Morningside Chief Football

"This time there won't be any fifty to nothin' blowouts."

Linebacker Tony Greer

None can criticize the Morningside football team for their lack of effort or competitiveness. The Chiefs were within their realistic goal of six victories several times. The team played tough, hard-nosed ball against top-ranked teams but fell short of victory.

Morningside ended the 1989 season with a 2-9 record and a winless North Central Conference mark of 0-9. The Chiefs hold a 21 game conference losing streak over two and half seasons. They will be motivated enough to win games over the next three or four seasons, beginning with the 1990 season.

Observers should have figured out that Dave Dolch is not a miracle worker. Therefore, people should not expect him to turn a losing team into winners in one season. The 1989 Chiefs were better than the 1988 Chiefs in terms of competitiveness. Half of the conference teams nearly lost to the Chiefs before rallying to a win. Offensive lineman Brian Daugherty said, "Next time, it's our turn to blow them away."

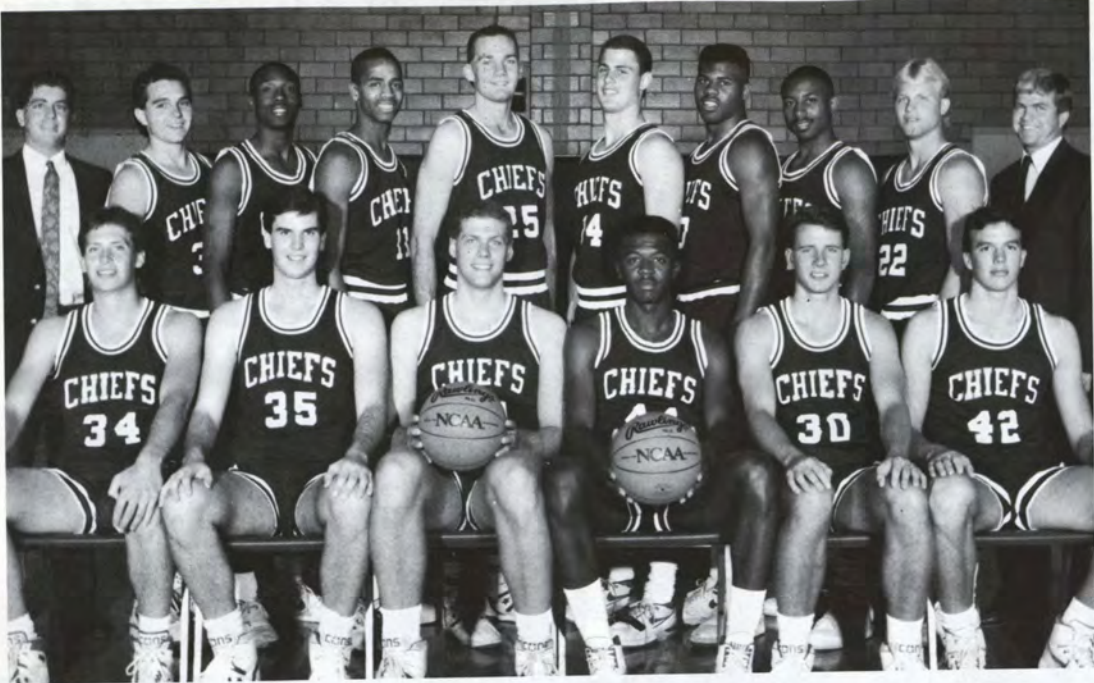

Regardless of the 1989 record, the Chiefs improved tremendously over the last three seasons. Plus having four players named in the top ten in four statistical categories in the NCC:

- Rob Niemeyer, who didn't play in the last game, was ninth in rushing with 501 yards and a 4.9 yard average per carry.
- Quarterback Toby Kamies was eight in the league with 755 yards passing.
- Placekicker Bill Kennedy averaged 39 yards per punt before the St. Cloud game. Which was good enough for sixth place.
- Jeff Smith was third in punt returns with 10 returns for 106 yards and averaged 10.6 yards per punt.

It all adds up to achieving the goals to succeed and play winning football. The Chiefs should be one of the dominating forces in the NCC in the 1990's.

This year the Lady Chiefs set a single season victory mark of a 23 - 25 - 1 overall record this spring. They captured fourth place in the NCC Post Season Tournament. Shelly Walker was named to the National Softball Coaches Association Midwest Regional Squad, as well as the first team All - North Central Conference.

Lady Chief Softball

Bump, Set, Spike!

The Lady Chiefs suffered a tough season as they finished the year with a 4 - 19 overall record and a 0 - 7 conference record. The team was young and inexperienced, but still received great leadership from their three departing seniors and their coach, Sandra Winter. The Lady Chief Volleyball Program became a new member in the NCC and NCAA Division II Conferences this year which proved to be a big challenge for the team. The group has a long struggle ahead as they play in their new conferences and gain the experience they need to be a winning team, but with hard work, determination, leadership, and good coaching they are sure to produce a winning team in the future.

Lady Chief Volleyball

Lady Chief Basketball

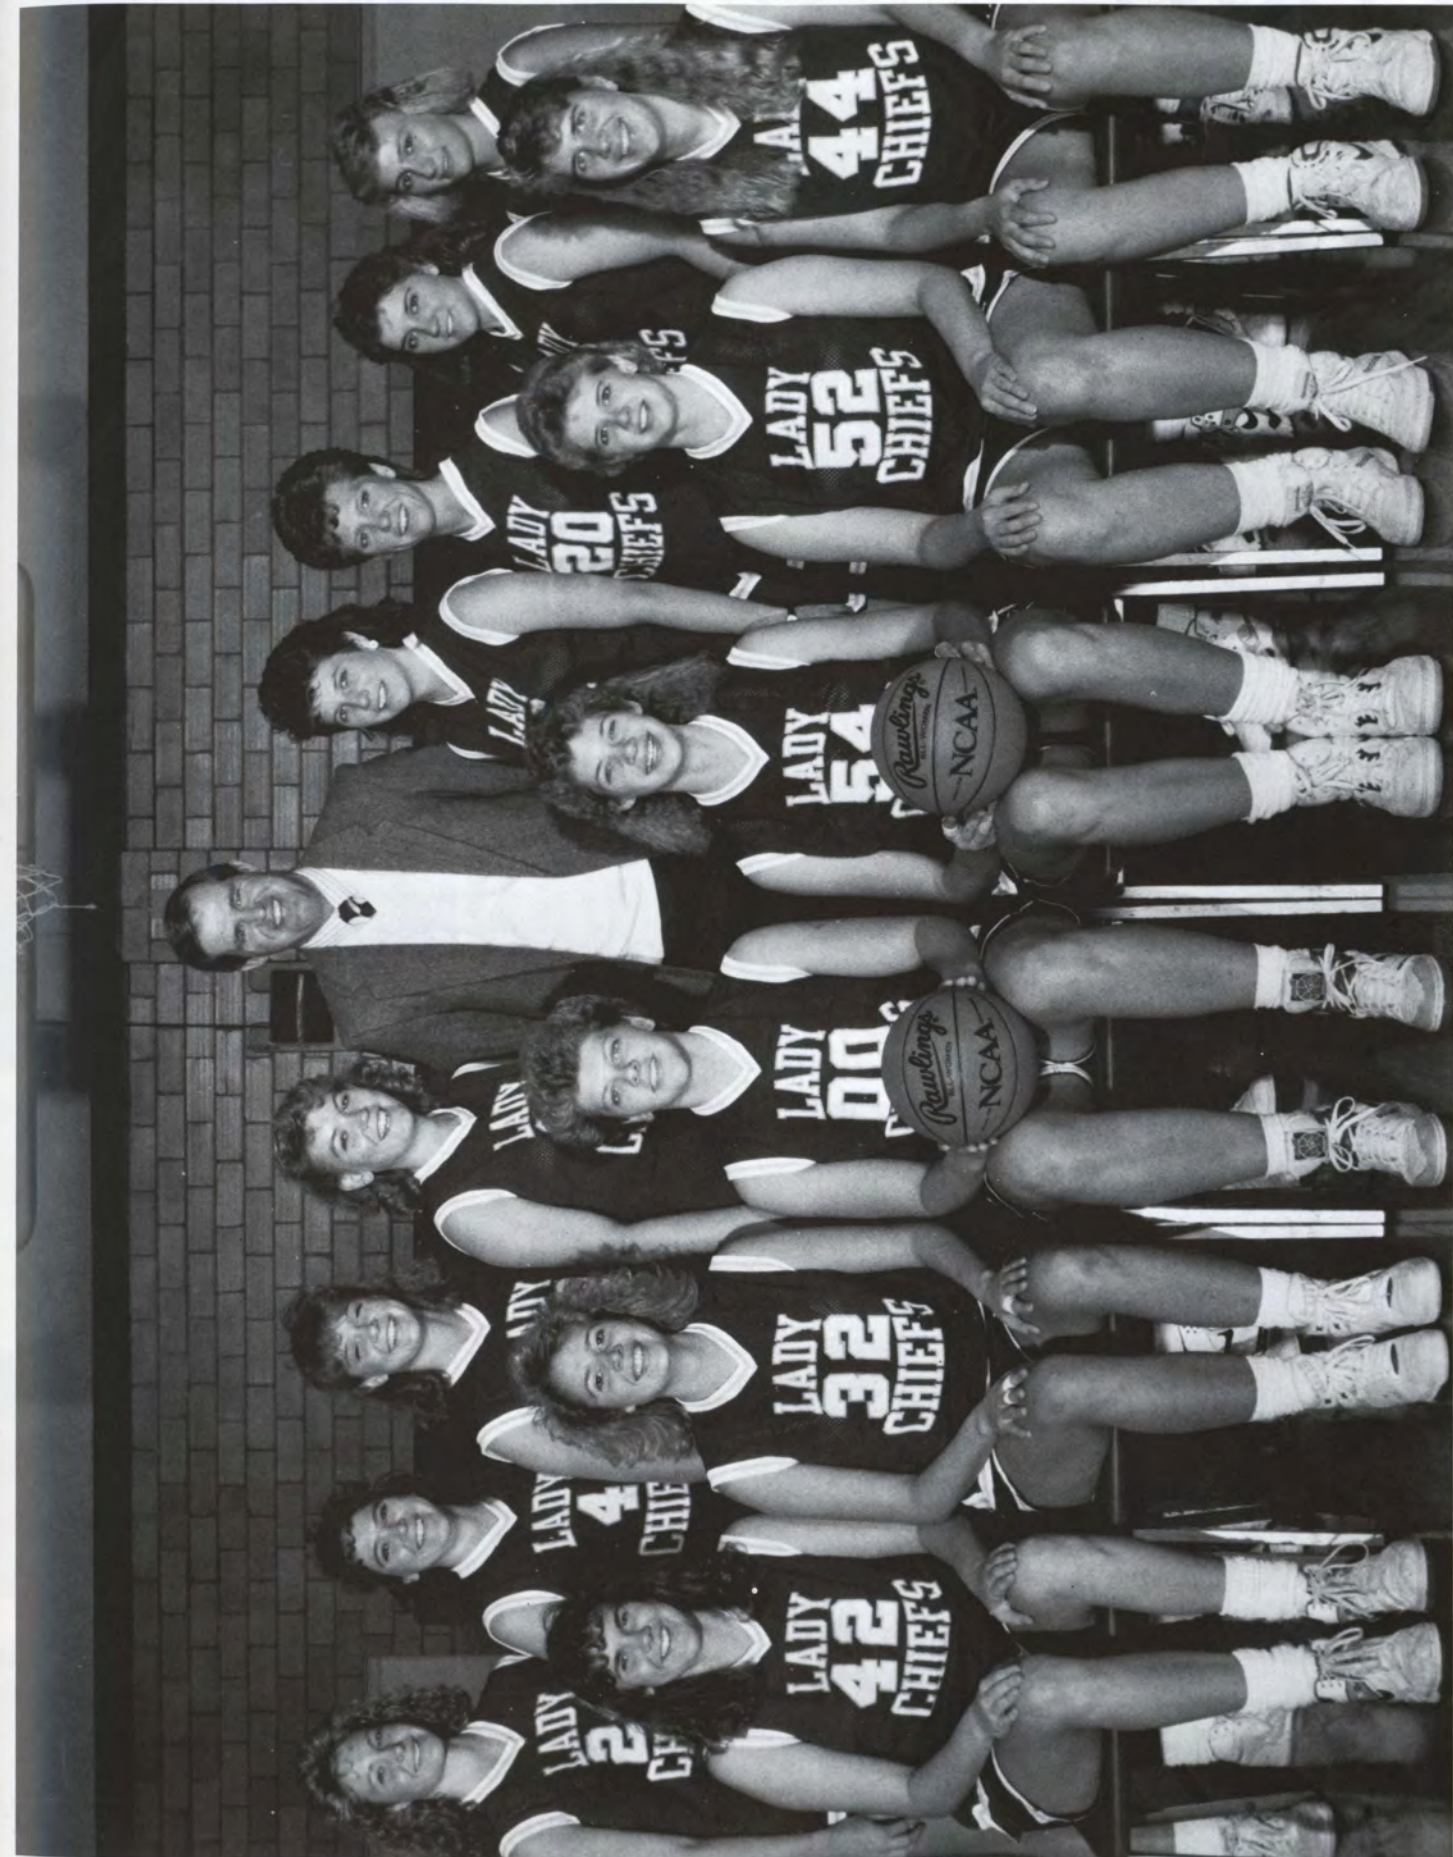

The Lady Chief Basketball Team faced a tough season as they competed in the NCC. The Morningside women were 6 - 20 overall and 1 - 15 in the NCC before they closed their season against Mankato State and St. Cloud State. The team was lead by Coach John Arnold and seniors, Rhonda McKee and Vicki Rahbusch. (Pictured at right, right to left.) Arnold has lead the women's basketball program to greater height's with a 90 - 59 win/loss record and a 1985 - 1986 berth in the 16- team National Tournament. The team struggled through the conference with low field shooting percentages and costly turnovers.

The team overall needs to shoot better and convert the plays with few turnovers to be contenders for the top spot in next year's tough NCC Conference. Better luck next season!

Go Gettum' Lady Chiefs

Holy Cow!

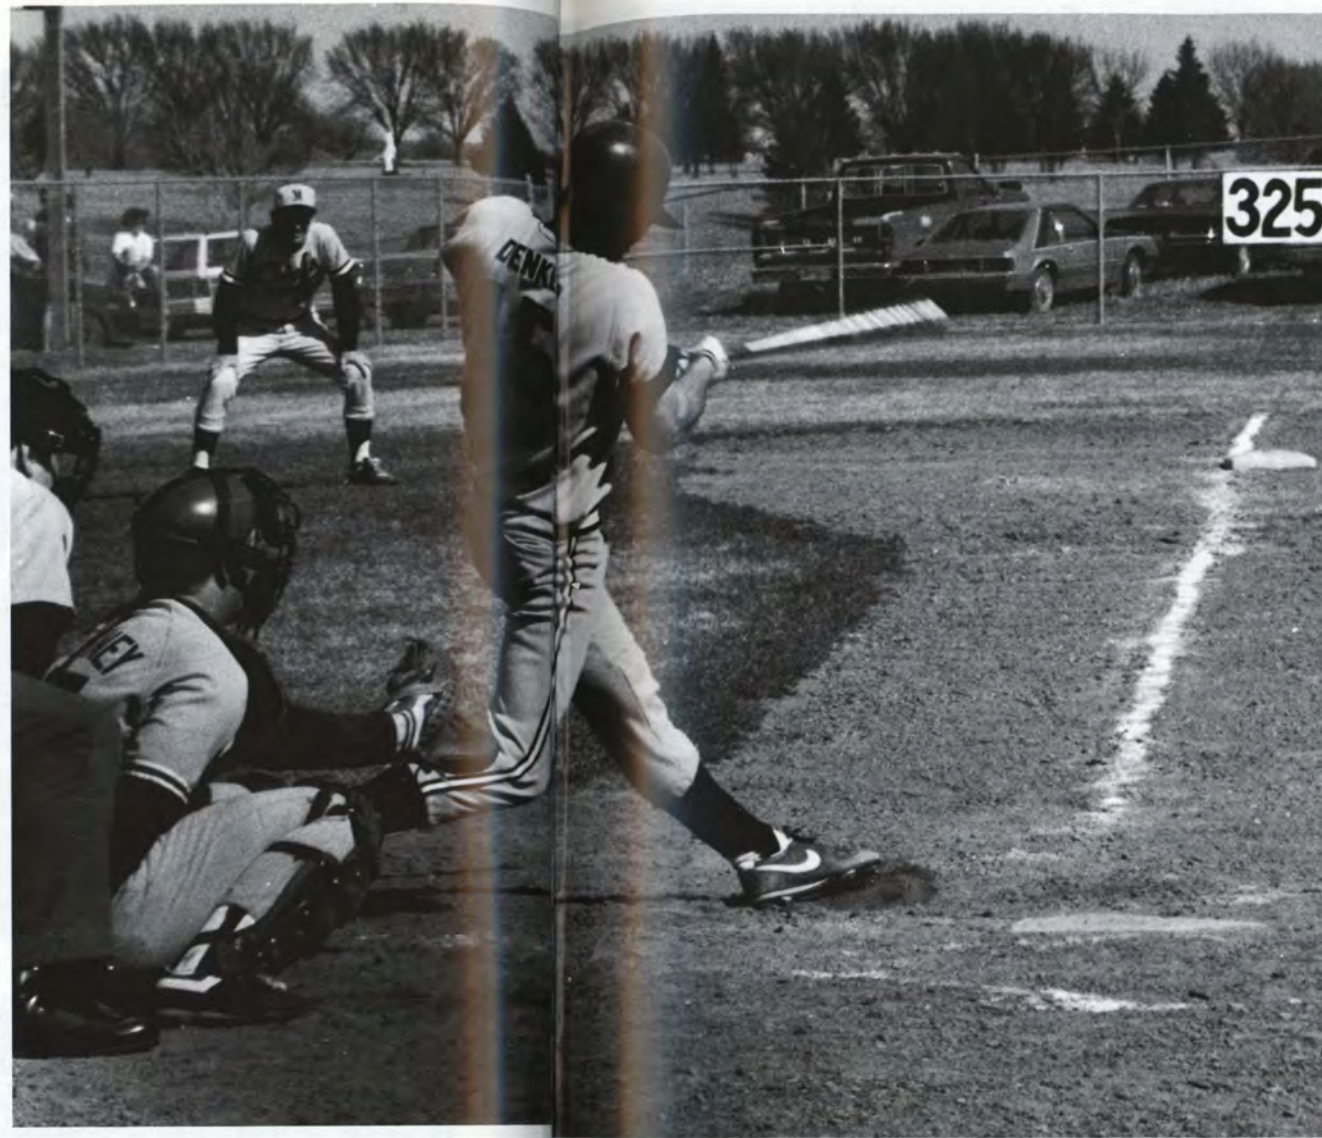

The great American pass-time. BASEBALL!!! The smell of the fresh cut grass, the crack of the bat, the roar of the crowd and the smell of popcorn & peanuts. For some odd reason it doesn't sound like Morningside's baseball field. It's more like dying grass, the "ping" of aluminum bats, the cheers of a sparse crowd and no concession stand. Just finding the field is an adventure. You have to take a little dirt road on the side of a hill with potholes the size of Arkansas to get there. But, maybe with the increase in tuition and everything else, the Chiefs can get a decent field closer to the campus. Who knows?!?

The 1990 baseball squad have five seniors to lead the Chiefs, they are; Tim Jackson, Steve Wiederhold, Scott Marr, Curt Denker & Mark Novak. After the teams second place in the North Central Conference's Southern Division last season the Chiefs are looking for the top.

This year's pitching staff is stronger and has 13 talented pitchers to choose from. The returning members are Mark Novak, Scott Marr, Steve Wiederhold, Eric Anderson, Brian Puhmann, Curt Denker, Mike McCune & Jason Manker. The Chiefs also have 3 new pitchers who are Tony Wengart, Tom Heeren & Adam Stern. The Chiefs also have a squad that is talented and skillful players that balance out the team both offensively and defensively.

The Chiefs head coach, Jim Scholten, has a record of 118-123 under his belt after five years and this year hopes to put the Chiefs on top.

I've never seen anything like it!

CROSS COUNTRY

We came, we saw, we ran and ran and ran.

Although this years team lacked numbers they still competed with the top schools at numerous events.

The '89-'90 team was made up of the following athletes:

Head-coach Rick Clarahan

Womens:

- Nicole Eagle
- Jennifer Neese
- Marta Williams

Mens:

- Dave Nash
- Rick Amos
- Brent Brennan
- Bret Taber
- Derek Albert

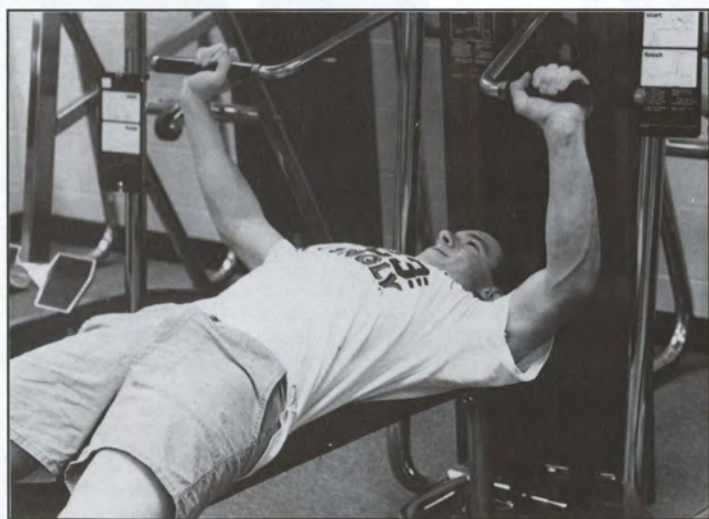

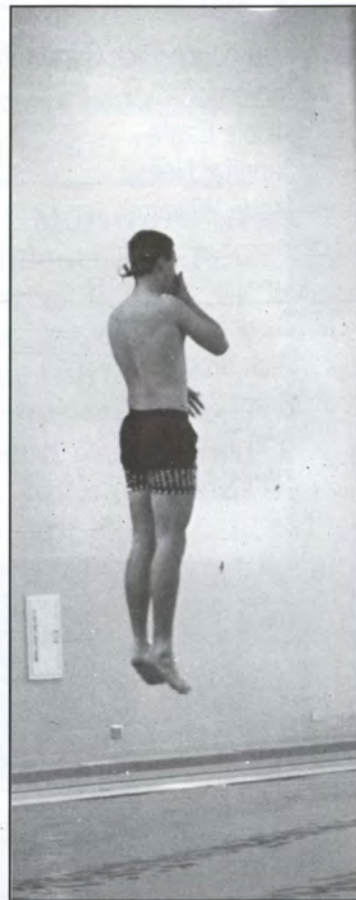

Clock-wise from upper-left: Coach Clarahan, Derek Albert, Bret "I can run with my eyes closed" Taber, Nicole Eagle, Dave Nash.

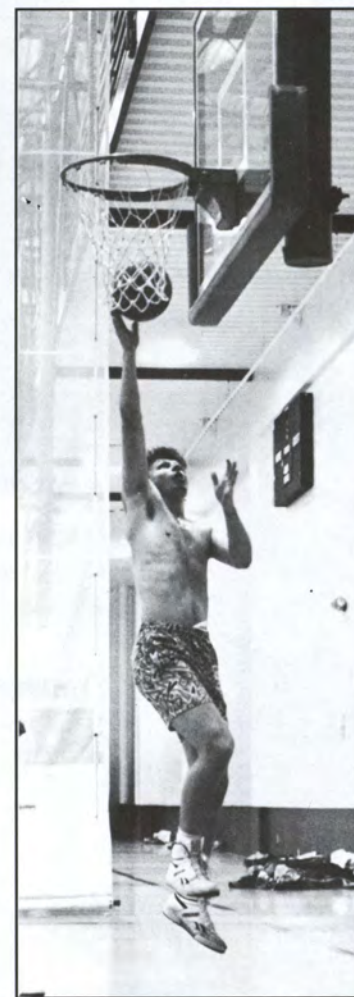

What do you get when you put three multi-purpose courts, a six lane, 25-yard pool, an elevated three-lane jogging track, four racquetball/handball courts, a weight training room, classrooms, offices, locker rooms and storage areas all in one building. You get 71,000 square footage of prime-time, recreational fun.

It only took 18 short months until the building was opened, but years of planning keep many Morningside students wondering if they'd get to see the new building. Well, the waiting is over, en-joy!!! ☐

HIPER STYLE

Inatermural Volleyball

Bump, set, spike!!

Just as intermural basketball competition increased, so did intermural volleyball. This year the HPER building provided better nets that didn't sag and dividers that kept other volleyballs off of the playing courts. It even helped the people that haven't played for a while, by having higher ceilings. As everyone can tell, the HPER improved the quality and playing conditions for Morningside students.

Activities & Events

Freshman Orientation

-The disorientate process-

"Welcome to the bunch" was the theme for the 1989 orientation weekend, which took place from August 26th through to the 29th. Activities and events for orientation were planned by Missy Will and Andrea Puhlman. Numerous other upper classman assisted with activities, which in turn ended up being a huge success.

The unloading of freshman started at noon on the 26th and ran till around three. After getting settled students went to meetings with orientation groups and receptions with students and parents. To cap off the day a scavenger hunt was held, in which students hunted around the campus finding bananas. The winners were determined by seeing who could make the best "banana sculpture". Sunday's events consisted of a trip to the ulty/student it, the activities movie in the though the dreary, lots of tended the new student said, "Heck, if your gonna get wet, might as well have fun doing it!".

"OK, Now I'm really confused."

sculpture". events consisted of water slide, fac-picnic and to end council showed a Commons. Al-day started off students at-water slide. One

Monday provided only all day tests and validation. But, as soon as night arrived so did the fun. Tons of students showed up for the dance with music by "Street Legal". The night ended at 12 with only classes to look forward to in the morning.

Tuesday. Classes, classes, classes and orientation activities concluded that evening with the annual President's Bash entitled, "Top Banana's Bash" where students made there own banana splits and meet President Miles Tommeraasen.

Orientation proved only to be the beginning for new freshman.

Phone-A-Rama

"Hello, hello?"

This year the 1989 National Phone-A-Rama was pledged a total of $137,000 from November 5 through November 16. This was the highest dollar amount generated in during the calling period. An estimated $160,000 is expected for next years program. □

The Chicago trip

Look out Chicago here comes the annual art trip from Morningside. The "windy city" was taken by storm on Thursday, November 2, 1989, when a group of art students and others invaded Chicago to see the sights. The group arrived in the city around 4:00pm. (after being on the bus since 4:30am that morning), first thing was a short tour of the city with the tour guide, Frank Breneisen. The rest of the night was open for a fun time on the town.

Friday (whoa my head), go back to sleep. Ok, it's about 1:00pm, well I missed the tour of the Sears tower and the Picasso Sculpture, I'll catch them later. It's time to hit the stores (if you're suppose to buy things for others start now). Souvenirs are done, time to go OUT!

Saturday (wake-up call at 9:30am) got to tour the Chicago Art Institute and the Field Museum. Night-time rolls around, I've got to catch the world famous "Hard Rock cafe". Well time to get set for the bus trip back to Sioux City. Where did all the time go?

Sunday, the bus leaves at noon, I guess I can wait till next year to come back. Believe me it's worth the trip. □

Top - "Hey I thought this was the "windy city", if I wanted snow I could have stayed home, oh well."
 Left - No, this isn't rush hour. This is how it always is.

HOMECOMING

Morningside style!!!

Homecoming '89 was blessed with warm weather and loads of fun. Besides current students the classes of 1959, 1969, and 1979 were also on hand for their class reunions. Some of the activities for homecoming included the annual fun run, the talent show, coronation of the king and queen, the homecoming football game, a parade, a bonfire, a pep rally and KMSC triviaton.

The Chiefs may have lost the game, but that didn't dampen the spirits for the rest of the night. The homecoming dance was held at the Hilton hotel downtown, some students went home, others spent the night partying from room to room at the Hilton.

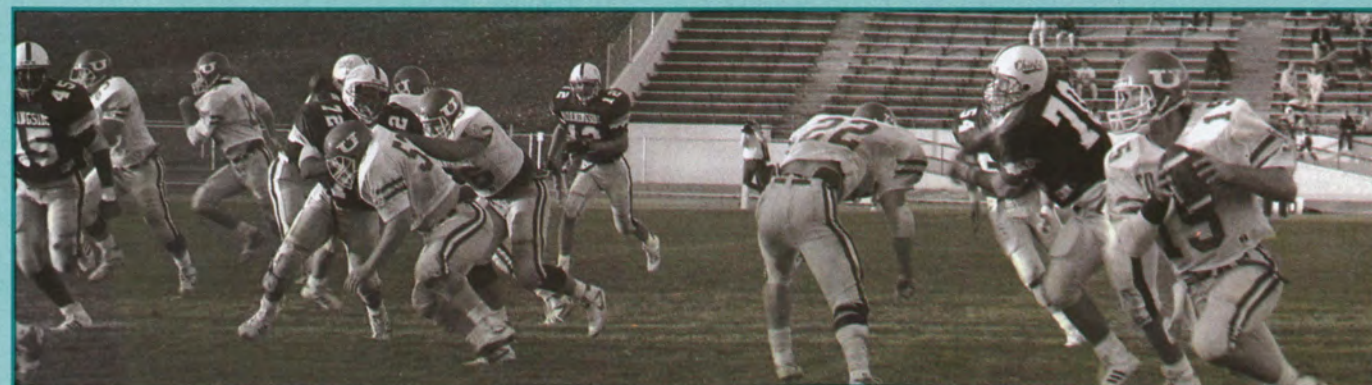

Set your calenders now, the 1990 Homecoming is set for October 13 & 14. □

Mmmm, mmmmph,
this is stuff is GREAT!

Marriot held it's annual cookout this year on April 30th. Everything went good...the food was cooked, the weather was nice, tons of people showed up and everyone had a good time. Marriot actually was able to get people to participate in the activities they planned. Such as frisbee golf, bubble blowing contest and a watermelon seed spitting contest. They served brats, hot dogs & hamburgers, tons of chips and gobs of other munchies. The only thing wrong was that some lawn care center sprayed the lawn with some chemicals. Oh well, big deal. Nobody really cared, but it did make for a great picture. The only after effects that were reported were people coughing up brown chunks of lung the next morning. But, hey it was fun. See ya next year...minus your digestive system.

Murder by moonlight

Whispers feel over the room, as the news of Dean Rants being murdered was announced. The suspects: Morningside's faculty. The detective: YOU.

This year's formal was held at the Dakota Dunes Country Club on April 7th. After the dinner a fake murder plot was planned and Morningside's students had to determine who murdered Dean Rants, what the murder weapon was and the motive behind the murder. The suspects consisted of members of the faculty and each were called to the front and questioned by hostess Ronda Cleveringa. When the questioning was over the finger pointed at Terri Curry's (Ass't Dean & Dir. of Housing) husband Rants' corn, of which he conveniently had to supply for the formal. Prizes were given for the closest correct murderer and murder weapon.

After the dinner and social hour, Dj's from Minneapolis provided music for the night which ran until the wee-hours of the morning.

The Tri-State Jazz Festival

This year's Tri-State Jazz Festival was a very, very huge success. It brought more than 40 bands into Eppley Auditorium. A few of the major artists included Maynard Ferguson, Don Owens, Vincent DiMartino and The United States Navy Jazz Band. There were also numerous high school band plus both the Morningside Jazz Band and the Alumni Band were also in attendance.

Convo attenders had a chance to see the Morningside Jazz Band and the Alumni Band strut their stuff Friday morning (Feb. 9). The festival ran both Friday and Saturday and ended Saturday night with Maynard Ferguson's screamin' trumpet (pictured at left). If you missed it this year, do make plans to attend next years festival.

Top left; Maynard Ferguson blasts out the tunes, above; the Morningside Band shows what they can play, top right; taking a break from all the excitement, right; a view of the show from the balcony.

The Dimmitt Challenge

(the first annual?)

It sounded great!!! Dimmitt was going to have a battle between the residence halls. Roadman, the Plex, Dimmitt, and a faculty & staff team were going to go head-to-head to see who was the better half of Morningside. This all was suppose to take place at high noon, Sunday, April 21, at Bass field. But.... as you can see not to much happened. There was going to be a softball tournament, volleyball contest and an air-band contest. But, NOBODY SHOWED UP. So, what happened????? Boy, I can't wait until the second annual!

"No , we didn't forget the pictures this is what went on! NOTHING! Hopefully there will be more next year!"

A CAREER GUIDANCE TEST FOR THE MORNINGSIDE GRADUATE

THE PROBLEM: A cat is stuck in a tree and it won't come down. Determine how you would get the cat out of the tree.

If you said :

- Climb the tree. You are of average intelligence. You could be a fairly good sales clerk.
- Climb the tree with a ladder. You are above average intelligence. You could possibly be a sale clerk supervisor.
- Call, "Here, Kitty, Kitty." You are a foolish dreamer. Do NOT try to start your own business.
- Chop down the tree. You are an energetic person. Join the Marines.
- Get a sexy cat to entice the other cat out of the tree. Your mind is truly in the gutter and would be an excellent porno film director.
- Call the fire department. You have no sense of authority. You would make a good beer-truck driver.
- Set the tree on fire. You have a very sick, warped sense of humor. Chances are you'll end up winning the "Publishers Clearing House Sweepstakes" and be the next millionaire.

Very, very few

Attitude Profile

Read each question and determine either if you agree, disagree, or are uncertain about your answers.

1. I would pay money to see a singing mule.
2. I get defensive when people hurl things at me.
3. If displayed properly, wood chavings can be decorative.
4. Nothing matters but me.
5. It's okay to use your dentures as castanets at parties.
6. The way to a man's heart is through his chest.
7. One can never know enough about fungus.
8. At operas, I always giggle when the fat lady in the viking helmet comes on.
9. Shampoo and combs are a waste of money.
10. I find it hard to be around people who have personalities.
11. I would be happier if everyone wore duck costumes.
12. You should never take more hostages than you need.
13. I would purchase a book about saliva if one were available.
14. Under the right circumstances I could be a psychopathic killer.
15. I have difficulty buttoning things.
16. Dick Clark is the Antichrist and must be stopped.

If you agreed with most of the questions you need some serious help!
If you answered mostly with uncertainty you might want to think about getting some help.
If you disagreed with the questions then you can be fairly confident about succeeding in life.

Do YOU know

A ... is for Alcohol, alcohol is derived from the distillation or the fermentation of grains and fruits. It sometimes appears to be the life blood of some M'side students.

B ... is for Buck's, the only place to go on campus to catch a burger or something cool to drink. B is also for beer, which is not available at Buck's.

C ... is for cars, these are used by M'side students who can't handle the treacherous journey to and from classes. C is also for condoms, where can you get one on campus, anyway?

D ... is for Dimmitt, part is for guys, part is for girls, but they both seem to fit very nicely under one roof. D is also for dating, don't forget letter C.

E ... is for Empty, which can describe any Morningside college students' checking account, refrigerator, gas tank or bottle of brew, etc...

F ... is for fire alarms, or should we say FALSE alarms. F is also for Food-4-Less, which is conveniently open 24 hours for ALL of your shopping needs.

G ... is for Graduation, IF ya make it. It's also for Greeks, either you love 'em or you hate 'em. Oh yeah, lets not forget Grades, that is why we are here, isn't it?

H ... is for HPER, if you don't know of it by now you might as well forget it. H is also for hangovers, if you mess with letter A you're bound to have one of these in the morning.

I ... is for ID's, you're nobody at M'side without one. Please no fake ones.

J ... is for Jail, if you mess with A and drive a C you could wind up spending a few nights here.

K ... is for KMSC, always there for your listening pleasure. K is also for keys, which are usually remembered after you lock your door.

L ... is for Library, you know the place with all the books. Have you ever hide a thin book in your friends bookbag. The outcome, setting off the neat little beeper when he/she tries to leave. L is also for Lofts, some people need railings, we hear the floor is awfully hard.

M ... is for Marriott, college eating at its best. M is also for Mid-terms, which help us determine whether we'll every make it to letter G.

your ABC's??

N ... is for night-time, which is the best time to engage in a little of letter P.

O ... is for overdrawn, which we'll all severely be after 4 years, or maybe in 1 year!

P ... is for PARTIES!!!! Chances are you can probably find one every night. Some students find it a required course. Watch out for letter Q (both definitions) either way you're in trouble.

U ... is for underwear, where has yours ended up?

V ... is for vodka, self-explanatory. Either you now what it is or you don't.

W ... is for work-study, yippy, yee-haa. W is also for washers, you know the machines that clean your clothes. Some people haven't figured them out yet.

X ... is for Xerox, essential for copying notes and papers. X is also for x-rated, why can't the activities council show any of these top rated movies?

Y ... is for yearbook, it's only the finest publication on campus!!

Z ... is for Zzzzzz's, it's always hard to get enough sleep.

Q ... is for quiet hours, that means keep the noise down so the next 7 rooms can't here you. Q is also for "quarters", no definition needed.

R ... is for RA's, they usually aren't around when you need them and always are when you don't.

S ... is for stereos, the loudest one rules the hall or in some cases the entire dorm. S is also for security. When are they going to get a SWAT team and start blowing away people who park in the yellow?

T ... is for the tickets, the expenses usually help us achieve negatives in our bank accounts.

Faculty vs. students

The faculty of the Jacobsen Science Annex thought that they could not only teach their students a lesson in the classroom, but also one on the softball field. The serious science and math majors made up the student team, which came decked out in regular softball attire; shorts, T-shirt, etc.. While the faculty showed up in jeans and even Dr. Shane appeared wearing a dress shirt and sweater, dress pant and boat shoes.

The student team found out quickly that the faculty WANTED to win. Even with his unorthodox clothing Dr. Shane was a dominating force for the faculty. Both teams had their share of E's and head-on collisions, but all-in-all everyone had a good time. The score well, it was kinda unofficial, but the faculty took the students for a ride. I'm sure that a rematch is already being planned.

Oh, my garsh!

From the home office in Sioux City, Iowa,
THE TOP TEN THINGS HEARD ON SATURDAY MORNING.

- 10- Nothing.
- 9- Still nothing.
- 8- "What do ya mean the party's over."
- 7- "Oh God, I think I'm gonna die."
- 6- "Shut that damn alarm off!"
- 5- "Time to go home."
- 4- "Whoa, what happened here?"
- 3- "Hey, why is the floor wet?"
- 2- "Where's the trash can."
- 1- "Hey... who are you."

The yearbook archives, a trip to the past.

A look at the 50's, 60's, 70's and the 80's.

1950 fourty years ago

1960 thirty years ago

Left, Morningside ready to defend! This tankish looking thing was built by the Phycs department in 1960, pretty crazy! Below left, The Geek, oops, I mean the flat-top boys, I mean the Glee Club. Below, Back in the 60's, football players could take 90 degree turns at topspeed. It's gotta be the shoes!!

1970 twenty years ago

1980 ten years ago

"Hey.."

Well, here it is! To set the record straight we never produced a yearbook before and had no idea of what we were getting into. Last fall (1989) we came to school to find that our advisor had moved to a different school. So...we were left on our own, no guidance, no organization and no clue of what to do next. We could've asked last year's editor, but he left the country, something about studying in Japan. Well, all in all, the book didn't get started until around late November (the time we got organized). That's the reason why some sports and faculty pages don't have a lot of copy to them. We're sorry.

But, we hope you enjoy what we did manage to put together and next year you can expect it to be perfect!

Thanks,
Steve Sand &
Lea Anne Cuthrell
