Gymnasium Fund Drive Launched

The $302,500 fund campaign for a new gymnasium and fieldhouse building at Morningside College, one of the recent important steps taken by the school to expand its facilities to care for increased enrollment, has begun.

The drive, touched off by a recent $32,000 gift by George M. Allee of Newell, Ia., a former trustee of the college, was formally opened at a "kickoff" luncheon Wednesday noon, November 12, for all workers at the Martin hotel, headquarters for the campaign. A $10,000 gift from Gardner Cowles of Des Moines was reported by Dr. Roadman.

The present gymnasium, built in 1913 to accommodate 300 students, has been proved inadequate for the steadily increasing enrollments each fall. This term approximately 1,200 students are registered.

Sioux City members of the board of trustees compose the general committee for the drive and the central committee includes Mr. David Stewart, Dr. Earl A. Roadman, college president, division chairman and co-chairman, Athletic Director Leslie H. Davis and his assistant, Albert W. Buckingham.

Dr. Price emphasized that all money collected in this campaign will be used in the construction of the new gym, to be built at the north end of Bass athletic field. Raising of funds for nearly finished A. W. Jones Hall of Science was completed recently.

"Ten years ago the college was in debt $415,294, but today the ledgers are "in the black," Dr. Price said. "During the last three years gifts from outsiders have overshadowed the contributions of Sioux City-ans, $344,517 to $162,494.

Bronze tablets inscribed with the names of individuals who donate $1,000 or more to the drive will be placed in the new gymnasium.

Campus News

The formal recital of the Mu Phi Epsilon, national music sorority, was held at the Recital Hall, Conservatory, Tuesday evening, November 11, at 8:15 o'clock. The members of the sorority presented a variety of selections.

Highlighting the program of social activities of the Faculty Women's Club is that organization's traditional tea for freshman girls and new students, which was held in the Women's Residence Hall on Thursday afternoon, November 20.

Prof. James Reistrup, composer and pianist, played a concert at Hawarden Sunday afternoon, October 26, appearing in the auditorium of the high school. The recital is an annual event sponsored by Miss Ruth French, '15, Hawarden music teacher and writer.

Dr. Gerald Kennedy, pastor of St. Paul's Church at Lincoln, Neb., spoke at convocation services Thursday morning, November 13, at Grace Methodist Church. Dr.

Homecoming Queen

Katie Nelson is 5 feet 4 inches of energy with hazel eyes, brunet hair and an ambition to be an airline hostess. While at Morningside College she has been listed in Who's Who, Agora officer, freshman May Queen, student council representative and president of Physical Education Major Club. She is majoring in physical education, and is a member of Kappa Zeta Chi Sorority.

Concert Season Opens

Arthur Gold and Robert Fixdale, duo piano team, appeared with the Sioux City symphony orchestra under the direction of Leo Kucinski at the opening program of the Sioux City concert course on November 11.

The orchestra began the program with the overture from the opera, "Le Roi d'Ys," by Lalo.

Gold and Fixdale were accompanied by the orchestra in the Concerto in D Minor by Poulenc. This was followed by a group of two-piano selections.

The prelude from the opera, "La Traviata," by Verdi, featured the symphony. A group of Strauss waltzes, "Tales from Vienna Woods," preceded the "Hungarian Rhapsody No. 13" by Liszt, which concluded the program.

Nathan Milstein, master violinist, rated as one of the nation's foremost masters of the violin, will be featured on the Sioux City concert course program the evening of Thursday, November 20. He will be accompanied by Arthur Balsam at the piano.

Kennedy is well-known in Sioux City, where he has made several addresses, including one before the Morningside student body last year.

Homecoming Draws Large Attendance

The 1947 Homecoming celebration, held over a three-day period from Friday evening, November 7, through Sunday, attracted an unusually large crowd of alumni and former Morningsiders. Wintry winds and near-freezing temperatures failed to cool the Homecoming spirit and enthusiasm of the crowd.

Opening the festivities Friday evening was the crowning of the Queen, Miss Katie Nelson, by Dr. Roadman, and the presentation of her attendants, Janyce Lehmborg, Velma Redenbaugh and Audrey Laude at the intermission of the dance at the Shrine auditorium. Following the crowning, a short program by court jester Dave Byers and court troubador Don Kelsey was given. A ballet was performed by Joyce O'Rourke and the Madrigal group entertained with musical numbers.

The parade, consisting of floats by all college organizations and led by the drum majorettes and the college band, started from Wall street promptly at 10 o'clock Saturday morning and wound through the streets of the downtown business district. Miss Katie Nelson, Homecoming queen, and her three attendants rode in the parade clad in fur coats.

Luncheons of the "M" club and sororities were held at noon, after which everyone hustled into warm clothing and rushed to the game at the stadium. Over 3,000 chilled fans watched the South Dakota State Bunnies take a 13-0 conference decision from the Maroons. After a scoreless first half, the Jackrabbits struck swiftly and the Maroons were unable to overcome the two touchdown advantage of the State team.

Following the game a barbecue prepared by the students was held in the Barn. Many took advantage of the opportunity to visit and get warm before returning to the Dormitory for the Homecoming dinner and business meeting of the alumni.

Mrs. Ralph Crary (Margaret Coleman, '26), assisted by Mrs. R. H. McBride (Minnie Fry, '18), was chairman of the dinner committee.

After an excellent dinner enjoyed by 250 Morningsiders, new officers elected in September assumed their duties. A program was presented by the college departments of speech, music and women's physical education.

Honored guests at the dinner were faculty members who are retiring this year. They included Dr. R. N. Van Horne, Dr. T. C. Stephens, Prof. J. A. Coss, Prof. H. F. Kanthlener and Miss Laura Fischer. H. Clifford Harper, '11, presented each faculty member with a gift as a token of esteem from the alumni.

The final event was the church service on Sunday morning at Grace Methodist Church, at which Dr. G. Samuel Nichols, a graduate in 1923, who has been pastor of Wesley Foundation, Ames, Ia., for 13 years, spoke to a large audience.

Mary Dolliver Will Be Dean at Oberlin

Word has come that Mary Dolliver, '20, of Fort Dodge, teacher and Red Cross worker, has been appointed dean of women at Oberlin College, Oberlin, O., effective February 1.

Since 1941 Mary has been overseas with the American Red Cross and last year was in charge of the Red Cross club program division in the European theater.

After graduating from Morningside, Mary obtained a master of arts degree from Boston University in 1927. She has returned from overseas and is in Washington with her brother, Congressman James I. Dolliver, '15, of Iowa. Her many friends are extremely happy over her fine new position.

Deaths

James Bleakley

Mr. James Bleakley, ex '04, passed away at his home in Cherokee, Ia., September 1, 1947, after an illness of several weeks. Funeral services were held at the First Methodist Church in Ida Grove, Ia., on September 3, and burial was in the Ida Grove cemetery. He leaves to mourn his loss, his wife, Mrs. Margaret Bleakley of Cherokee, two daughters, Mrs. George Baker of Ida Grove, and Mrs. Herbert Johnson of Cherokee, and a son, James Bleakley, of Cherokee.

Leon J. Johnson

Jerry Johnson, '18, one of Morningsides' all-time greats, was unable to attend the November 15 reunion of the Maroon eleven which played Notre Dame at old Mizzou park here in 1917, although he had accepted an invitation for the get-together from Coach Davis last July when they met in Chicago.

Jerry, who withstood terrific poundings on the Morningside gridiron in pre-world War 1 days, died in Keokuk October 25 of cancer. Many old-time Sioux City sport fans attended burial rites for him the afternoon of October 28 in Linn Grove, Ia. Among those who were present at the services were Coach Les Davis and former Maroon Coach Jason M. Saunderson. Morningside classmates attending were Dale Norton, Stanley Pierson and Tom Lloyd, from Spencer; Irving Hanson, of Storm Lake; Axel Beck, of Elk Point, S. D.; Herman Dokken, of Linn Grove, and Arthur Hinkley of Sioux City. A beautiful maroon and white spray with an "M" on it was sent by the college.

A graveside military service was carried out by the American Legion of Linn Grove, the formal funeral having been held at Keokuk, where Jerry had lived for the past 15 years. He had been one of the leading salesmen in the Illinois Coal Co. there. He is survived by his wife and two daughters, 6 and 8 years old.

Coach Les Davis of Morningside, who was in grade school at Linn Grove when Johnson was playing high school football there, followed Johnson's athletic career closely. He termed him "one of Morningside's greatest football players." Former Coach Jason M. Saunderson, who was Johnson's mentor, classed him as "one of the two or three best athletes in the history of the school."

A halfback, Johnson won many honors for his ability with the pigskin. He also was a standout in baseball and basketball, and garnered praise with the shotgun.

Jerry attended Morningside during the four-year period just before the first war, and played against the Irish in 1917. The Maroons bowed to Notre Dame, 13 to 0, in what The Journal then described as "the biggest football game ever played on a Sioux City gridiron."

After graduating in 1918, Jerry became a navy ensign. He played with the Municipal Pier team in Chicago during the war, and, Coach Davis says, "beat Minnesota almost singlehanded, 6 to 0."

To Move Buildings at Base to College

An allotment to increase space for physical education classes has been announced. The action provides funds to disassemble two buildings at the Sioux City airbase for re-erection at the college into a structure with 4,000 square feet of floor space. Mr. Sweet said the project probably would be completed by February.

Honored Guests

Retired faculty who were guests at the Homecoming dinner include:
Seated: Dr. T. C. Stephens, Miss Laura

Fischer, Dr. R. N. Van Horne.
Standing: Prof. H. F. Kanthlemer and Prof. James A. Coss.

News of Former Conservatory Students

Among the Morningside group studying at the Eastman School of Music this year are Ronald Bush, ex '47, who has sung many baritone leads in the opera school; Gene Orner, ex '44, who is playing in the Rochester Philharmonic Symphony; Charlotte Tagg, '46, who is a student in 'cello this year; Everett Timm, '36, who is a member of the opera orchestra and chamber music ensemble; Jeanne Anderson ('40) Timm, Mr. ('40) and Mrs. Homer Garretson (Gloria Odegard, '44), and Thomas Canning, former Morningside faculty member who is now on the faculty at Eastman. These people get together frequently for visits and picnics.

Tom Moon, '40, studying voice in Boston, has made several successful solo appearances in oratorios; Lyle Gilbert, '35, heads the music department at Dakota Wesleyan, where Arnold Rudd, '40, is also a member of the faculty; Harold Decker, '34, is an instructor in the conservatory of the University of Wichita, and Gus Lease, '45, in the conservatory of the University of Oklahoma; Martin Fischer, '47, is a member of the New York Symphony Orchestra; Edith Campbell Ballister, ex '36, also in New York, where she made her concert debut last year. Bill Easley, '47, after spending the summer as organist in Trinity Church, Miami, Fla., is in General Theological Seminary in New York. His address is Chelsea Square, New York 11, N. Y.

Foo Goos Hold Reunion

The reunion dinner of the Foo Goo Foo fraternity, their wives and friends, at the Former Faculty

Mr. and Mrs. Arden Newsom of Nyssa, Ore., are the parents of a daughter, Patricia Anne, born on July 28. Mrs. Newsom was women's physical education director in 1944-45.

Former Dean George E. Hill is director of the graduate school of the College of Emporia at Emporia, Kan.

Miss Marjorie Arkwright, former dietitian at the dormitory, has returned to Honolulu, where she teaches in Punahou School, after attending summer school in Ames, Ia., the past summer.

Miss Bernice Wolfson, modern dance instructor in the physical education department last year, has accepted a position at Northern Illinois State Teachers' College in De Kalb, Ill.

Miss Stella Yates, former commercial instructor, is teaching at State Teachers College in Shippensburg, Pa., this year.

Dr. Loren T. Jones, who resigned as head of the department of chemistry at Morningside College a year ago to join the faculty at Butler University, Indianapolis, has accepted the chairmanship of the department of chemistry of Purdue University extension center at Indianapolis.

Mr. John F. Castle, English instructor, has been granted leave of absence to work for his doctor of philosophy degree at the University of Michigan, and Mr. Roy Smith, instructor in mathematics, is taking a year's leave to work for his doctor's degree at Chicago University.

Dr. Peter Bannon, associate professor of English at Morningside for the past two years, has accepted a position as professor of English at the Memphis, Tenn., State College.

Mr. John B. Magee, professor of philosophy, left Morningside at the close of the summer session for the College of Puget Sound, Washington, where he has accepted a position as associate professor of religion. Mr. Magee will be an instructor in philosophy for about a third of his class work and will spend the remainder of the time with religion classes. Prof. Magee, who has been head of the department of philosophy for the past two years, is no stranger to the Pacific northwest. During 10 years in that vicinity he graduated from high school in Seattle, attended the University of Washington, and was associate pastor of the University Methodist Temple at Seattle.

Steak House following the Homecoming game was a gala occasion. The boys who lived at 3823 Ridge avenue while in college and were known as "Foo Goos" had not had a get-together since the beginning of the war, so there was much reminiscing done over a sumptuous repast. Those who spent an enjoyable evening together included: Mr. ('41) Don Ballantine, Worthington, Minn.; Mr. ('46) and Mrs. James Steck (Donna Hoefler, ex '44), Sibley, Ia.; Mr. and Mrs. John Litecky (Winifred Cheeley), both '41, Clear Lake, Ia.; Mr. ('43) and Mrs. Bob Sharp, Clear Lake, Ia.; Mr. ('47) and Mrs. Gene Stover (Nancy Kingsbury, ex '45), Villisca, Ia.; Mr. and Mrs. Wally Hanson (Clarice Rohweder), both '42, Orange City, Ia.; Mr. ('42) and Mrs. Romain Lamkin (Margaret Slowey, '43); Mr. ('40) and Mrs. Pete Burrow, Sac City, Ia.; Capt. (ex '43) and Mrs. Jerry McCoy, Fargo, N. D.; Mr. and Mrs. Don Widler (Marie Bergquist), both '42, Downers Grove, Ill., and Mr. ('43) and Mrs. Jack Loff (Myna Nickum, ex '43), Sanborn, Ia.

PRIZE WINNING FLOAT—This battleship float, complete with mounted guns, won first prize in the Morningside Homecoming parade through downtown Sioux City. Fashioned by fraternity men of Alpha Tau Delta, the float carried the legend, "Sink S. D. S."

MOTORIZED SNAIL—Second place winner in the parade was a "snail" crawling on four wheels through the downtown business district. The float was entered by Phi Mu Alpha, national music fraternity, and symbolized the alleged "slowness" of South Dakota State College.

"M" Club Luncheon Well Attended

Sixty former "M" club members, the largest number ever to attend the Homecoming luncheon, gathered at the Barn on Saturday noon before the game with South Dakota State. Mark McLarnan, coach at Central High in Sioux City, was chairman of the luncheon. Among those present were: R. Duane Halford, Rock Rapids; Elbert M. Prichard, Onawa; Norman D. Mutchler, Harlan; Butch Shurenky, Ponca, Neb.; Jack Loff, Sanborn; Norman Mathers, Rock Rapids; Walter Olsen, Sheldon; Wally Hanson, Orange City; Russ Kraai, Holstein; Francis Jones, Newell; John Kolp, Manson; Glen R. Burrow, Sac City; Wayne Miller, Sheldon; Forrest H. Chandler, Denison; Jim Steck, Sibley; C. H. Bones, Anthon; Glenn M. Squires, Charter Oak; Jack Larson, Merrill; Dale Norton, Spencer; Orin Goodrich, Sr., Jefferson; Lee Barks, Orange City; Joe DeMaine, Holly Springs; Don Ballantine, Worthington, Minn.; George Prichard, Onawa; Paul Combs, Aberdeen, S. D.; Merle Kingsbury, Ponca, Neb.; Fletcher Kettle, Chicago, Ill.; Milton Lory, Harold Bollman, Art Hinkley, Dwight Hauff, Lowell Crippen, E. Faye Rorapaugh, Nathan Goldberg, Wayne Menter, Warner Taylor, Herrold Asmussen, Oscar Broyer, Nick Karroll, Fred Rosenbaum and Frank Henderson of Sioux City. Faculty members present were: Prof. Van Horne, Dean Tweito, Dr. Roadman, Paul B. Clark, Les Davis, Al Buckingham and Ira Gwinn.

CLASS NOTES

Roene G. Brooks, '33, has a position in the division of foreign personnel in the department of state, Washington, D. C. Her address is 705 18th St. N. W.

Interesting news of Harold Larson, graduate of the class of '27 and a prominent debater, has come from Max A. Kopstein, '25, Chicago attorney. Max writes: "Harold is presently chief historian of the army transportation corps in World War II, with headquarters at the Pentagon building in Washington. I had the pleasure of a 15-minute conversation via short wave radio and telephone with him a few weeks ago. He spoke from Seoul, Korea, to a station in Glenview, Illinois, which "piped" me in by long distance telephone."

Eugene Allen, ex '36, is a salesman and heating engineer for the Crane Company in Seattle, Wash.

Mrs. Edgar McCracken (Helen Pearson, '39), director of the Mothersingers choral group of the P. T. A. in Sioux City, conducted a request repetition concert of the May musical presented by the choir, on Sunday, October 5, in East High school.

Mrs. Vi Cheng Liu (Vera Wang, '44) is finishing her senior year in the medical school at the University of Michigan. Vera lives at 1358 Geddes, Ann Arbor, Mich.

Owen Tommeraasen, ex '46, is a senior in the Northern Illinois College of Optometry. His address is 4170 Drexel Blvd., Chicago, Ill.

Rev. Earl E. Josten, '26, 2824 49th St., Des Moines, Ia., is beginning his first year as pastor of the Immanuel Methodist Church there. The past four years Earl has served the churches at Jordan and Carlisle.

Miss Ruth Schuler, ex '29, recently resigned her position with the California state department of social welfare to become Mrs. Ralph W. Stewart, and is living at 1708 1/2 E. Palmer Ave., Compton, Calif.

Miss Mary Treglia, '33, executive director of the Community House, has added another national honor to recognitions in the social service field. She is a newly elected member of the board of directors of the National Federation of Settlements, Inc., of New York. The federation is composed of accredited settlement houses from coast to coast, with affiliates in Canada, Mexico and European countries.

Gov. Robert D. Blue has announced that preliminary steps have been taken leading to a study of the organizational setup and problems of the state conservation commission. According to the governor the commission has named Ira N. Gabrielson, '12, president of the Wildlife Management Institute and former director of the United States fish and wildlife service, to undertake the study, which will be a complete "unbiased inventory" of the commission, including its departmental setup, its program, and laws affecting it.

A former Morningside student, Anthony Kooiker, ex '42, has been chosen by concert violinist Albert Spaulding to be his accompanist during a concert tour of the United States. Mr. Kooiker studied under Professor Reistrup for two years.

Among Morningsiders who made solo appearances with the Monahan Post Band, under the direction of Leo Kucinski, at their popular summer concerts the past season at Grandview Park, were: Doris Davis ('39) Rawson, contralto; Robert E. Lowry, '42, clarinetist; Lois McCallum, '48, soprano; Emery Stewart, '47, baritone; Robert L. Brooks, '41, baritone; Mary Jane Conrad ('47) deVries, soprano, and Paul Snyder, ex '35, baritone.

Almost the entire staff of teachers in the Sergeant Bluffs schools this year is composed of Morningsiders, with Harvey O. Peterson, '26, superintendent, and Mabel Hutchings, '30, acting principal. The high school coach is Ed Kerns, ex '45; Harold McGilvra, ex '41, is in charge of the music, and Louise Thoms, '47, teaches social science. In the grades Evelynne Spooner, '47, teaches seventh grade; Leta Stribly and Myrtle Anderson, summer school students at Morningside, are teaching sixth and fifth grades, respectively; Mrs. H. B. Hawthorn, '47, was appointed third grade instructor; Margaret Johnson (ex '49) Mesmer, second grade, and Phyllis Snyder (ex '48) Krusenstjerna, kindergarten.

In the September 22 Iowa Legionnaire appears the picture of the trio of the American Legion Auxiliary of Lake View, Ia., who, after winning the Iowa championship, entered the national competition and were rewarded with top national honors in trio singing. They sang at the national convention held in New York City August 28-31. Two of the trio members are Morningside graduates: Mrs. George Thacker (Gail Riter, '38), second soprano, and Mrs. Keith Irwin (Annabelle Bowen, '37). Both Gail and Annabelle have taught music in public schools and have given private lessons.

Golda Kane Moser, '22, who came back to attend the 25th reunion of her class at Commencement in June, writes that she has been detached from active duty with the Navy to attend the University of Southern California, where she plans to complete work for her master's degree. She will then return to her former teaching position with the Los Angeles city schools, from which she has been on military leave for nearly five years. Her sister, Mrs. Roger Lee Merritt (Wanda Kane, '24), and husband are living at 13019 Oxnard street, Van Nuys, Calif., where they have bought a home.

Mrs. Leo Uhl (Gladys Timm, '30), who has spent some time in Sioux City visiting her parents, has gone to Watertown, Wis., where her husband is manager of the Gamble store there.

Paul Grayson Sloan, '41, instructor in instrumental music in Sioux City schools, received his master's degree in music education at the University of Michigan the past summer.

Capt. ('40) and Mrs. Robert Hakala (Lucile Pippett, '45) are living at Ft. Benning, Ga., where Bob is attending associate advance course No. 1 at the infantry school, after receiving a regular army appointment last June. Bob expects to go to Korea in February, 1948, and Lucile will follow when her shipping orders arrive. Both are anticipating their sojourn in a foreign country with much pleasure.

Mrs. Ben W. Rieke (Marion Johnson, '18) writes that she is living again in Waseca, Minn. The Rieke children, one son and two daughters, are all attending college, the son being a graduate student at Wisconsin University.

Milton Lory (ex '20), Sioux City traveler and lecturer, has been very busy all fall showing motion pictures and lecturing before many groups on his world travels, which include tours of 47 countries. He and Mrs. Lory plan to spend Thanksgiving in Washington with his brother, Hillis, and family.

Rev. Daryl Williams, '35, is instructor in the department of philosophy at Illinois Wesleyan University this year.

Mr. (ex '31) and Mrs. Wesley Hatter (Betty Mead, '28) are living in San Diego, Calif., where Wesley is practicing dentistry following his graduation from dental school in San Diego. Their son, who is studying dentistry also, plans to practice with his father.

Fletcher C. Kettle, '31, is vice-president of the Larry Burns Motor Co., Inc., in Chicago, located at 3456 Broadway. Fletcher was on the campus briefly during Homecoming week-end and attended the "M" Club luncheon.

Frank Gibbs, '35, has a thriving insurance business in Honolulu, Hawaii. The Gibbs reside at 1935 Makiki.

Rev. Laird V. Loveland, '35, is pastor of the First Methodist Church in Salt Lake City. His address is 63 S. Ninth street.

Allan Kline, '15, president of the Iowa Farm Bureau Federation, told a meeting of the Iowa State Teachers Association that "two terms is my limit" as president of the Iowa Farm Bureau Federation. Allan now is completing his second term as president and will not be a candidate for re-election at the annual federation convention in Des Moines November 17-20. As vice president of the American Farm Bureau Federation, he is considered the logical successor to the presidency of that group when Ed O'Neal, the present president, retires or vacates the office.

New officers of the alumnae Zetaethans elected for the coming year at the business meeting following the Homecoming luncheon of Kappa Zeta Chi sorority at the Mayfair hotel are: Mrs. Harold Wright (Dorothy Jones, '42), president; Mrs. Thomas Green (Lois Emme, '45), vice president; and Mrs. Gary Wallman (Mildred Wikert, '41), secretary-treasurer.

Alumnae of Kappa Pi Alpha sorority of Morningside College met at the home of Miss Lorraine Verstegen, 2503 McDonald street, for their November meeting. Mrs. M. E. Graber reviewed "American Daughter," by EraBell Thompson, '33.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Williges (Margaret Goudie, ex '18) are making an extended visit in South American countries. They flew to Guatemala to begin their tour and plan to be gone until late spring.

(Account of game taken from the 1919 Sioux.)

On November 10, 1917, occurred one of the two greatest events in Morningsides' football history. Although defeated by two touchdowns the showing that the Maroons made against one of the best football teams in the country will never be forgotten by the largest crowd that ever saw a football game in Sioux City. The score cannot in any measure indicate how heroically Coach Saunderson's men fought their more experienced opponents, only to taste defeat as a result of two intercepted passes. It was the first defeat the Maroons have suffered on their home field for three years. The game was a battle royal between the two lines. Pitted against men who were used to battering and hammering their opponents, the Maroon line was able to hold its own, Notre Dame making but six first downs throughout the game, while Morningside had fifteen. Time and again Beck and Swartz broke through and stopped plays before they were started. Northup, although handicapped by his two dislocated shoulders, put up his characteristic smashing game. Menefee played the best game he ever played, breaking up play after play aimed at his end. The Notre Dame players could not praise too highly the work of Menefee and Johnson and classed them with the best in the country. Dubel, Goodrich and Hinkley also did sensational work in puncturing the Notre Dame line and in open field running. The Notre Dame first score came in the second quarter when Rydesewski, the big Catholic captain, intercepted a Maroon forward pass and raced down the field forty yards for a touchdown. The other touchdown came near the end of the third quarter after a Notre Dame man had carried another intercepted pass to the Maroon twenty-five yard line. A lucky pass to King netted them twenty more. After three attempts Brandy managed to squirm through the line for a touchdown. From every aspect it was the finest football game ever seen in Sioux City, and Morningsiders have a right to feel proud of their team that really outplayed the team "that beat the Army."

Reunion of Former Maroons

Although the final game of the season with the Bison of North Dakota State was cancelled due to inclement weather and a snow covered field, the Maroons were hosts to some very special guests. All members of the 1917 and 1919 Morningside football teams that played Notre Dame had been invited to be guests of the coaching staff and the football squad at a steak dinner at the Student Union Saturday evening, November 15.

The former grid stars gathered from distant parts of the country and each in turn expressed his pleasure at being able to attend this 30th year reunion and being given the opportunity to reminisce over the good old days. All were enthusiastic over plans to meet again in ten years, when it is hoped that the members of the 1917 and 1919 squads who were unable to be present this time can attend.

Messages of regret were received from Lee Hornney, '20, New York City; Harold (Hap) Raun, '20, Storm Lake, Ia.; Dale (Skinny) Norton, '19, Spencer, Ia., and Lawrence Pearce, ex '21, Des Moines, Ia.

Those attending the dinner who played against Notre Dame in 1917 were: Ralph Pitman, president of the Charter Bank of Philadelphia; Orin Goodrich, Sr., merchant at Jefferson, Ia.; Horace Wulf, editor of The Calumet Daily News, Chicago; Victor Menefee, Sr., employed by the Illinois Central Railroad in Sioux City; Axel Beck, attorney at Elk Point, S. D.; Faye Rorapaugh, employed in the Sioux City post office; Arthur Hinkley, insurance business, Sioux City; Milton Lory, lecturer and traveler, Sioux City; Carroll Northup, insurance business, Sioux City, and Tom Lloyd, recently discharged from service, Spencer, Ia. Coach Davis played on the 1919 squad which held Notre Dame 14-6.

Of this group Vic Menefee and Orin K. Goodrich had sons who played football for Morningside College. Orin Goodrich earned a major award in 1942 and many Maroon followers will remember the playing of Vic Menefee, jr., last year on the Maroon squad.

Attend Reunion Dinner

row—E. Faye Rorapaugh, '21; Milton Lory, ex '20; Axel Beck, '20; Carroll Northup, '20; Victor Menefee, ex '22. Horace Wulf, '18, attended the dinner but was unable to stay for the picture.

Maroons End Season with .500 Average

The Morningside College Maroons completed the 1947 grid season with four wins and four losses. The four losses were all loop games, which placed them in sixth place in the North Central Conference, one game above the North Dakota State Bison, who occupy the cellar position with five conference losses.

The Maroons started off the 1947 season strongly by defeating three non-conference foes handily. In their season opener they took the measure of Dakota Wesleyan 23-7, and followed it the next week by handing Kansas Wesleyan a 17-7 defeat, and then traveled to Omaha to defeat Omaha University 16-6. In their first conference appearance the Maroons lost to an underrated Augustana eleven 14-7. The Maroons almost spoiled their traditional rivals' Dakota Day festivities when fate intervened and the South Dakota Coyotes capitalized on a mistake in the fourth quarter to score a 21-19 victory. The Panthers of Iowa State Teachers followed suit and trounced the Maroons 31-13 at their homecoming. The Maroons, however, salvaged another non-loop tilt and defeated the Midland College Warriors 15-0. South Dakota State spoiled the Maroon homecoming by downing them 13-0 in what turned out to be the season finale. The game with North Dakota State which was to have been played last week was canceled because of the poor condition of the playing field due to a recent snowfall. The Maroons outscored their opponents 110-99.

Individually, Bob Hooks and Connie Callahan provided the one-two punch in the Maroon backfield. Hooks, the leading scorer with 55 points, is also the top ground gainer with 714 yards in 120 attempts for an average of 5.95. Callahan has netted 465 yards in the 90 times he's carried the ball from scrimmage for an average of 5.17.

Maroon Football Award Winners Announced

Athletic Director Les Davis has announced that 25 Maroon football players will receive major award letters.

Of this group only three, Green, Peterson and Wickstrom, are seniors, and the remaining lettermen are expected back next fall to form the nucleus of the 1948 Maroon football team.

The honorary captain and most valuable players will be announced at the annual football banquet of the Greater Sioux City Athletic Association to be held December 1.

Historical Exhibit Attracts Visitors

The Iowa historical exhibit, which was open to the public at the college Saturday and Sunday in connection with Homecoming activities, attracted many visitors.

Saturday, after the Homecoming game, a technicolor film on Iowa was shown to a good audience. The exhibit included 80 Iowa centennial celebration pictures supplied by the Library of Congress.

14 Students Play in Symphony Orchestra

Anything from business law to solid geometry comes bounding forth from the south barracks on week days. But on Sunday, as the clock rounds three in the afternoon, Leo Kucinski begins the rehearsal with the symphony orchestra. In spite of the fact that the orchestra is a city-wide organization, it has always been closely affiliated with Morningside. At present, 14 of the 65 members are conservatory students.

MORNINGSIDER DIRECTORY

Editor's note: Continuing in this issue the Morningsider is listing by classes the names and addresses of alumni and ex-students as they are recorded in the files in the alumni office at the present time.

Addresses of some alumni and many ex-students, especially of those students in the early classes, are unknown or incorrect. If you know the address of any of these "lost" students, you will be doing your friend and us a favor by sending the correct information to the Alumni Office.

Ex-students are listed below the alumni in each class and designated by Ex before the first name.
