Football

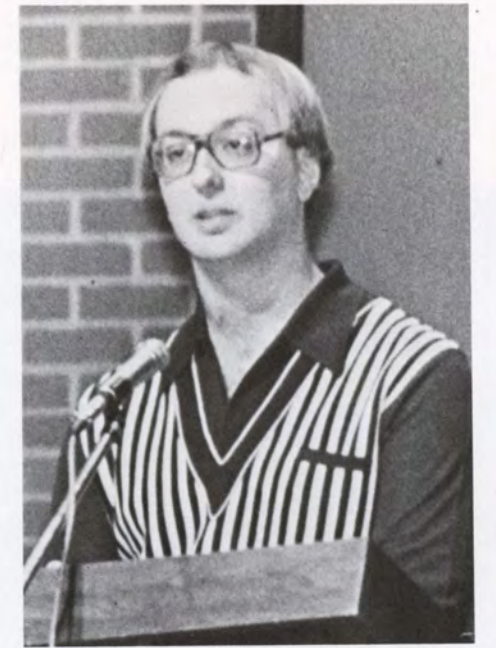

The 1977 Chiefs established the beginnings of a winning tradition at Morningside. The 2-6-1 record shows little of the progress made from the opening day of practice to the close of spring practice.

Highlight of the fall season was the victory over North Dakota at Grand Forks. The first road victory there in 19 years. The Shrine Game with UNO drew 9500 people to Roberts Stadium and saw the Mavericks hold the Chiefs to a 13-13 tie as a final drive to a winning field goal failed in the final seconds.

Defensive tackle Jim Mol distinguished himself on the field all fall and was selected in the ninth round of the NFL draft by the Houston Oilers.

Home coming

Although Morningside finished last in the NCC basketball race, they deserved a better fate.

The Chiefs finished sixth in offense, fourth in defense, fifth in field goal shooting, second in free throw shooting, sixth in assists and seventh in rebounding.

No Chiefs won individual statistical crowns but several of them appeared among the leader lists.

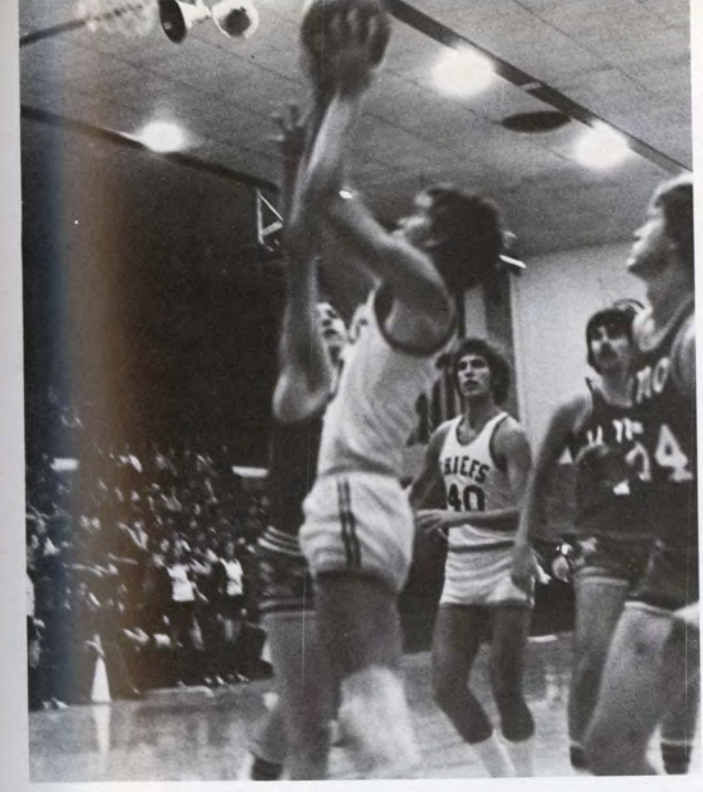

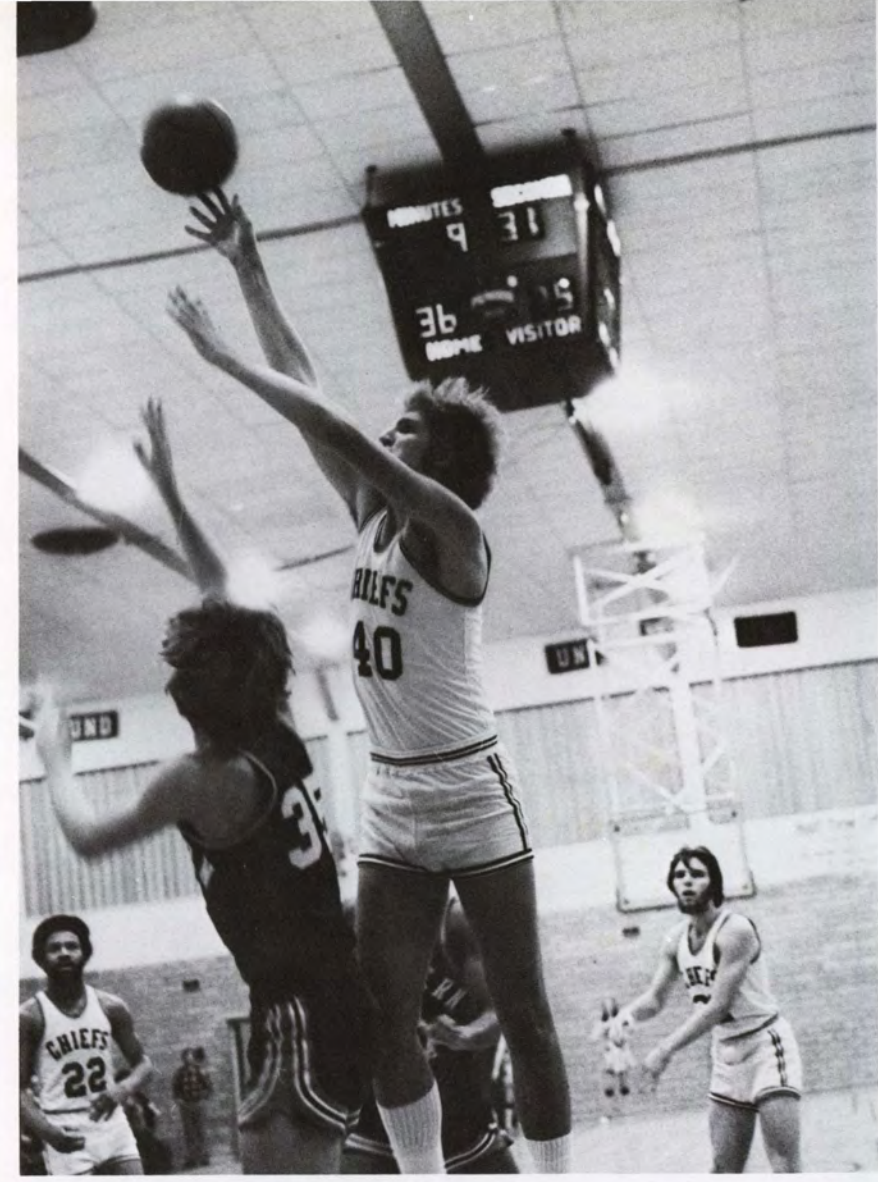

Senior guard Joe Barnes ended up seventh in scoring with a 16.8 average and 12th in assists with a 3.0 average.

Mark Faber, a freshman from Rock Valley, tied for sixth in league rebounding with an 8.0 average, was eighth in free throwing with a .778 mark and tied for 23rd in scoring at 10.0.

Junior Steve Kovarna from Hinton was the 15th best shooter in field goal accuracy at .510 and 10th in free throwing at .756.

Senior Reggie Street was 17th in scoring at 11.4 and junior Jon McCurdy tied for seventh in assists at 3.7.

Faber's 10-10 free throw showing against UNO in the season wrap-up was the league best and Barnes' 27 field goals attempted Feb. 11 against NDSU was also a league high.

Basketball

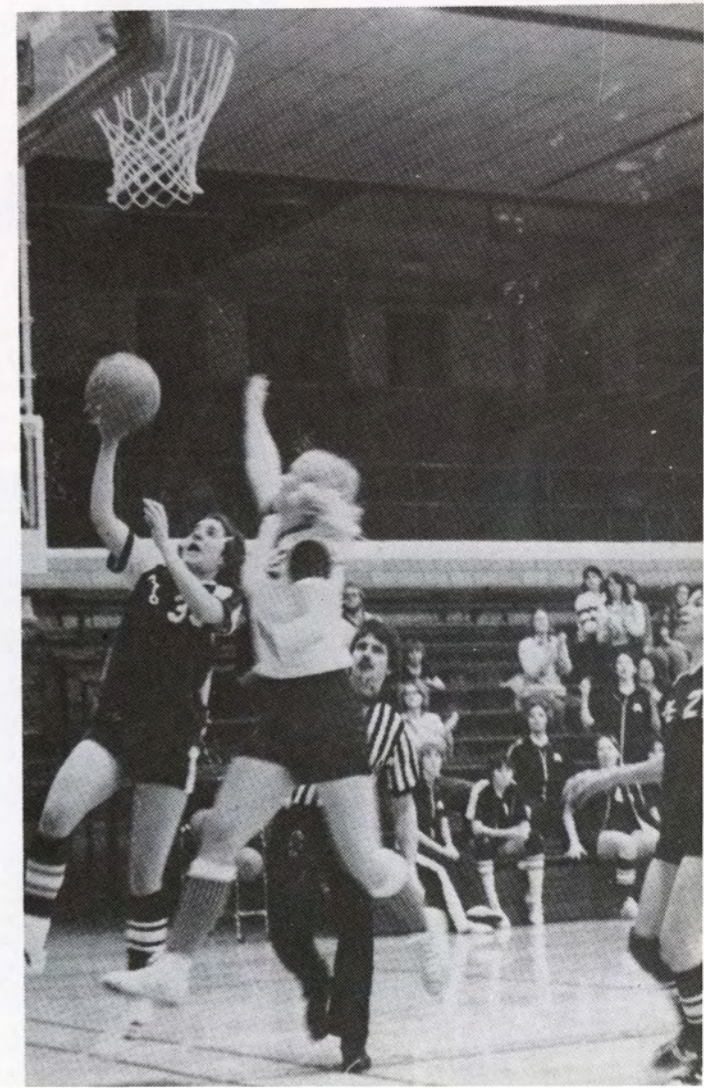

After a slow start, the Morningside women's basketball team came on strong winning five of seven games.

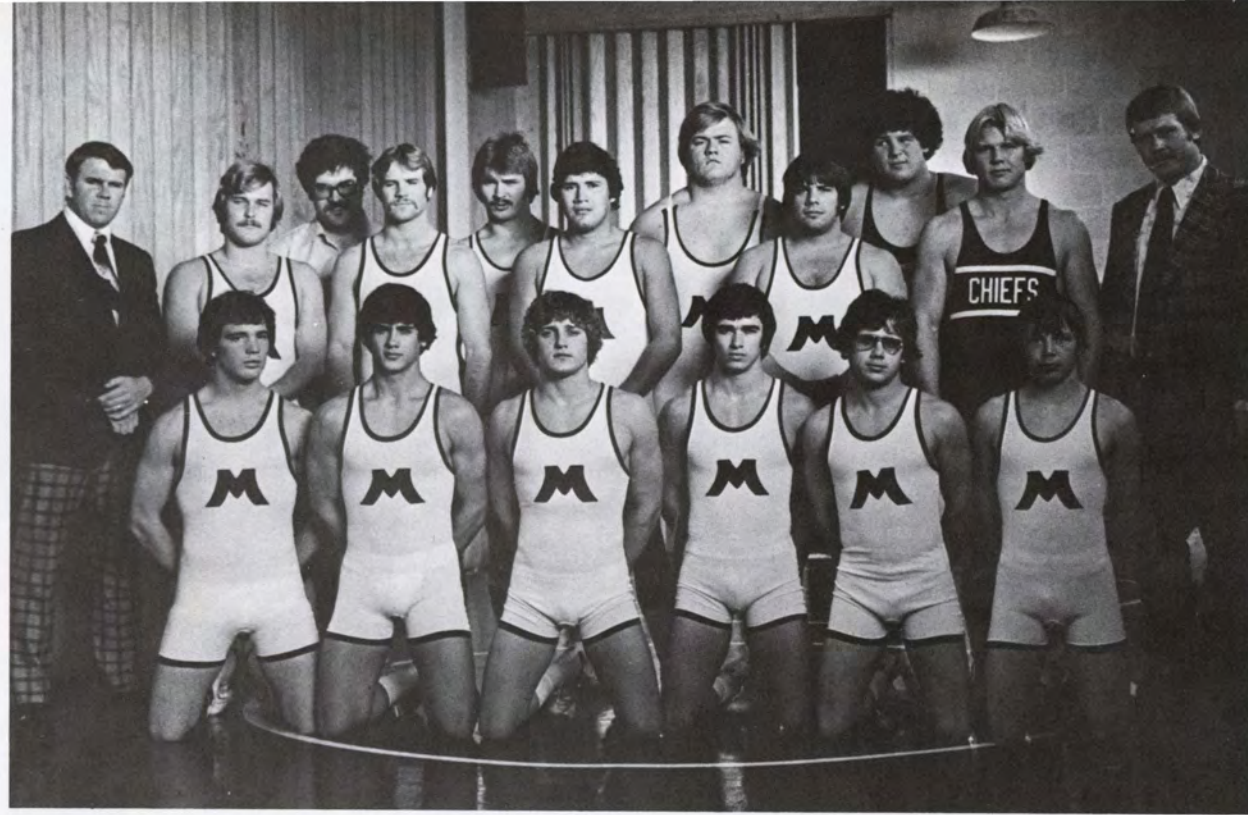

Their sixth-place finish in the Io-Kota Conference qualified them for the Iowa District 1 tournament where they lost in the finals to crosstown rival Briar Cliff.

Rita Bobolz of Hartley, the leading scorer received all-conference first team honors and was selected by her teammates as the most valuable player. Maggie Campbell of Waukon and Diane Sorensen of Galva were picked as most improved players by the team.

Women's Basketball

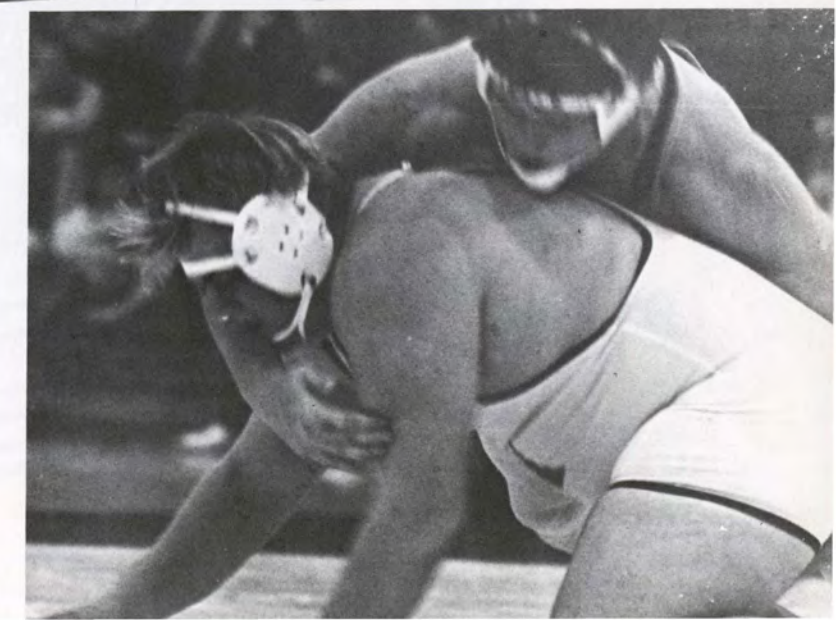

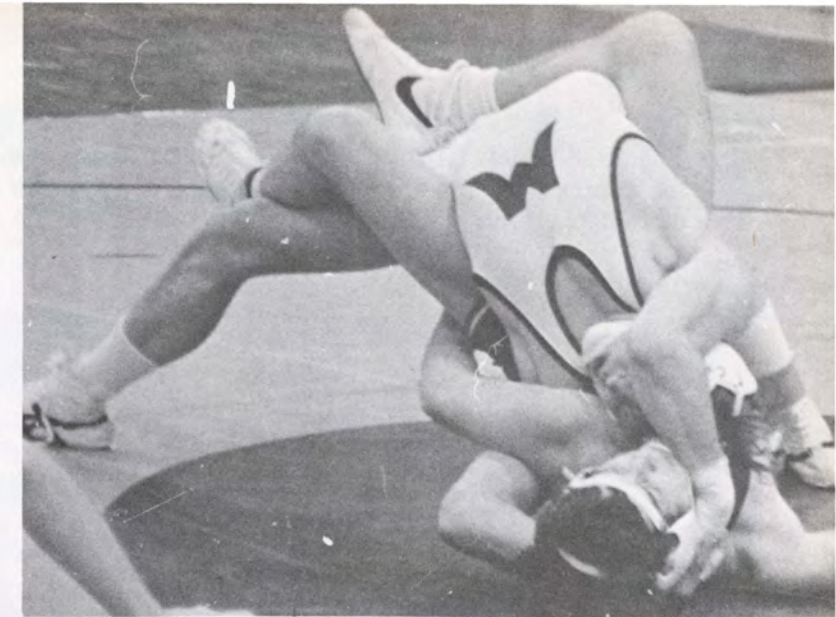

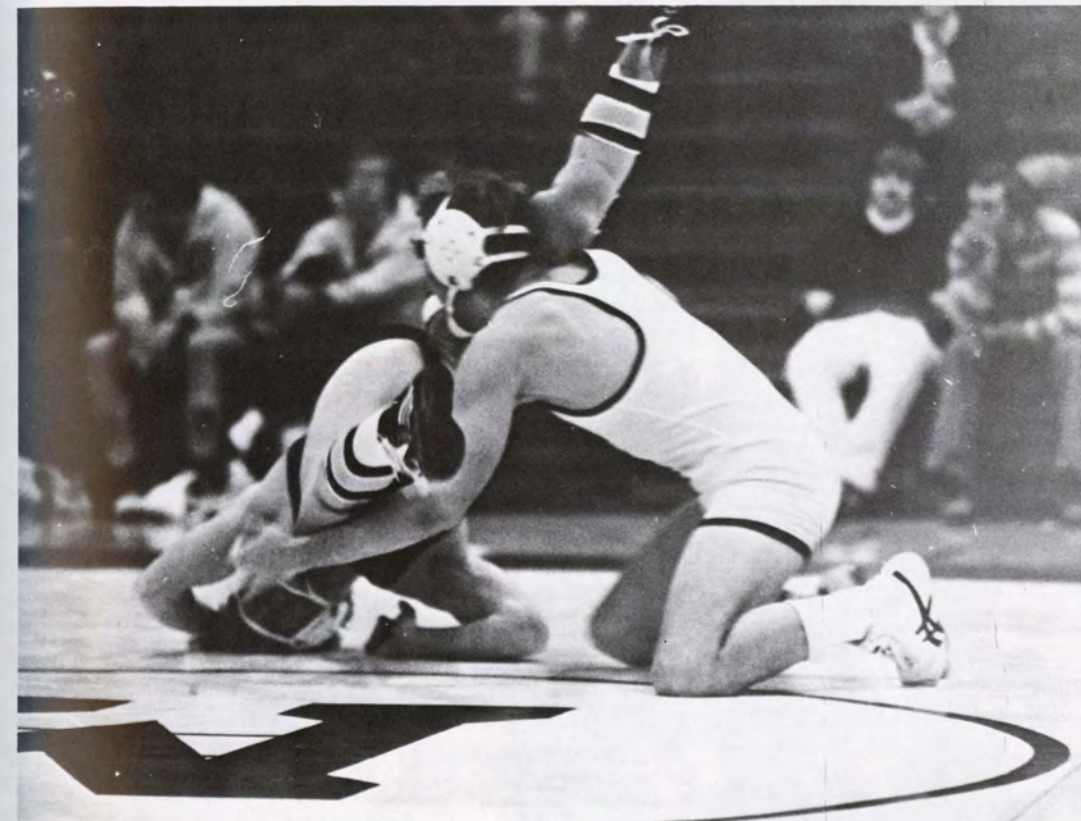

Wrestling

Head wrestling coach Vic Wallace had high hopes as the 1977-78 season opened in November. Every weight was filled and the lineup was one a wrestling coach dreams about but rarely realizes.

The injury bug struck early when the Chiefs learned that their No. 1 wrestler, John Snakenberg, who ranked second in all time wins at Morningside, would be unable to compete due to a back injury suffered in the summer. The second meet also proved costly. Doug Johnston at 150 pounds, a two-year varsity letter winner who placed third in the NAIA district tournament tore knee ligaments and was lost for the season.

Academics added their toll in mid-December when heavyweight Mike Pagel and 142 pounder Mark Sullivan were lost due to academic eligibility . . . At the time of his ineligibility, Mark sported the Chief's best record.

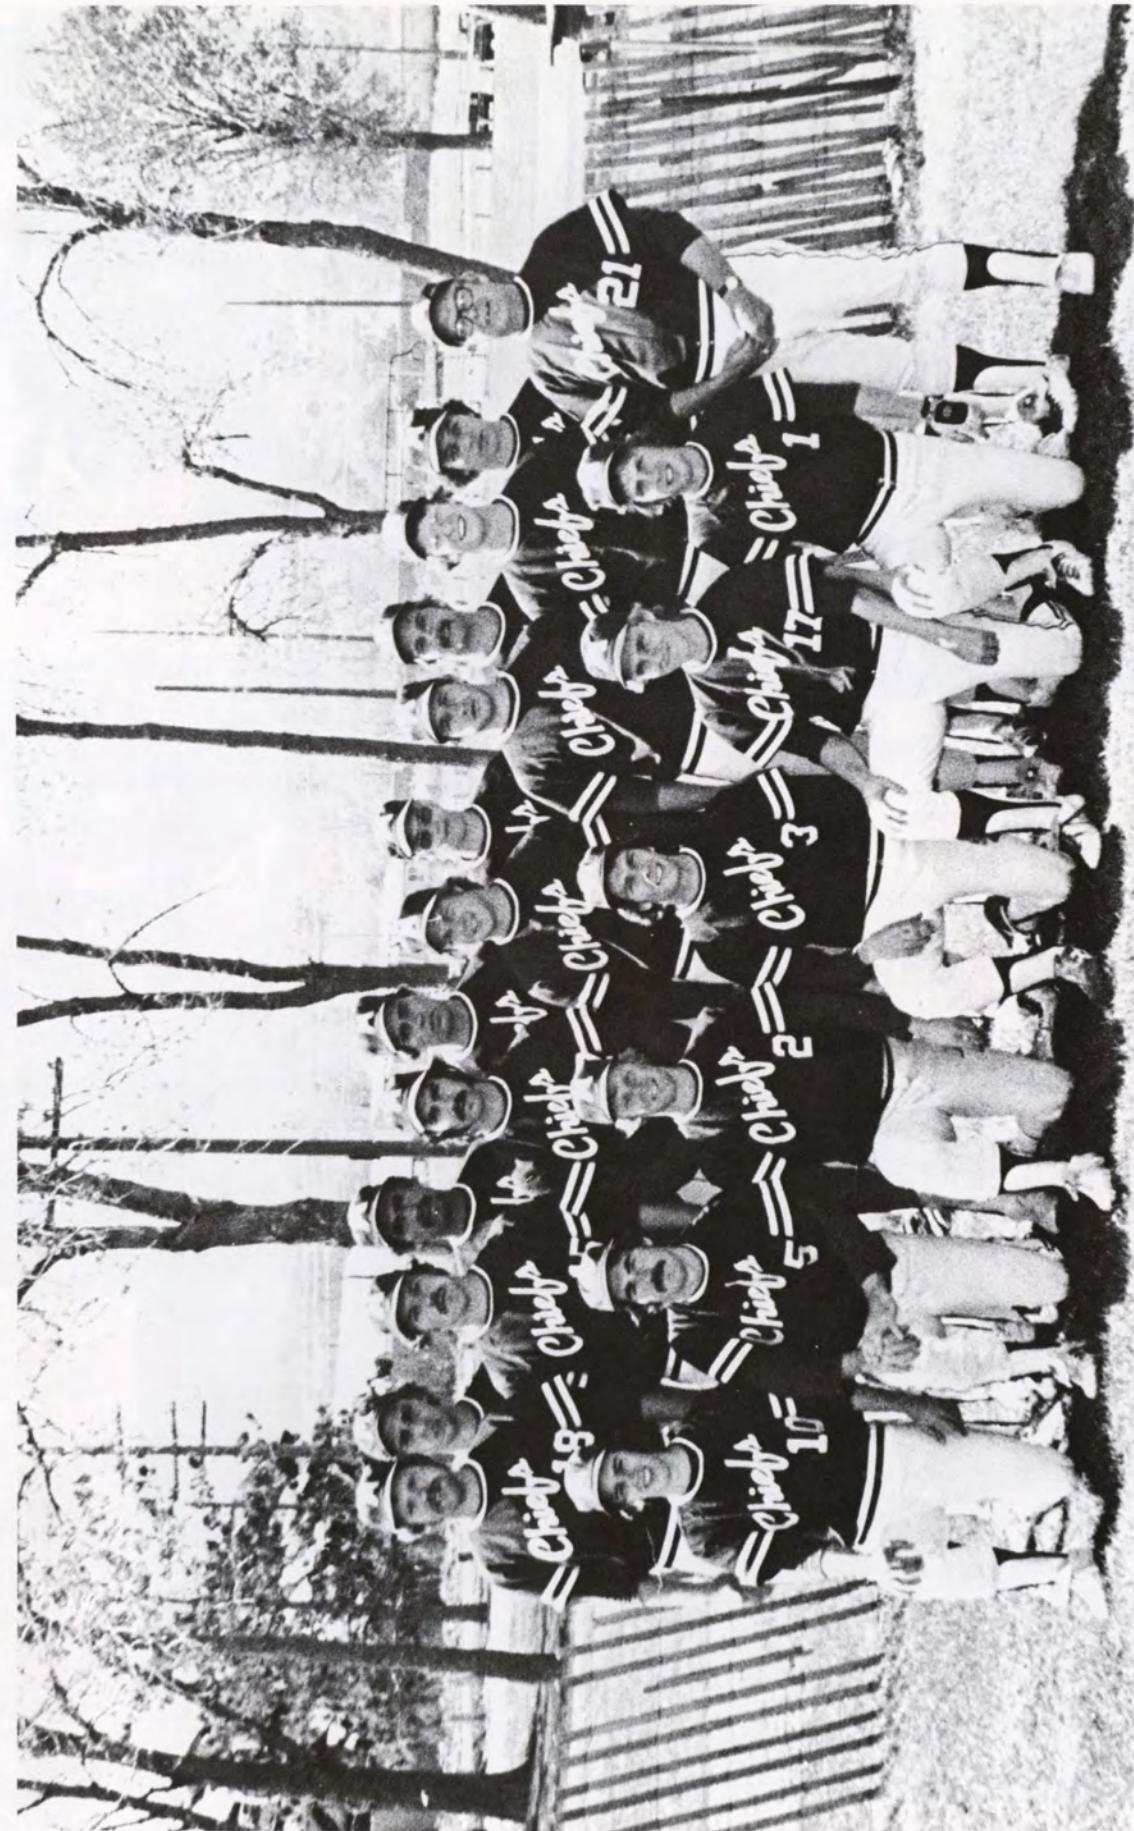

The Chiefs suffered again when freshman Roger Meyers, wrestling at 118, a state champ from Glenwood, tore shoulder ligaments and was lost for the season. One meet later, Lynn Mishler at 158 who was leading the Chiefs in takedowns, near falls, falls, superior decisions and escapes, injured knee ligaments and was lost for the season. The final injury occurred one day before the conference tournament when senior Rex Mehrhoff, who had placed third in the conference as a sophomore, tore shoulder ligaments and was lost for the season.

The 1978 Chiefs had a good year. In addition to taking the conference crown, the Chiefs nearly won a berth in the district playoffs.
