

ARCHIVES

My Creed

MORNINGSIDE COLLEGE

LIBRARY

SIoux CITY IOWA

I believe the Ideal Morningside Girl:

Embodies in her own life the ideals of her college expressed in the Greek phrase upon her seal: Kala K'agatha, the beautiful and the good.

Has a serious purpose in college, realizing that college is a stepping stone to the realization of constructive dreams.

Is personally attractive, knowing that a charming character and a pleasing appearance are winning assets in the battles of life.

Never does less than her best, believing that a thing worth doing at all is worth doing well.

Stresses spiritual values, knowing that the highest and most lasting good is to be found in soul development.

Is democratic, knowing that true culture precludes snobbishness and real courtesy is all-inclusive.

Is a sincere friend, knowing that the sweetest thing in life is friendship, a giving as well as a receiving.

Realizes that college is a place of growth and development, molding her character to fit the highest ideal of womanhood.

Has broad sympathies, striving toward a vision of world sisterhood, critical toward herself, toward others, lenient.

Is loyal to Morningside, holding dear to her heart the honor of her college, entering freely into its joys and sorrows, in honest endeavor to be worthy of the institution which shelters her.