College Receives Gifts

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Jones of Cherokee, have deeded their 366 acre farm to the Morningside College endowment fund, the Methodist pension fund, and the Collegiate Methodist Church at Ames. The college will receive an undivided one third interest of the farm.

A scholarship fund which will provide $300 each for a senior student has been made possible by a grant from Schield Bantam Company of Waverly, Iowa. The scholarships will be awarded on the basis of scholastic standing and financial need.

National Sorority On Campus

The first national social sorority to be established at Morningside will be organized November 9, 10, and 11, when the Kappa Zeta Chi members will be initiated into the Delta Zeta sorority.

National officers will be here for the event, and sorority members from neighboring colleges. The members of the local Delta Zeta Alumni are sponsoring the organization.

Roadmans in Reinbeck

Dr. and Mrs. Earl A. Roadman are making their home in Reinbeck, Iowa where Dr. Roadman is the minister at the Methodist Church.

Maroons North Central Champions

The Morningside Maroons have won the title in the North Central Conference. This is the first outright title for the Morningside squad since 1923.

The decisive game was played on October 27 before a crowd of spectators that overflowed the bleachers, when they defeated Augustana by a score of 21 to 13.

The season's tally stands at six wins, one tie and one loss.

The Maroons won their two pre-conference games with Nebraska Wesleyan and Omaha University by scores of 21 to 7 and 7 to 0.

On September 29 on the home field they won their first conference game with North Dakota University 7 to 3. That night 68 high school bands performed at half time.

North Dakota State was defeated 10 to 3 on October 6 by Halford's men.

The thrilling Homecoming game on October 13 with the University of South Dakota brought victory over the Coyotes 13 to 6.

At Cedar Falls the Maroons were held to 20 to 20 score by the Iowa State Teachers.

The final game and only defeat was the game at Brookings where South Dakota State received the big end of the score 28 to 13.

In addition to winning the first outright championship in 33 years, this is the first time in the football history of the school that Morningside has defeated both North Dakota University and North Dakota State for two successive years.

Highest praise is due head coach Dewey Halford and line coach Jack Jennett and to all the men on the squad.

Not to be outdone by the Varsity coach Don Protector's freshman team was undefeated in their games with freshman teams from South Dakota University, Augustana and Westmar.

This portrait of Professor Paul MacCollin hangs in the Recital room at the Conservatory. The painting, which was commissioned by the college chapters of Phi Mu Alpha — Sinfonia, national professional music fraternity, and Mu Phi Epsilon, national music sorority, was presented at an unveiling ceremony on Homecoming Day. The excellent likeness was created by William Zimmerman, head of the Art department of the College.

Richard Anshutz, college senior and president of Sinfonia, was master of ceremonies. Jack Lamb, chairman of the portrait committee, presented the portrait, and Miss Shirley Cox, president of Mu Phi Epsilon, introduced Janice MacCollin Taylor, who unveiled the picture. Acceptance was made by Dean Thomas Tweit for the college and Dr. Robert Larson for the Conservatory.

From the President's Pen

Many inquiries come to my office from our best recruiting group, the alumni. In answer to several queries, I shall give you some of the facts concerning our scholarship program.

There are four National Methodist Scholarships worth $400. per year. The recipient must be in the upper fifteen percent of his class academically, and must be an active member of the Methodist Church with an outstanding record of leadership.

The WMAX Scholarships (12 in number) are available under the following terms: to be used for the aid of one young man and one young woman after the Freshman year, who have specified their intentions of majoring in chemurgy, rural education, general science (agriculture) or rural leadership.

The Competitive Scholarships (12 in number are worth $800. ($200 each of the four years) A competitive exam is given to all high school seniors who wish to qualify.

Degrees and Scholarships

Roy E. Johnson '51 was graduated from the Law School of the University of Iowa on June 8.

M. A. degrees were granted to five Morningside College graduates by the University of Iowa on August 8. Those receiving them were William Bottolfson '51, Patrick Hand '50, Burton Merriman '51, LeRoy Nagel '51 and Doris Mae Smith '39.

Robert E. Baxter '54, a member of the senior class at McCormick Seminary in Chicago, was one of six seniors to receive the Preserved Smith Scholarship. This is awarded to students achieving the highest academic records.

Robert Bachert of Sioux City, who was graduated from Morningside in June with Zeta Sigma and Cum Laude honors, is now an instructor at Princeton University. He is teaching in the field of Graphics, and is also working toward his master's degree.

Two member of the June, 1956 graduating class, William Eberle and Charles Rexroat, were awarded teaching assistantships at the University of Nebraska in the Business Administration department. They will teach accounting laboratories and work on their master degrees. Mr. Rexroat received Zeta Sigma and Cum Laude honors at graduation.

Charles '56 and Mary Rasmussen Krusenstjerna '53 are studying for their Master of Music degrees at Eastman School of Music, Charles is studying clarinet with Stanley Hasty and Mary is studying flute with Joseph Mariano. Charles has a fellowship for the year.

Leo Juffer '56 is working toward his Master of Music degrees at Boston University. He is studying piano with Alexander Borobsky.

The Honors Scholarships are worth $400. ($100 per year) are awarded as follows:

1. The recipient must be in the upper ten percent of his graduating class academically.
2. The recipient must demonstrate skill in some "extra-curricular" field, such as music, drama, speech or athletics.
3. The recipient must submit a record of proven leadership in his church with a letter of recommendation from his pastor.

The Schield Bantam Company Scholarship is worth $300. Is to be awarded to a student in the senior year. Financial need and general scholarship are the basis for awarding this scholarship.

All scholarship given for more than one year are subject to review at the close of each year, and may be continued only upon the approval of the Scholarship Committee.

Made General Manager

Jesse C. Ducommun '27 was made general manager of manufacturing of Standard Oil (Indiana). He was also elected to the board of directors of the company.

Mr. Ducommun started with Standard Oil in 1929 as a design engineer, and rose through successive positions to that of assistant manager of manufacturing in 1952.

Alumni Represent Morningside

Alumni of the college have represented their school at several recent inaugural ceremonies. Mrs. Woodrow Mich (Maurine Harker '34) of Moberly, Missouri, attended the inauguration of the new president of Culver-Sockton College in Canton, Missouri. Mrs. George Vasey (Mildred Eubank '38, of Jacksonville, Illinois, represented Morningside in the academic procession of 200 delegates from colleges and universities at the installation of Dr. L. Vernon Caine as the president of Illinois College. Robert Phelps '53 was the Morningside representative at the inauguration of the president of Waldorf Junior College, Forest City, Iowa.

Miss Morningside of 1956

Miss Marge Bauer received the coveted crown and title of Miss Morningside at the coronation ceremonies at the Homecoming Dance. Marge is the daughter of Dr. E. T. Bauer, professor of sociology at the college, and Mrs. Bauer. She is a member of Kappa Zeta Chi sorority, and one of the college cheer leaders. She was sponsored by the M Club. Attendants to the queen were Beth Billiard and Beverly Giehm of Sioux City and Kaye Quackenbush of Onawa, Iowa.

Fourth Annual Alumni Awards

Alumni Achievement Awards are sponsored annually by the Living Endowment Committee. The Awards are presented at the Alumni Dinner at Commencement. The winners are chosen from classes holding reunions from the 25th to 55th year.

The names of the alumni in the classes eligible for the 1957 awards are listed below. Every former Morningsider is urged to cast his ballot for three persons in each division and mail it to the Alumni office.

AGORA WOMAN OF THE YEAR

Miss Marcia McNee, associate professor of elementary education at the college, was chosen by the Agora Club to be honored as the Woman of the Year at their annual Leadership Dinner, which was held November 5.

Miss McNee, who was guest speaker for the event, has been a member of the college faculty for 20 years. She has a bachelor's degree from Upper Iowa university and a master's from the University of Chicago. She is a member of A. A. U. W.; P. E. O.; Delta Kappa Gamma, honor fraternity for women teachers; Pi Lambda Theta, education fraternity; Pi Gamma Mu, social science fraternity, and Sigma Tau Delta, national English fraternity. She has written articles for Classroom Teachers and Midland Schools magazines and serves as a chairman of the handbook for the State of Iowa on Written Language.

The Leadership Dinner honors women leaders of the campus.

SIXTEENTH YEAR

This Morningsider lists, by classes, the donors to the 1955-56 Living Endowment Fund. 392 Morningsiders contributed $6,481 to the fund last year. This is an increase of 97 donors over the 295 who contributed $6,129 in 1954-55, for an increase of $352.

$129,620 of additional permanent endowment, invested at 5%, would have been required to furnish Morningside with this $6,481 of income. These alumni met the need for additional endowment by giving its current equivalent.

Is it enough? Is your class list too short? Is your name there?

The Living Endowment Fund is now in its sixteenth year. It is not as old as those of other private and state supported schools, but, it is active and growing.

Watch the Morningsider and your mail for the progress of this "Sweet Sixteen" year.

CLASS NOTES

A letter from Glen E. Dugan ('07) of Abilene, Texas tells of early days on the campus. "I recall the spring of 1904 when four of us students rented a basement and prepared our meal. Our complete expense was $2.25 per week for each person." Mr. Dugan is the owner of the West Texas Builder Supply Company.
