New Instructors Appointed

Four appointments have been made to the staff of the College, and all will be present for the first faculty meeting to be held the Saturday before school starts.

Dr. Arthur Peter Becker will join the faculty as professor of economics, succeeding Mendall B. Miller, who resigned last June to become president of Central junior college at McPherson, Kan. Dr. Becker was an instructor in economics at Eastern New Mexico college at Portales, N. M., and taught this summer at the University of Kansas City. From 1942 to 1944 he was an instructor at the University of Connecticut at Storrs, Conn.

The new faculty member received his bachelor's degree from the University of Wisconsin in 1939 and his master's degree there in 1940. He received his doctorate of philosophy in 1943 from the University of Wisconsin. Mrs. Becker and their daughter have arrived in Morningside.

Dr. Peter L. Bannon has been appointed to the position of assistant pro-

Fall Semester Enrollment

Mr. H. W. Hartman, Admission's Director, reports that the chances for exceeding last year's new student enrollment are exceedingly encouraging. As the Morningsider goes to press, last year's figure has already been reached.

The Women's Residence Hall is nearing capacity occupancy with reservations coming in every day from out-of-town girls. Many returning veterans are seen around the halls making arrangements to return to school this year.

The week of "New Student Days" will start the 1945-46 schedule September 17 with classes beginning on Thursday, September 20th.

fessor of English. Dr. Bannon was graduated from Terenure college, Dublin, Ireland, in 1928. He then came to the United States and began to study at the University of Iowa where he received the master of arts degree in 1937.

He was the assistant professor of English at the University of Nanking in China until 1942, when he returned to the University of Iowa. After receiving his Ph. D. degree in English at Iowa City in 1942, he became instructor of English there.

Dr. Bannon has been elected to the Iowa chapter of Phi Beta Kappa. His extra curricular activities include debate, school publications, track and tennis. He has traveled extensively through the British Isles, Japan, China, India, South Africa, and Canada. He is married and has two children.

Dr. Loren T. Jones, who will be professor of chemistry, has been engaged in industrial chemical research for the last eight years with the Chemical Manufacturing company of Syracuse, N. Y. He has had teaching experience as a fellow at the University of Michigan from 1931 to 1934 and the Ferris Institute of Big Rapids, Mich., as professor and head of the chemistry department from 1934 to 1937. In addition to his work in the field of chemistry he has also had extensive training in the field of mathematics and physics. While at the Ferris Institute he was teaching in the field of pharmacy and has had charge of the purchase of equipment and supplies for the institute.

Prof. Jones was graduated from the University of Iowa with an A. B. degree and from the U. of Michigan in 1934 with a Ph. D. degree.

Besides being a member of Phi Beta Kappa, Phi Lambda Upsilon, honorary chemical fraternity, Sigma Xi, scientific research honor fraternity, he also holds a membership in the American Chemical Society and Technology club of Syracuse, N. Y. He is married but has no children.

Succeeding Professor Clayton in the conservatory as instructor in musical theory and director of the college band, is Professor Charles R. Garland.

Prof. Garland has had teaching experience in the Adrian high school, Adrian, Ga.; Henderson State Teachers college, Arkadelphia, Ark.; and in a teaching fellowship at the University of Iowa.

His major field of concentration during his entire course of graduate study was composition in which his creative ability and mastery of the complete technique of composition in all forms has won for him high recognition of his teaching. His scholarship is also recommended in the field of music, history, philosophy and criticism.

Prof. Garland has received training at the University of Kentucky, Lexington, Ky., where he received the bachelor of science degree in music, 1939. He also studied at the University of Iowa where he received the M. A. degree in music, composition, and his Ph. D. degree.

He was married in August and Mrs. Garland will be assistant dietician to Mrs. Grafton at the Women's Residence Halls.

Announcement has just been made by Dr. Roadman of the appointment of Professor Roy E. Stanton of Pittsburg, Kansas as commercial instructor, succeeding Miss Yates. Professor Stanton will also be director of the downtown division.

Succeeding Mrs. Verley Newsom, who has joined her husband in Alameda, Cal., is Miss Alvira Sjubic of Chicago, who will head the women's physical education department.

Assistant to Dr. Stephens in the biology laboratory this year will be Mrs. J. J. Vanden Brink (Lois Miller, '26).

FACING THE FUTURE

The war is over. More than a thousand families of Morningsiders are rejoicing that no more will their sons have to pilot the planes of death or navigate the underseas submarines, and no more will the beachheads of Tarawa, Saipan, or Okinawa engulf our beloved. The war is over, and a new chance is given to the world to outlaw and abandon the sins of the past which have produced war. The war is over, and new opportunities are everywhere available for every citizen of democracy to achieve the purposes of democratic living which through free speech, free press, and the free ballot may give peace to the world.

Morningside College is already welcoming returning veterans for the re-education which colleges recognize must be inaugurated. Four new faculty members holding doctor of philosophy degrees have been added. These include Dr. Loren T. Jones in the field of chemistry, Dr. A. P. Becker in the field of economics, Dr. Peter A. Bannon in the field of English, and Dr. C. R. Garland in the field of music. Professor John Magee in the field of philosophy and psychology will complete his work for the doctor's degree in another year. These new faces in addition to the faculty, whom Morningsiders have come to know so well, will launch the second half century of Morningside history. It is too early to report the number of veterans who will be enrolled. There were sixteen (including two Waves) during the past summer semester. The money has been pledged for a new science building, which will be built within a year if present plans can be realized. And thus Morningside College is moving toward the sunrise position which she holds in Sioux City and from which she derives her name.

—Pres. Earl A. Roadman.

Fashion Note

At the T. S. Martin Co. annual style show in August, Ellen Westergaard, '45, of Whiting, Iowa, was quite the sensation of the afternoon. Ellen was featured as Mademoiselle cover girl, wearing the red, white, and blue of the August issue and a sleek new hairdress with a part down the middle of the back and rolls, turned forward over both ears.

Testing and Advisement Center

Morningside College has been selected by the Veterans Bureau as one of the four schools in Iowa to serve as a Testing and Advisement Center for Veterans who are seeking training under the provisions of the Veterans Rehabilitation or of the "G. I." bill.

The space on the first floor of the Main Hall formerly housing the Department of English has been reconditioned to provide a reception office, consultation and testing rooms.

Mr. Homer Smothers, '26, and Mr. Harry Billiards, '23, have been selected by Mr. J. C. Johnson, Chief of Veterans Rehabilitation and Education in Iowa, to man the office. Mr. Smothers as consultant advisor will devote his full time to office work, Mr. Billiard will serve under Mr. Smothers as trainer. His duties will be principally field work among the men who are being trained at the various agencies cooperating with the Veterans Bureau in Northwest Iowa. A receptionist-clerk will complete the government staff.

Mr. John Magee has been selected by President Earl A. Roadman to work for the college as a psychometrist for the Bureau. Mr. Magee will be assisted by two students as part time clerks.

The office is being put in operation on September 10. The testing and advisement of veterans from approximately one-fifth of the state of Iowa will be done at this office. All veterans who have been discharged under disability who seek training to re-establish themselves in remunerative employment commonly known as Public Law No. 16 and those men who ask for training under Public Law No. 346 may ask for and receive testing and advisement as to the educational goal to be selected. Under this program tests are arranged for vocational interest. Mental and physical aptitude tests are given for the various trades and professions. Standardized tests are used. Advisement is made on the basis of these tests as to the type of training indicated and arrangement made with the cooperating training agency.

Training may include college training at a general or professional level, business college, trade school, or training on the job. A careful supervision of the trainees by the training officer attempts to insure satisfactory progress.

Veterans seeking educational benefits should first contact their local information office of the Veterans Bureau and there secure a Form 150. This form together with an official copy of the service record is then sent to the Des Moines office. Here an official notice is prepared covering the training period available. This certificate of eligibility is then presented to the school or institution in which the individual plans to work.

Those who are discharged under disability may be given a complete training for the profession indicated regardless of length of service. Those who wish training under the G. I. bill and who are less than twenty-six years of age and who have been in the service for a period of ninety days are given a year of training with additional time equal to the length of time of service provided the grade record is satisfactory.

During the past year sixteen individuals were being trained at Morningside, divided among the various professional and preprofessional curricula: Pre-Engineering, Pre-Law, Teaching, Business, Secretarial training and Music.

Summer Music Camp

A full quota of music students from Iowa, Nebraska, South Dakota, and Minnesota, enrolled for the 17th season of the Lake Okoboji Summer Music Camp, on West Okoboji Lake, Iowa. Three weeks previous to the opening date a small cyclone visited the Camp Grounds, resulting in considerable damage to some of the buildings. Prof. Paul MacCollin, director of the camp, hastily assembled a crew of carpenters, plumbers, and helpers, who succeeded in putting everything back in order by the time students arrived.

The Choral work done at the Camp was, as usual, under the direction of Prof. MacCollin; the Orchestra had a new Director this year, Mr. Bernard Nevin, of Lincoln, Nebr. That Mr. Nevin made a tremendous hit with the students was in evidence at every rehearsal; enthusiastic response, and admiration for his skill and knowledge was a favorite topic of conversation.

The highlights of the season's musical activities were the concerts given at the young peoples conference (Camp Methoji) and the Bible Conference. These concerts were reported as having reached an all time high in the history of the Camp.

An unusually large number of piano students were enrolled this year, taxing the practice facilities to the limit, and keeping the piano faculty, headed by Prof. James Reistrup with Mrs. Ethel Kucinski, extremely busy. Mr. MacCollin was assisted in the choral classes by Mrs. Elizabeth MacCollin.

Among the advanced students in attendance were Mrs. J. T. Brynteson nee Vernice Green, '34, Miss Ione Lease, '26, Miss Gladys Gary, ex '41, who assisted Mr. Nevin in the violin department, Mr. Durwood Griffin, '35, who taught woodwind and brass, and Miss Gertrude Bale, '37, who was house mother of the girls' dormitory.

The Okoboji Summer Music Camp is affiliated with Morningside College. It has become increasingly popular throughout the years and is well known throughout the country as a proving ground for young musicians.

Former Faculty

Former Admissions Director John Mook is studying for a doctor's degree in Education in Chicago University.

Mr. Donald Warning, former instructor in Economics, is with the Standard Oil Company in Chicago. He also is teaching Economics at night in the School of Commerce of the U. of Chicago.

Prof. Gordon Kinney, former cello instructor in the conservatory, who has been teaching in Ohio University since leaving Morningside, has accepted a position in the music department of the University of Colorado for the coming year.

Former English instructor Lynn Bey-er, lieutenant with the U. S. Navy, is stationed in Washington, D. C. His address is P. O. Box 2601, Washington 13, D. C.

Mr. Harvey Willson, former business manager at Morningside, has been appointed Director of the Government Center at Denver University School of Commerce. He has been head of the accounting department at the school since January 1. He is working on a college introductory accounting textbook to be published after careful testing of it in the classroom.

Miss Marjorie Arkwright, former dietitian, sailed July 7 from San Francisco to Honolulu where she will be director of food service at Punahou School in Honolulu.

Miss Betty Jameson, former assistant dietitian to Miss Arkwright, was married August 2 to Cpl. Paul Brown at Ann Arbor, Mich.

Miss Minetta Miller, '40, of Denver, wrote that she had collaborated with Mr. Goodwin of her office in writing a booklet which won first prize in the national Public Utilities Advertising contest. They are now to write one about their Louisiana property.

The naval air station at Ottumwa has announced the award of the silver star medal to Lt. (j. g.) John G. Felton, former speech instructor, who is now stationed there since his return from service in the South Pacific. Lt. Felton received the award for action aboard the carrier Franklin.

Major and Mrs. Bernie Scherer have a 10-lb son, Bernard James, Jr., born September 4, in Ft. Benning, Ga. Former coach at Morningside, Major Scherer is stationed at Ft. Benning as an instructor in the Officers Candidate Reserve Unit.

Missing in Action

Capt. Odell Woods, ex '42, pilot of a B-29 bomber, and son of Mr. and Mrs. John Woods of Onawa, has been reported missing since June 10 when his plane went down over Tokyo bay. Although the bomber encountered enemy opposition going into Tokyo, it continued on its way until its bombs had been dropped over the city. However, the plane was too badly damaged to reach its base on Guam, and 9 parachutes were seen descending over the bay. Two of these fliers are known to have been rescued.

Capt. Woods, remembered as the clever drum major of the band while in college, was an instructor in Basic Training at Perrin Field, Texas, and it was while he was stationed there that he married Dixie Ashburn, in November, 1943. He took pilot's training for a B-17 at Roswell, N. M., and later went to Pyote, Texas, for his training as pilot on a B-29. When he left the States on April 15, his crew flew directly to Guam, from which base it carried out its missions against Tokyo.

CELEBRATE GOLDEN WEDDING

Sunday, September 9, was the 50th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Raun, 3830 Garretson Ave., who have resided in Morningside since 1920.

The celebration of their golden wedding began with a family dinner in the home of their son, Ernest, 2125 McDonald. Open house was held for friends and relatives from 3 to 6 o'clock in Grace Methodist church parlors. Over 200 friends signed the guest book.

The three sons of Mr. and Mrs. Raun,

Mr., ('31), and Mrs. Eldred Raun and family of Bayonne, N. Y.

"Doc," as Mr. Raun is affectionately called by all his friends on the campus where he is custodian of the college buildings and grounds, is a familiar figure as he strides busily from one task to another, with the ever present ring of keys jangling on a chain. "Doc", a trouble shooter de luxe, is never too busy to help anyone, student or professor, out of a dilemma. Troubles just all graduates of Morningside, together with their families, who were able to be present for this happy occasion, included: Mr. Harold, (Hap), ('20), and Mrs. Raun (Beatrice Spangler, ex '23) and children from Storm Lake, with the exception of their oldest son, Alan, who is in the army; Mr., ('23), and Mrs. Ernest Raun and family of Sioux City, and naturally vanish when he comes to the rescue.

"Doc" never forgets a former student or fails to greet his returning friends with a welcoming handclasp whenever they chance to meet.

You say, "No one is indispensable?" I say "Doc" is!

Morningsiders Released From Prison Camps

At the present time all Morningsiders who were prisoners of war have been reported freed from Nazi prisons. These men include: Lt. Robert L. Frakes, ex '44; F/O Vernon E. Billman, ex '46; Sgt. Devon W. Hahn, '30; Lt. Robert W. Hakala, '40; Lt. Robert E. Jackson, ex '43; and Thomas J. McHale, ex '25.

Of the four Morningsiders in Jap prison camps, two have recently been released.

Rev. C. N. McMillan, Methodist minister at Primghar, has just been notified that his son, Pfc. Paul McMillan, ex '38, was freed on September 9 from a Jap prison camp and is on his way home. Inducted into the army in August, 1941, Paul sailed for Manila November 15. He was captured with the U. S. forces on Bataan, May 7, 1943, and transferred to the Isaki, Japan, prison camp in November of that year.

Brig. Ben. Lewis C. Beebe, ex '14, chief-of-staff to General Wainwright, who was captured and imprisoned with the general on Formosa when Corregidor fell, is back home after more than three years in a Jap prison camp. Accompanying General Wainwright as witnesses of the Jap capitulation in Tokyo were the four members of his staff who had been his fellow prisoners. The general and his staff were accorded a hero's welcome in San Francisco, Washington, D. C., and New York City. But perhaps the royal welcome given Brig. Gen. Beebe by his "old home town" of Fari-bault, Minn., was the most appreciated of all. The general arrived home in time to accept delivery of a card he had written to Mrs. Beebe nearly a year ago, and to receive the distinguished service medal which had been presented to her in his behalf in November, 1942.

No news has been received as yet of Lt. Wm. D. Rose, '36, a member of the army medical corps, imprisoned outside Tokyo, or of Cpl. Laurie J. Gillespie, ex '44, an engineer in the air corps, and a prisoner since Pearl Harbor.

Six Morningsiders are still missing in action, and 34 have paid for our victory with their lives.

Summer School Commencement

At Commencement exercises for 15 graduates Friday evening, August 24, at the Morningside Presbyterian Church, Professor Ira Gwinn, '22, addressed the class on "The Meaning of a Liberal Education". Among the items he stressed were a knowledge of the writings of great men, the ability to think clearly, a knowledge of social sciences and determination that selfishness, falsehood and greed must not run rampant to expand the ego of nations . . . "The most powerful things in the world are ideas. They cannot be stopped by oppression, domination and force. The solution of situations leading to war requires the combined thinking of many minds, not the death of 10,000,000 men, and the determination that thinking shall and must be done . . . I would have you accept as the meaning of a liberal education the future of society and the advance of human progress, its underlying girder being the fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man."

Of the graduates six received A. B. degrees and nine B. S. degrees.

Verne Jacobs and Warren Moore, both apprentice seamen in the V-12 medical program, and F/O Clarence Voris received their debrees in absentia. Four were awarded two-year elementary teacher certificates.

Twenty-one nurses from the Methodist and the Lutheran hospitals received certificates in basic science and 24 teachers received 12-week normal certificates.

Wee Morningsiders

Cpl. '41 and Mrs. Cliff Lamkin (Dorothy Gartner, ex '42) of Ft. Sam Houston are the parents of a son, Stephen Lee, born June 21.

A son, Frank Richard, arrived in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Hanna (Mary Melson, '34) of Humboldt, Iowa, on June 26.

Mr., ('38), and Mrs. Don Goetschius (Virginia Allen, '40) have a daughter, Dianne Camille, born June 29 in Forest City, Iowa. The Allens now live at Plymouth, Iowa, where Don is superintendent of schools.

Lt., (ex '46), and Mrs. Kenneth Speer are the parents of a daughter, Nanette Faythe, born in the Methodist Hospital in Sioux City, on June 29.

A daughter, Jana Lou, was born July 10 to Lt. (ex '44), and Mrs. R. James Harrington in Sioux City.

Pfc., ('42), and Mrs. Joseph C. Lease are the parents of a daughter, Marcia Katherine, born Saturday, July 28, in Los Angeles. Pfc. Joe Lease is stationed at Geiger Field, Wash.

On July 30 a son, William Allen, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Price (Claudia Claussen, ex '35) of Onawa.

A daughter, Caroline Joanna, was born to Dr., '37, and Mrs. James Coss, Jr., on June 29 in New York City.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard V. Wolf (Flurence Moles, ex '42) are the parents of a daughter, Nancy Lee, born on August 19 in Dallas, Tex.

Ensign ('42) and Mrs. Robert Hempstead are the parents of a son, John Charles, born September 12, in Sioux City. Ensign Hempstead, aboard an L S M, spent V-J Day on Guam.

A daughter, Dorothy Kay, arrived in the home of Cpl. (ex '44) and Mrs. Kenneth Ruby (Helen Dorothy Shoemaker, '44) September 1, at Hawarden, Iowa.

Pvt. ('45) and Mrs. William Womersley have a son, Robert George, born in Sioux City, September 13. Pvt. Womersley is home on leave from Camp Hood, Texas, for a visit with his family in South Sioux City. Robert George is the Womersley's third son.

Mr. ('31) and Mrs. Albert VanderWilt (Helen Bond, '32) of Milford, Iowa have announced the arrival of a son, William Walter, on July 9, in Spencer, Iowa. The VanderWilts have an older son, Robert, age four.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry TePaske (Forest Mosier) both '26, of Orange City, have a new daughter, Jean Elizabeth, born in LeMars on June 26. The TePaskes have a son, Jon, age two, whose birthday also is June 26, and twins, Joan and Jerry, age 8.

Correction of Mailing Address

Because of the fact that service men everywhere are on the move, either coming or going, or being discharged, addresses at this time are temporary to the nth degree. The Morningsider is withholding publication of the usual list of service addresses until next month when it is hoped that many men will be more permanently located.

If you address is changed, do correct it in the service blank and mail immediately to the Alumni Office so that the Morningsider and alumni letters may reach you more promptly and easily.

Class Notes

Two Morningside graduates, Mariellen Rifenburg and Carol Hedeon, both '43, have joined the ranks of service-women as members of the American Red Cross. They have gone to the West Coast for overseas assignment.

Dorothy Ann Olson, '40, has departed for Ithaca, N. Y., where she has accepted the position of social director at Cornell University. For the last two years Dorothy Ann has been director of the student union at the University of Texas at Austin.

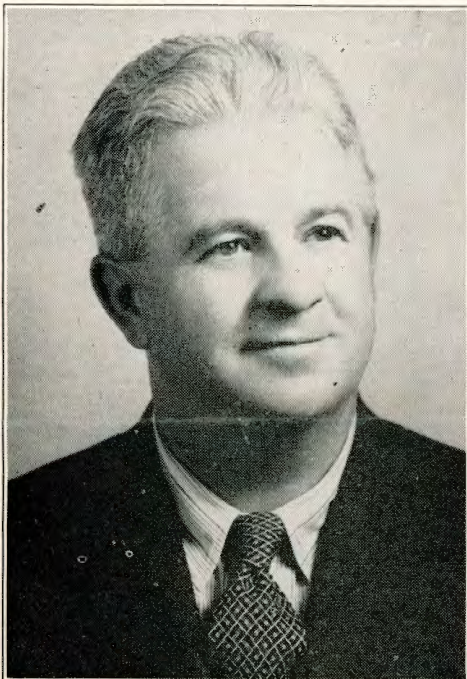

Dr. Joseph Naryka, '39, is an intern at the Edmundson Memorial Hospital in Council Bluffs, Iowa.

(Class Notes Held Over Until October)

Former Maroons Com- prise Coaching Staff

With the addition of Mark McLarnan as the new football coach at Central High School, all public high schools in Sioux City are coached by Morningside men. Besides Mark at Central there is Les Davis, the genial mentor at East and Lowell Crippen at the up-and-coming suburban school of Leeds.

Les Davis is the veteran of the Morningside men coaching in Sioux City. Les played a lot of fine football for the Maroons and for "Saundy" from 1920 through 1923, being an all-conference halfback his senior year. He was also a star catcher of the baseball team those same years. Graduating in 1924 Les coached at Webster City before coming to Sioux City East in 1927. His record at East has been outstanding. Besides coaching all sports at various times, Les is the athletic director, and during his time at East he is believed to be the only coach in Iowa that has won state championships in all three major sports, football, basketball and track. The 1945 East track team was state champion. At the present time Les is coaching the football and track teams at the Morningside high school.

Lowell Crippen, '30, has been at Leeds

Deaths

Miss Grace Bagley, '23, who taught English at Central High School in Sioux City for the past 18 years, died August 19 at the home of her sister, Mrs. Esther McDowell, after a two weeks' illness. Survivors are two sisters, Mrs. McDowell, and First Lt. June M. Bagley, ex '30, stationed at O'Reilly General Hospital, Springfield, Mo.

Mrs. LeRoy Keckler, ex '10, died this summer at a hospital in Sioux City after a long heart illness. Rev. Mr. Keckler, a former Morningside student and Methodist minister in Nebraska, died in 1932. Survivors are a daughter, Leona (Mrs. W. D. Crabb, '40), and a grandson.

for three years and in that time has brought that school along at a rapid pace athletically. From small schedules, Leeds now plays East, Central, LeMars, and Vermillion, and from the results of their games they are doing very well in this faster company. At Morningside "Crip" was an excellent quarterback on "Saundy's" football teams and was an all-conference guard on the Maroon basketball squad. Since graduation

"Crip" has coached at Merville, Mapleton and Harlan before coming to Leeds.

Mark McLarnan, the newest addition to the Sioux City coaching ranks, finished Morningside in 1931, after playing three years of football for "Saundy" and being chosen an all-conference end his senior year. Following graduation Mark coached at Orange City, Jefferson, Red Oak and Clinton before coming to Sioux City Central. At Central, Mark is following Lloyd Martin who was the coach at that school for 27 years. Mark has always had fine teams at the schools he coached and should continue to enjoy success at the Sioux City school.

All three of these high school coaches were Phi Sigma fraternity brothers when in college.

Previous to his induction into the army another ex-Maroon athlete coached in Sioux City. "Honie" Rogers, one of Morningside's athletic "greats", coached basketball at his alma mater. Honie's record at Morningside was the best of any basketball coach in the tough North Central conference during the time he coached that sport. "Honie" is expected to be released from the army at an early date.

In the 31 years that J. M. "Saundy" Sanderson was the head of Morningside athletics he developed many men that have been very successful in the coaching field. The fact that all the Sioux City schools have Morningside men controlling their athletic programs at the present time certainly speaks very highly of Morningside, of "Saundy" and of the men that "Saundy" has developed. It is hoped that Morningside soon again will have the same fine athletic program that they used to enjoy and that new men and new coaches will again emerge from the Maroon institution to take their places among the many excellent coaches already in the field.

As Morningsiders Gave Thanks

As a fitting observance of V-J Day, a very interesting and profitable conference on the responsibilities of the victory was held in the College Chapel.

The platform panel group consisted of President Roadman presiding, Drs. Graber, Hawthorne, and Tweito, and Professor Gwinn of the faculty, Mr. Charles Ferris and Mrs. Charles Dirr of the student body, Dr. W. R. Moore, and Major David Loepp, '11, from the community. The only distinction line between the panel group and the faculty, student and community friends group was the platform. Outstanding contributions were made by a number from the audience.

Suggested questions which need to be answered in connection with American responsibility included: What is to be done to assure the returning soldier adequate employment? What does the atomic bomb mean for victory and for peace? What likelihood obtains concerning universal conscription for military training in America? What provision can be made for Japan's surplus population?

Major David Loepp, former mayor of Sioux City, presented a splendid address upon the subject of his experiences in the Allied Military Government in Italy.

Dr. Graber gave an illuminating description of the atomic bomb, with a conclusion agreeing with Dr. Becker that the possession of new and overwhelming military power is not a guarantee against war.

Service Notes

Lt. Col. Walter L. Hurd, Jr., '40, has been commended for his part in the landings in the Scandinavian countries several days before official announcement of the end of the European war. His congratulations stated that his group of unarmed, unescorted craft flew repeatedly over hundreds of miles of the North Sea to disgorge Tommies who quickly stamped out all signs of resistance from the dazed Nazi forces. The troops were followed up by a stream of supplies carried from England by Maj. Hurd's 349th troop carrier group of which he is operations officer.

Lt. Col. Hurd is the Operations Officer of a group flying the giant transport airplanes of the 9th Troop Carrier Command.

"A Trip to Malta" was the topic of a talk by Lowell C. Kindig at a meeting of the American Interprofessional institute at the Martin Hotel. Lowell recently returned to civilian life after more than three years in the navy. The trip he described in his talk took place in 1942 when he was in command of the gun crew on a merchant ship.

Lt. (j. g.) Elwood H. Olsen, '38, veteran of 17 months service as a fighter director officer aboard a "baby flattop", is returning home on leave. Of the many Jap suicide planes to dive on formations with which his carrier was operating, one crashed into the sea within 100 feet of the ship. Terrific gunfire was all that diverted the flaming Jap, Lt. Olsen asserted. Elwood was with the department of justice in Washington, D. C., when he entered the service. Mrs. Olsen is the former Grace Taylor, '38, who lives in Sheldon with the Olsen's son, Ty, 3.

2nd Lt. Edmond J. Anderson, ex '41, was among the first Americans to enter Vienna as a member of General Mark W. Clark's United States Forces in Austria. Lt. Anderson, holder of the Legion of Merit, was commissioned in Florence, Italy, last April.

In a letter to Dr. Roadman, Lt. Nick Carroll, '38, of the 146th AACs Sq., Det. 30, writes that he is now on Majuro Island after seeing duty on Kwajalein and Tarawa. "Majuro", Nick states "escaped the fighting and large scale bombing, so is a much pleasanter place to live." He expresses hope that this school year will mark the beginning of a larger Morningside, but not greater, because it always has been great. Nick's latest motto is "Back to the sticks in '46."

S. Sgt. Larry W. Curtis, ex '42, is currently assigned to the A. A. F. redistribution station at the Santa Ana, Cal., air base after serving the last 10 months as a B-17 gunner with the Eighth Air Force. He has 30 combat missions to his credit.

Capt. H. Milo Hall, '31, army chaplain, came this summer from Ft. Story, Va., for a short visit with his wife and family in the Virginia Apt. Another guest of the Halls was Sgt. Harold G. Anstrom, recently returned from England, who was spending a 30-day furlough with his wife, the former Ardis Hall, ex '42.

1st Lt. Richard A. Lechner, ex '46, is assigned to the redistribution station at Santa Ana army air base. He is a B-17 pilot in the Eighth Air Force with 32 combat missions to his credit.

2nd Lt. Ted Welton, ex '41, received his commission after his graduation from the officer candidate school at Carlisle Barracks, Pa. He was among a large group of enlisted men of the medical department who won their commissions in the medical administrative corps on the basis of merit and outstanding performance of duty.

Lt. (j. g.) Gordon L. Taft, ex '43, who has served continuously on the submarine, U. S. Hammerhead, is spending a 30-day leave with his parents in Sioux City. The submarine entered San Francisco Bay recently, flying from its conning tower 10 Japanese flags, representing the four Jap warships and 15 Nip merchant ships sunk by its torpedoes.

Pfc. Dale L. Wright, ex '46, is enroute home from Europe as one of a group of Eighth Armored Division men transferred into the "Santa Fe" division.

Ensign Homer E. Garretson, '42, who has been serving aboard the destroyer, U. S. S. Sargent Bay, in the western Pacific, and who took part in two major engagements in that theater of operations, was a recent campus visitor.

Pfc. Joe Lease, '42, has begun training as an aviation engineer of the A. A. F. at Geiger Field, Spokane, Wash.

Lt. Warren G. Kuhler, ex '44, is a navigator flight-engineer on a B-29 at the A. A. B. at Clovis, New Mexico.

T/5 Steve DeVries, ex '44, writes that he is in the Cagayan Valley on one of the Philippine Islands and that Pfc. Bill Easley, ex '44, is now in Manila.

1st Lt. Ted Stawicki, ex '45, U. S. M. C. R., was shot in the head by a Jap sniper on Okinawa but made a rapid recovery in the hospital and was soon back in action.

Howard Peterson, ex '46, and Bill Meacham, ex '46, received their commissions as 2nd lieutenants in the marine corps at Notre Dame this summer and have reported to New River, N. C.

Homer Sweet, ex '46, A. S. in the V-12 Navy program, received a degree in electrical engineering at Ames, June 23. He is taking officer's training at Notre Dame and will be commissioned an ensign on November 2.

Lt. Charles Sweet, ex '22, is officer in command of the 31st Special Seabee Battalion, now on its way to Japan for occupational duty.

2nd Lt. Vincent G. Nagy, ex '45, has been graduated from the infantry school battalion at Camp Pendleton, Ocean-side, Cal.

Capt. George R. Pullman, '42, adjutant of the 116th station hospital unit on Leyte Island, was promoted to his present rank this month. Capt. Pullman's unit received a meritorious plaque for establishing the hospital in the face of enemy resistance. George went overseas June 1, 1943, and has seen service in Australia, New Guinea, and the Philippines.

Sgt. William E. Stoddard, ex '44, who spent a 15-day furlough with his parents in Sioux City, has gone to Aberdeen, Md., where he is attending school.

Lt. (j. g.) Bernie Feikma, '42, writes to Dr. Roadman from Richmond, Fla.: "Last Sunday we had a disastrous fire at Richmond. During the height of the hurricane, the huge hangars caved in and the falling timbers ignited the high octane gasoline in the planes and blimps. Three hangars, 1,000 feet by 350 feet, 366 planes, 25 airships, and 150 cars were destroyed by the fire. My car was in one of the hangars but fortunately I had it parked in the only corner that didn't burn."

T/Sgt. Clair L. Hunter, ex '44, a flight engineer on a B-24, completed 60 missions over all enemy territory in Europe except France. Clair is now at Langley Field, Va., working on planes.

Lt. (j. g.) Elmendo Rossi, '42, formerly with a communications unit at San Bruno, Cal., is now on Guam with the Joint Communications Activities.

Pvt. John Culbertson, ex '44, after two years of combat duty in which he saw action on Bougainville, Leyte, Cebu, and Los Negros with a two month siege of yellow jaundice thrown in, has been transferred to a non-combat unit. It is in this detachment of the signal corps that the micro-film V-mails coming from and going to the States are enlarged and put through the processing machines with the resultant V-mail letters ready to be sent on their way. John is known as photo-mail chemist as his job consists of mixing the chemicals used in the processing department.

From Chunking, China, Lt. Ted Whicher, ex '43, with the OSS SU Dt. 203 writes to Prof. Van Horne: "There was a huge victory celebration in Chunking yesterday. It beat everything I ever saw, and I think fully half of China's 400,000,000 people were there. You never saw such crowds in your life. There was a huge parade that must have lasted half the day. I got some very interesting shots, and if they turn out decently, I'll be glad to show them to you when I get home. Dr. Roadman, as I recall, is very much interested in Chinese colleges, and I've been able to visit two or three. The conditions under which these students work are appalling: ramshackle buildings, with no windows, hard wooden benches, and just lousy facilities in general. In addition to that they are suppressed by the government as far as liberal thought (along certain lines) goes."

1st Lt. Samuel Bach, ex '43, and 2nd Lt. Joe A. Ringland, ex '45, pilots of the Air Transport Command, have just completed a course in the latest methods of "all weather" flying, which qualifies them for flying along the globe encircling routes covered by ATC planes or as an instructor who will train other ATC pilots destined to carry men and supplies safely wherever they are needed.

After two years' duty on the destroyer Lamson, Lt. Page J. Townley, ex '39, is stationed at the Pre-commissioning Training Center on Treasure Island, San Francisco.

Lt. (j. g.) Al Horlings, ex '35, is aboard the U. S. S. Indiana in the Pacific. Mrs. Horlings (Jane Townley, '34) and two children are living in Omaha with her parents until Al returns.

2nd Lt. George Seeley, ex '44, is Senior Weather Officer in charge of radar at Eniwetok Island in the Marshalls.

Among those recently receiving honorable discharges at the army separation center at Jefferson Barracks, Mo., was Lt. William S. Pepper, ex '44, who has been released from the air forces after three and a half years' service. Bill served six months as a bombardier in the European theater of operations, during which time he flew 35 combat missions and earned the air medal with three clusters and three battle stars.

T/Sgt. 2/C William Dimsdale, ex '45, has departed for Columbia, S. C., after spending 10 days of his leave with his mother in Sioux City.

Pvt. Denny L. Danese, ex '48, has been assigned to a medical detachment with the infantry stationed in the Philippines.

Lt. Richard Smith, ex '46, recently returned to the States from a year of duty in Germany and is spending a 45-day leave with his parents. On completion of his leave, he will report to Greensborough, N. C.

Sgt. Dale Harter, '41, is serving as a radioman in the signal corps with the 10th army on Okinawa.

J. Fuller Haskins, '42, has been promoted from first lieutenant to captain in the marine corps reserve. Capt. Haskins is a veteran of 20 months overseas service, and is now stationed at the El Toro, Cal., marine air station where he is an instructor in radio and radar maintenance.

Vern Prichard Appointed to Army, Navy Commission

Announcement has been made of the appointment of Major General Vernon E. Prichard, ex '12, former commander of the First armored division in Italy to the army-navy liquidation commission. Gen. Prichard will be assistant central field commissioner for the European and Mediterranean areas with headquarters in Paris. Vernon flew home from Italy this past summer and visited his mother in Onawa before returning to the East.

Lt. Col. Elbert M. Prichard, '19, brother of Vernon, has been awarded the bronze star medal. The medal was awarded to him for his work as executive officer to the European theater director of claims investigating service, from August 8, 1944, to May 8, 1945. The citation reads in part:

"Lt. Col. Prichard has been of invaluable assistance to the chief of claims in long range planning. The thorough knowledge of the background and practical application of the foreign claims act, keen intellect, sincerity of purpose, and unusual industry and ability of Lt. Col. Prichard enabled him to discharge his responsibilities in a superior manner."

Col. Prichard recently was appointed deputy investigator of claims for European countries, except Germany and Austria.

Another brother, Lt. Col. Leslie Prichard, '34, of Dallas, has seen service in Africa and Italy and is now stationed at Camp Gordon, Ga.

Lt. Col. George Prichard, '13, has received a discharge from the army and has resumed his law practice at Onawa.

Attention, Souvenir Hunters

T/5 Charles Corkhill, '35, recently sent the Alumni Office a 5-yen note from China and presto, an idea was born. Wouldn't it be fine to have a showcase of money and souvenirs collected by Morningsiders from all over the world? Send in your money (any kind acceptable) and your souvenirs (with a story if there is one to tell) and they will be placed on display for the succeeding generations of Morningsiders to enjoy. Don't delay! Send today!

Elected Alumni Trustee

As a result of the balloting in the June Morningsider, William C. Wolle, '20, vice president of the Buckwalter Company in Sioux City, has been elected alumni trustee for a three-year term expiring in the fall of 1948.

Bill has been the faithful secretary of the Alumni Association ever since since its organization. He is an active member of the Alumni Executive Committee and a loyal booster for Morningsiders.

At present the Wolles have two children in college, Carolyn, a sophomore, and Bill, Jr., a freshman. Future Morningsiders are Charles, age 10, and Janice, age 13. Mrs. Wolle is the former Vivian Down, '18. The Wolles reside at 3301 Jennings.

Other Morningside alumni who are serving the College as members of the trustee group are: Judge Ralph C. Prichard, '15, Parnell H. Mahoney, Jr., '37, and Ernest M. Raun, '23.

Journal Man Promoted

Clyde R. Van Dyke, '34, national advertising manager for the Journal-Tribune, has been named assistant advertising director. In his new capacity, Clyde will be in charge of all local and national advertising under Walter E. Sotherland, advertising director. He will continue to head the national advertising department, and in addition, will direct the local advertising staff.

Since his graduation from Morningside Clyde has specialized in the advertising field, except during the three years that he served with the naval forces. During World War II he held the rank of lieutenant (s. g.) and saw considerable sea duty.
