A college year is an elusive thing. A pictorial record of the faces that were there, the organizations we belonged to, the dances we attended never catch the whole spirit of the college. What we remember will be a kaleidoscope of little occurrences, the uncertainty of big decisions, the daily cycle of our lives.

We remember the walk past the publications barracks on warm, glorious days after a drowsy classroom hour, and the bitter-cold trudge from the library on winter mornings. Grace Church was a weekly part of our lives. For some, it was a symbol of a year that was an awakening, a searching, a discovery.

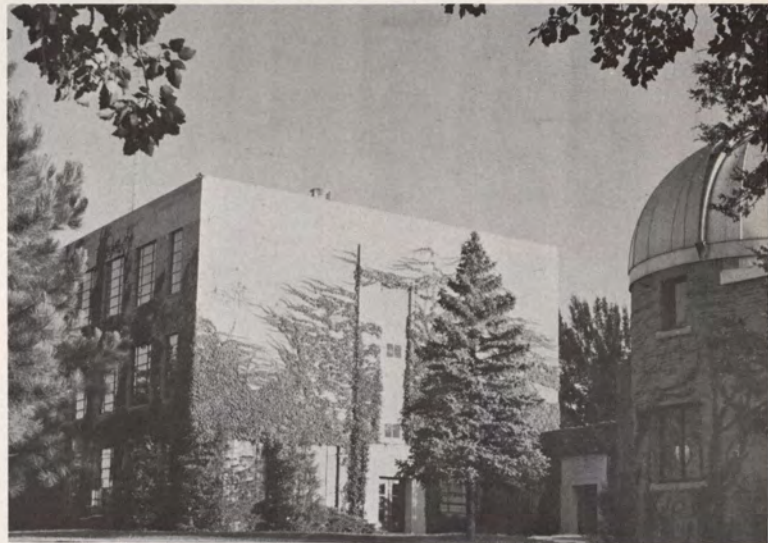

For some, it was a year of discovering—each other.

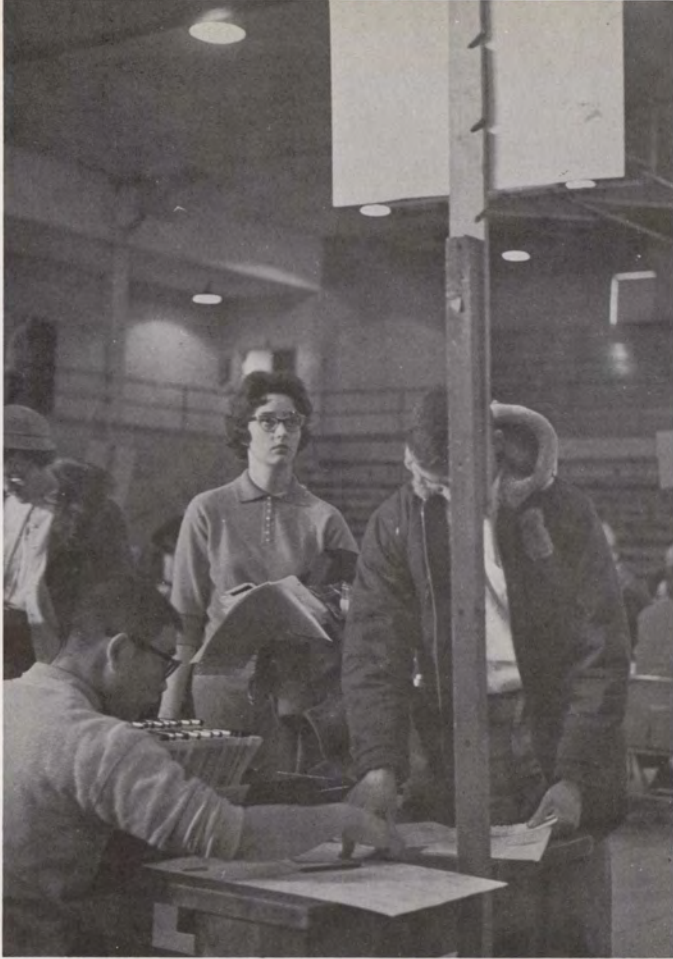

We wanted to belong, to be united in a crowd and cheer for Morningside. But our interests were as divided as the buildings that separated science from music from liberal arts.

We congregated in Lewis Hall basement, waiting for classes to begin, waiting to meet someone, waiting for the bookstore to open, always waiting.

It was a time of uncertainty, when a conflicting schedule, a closed section was a catastrophe.

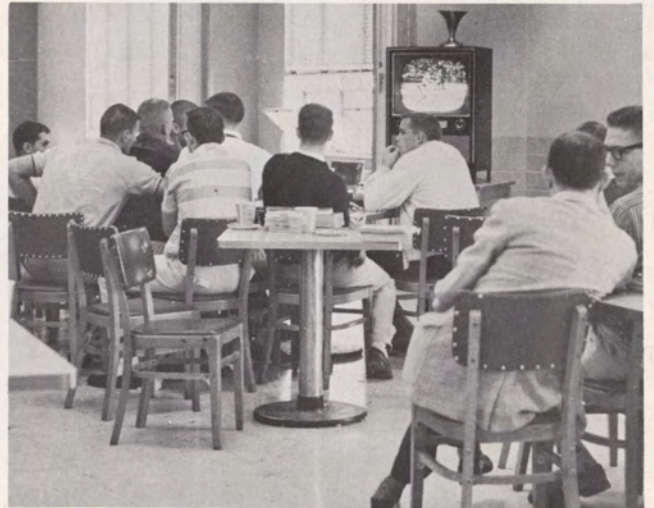

We worked hard at what we did. But we looked for places to escape from books.

On warm spring afternoons we found time to relax in the sun.

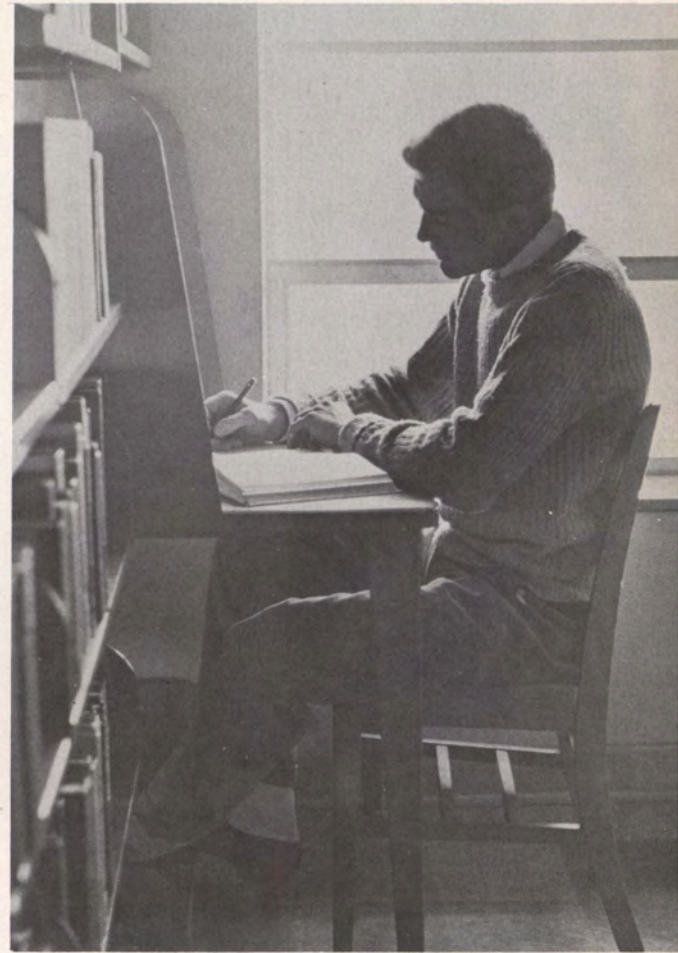

On Friday mornings at ten it was the student union with a deck of cards. After dark we found our way to restaurants.

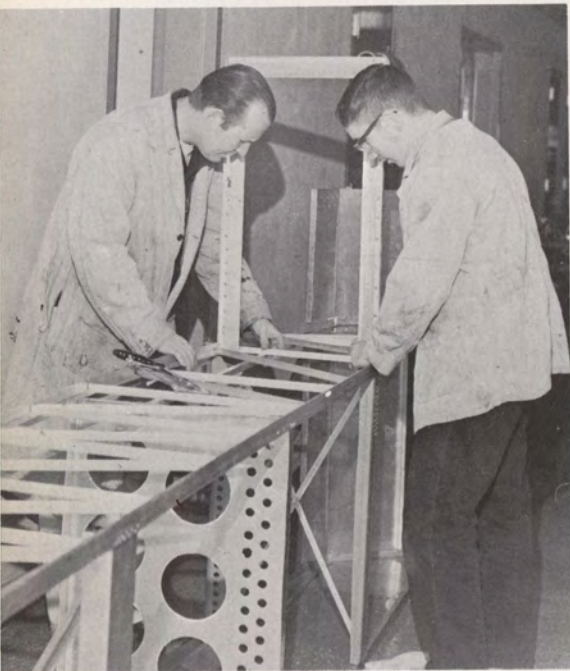

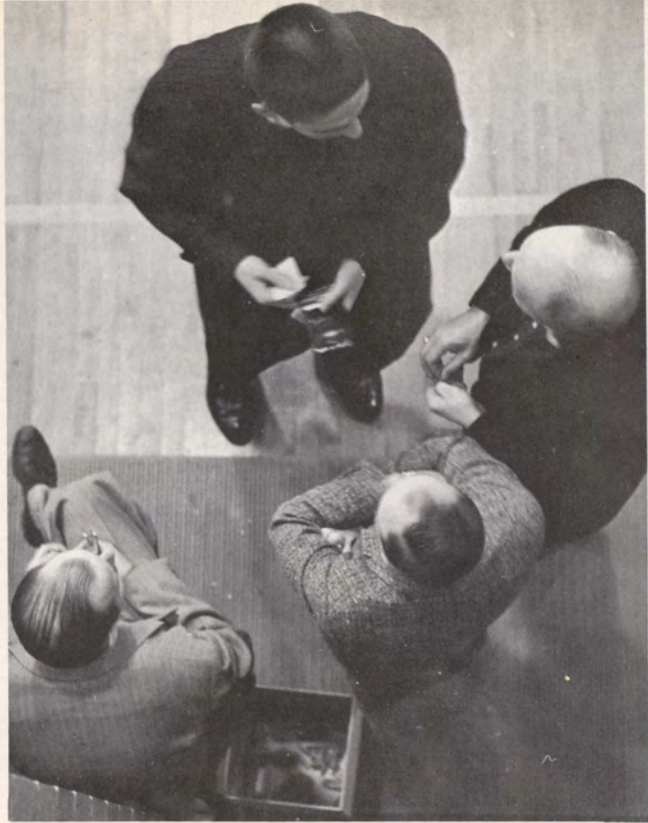

The library was symbol of the academic life, the long hours of concentration. Work was inescapable, whether it was in music or livestock marketing or student teaching.

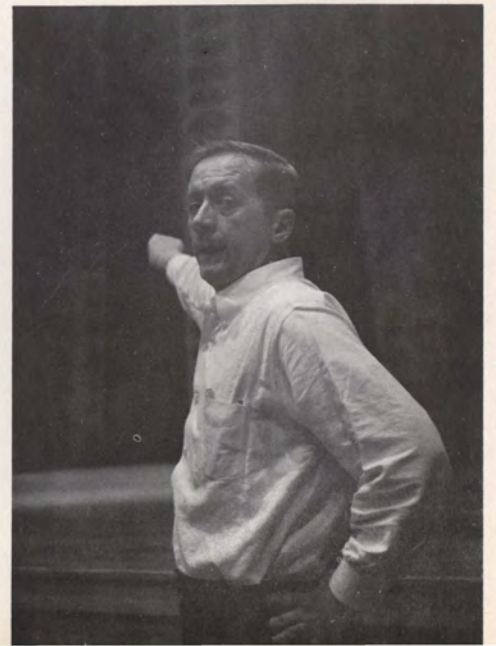

Sometimes the academic reached us with new meaning. There was the excitement of intellectual stirrings. Suddenly what we learned in class fell into perspective, with relevance to the news of the modern world. Sometimes a term paper or lab experiment gave us the wonder of discovery.

The center of scholarly life was our teachers, the faculty who usually cared far more for our courses than we did. Their fading hairlines were a sharp contrast to our crew-cuts and bouffant hair-dos.

We worked for them, liked them personally, argued with them about their fields.

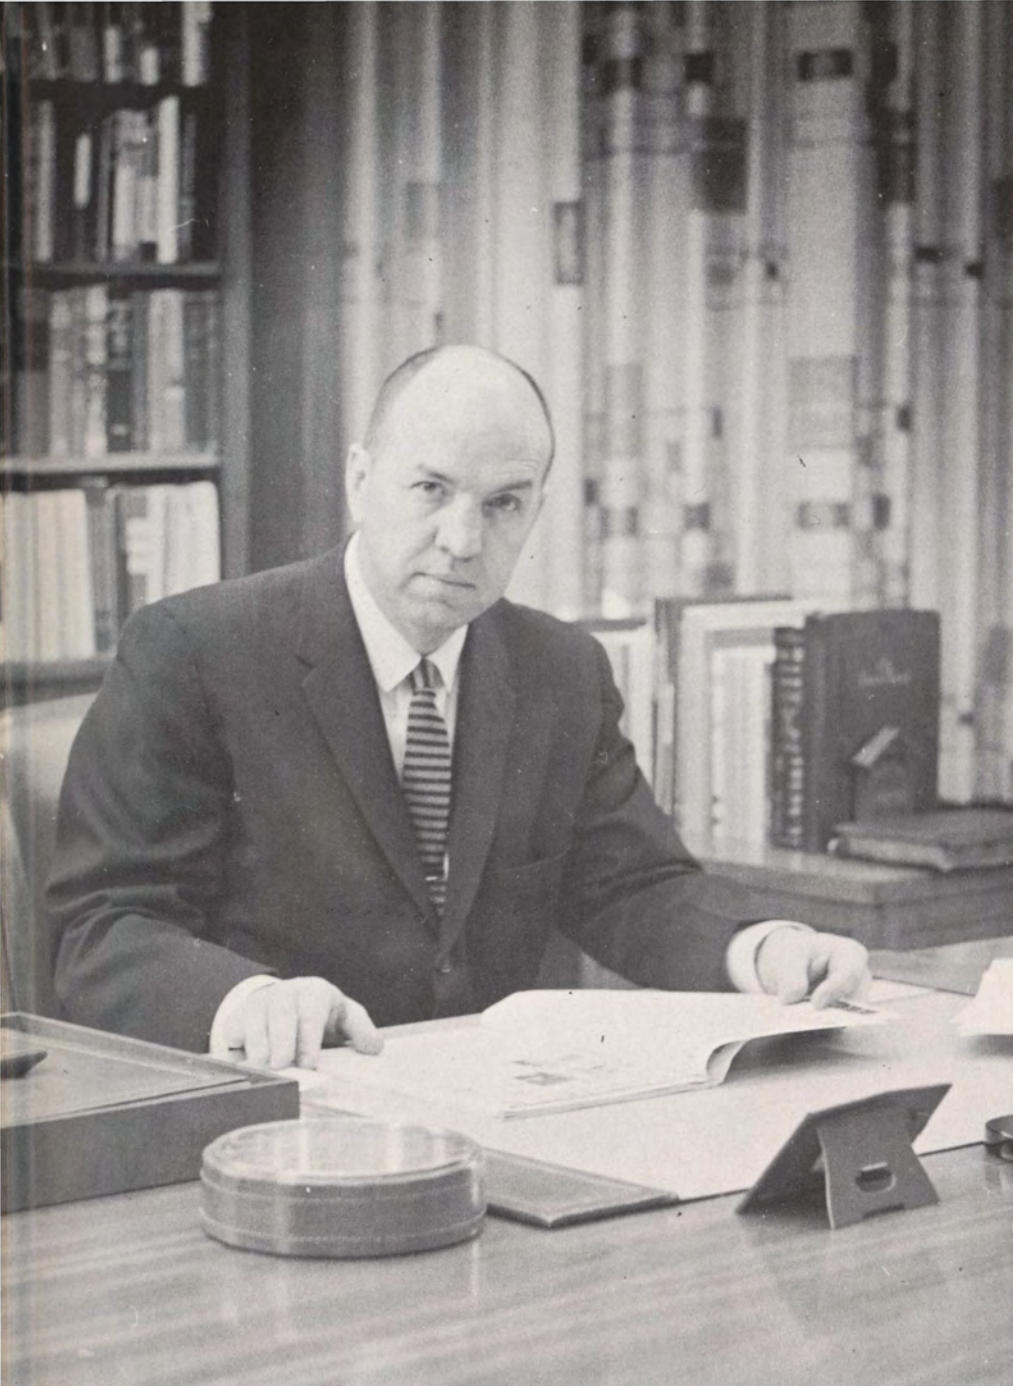

As we learned from the professors we came to appreciate the dedication which scarcely allowed them a few minutes relaxation in the faculty lounge.

Some of us would remember this most from our college year 1961—the name of one teacher whose scholarship and teaching had given meaning to a college education.

Fall, the beginning . . . .

New and old students gathered round for the all-school picnic.

Forms, questions, schedules, long lines . . . finally we were registered.

Agora big sisters took their little sisters to tea.

Receptions . . .

The Varsity Varieties were well named. There was everything from slapstick to classical music.

and Talent Shows

We saw the candidates when they came to Sioux City.

Political Emphasis Week

We talked politics with our visiting Congressmen.

We voted. It was a landslide, 71% for Nixon. Kennedy partisans retreated . . . and waited for the last laugh.

Morningside was host to high school bands of the area.

Band Day

Delta Zetas and Alpha Delta Pis gave parties in their suites.

Rushing

Initiation

Whether they went to the Friday convocations or not, most of the freshmen were caught sooner or later.

The Delta Sigs, like the Tekes and Sig Eps, held smokers to get acquainted with the freshmen.

A rousing bonfire and snake dance stirred enthusiasm for the Homecoming Game

Homecoming... Remember When?

Dean Holmes crowned Sandy Reetz Freshman Queen.

Beanie-wearing came to a symbolic end in the bonfire.

Pep Rally

Queen Charma

Homecoming Dance

First place: Independent Student Expression

Second place: Tau Kappa Epsilon

Third place: Dimmitt Hall

The Parade

Remember When?

"We'll Buffalo 'Em"— Sigma Phi Epsilon

Way, way back when with Circle K

Most of all we remember the football game, the hoarse voices, the jubilant back-slapping . . . and the day off from classes.

Hallowe'en

Sailors' Ball

Delta Sigma Phi sponsored the second annual nautical flavored dance.

Roulette with live mice was part of the entertainment.

Faculty Reception

The Palmers greeted the students.

Faculty wives served punch.

Christmas

Christmas Formal

The glittering lights of the Student Council Christmas Formal opened the Holiday season. Those who couldn't dance took tickets.

Women's Dorm Parties

The seniors hung the greens and freshmen strung popcorn and cranberries at the decorating party.

The dorm held a formal buffet for all girls on campus.

We took our exams in a haze of lack of sleep.

Midyear

Then it was the old registration process again.

Arthur Flemming, United States Cabinet member, spoke to the mid-year graduates.

Sharon Reinke received the crown.

Queen of Hearts Dance

Jazz Concert

Various combinations of Phi Mu Alpha members, from a three piece combo to the full band, entertained with a jazz concert benefit for Dave Rohlf. Variety was the keynote, from cool vocalist Marilyn Sommers to red-hot Dixieland. Mu Phi even added a slightly beatnik combo. Band leader Roger Neumann's suggestion that the concert be repeated annually was met with enthusiastic applause.

Mrs. Palmer spoke in place of the Woman of the Year, Mrs. David W. Stewart, prominent Sioux Cityan, who was unable to come to the dinner.

A skit carried out the theme of "Halls of Fame."

Agora Leadership Dinner

Miss Dimmitt's Birthday Party

The dorm honored Miss Dimmitt on her 94th birthday.

Chairman of the Week
Dan Lundy

Assistant Chairman
Marilyn Higgins

Religious Emphasis Week

Key events of this week were chapels, the religious play "The Sign of Jonah," a faculty panel, and small discussion groups which sought the answer to the theme, "So What?" The central figure was Dr. Elton Trueblood, professor at Haverford College and author of many books. Student reaction was varied, but keenly interested.

Women's Dorm Formal

"Moonlight And Roses" made a suitable dreamy theme for the dorm's annual big affair.

SINFONIAN INN

Sinfonian Inn

Morningside's favorite band entertained with good music, cute "cigarette" girls.

Faculty-Student Ballgame

The student council sponsored a ballgame for campus chest. The teachers, with help from referee Greigg, won a smashing victory.

Roger Neumann's combo played for the after-game dance.

MSM Square Dance

Spring, Elections, Walk-Out Day...and finals...

Ladies' Knight Dance

A quartet entertained with "Little Liza."

Mrs. Holmes dubbed Jim Parden Ladies' Knight.

Cosmopolitan Club sponsored an oriental-theme dance for Campus Chest.

Oriental Gardens

Agora Carnival

Vesper Speakers

Dr. Walter Judd concluded the series by using his experiences as Christian missionary to China and as a Congressman from Minnesota to encourage students to be a Christian in politics.

Eric Rust spoke from an academic background which included study at Oxford University. He is a professor at Southern Baptist Theological Seminary.

Evelyn Dwall, an authority on family life education, spoke on her field.

Arthur Flemming spoke as a cabinet member and prominent Methodist layman.

Science Exposition

The Science Exposition brought crowds of students and people from the Sioux City area. As usual, the most popular display was Mr. Stewart's elaborate physics project. This year it was an air car.

Faculty Talent Show

This so-called talent show turned into a kangaroo court, with profits going to campus chest.

A Sig Ep quartette emoted.

Club ATD

East High hoofers were a popular part of the entertainment.

Honors Day

The LASS sponsored Honors Convocation honored Dr. Morrison as teacher of the year. Bonnie Anderson received the LASS sophomore cup. Miss McNee in her last appearance before retiring from teaching spoke to the students on "The Nation's Builders."

The Insect Comedy

"The Insect Comedy," by Joseph and Karel Capek, directed by Mr. Robert Quinn, was a flight into the world of fantasy, where insects took on the characteristics, chiefly the weaknesses, of man. The first act centered on "social butterflies" with their endless round of flirtation and jealousy. The second act exposed the essential selfishness of the family and society by the miserly beetles, the wasp who killed to feed his larva "only the softest parts," and the innocently self-centered crickets. Act three was an exploration of the meaninglessness of war.

The philosopher served as a link among the three acts and between the play and the audience. Through him was brought out the full irony of a destructive war fought for the space between "two blades of grass." The final comment of the play was a bitter one. The chrysalis, symbol of hope, the moths, symbols of life, and the philosopher, all ended in death.

The New York idea in 1906 was "Marry for whim and leave the rest to the divorce courts." Landon Mitchell's drawing room comedy was a complicated whirl of former and future wives and husbands. Mr. Quinn directed the satire on American morals which has definitely not gone out of date. Audiences were amused but were happy effervescent Cynthia returned to her faithful former husband Jack.

Puccini's comic opera, directed by Professor Raridon, was one of the most popular activities at Homecoming. Ruth Ann Westman was the pianist. The story concerned the avaricious relatives of the recently deceased Buoso Donati, who left them penniless in favor of the monks. Rinuccio brought in the clever Gianni Schicchi. Gianni impersonated Buoso and made a new will, but the joke was on the relatives, for he bequeathed the bulk of the wealth to himself, and Rinuccio won their consent to marry Gianni's daughter.

Religious Emphasis Week Drama

"The Sign of Jonah", by Guenter Rutenborn, was presented in Grace Church as part of Religious Emphasis Week. The play, directed by Carl Bennett, has a German setting but its plea for men to admit they are responsible for the evil in the world is universal.

Chapel Drama

The drama department, under Mr. Quinn, brought religious drama to chapel. A lesson in courage was given in a scene from "The Lark."

Choral Speaking

The speech department's choral reading class was invited to produce and perform promotional spots of ten seconds to one minute in length for television station KVTV. Director of these spots was Mr. Quinn.

Art and Drama

The arts co-operated when Miss McWhorter's painting class sketched members of the drama department's play casts.

Concerts

The music department produced many fine concerts. One of the best was by the chamber orchestra under the direction of Dr. Kucinski.

One of the most moving concerts was the Mozart Requiem Mass by combined choirs and orchestra, directed by Dr. Wood.

Organizations

The channel of our student leadership was the organizations. We planned, we worked, and the calendar overflowed with meetings and activities.

The Morningside Chamber Orchestra presented three concerts this year. The first was with the Oratorio Choir under the direction of Dr. James Wood in the performance of the Mozart Requiem on November 21, 1960, and the second was under the direction of Dr. Leo Kucinski in the annual Concerto and Aria Concert on March 27, 1961. The soloists for the Concerto and Aria Concert were selected by audition. They were Carol Guthmiller, contralto; Barbara Dunham, violin; Katherine Rasmussen, horn; Carol Jacobs, piano; Kay Pech, violin; Jeanine Arnold, soprano; Mary Kay Downey, piano. On May 15 the orchestra joined with the Oratorio Choir in performing the "Choral Fantasy," op. 80, by Beethoven under the direction of Dr. Leo Kucinski. The piano soloist was Ralph Harrel, Head of the Piano Department.

There are three choirs at Morningside—the touring or concert choir, the chapel choir and the oratorio choir which is the first two combined.

The concert choir—a highly selective group of approximately 40 voices—performs material encompassing a wide range of musical styles from folk music to sacred choral pieces. The choir prepares an entirely new tour program each year in addition to three other major programs performed with orchestra on the campus. The accent is on the education of choir members in the broad field of music literature, rather than on specialization of a high degree in the strict a cappella idiom.

All vocal majors at Morningside are required to try out for membership in the concert choir and, if accepted, to participate. Membership is, however, open to students from all departments and in the present choir, half are music majors.

The concert choir and the Master's Melodiers are Morningside's ambassadors to Iowa and the Midwest.

Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia is a National Professional Music Fraternity, which promotes the advancement of music in America. The local chapter, Gamma Xi, has twenty-seven members. The Sinfonians' main social event for this year was Sinfonia Inn, which is an all-campus semi-formal dance sponsored by the fraternity. The Sinfonian Big Band provided the music for this dance, as well as many other special dances on campus this year. The other performing group in the fraternity, the Male Chorus, is a versatile group which has sung for many organizations. The first jazz concert presented on Morningside's campus, February 9, featured musicians from the fraternity.

Two of the many pinnings and engagements announced with traditional candles brought forth varied expressions from the other members.

Traditional events filled the Alpha Delta Pi year. They entertained their Dads, held a glittering formal, held a Homecoming luncheon and a Mothers' Day tea. They saved their pennies for a crippled children's fund and tried their best at the Olympics. Exchanges with the fraternities must have paid off, because there were fourteen engagements and pinnings during the year.

The Delta Zeta year started off well with a faculty reception. Homecoming brought an honorable mention for a float, and at Christmas time there was a Mothers' Luncheon. A spring formal was shared with the Sig Eps.

The highlight of the year was Greek Week, when the DZ's took the Olympic trophy and the Greek Week queen. Another prize went to the DZ Follies at the Agora Carnival. A successful year was ended with the traditional trip up the river.

The Sig Eps returned to school with a spirit that this would be one of the best years at Morningside for them. They worked hard to remodel the house. They captured the rock which they set on the front lawn. The Mothers and Wives Club purchased new lounge chairs and a rug for the house.

The first semester pledges gained the scholarship trophy for District XX.

They published the Sig Epitaph, a newsletter to be sent to alumni and other chapters throughout the country.

They went all out to sponsor the 13th annual ATD night club. The theme was "Sherwood Forest".

Other highlights of the year were the Christmas party, Tad's Bar, an all-Greek function, the Spring formal, the exchanges, house parties, and picnics.

Each summer the fraternity sponsors support a camp for underprivileged boys.

The Morningside Maroon Chiefs concluded their 1960 football schedule with a record of 2-4 in North Central Conference activity and 4-5 in over-all competition. In compiling this rather mediocre record, however, the grid squad provided their supporters with several thrills, including the Homecoming Victory over favored Augustana.

The Chiefs opened the grid season by scalping Wayne State Teachers College, 33-0. Jerry Ehwegen, who had been shifted to halfback from his quarterback job of last year, sparked the victory by runs of 35 and 21 yards for two tallies and by pitching to Keith Maxon for 16 yards on a fake field goal attempt for a third touchdown.

Omaha University fell victim to the Chiefs by a 26-13 count in the second encounter. John Dornon scored the first touchdown sneaking over from the one to climax a 66-yard drive. The final TD came on a 7-yard run by Elmer Menage.

Morningside was handed its first defeat (34-13) as North Dakota University took command in the second half of the Chief's Conference opener. The first touchdown in the annual band-day attraction came on a 5-yard pass play from Dornon to Dick Slater. A 5-yard run by Menage in fourth quarter provided the only other Maroon score.

The Morningside Chiefs racked up their first conference victory as they nipped the South Dakota University Coyotes 7-6. The Chiefs came from behind to score on a 11-yard pass play from Leo Hupke to Menage. Menage then kicked the conversion to give the Chiefs the victory.

The Chiefs fell again as the North Dakota State Bisons grabbed an early lead and went on to win 21-15. Quarterback John Dornon carried the ball across for both Morningside touchdowns, once from the 4-yard line and again from the 1. A late drive failed leaving the Chiefs on the short end of the score.

At Iowa State Teachers, the Chiefs were spilled 26-0. Although they twice drove inside the Tutors 5-yard line, the Teacher defense proved to be too much for the Maroon gridders.

In a homecoming thriller, Morningside racked up an amazing 21-0 only to see it evaporate in the second half. However, the fired Chiefs roared back to a 24-22 victory. The final points came with 16 seconds left on a 10-yard field-goal by Menage.

The Men of the "M" were shut out for the second time of the season (22-0) at South Dakota State on a muddy, rain-swept field. Morningside's deepest advance came on the last play of the game when the Chiefs moved to the state 25-yard line on a 12-yard draw play run by Ron Madsen.

Journeying to Macalester of St. Paul, Minnesota, Morningside closed out the season with an 18-12 loss as a late game pass broke the tie. The first Chief score came on a 13-yard run by Jerry Adams. Leo Hupke hit Jerry Ehwegen with a 14-yard pass for the final Maroon touchdown of the season.

The Morningside College Maroon Chiefs closed the 1960-61 Basketball season in the cellar of the North Central Conference. They compiled a conference record of two wins and ten losses and an over-all record of seven and seventeen. The season, however, did provide many thrills, especially in individual games such as the home game against North Dakota University or the one against Augustana. One individual highlight was Paul Te Stroete's record .960 per-centage in Free-throw shooting.

Morningside opened the season by dumping the Eagles of Westmar 76 to 66. However, it wasn't until the final two or three minutes that the Chiefs were out of trouble. Bob Garretson dropped in ten field goals and four of seven free throws to lead scoring with 24 points.

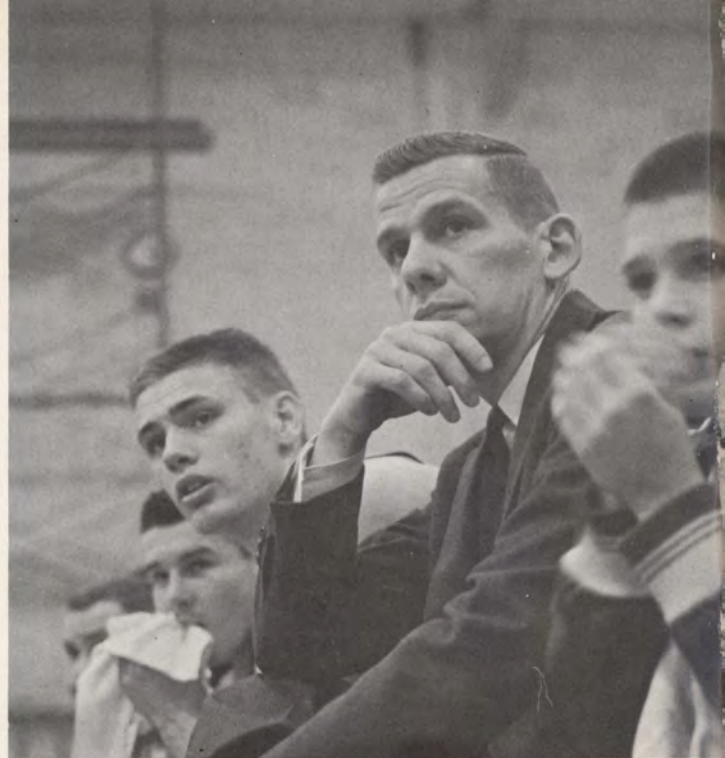

The second encounter saw the Morningsiders squeezing past Cornell 74 to 72. The winning margin came in the free throw department where the Chiefs dumped in 20 of 27 compared with 18 out of 34 for Cornell. Garretson again led scoring with 23 points, while Jim Anfinson dumped in 21 for a close second.

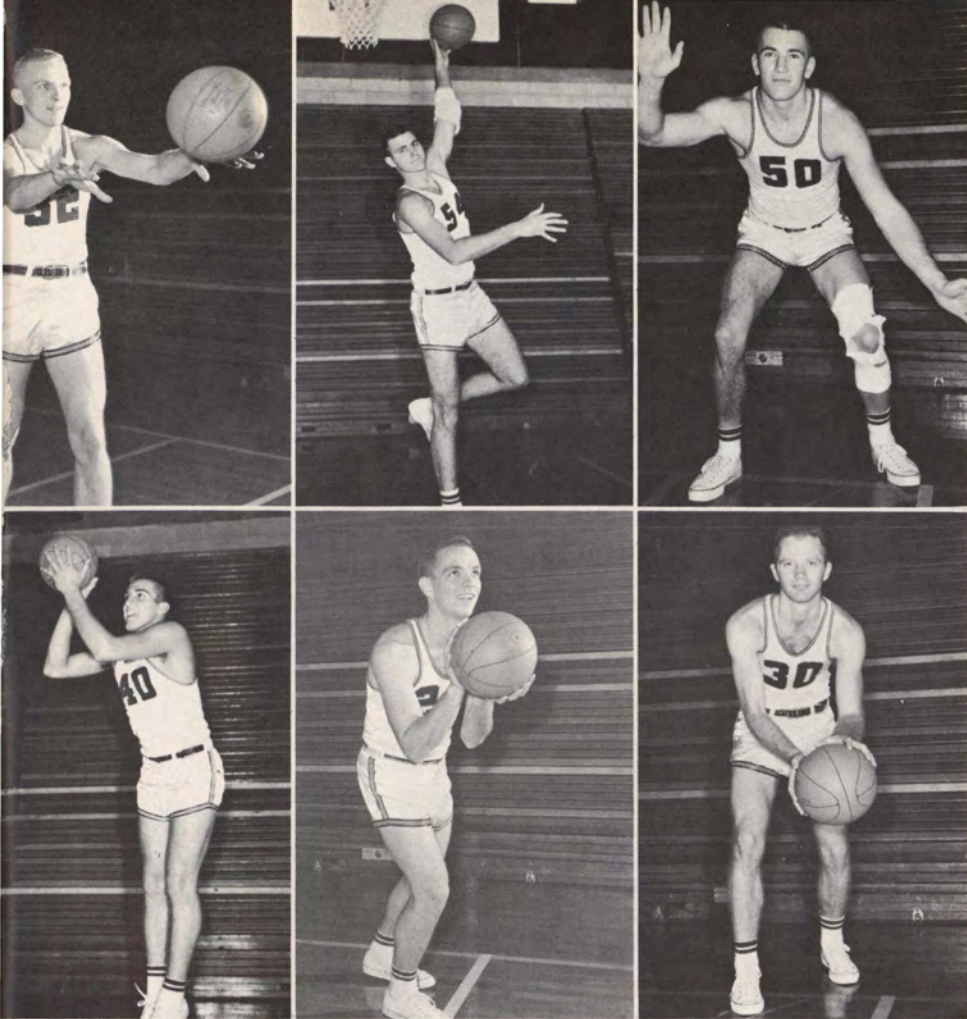

The Chiefs picked up their third win in a row by out-lasting Nebraska Wesleyan 74 to 67. The Morningsiders were in charge for the whole game except for a brief period midway in the second half when Wesleyan pulled within six points. Garretson's 19 points again topped the scoring.

The Morningsiders suffered their first loss at the hands of Midland College, 70 to 63. The Midland Warriors grabbed a 10 to 0 lead and never lost control in the game in which the Chiefs were able to connect with only 28 percent of their shots. Garretson was again on top with 20 points.

Augustana College spilled the Chiefs in their North Central Conference opener 60 to 52. The Vikings pulled ahead for good ahead early in the second half following a seesaw first half. Jim Anfinson led Morningside scorers with 11 points.

The Mankato Indians handed the Chiefs their third straight defeat 81 to 63. The Morningsiders who trailed all the way were never really a threat to the Mankato lead. Anfinson dumped in 21 points in the losing cause.

During Christmas vacation, the Morningsiders managed to salvage seventh place in the Hastings College Invitational Tournament. In the Tourney opener Gustavus Adolphus nipped the Chiefs 86 to 77 despite 23 points by Jim Anfinson and 19 by Jim Stock. Dakota Wesleyan won the second game 77 to 65 as five Chiefs fouled out and the Wesleyan Tigers made 49 trips to the charity line. In the finale the Maroons came from behind to defeat Bethany College 67 to 60. Larry Johnson was top scorer with 18 points.

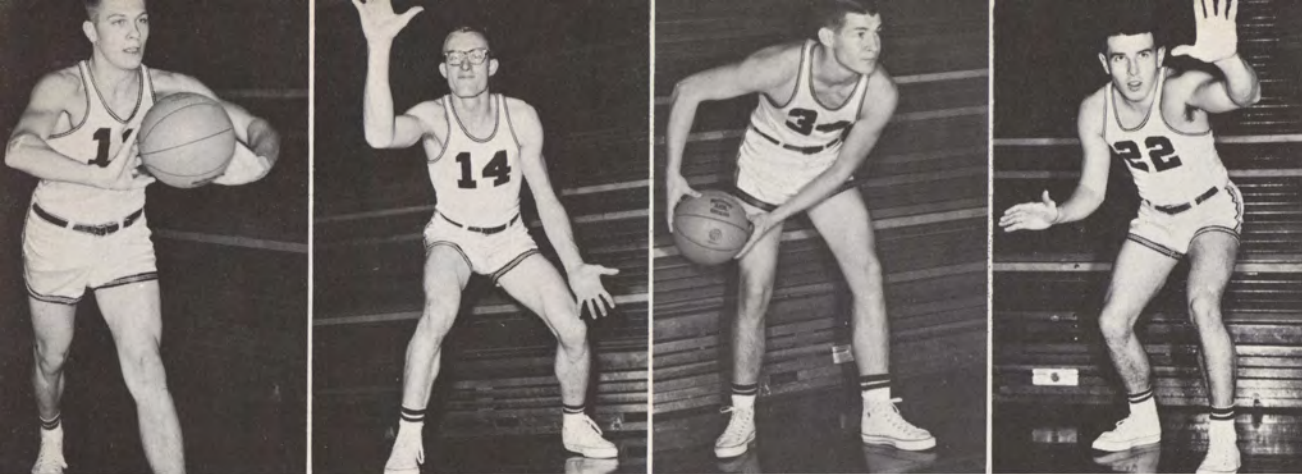

Westmar avenged an earlier loss by dumping the Chiefs 80 to 69. Morningside led at halftime; however, the Eagles broke away midway in the second half to pull out the victory. Larry Johnson hit 16 points for the losing Chiefs.

Continuing in the conference schedule, the Chiefs were out-scored by the USD Coyotes 66 to 57. Led by Luther Turner, South Dakota pulled away in the last eight minutes to end what had been a close game. High scorer for Morningside was Bob Garretson with 17 points.

Morningside returned to the winning column by trimming Yankton College 78 to 70. Led by Bob Garretson, the Chiefs broke loose for 47 points in the last 20 minutes after trailing at halftime 34 to 31. Garretson dropped in 24 points to lead the scoring.

The North Dakota State Bison edged the Maroons 65 to 61 in a game which was tied five times, the last at 59-all late in the game. Garretson again led Morningside scorers with 16. Anfinson added 12 and Hansen 10.

The Chiefs lost the second game of their Northern trip as the Sioux of North Dakota University dumped them 70 to 52. The only bright spot in the game, as far as the Chiefs were concerned, was Garretson's 20 point output.

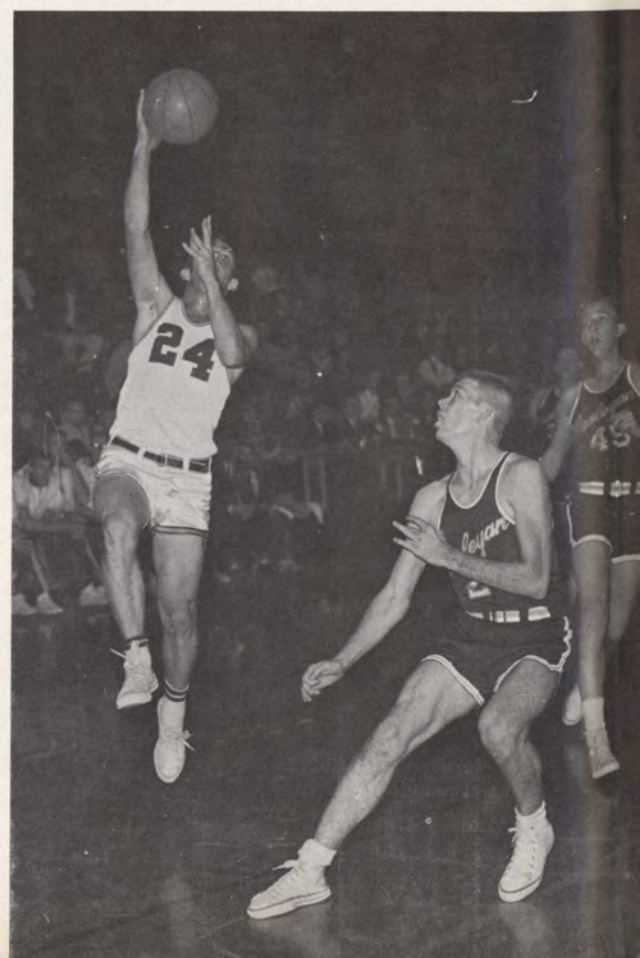

Iowa State teachers crushed the Maroon Chiefs 87 to 64 as they coasted to victory after building up a 52 to 28 halftime lead. Substitutes Vernon Bell and Ron Heitritter topped Morningside scoring with 9 points apiece.

South Dakota State's Jackrabbits smothered Morningside 87 to 70 in a game that was never in doubt after the first ten minutes of play. State's Don Jacobsen led his team to the convincing victory by dropping in 23 points. Terry Thogerson led Morningside scorers with 16. Prior to the game it was disclosed that Bob Garretson, the Chiefs' top scorer, would be out the remainder of the season with his injured elbow.

A fourteen point outburst early in the game all but doomed Morningside's hopes as Iowa State Teachers pounded the Chiefs 83 to 49. Terry Thogerson was top scorer for the Chiefs with 16 points.

The Chiefs suffered their eighth straight conference setback at the hands of the North Dakota State Bison 96 to 72. Led by Marv Backmeier with 33 and Kenneth Lehr with 19 points, the Bison assumed command early in the game. Thogerson hit 19 and Anfinson 17 for the losing Chiefs.

Morningside posted its first conference victory whipping North Dakota University 84 to 74. The Chiefs took control early in the game and led all the way. Vernon Bell, who became eligible for varsity competition second semester, led Morningside scoring with 24 points. Anfinson added 20 and Thogerson 16.

Omaha University spilled Morningside 89 to 75 after the Chiefs had led at halftime 47 to 43. Omaha grabbed the lead early in the second half and held it. Anfinson and Bell led the Chiefs with 16 and 15.

The Creighton Bluejays swamped the Chiefs 105 to 51. Morningside was so cold that after 12 minutes of play, Creighton's first team went to the bench and let the subs play the remainder of the game. Dan Mather took scoring honors for the Chiefs with 11 points.

South Dakota State again smothered the Chiefs 73 to 52 after building up a 40 to 19 halftime lead. Roger Hansen led Morningside scoring with 14 points.

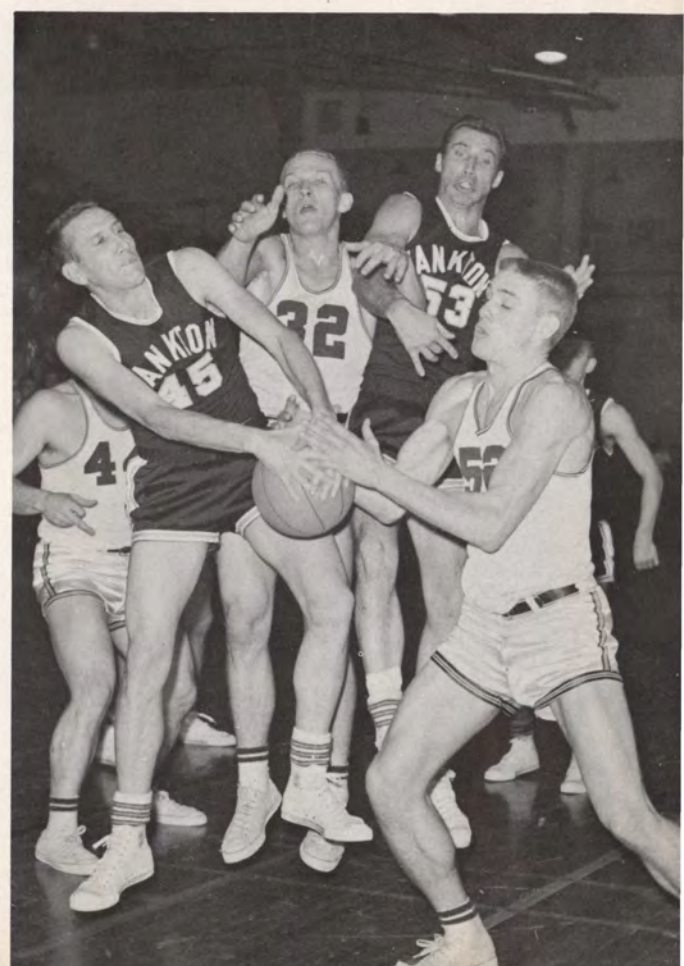

An inspired group of Chiefs pulled out the home finale as they spilled Augustana 58 to 54. Jim Stock broke a 54-all tie with a basket with 23 seconds remaining. Anfinson then added two free throws to put the game on ice. Paul Te Stroete led Chief scoring with 21 points. Anfinson also dumped in 17 for the Chiefs' second conference victory.

The Chiefs dropped their finale 86 to 76 to the University of South Dakota. The Coyotes moved ahead shortly before halftime and commanded a halftime lead of 44 to 28. Hansen led the Chief scoring with 16 points.
