

ARCHIVES

Agora Club

Seventh Annual Women's Banquet

MORNINGSIDE COLLEGE
LIBRARY
SIOUX CITY IOWA

March 3, 1917

Seventh Annual
WOMEN'S BANQUET

Grace Methodist Episcopal Church

Saturday Evening, March 3, 1917

6:30 o'clock

JUNIOR TOAST.....ELMA PARKINSON

SHARPS AND FLATS

*"Lighten the deep tune, soften the gay
tune,
Mingle a tempo, that turns in a trance."*

SENIOR TOAST..MARGUERITE CUMMINGS

THE CHORD

*"For on thy head the cloven tongues of fire—
Diminished chords that quiver with desire,
And major chords that glow with perfect peace."*

ALUMNAE TOAST.....BONNIE ROBINSON

THE TIE

*"And thou canst give release
In music to the burdened heart of love,
Untwisting all the chains that tie the hidden soul of harmony."*

SOLO.....MRS. PAUL MACCOLLIN

FACULTY TOAST.....MISS LOVELAND

THE MELODY

*"The queen who comes to set the captive
free,
And sweeps with smiling skies above
A royal galley, many oared,
Into the happy harbor of the perfect chord."*

*Life at Morningside College --
-- "One Grand Sweet Song"*

"Out of the garden of playtime,
Out of the bower of rest,
Fain would I follow at daytime
Music that calls to a quest."

INVOCATION MRS. A. E. CRAIG

TOASTMISTRESS MRS. JAMES J. HAYES

ACADEMY TOAST EDITH HARDING

THE STAFF

*"Where is she whose form is folden
In its royal sheen?
By her mystic girdle golden,
Beauty sought but never seen,
Music walks the maze, a queen."*

FRESHMAN TOAST . . . MARGARET BENTON

THE SIGNATURE

*"Yea, thou shalt teach
The mystery of measured tone."*

SOPHOMORE TOAST . . . RUTH BLACKMAN

THE TIME

"Hark, how the galloping measure Quickens the pulses of pleasure."

SELECTION MADRIGAL CLUB

MENU

FRUIT COCKTAIL

ROAST HAM WITH HORSERADISH SAUCE

POTATOES AU GRATIN

SPANISH RICE

CRANBERRY ICE

ROLLS

MACEDOINE SALAD

FLOWERING ICE CREAM

CAKE

COFFEE

COMMITTEE

MARGUERITE BRETHORST

ELMA PARKINSON

GLADYS DANIELS

RACHAEL MADISON

HELEN HAYS