report would tempt a cynic to look for secret vices — except when would Charlie have time for any."

DIARY OF ALUMNI DIRECTOR ON TOUR

Mrs. Croston (Hazel Surber '29) and I left Sioux City on Friday morning, February 2, bound for meetings with alumni groups in 16 different cities.

Our schedule called for a busy first ten days with meetings each evening in ten different cities from Kansas City to San Diego.

In Kansas City our meeting was held in the VIP room of the Fred Harvey restaurant at the Union station, a most interesting meeting place. Lois Swanson Nafziger ('49), president of the Kansas City Club, made the arrangements. Mr. Swanson is the controller for Intercollegiate Press in Kansas City. Two of the alumni present were in school at Morningside when I was, Helen De Clerque Reedy and Norman Barker. Helen brought her very attractive daughter Jo Ellen to the meeting. Jo Ellen is in nurses training. Helen is administrator of personnel for Russell Stover Candies. Norman is salesman for a paper concern and travels over much of our area.

Attention Admissions Department! The Barkers have a daughter ready for college next fall.

It is always encouraging to meet recent graduates at these meetings. Gene Wulf '58 filled this role at Kansas City. He is with Liberty Mutual Insurance Company.

We were in Wichita on February 3 and met with Fern McKinney Hinkle ('19) and Reverend William Miller '44. Mrs. Hinkle, a loyal Morningsider, is a nurse and Bill is a Minister of Education at the First Methodist Church there. After talking to him I always sense the dedication of this man to his work.

On Sunday we were in Tulsa, Oklahoma. As far as I know there had never been a meeting in Tulsa and Jim Willfong '35 did an excellent job in arranging for a meeting. It was a beautiful evening (70 degree) and a high percentage of our Morningsiders in Tulsa turned out for the meeting at Borden's Cafeteria. The group organized as an Alumni Club, electing Jim Willfong, Tom Cale '60, and Barbara Brewer

Cowles '50 as an executive committee. Present at the Tulsa meeting were Violetta Barrett Southworth '23, George Southworth J. G. Herbster '15, and Mrs. Herbster, Barbara Brewer Cowles and Mr. Cowles, Velma Swanson Matheny ('43) and Mr. Matheny, Tom Cale and Barbara Cale, James Willfong and Mrs. Willfong.

On the 5th of February (next night) we were in Dallas for a meeting at the Adolphus Hotel. Tom McHale ('25) had made arrangements for the meeting although he was to be out of town on vacation at the time of the meeting. This group also organized. An executive committee was elected of Mrs. Letha Howes Gleeson '40, Mrs. Frances Bridge Schinkel ('44) and Cliff Lamkin '41. Cliff being chairman. We had the pleasure, at this meeting, of having Miss Dorothy Mann, formerly Director of Religious Education at Grace Methodist Church in Sioux City, as a guest. Dallas is a busy city and there are enough Morningside alumni in Dallas and in Fort Worth for a good alumni club.

Next day we were on our way to Houston — 250 miles away. Our meeting in Houston was held at the home of Bob '48 and B. Joy Strange James '48. Dorothy Ann Olson Mott '40 and Florence Montgomery Kingsbury '13 planned a pot luck dinner and we had a most interesting and enjoyable evening. Present at the meeting were Dorothy Ann Olson Mott and her husband Fred, Kathryn Gibson Long '04, Florence Shumaker Tilsch '15, "Packy" McFarland ('26) and Ella Marie Walters McFarland ('26), B. Joy Strange James and Bob James, Clarence Soucek ('40) and Mrs. Soucek, Florence Montgomery Kingsbury '13 and Dr. and Mrs. Baldwin. Dr. Baldwin is a former faculty member.

The Houston group organized, electing a committee of Dorothy Ann Olson Mott, Florence Montgomery Kingsbury, Florence Shumaker Tilsch '15, and Packy McFarland, with Dorothy Mott being chairman. As in Dallas, we were impressed with the size of the city, but impressed more by our alumni there.

On the 7th we were up and away to San Antonio, 200 miles distant. Although there are not many Morningsiders in the area, a high percentage of them were present. Florence Spencer Forchtner '27 made the arrangements and we had our meeting at DeWynn's Belgium Restaurant. Dr. Herman Wigodsky ('36) and Mrs. Wigodsky, Dr. William Van Horne '36 and Mrs. Van Horne, and Florence Spencer Forchtner and Mr. Forchtner were present. The name of William Van Horne will bring nostalgic memories to all Morningsiders who attended Morningside from 1900 to about 1947 for Bill is the son of Robert Van Horne, Morningside graduate and Professor of mathematics for many years.

The following night at Lubbock, Texas we had dinner with Herbert '23 and Louise Brown McCabe '23, and Marjorie Walker Mason '35. We went to the McCabes after dinner, showed our slides of the campus and had dessert. Herb is a counselor in the Lubbock school system and Louise teaches in the elementary grades. Marjorie Walker Mason is a secretary at a cotton concern in Lubbock. Much cotton is grown in that area.

Due in El Paso for dinner on the 9th, crossing the time line into mountain time from central time allowed us enough time on the trip from Lubbock to stop at the Carlsbad Caverns. We took the short tour (one hour and fifteen minutes) and were thrilled with it. Neither Hazel nor I had been there before.

In El Paso we had dinner at the Del Camino Restaurant with Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Lovett (Dorothy Johnson '31) and Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Woodruff '22 (Ruth Bond '23). We sampled Mexican food, saw El Paso with these Morningsiders (they are all El Paso boosters) and had coffee and dessert at the Woodruff's later. Doug is a member of the sheriff's posse of El Paso and works for the El Paso Credit Bureau. Ruth is the home tender. Dorothy Johnson Lovett teaches in the El Paso schools.

Up on the 10th and headed for Phoenix to meet with our Phoenix alums at dinner in the Westward Ho Hotel. Kenneth Hall '26 of Ajo, president of the Phoenix Club made the arrangements. Mrs. Hall (Mae Asmussen '27) was unable to be present because of illness. I saw my classmate Henry (Hank) Running '30 there. He is Dr. Running now, a pediatrician of repute in Arizona. Mrs. Running was present with him. Reverend F. Earl Burgess '16 and Mrs. Burgess (Mabel Irwin '15) who spend the winters in Phoenix, were present. Roy Haenfler '50, who is doing graduate work at Arizona State, was there with Mrs. Haenfler. Another in attendance was Bob Hussey '54, who has been working as an accountant in Phoenix. Another contemporary of Hazel and I, whom we enjoyed very much seeing was Dorothy Bogen '29. Dorothy teaches in Phoenix. It is hard to imagine a meeting a Phoenix without Dr. Herbert Dunham '15 being present, and we were not disappointed this trip, both Herb and Mrs. Dunham were present, he with a beautiful tan.

By 6:30 A. M. on Sunday morning we were headed for San Diego and a five o'clock meeting. The change of time was in our favor once again, and we enjoyed the drive, arriving in the rain in San Diego in good time.

Our San Diego meeting was held at the Reception Center of the Naval Station in San Diego. This is also Chaplain Robert Ruleman's '40 office. Arranged by Keith Hatter president of the San Diego Club and Mrs. Myron Insko, secretary, with the help of the San Diego alumni, a very delicious and too ample potluck dinner was served. The San Diego group meets at least four times a year and has some very interesting programs.

The Ruleman's have a daughter, Judy, who is in her freshman year at Morningside.

Everyone in this group knows everyone else and their families. We saw Myron '14 and Mrs. Insko, Gladys Long Oxford ('17), Wesley Hatter ('30) and Betty Mead Hatter '28, Keith Hatter, Bob Ruleman '40 and Mrs. Ruleman and son Gary and Mrs. Ruleman's mother, Mrs. Ruby Hall of Eagle Grove, Iowa; Janice H. Coffie '33 and Jim Christian, George ('42) and Madeline Green of Poway and sons, and their daughter Sharon (Mrs. Robert Guy) and her son Bobbie and Claudia Hambright Engle ('14).

The rains continued that evening and on Monday morning we went to see the Insko's again for a tour of San Diego. It was a sunny day and beautiful. The Insko's home affords an excellent view of the Pacific. Before we started our tour, Hazel, Myron and I went across the street and down a few houses to visit with Dr. Harry C. Bigglestone '14 and Mrs. Bigglestone (Ruth Reike '14). They have many Morningside connections through the years and we had a most pleasant time. Mrs. Bigglestone brewed us a delicious cup of coffee. She and Hazel went out into the garden and picked some lemons and oranges from their trees. I anticipate a lemon pie when we are back home. We were reluctant to leave the Bigglestones. (Note added after arriving home) Have had lemon pie — delicious!

We were luncheon guests of the Inskos in the Sky Room of the El Cortez Hotel, riding up in the glass elevator on the outside of the building and getting a bird's eye view of San Diego from the Sky Room. Went to the very wonderful San Diego Zoo among other places. Returned to Inskos just in time for Hazel and me to go to Wes and Betty Hatters for dinner.

We and the Hatters were in school at the same time and we lived in San Diego for two years when they were also there. We appreciated this time with them. Wes is a dentist and has his office in downtown San Diego. They have two grown sons.

On Tuesday, with a few days before our next meeting, we leisurely went to San Clemente, stayed there overnight and called on old friends, the Buskers. Ada Busker Sotello ('27) and Mathilda Busker Thatcher ('29) attended classes at Morningside when they lived in Sioux City.

Friday, February 16th we went into Los Angeles from Upland, where we were visiting Hazel's brother and his wife. In Los Angeles we called on Dora Eisentraut Byrkit, first girl to graduate from Morningside (1896). (See cover and cover story on page 2). This was truly one of the highlights of our trip. Another call we made that day was to see Mrs. Sarah Herrick Wakefield ('16) in Hollywood. Enjoyed coffee there with her. Mrs. Wakefield is a cousin of Hazel's.

Played "Dodgem" at the traffic hour back to Upland, passing Santa Anita race-track but not turning in. On Saturday we left for our Los Angeles area meeting at Eaton's Restaurant on West Colorado Blvd. in Pasadena.

President Orin Bell '19, vice-president Fred Share '25 and secretary Louise Coover '56 made arrangements for the meeting. Many Morningsiders live in the Los Angeles area. Finding a meeting place which is centrally located to all is a problem. Meeting places were discussed and it was suggested that perhaps the next meeting should be in Long Beach. New officers were elected — they are: President, Fred Share '25; Vice President, Larry Runion '48; treasurer, Nancy Kirk ('56) and secretary, Avalee Metcalf '60. Mr. Bell presided.

There were several cards from Morningsiders who regreted that they could not attend.

In attendance were Roy Moore '49 and Mrs. Moore of Covina, Esther Montgomery of Yucaipa, Fred Share '25 and Mrs. Share of Pasadena, Tom Kellough and Mrs. Kellough of Pasadena, Orin Bell '18 and Mrs. Bell of Orange, Emma Cain Russell '04, and her niece of Claremont, Mary A. Fiddick '59 and her mother Mrs. C. A. Fiddick of Pasadena, Larry Runion '48 and Mrs. Runion of Anaheim, Zazel Kane Waggoner '22 and Mr. Waggoner of Los Angeles, Albert N. Hunt '19 and Mrs. Hunt of Arcadia and guest, Al Rosenow '49 and Wilma Bozarth Rosenow '50, Mike Shragg '52 and Mrs. Shragg and Mrs. Shragg's parents, Dr. & Mrs. Paul Bryan. Dr. Bryan has just retired as Professor of Law at Emory University after 47 years there. Gailord Omer ('17), Marie Omer Lux and guest Mrs. Ludwig, Eva Treman Cary '20 and her guests Mr. & Mrs. Steve Hoft of Wall Lake, Iowa. Charles C. When we left the Los Angeles meeting at 11:00 P. M. Saturday night, our next meeting was scheduled to take place in 15 hours and we had four hundred and twenty miles to travel and hoped to get some sleep. We drove to Bakersfield, were in bed at 2:00 A. M. and up at 6:00 and on our way.

Our meeting in San Francisco was held at Temple Methodist Church. Mary Ann Hoffman '56 is Director of Religious Education there. John '14 and Mary Dee ('50) Duling and Leona Neitzel Swain made the arrangements. We had a very nice tea there in the fireside room and saw many old friends and met some people we had not known before. As was true in most of our meetings, some came long distances to be present. Those there were Dorothy Johnson Tye '37 and Mr. Lloyd Tye of Walnut Creek, Nadine Lundquist Flinders '39 and Dale Flinders '39 of Sunnyvale (Colonel in Air Force), Virgil K. Williams '31 and Mrs. Williams of Castro Valley, Mary Ann Hoffman '50 of San Francisco, William H. Payne '15 and Mrs. Payne of San Mateo, Ralph Milliken ('03) of Los Banos., Leona Neitzel Swain '32 of San Francisco, Dr. Irving A. Engle '10 and Mrs. Engle of Los Gatos, Helen Wilson Mossman Dunwell '08 and Mr Dunwell of Palo Alto, Mabel Trenary Johnson '15 of Modesto, Anna Mae Evans Smith '16 of San Francisco, John Duling '47 and Mary Dee McEwen Duling ('50) of San Francisco and Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Moser of Pittsburg (former faculty), Verdette Walters '29 and Vera Schuetz Walters '33 of Santa Rosa.

We were the guests of John and Mary Dee Duling at the Country Club for dinner and thoroughly enjoyed it. John teaches music in the San Francisco schools and is coordinator for the youth music program in the city. The Dulings have three children.

On Monday we went to Fisherman's Wharf, Chinatown Golden Gate Park, the Japanese Tea garden and the museum there, down to the beach and across the Bay Bridge to San Leandro. We stayed in San Leandro, called on an uncle of mine and next day went to Pittsburg for coffee with Wilbur and Elsie Moser. Mr. Moser was a member of our faculty, teaching math the past three years. He is retired. This was a very pleasant stop — marked by John Glen's orbit. We anticipate seeing these people again.

From Pittsburg we went across to Highway 1 along the coast — a rugged, little traveled, exceedingly scenic and beautiful drive — along the ocean and through the big trees. Stayed overnight at Point Arena. Next day was another scenic drive to Coos Bay, Oregon, where we visited with old Sioux City friends, Jean and Bob Proctor and their family — then on to Portland. Our meeting in Portland was at Obie's Restaurant. There was a very fine turnout, the folks present covering the years from 1902 into the 50's.

In attendance at the Portland meeting were (from Portland) Lucy Yoshioko Buhler '56 and Walter Buhler, Hortense Mercure Baumgardner '23 and Mr. Baumgardner, Dorothy Behrens Brooks '39 and Dean Brooks, Betty Shreve Williams '48, a friend, Mrs. Jean Winders Kauffman, Mary Ellen Smith Burns '50 and Mr. Burns, Don Vredenburg '50 and Mrs. Vredenburg, Edward B. Swanson '47 and Mrs. Swanson, and Sed Stuart '49 and Mrs. Stuart. Those present with addresses other than Portland were Cora Frear Hawkins '06 of Eugene, Margaret Stephenson Quirin '38 and Art Quirin of Dallas, Miss Elizabeth Johnson '06 of Gresham, Frank '29 and Miriam Platts Bartholomew '26 of Gresham, Mrs. Margaret Platts ('02) of Gresham, and Percy Brown '09 and Mrs. Brown of Eugene.

The Baumgardners in showing us our way back to our motel stopped on the way and showed us the largest shopping center in the world. Really something to see.

It was snowing the next morning when we headed for Tacoma and a visit with son, Don Croston '56, and daughter-in-law, Judy Larsen Croston '54 and Craig Patrick

Croston (12 mo.).

Naturally this was a happy time. On Sunday the four of us went to the West Methodist Church in Seattle for an alumni meeting at three thirty in the afternoon.

The president of the Seattle Club, Bob Pelton ('40) and Pat Grub Hildreth '54 and Bob Hildreth '55 made arrangements for the meeting. This group automatically includes Mrs. Pelton who I know played a good part in the planning.

We had our refreshments in a beautiful fellowship room with windows looking out at Mt. Ranier in one direction and out at Puget Sound in another. Here again we saw classmates of ours, Morningsiders we have come to know, and met several we had not known.

From Seattle were Betty Sarchet Southern '48 and Mr. Alan Southern, Doris Young Samples '47 and Tom Samples, Theodore J. Barnowe '39 and Bonnie Jean Wallen Barnowe '39, Bob Pelton ('40) and Mrs. Pelton, Howard Noyd '37, Pat Grube Hildreth '54 and Bob Hildreth '55, Cyrus E. Albertson ('17) and Clara Huchendorf Albertson ('19), Orpha Kudrle De Mots '27 and Scott DeMots, Clarence W. Thompson '31, Darrel J. Hermann '32 and Mrs. Hermann, Lila Genson Pyle ('39) and son Bill and friend, Jennie Randerup Bauck '38 and Rev. Bauck.

Those with other addresses were Elsie Gurney Woodside '31 of Milton, Marie Stellingwerf Skarshawf '31 of Tacoma, Dorothy Ann Wirsig of Tacoma, Barbara Brown Ryan ('56) and Mr. Wm. Ryan of Mountlake Terrace, Don '56 and Judy Larsen Croston '54 of Tacoma, Eleanor McCaffree Hellewell '32 of Kirkland, C. Ted Johnson '30 and Lovice Jamison Johnson. Ted and I were roommates at Morningside, fellow magazine salesmen in the summer, escaped together and would have liked to spent more time with him.

Bob Pelton and Mrs. Pelton were re-elected as co-presidents, Jennie Randrup Bauck, secretary and Pat Grube Hildreth vice president.

because of snow and ice and grades. Stayed overnight in Moses Lake and on to Spokane on Thursday.

The meeting in Spokane was a dinner meeting at Knud's Copper Grill. The president Ruth Bailey Iseminger ('16) and Jean Fowler Wheeler '40 set up the meeting. Here we met C. Victor Payne ('19) and Mrs. Payne, (Vic Payne is a brother of Bill Payne '16 whom we had seen in San Francisco), Virginia O'Dell Lynberg ('48) and Dr. R A. Lynberg, Ruth Bailey Iseminger ('16) and Mr. Iseminger, Jean Fowler Wheeler '40, and J. Burney Blair. Mr. Payne was elected president of this group and Virginia Odell Lynberg, secretary.

On a beautiful (though snowy) drive from Spokane to Boise we stayed overnight at Riggins, Idaho where the Little Salmon river runs into the Salmon river. On to Boise and more snow and a very enjoyable dinner and evening in the home of Dorothy Well Andrews '44 and her husband Rev. Stanley Andrews. Boyd Henry '46 and his wife Eileen of Caldwell were there. The Andrews have two daughters, Ruth and Judy. Boyd is Professor of Mathematics at the College of Idaho in Caldwell and Stanley Andrews is District Superintendent of the Methodist Church.

The next day we stopped off (amid heavy snow from previous day) in Rupert, Idaho to see Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Culbertson. He is a member of the class of 1912 and is expecting to return for the 50th anniversary celebration this spring. Here again we had a most enjoyable visit. Mrs. Culbertson made coffee and we visited the new sanctuary of the Methodist next door. Soon were on our way again. Stayed that night at Tremonton, Utah.

On March 5th home looks not too far away. Drove to Ogden had breakfast, had car serviced and washed and was amazed at the beautiful "maroon". On to Salt Lake. Talked to Mrs. Earl Hicks of Salt Lake and discovered in our conversation of the death of Earl Hicks a few years ago. Mrs. Hicks lives at 1615 Mill Creek Way in Salt Lake. Earl Hicks, Jr. ('32) is a son of Mrs. Hicks as is Bob Hicks ('43).

Called Mrs. G. K. Greening (Mabel King '15) and found she was in Washington with her son. Miss Ada Duhigg ('27) was out with her mobile unit. We toured the temple grounds before leaving Salt Lake and went on to stay in Rawlins, Wyoming. Talked to Mrs. Mildred Jensen Chaffin '45 there. She is teaching in high school there and we hope to see her this spring.

Next day stopped in Lusk and called Gordon Crinklow to find out our address was an old one and he lived in Texas now. Enjoyed talking to his father.

On to Valentine for the nite and headed home on Thursday, March 8. Blowout (first difficulty of any kind) 20 miles out of Valentine. Cold and blowing snow and encouraging words from Hazel for my (seemingly) calm acceptance of this misfortune.

Into Sioux City and huge piles of snow to 3906 4th Avenue, where Craig had shoveled so we could get into our drive. A wonderful trip. Good for Morningside I hope - and "be it ever so humble -----".
